FIFTEEN MILLION REASONS TO PLAY

A total of $15.2 million is up for grabs Saturday when a record 105 horses will face the starter for Breeders' Cup XVII at Churchill Downs. The fields include no fewer than 16 supplementary nominations, including the afternoon's heaviest morning-line favorite, Riboletta (Brz) (Roi Normand), who will depart from post nine as the 4-5 choice in the Distaff. "The post doesn't make any difference," commented trainer Eduardo Inda. "I like the outside. (Jockey) Chris (McCarron) said at Hollywood Park that she preferred to be on the outside." The five-year-old mare is one of a handful of candidates for Horse-of-the-Year honors who will race beneath the Twin Spires. Kentucky Derby winner Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector) is the 8-5 favorite in the $4.7 million Classic, as he squares off against fellow Horse of the Year candidate Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), the 5-1 co-second choice. A $4 million yearling purchase, Fusaichi Pegasus will be making his final career start in the Classic. "When he was purchased, the two races we wanted to win with him were the Kentucky Derby and the Breeders' Cup Classic," said trainer Neil Drysdale, who will also saddle 4-1 Mile favorite War Chant (Danzig). "He's won the Derby and is a fresh horse for the Classic. He is right where he is supposed to be." FuPeg sets sail from the nine hole. A last-minute entrant, Montjeu (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) has been made the 5-2 choice in the afternoon's penultimate event, the Turf. The Michael Tabor colorbearer, fourth in the G1 Arc de Triomphe and second to Kalanis (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}) in the G1 Dubai Champion S. Oct. 14, will break from post position number four in what will be his final trip postward. Kona Gold (Java Gold), third in the 1998 Sprint at Churchill, was second in last year's renewal at Gulfstream Park and is the deserving favorite this time around at 5-2 from the 10 hole. The Todd Pletcher tandem of More Than Ready (Southern Halo) and Trippi (End Sweep) drew posts one and two respectively. "If I was picking posts for this race," Pletcher said, "No. 1 would be my 14th pick and No. 2 would have been my 13th pick." The other favorites include Petrushka (Ire) (Unfuwain) in the Filly & Mare Turf at 5-2; Flame Thrower (Saint Ballado) is favored at 3-1 in the Juvenile; and undefeated Raging Fever (Storm Cat) is the 7-2 morning line choice in the Juvenile Fillies.

Crimplene (Lion Cavern) was impressive in a morning work yesterday, clocking six furlongs in a sharp 1:13 handily over the main track with jockey Frankie Dettori in the saddle. "They only really cantered the first half of it--Frankie said they were just going steady--so she finished exceptionally fast," said trainer Clive Brittain. "I'm really delighted with her."

That was his first run since June, however, and he soon regained the winning thread when successful twice here in October in valuable conditions events. Here he stepped up in class and trip against his elders, having raced exclusively at six furlongs previously, to deny the tough Xua in an exciting finish. In fact, it had looked as if that filly had made a decisive winning move with a furlong and a half remaining, when she passed Low Pivot, but he fought back spiritedly to claim his first stakes success on the line.

Search Party finished seventh behind Gaviola in her turf debut and her second attempt at graded-stakes company, Saratoga's GII Lake Placid H. Aug. 21. Following a one-month hiatus, the filly came back and ran third in a Belmont allowance race Sept. 14 on the main track, but regrouped for this outing and came home a narrow winner. Pushing Pompeii along for the opening half mile, the Shug McGaughey-trained three-year-old quickened, took command and held sway to beat that favorite by a small margin.

Bailey In Line For Gulfstream Racing Secretary Position:

Gulfstream Park Assistant Racing Secretary Dave Bailey is the leading candidate to take over as racing secretary for the coming meeting, according to reliable sources. Bailey, assistant to Bob Umphrey since 1994, served as racing secretary at the recently completed Arlington International meet. The Gulfstream position became available when Umphrey decided to go full time with Calder Race Course and its parent company Churchill Downs. Gulfstream's backside opens for training on Monday, Nov. 6.

Truluck to Texas:

Multiple graded-stakes winner Truluck (Conquistador Cielo--Michelle Mon Amour, by Best Turn) has been retired from racing and will stand the 2001 breeding season at Stoneview Farm near Hempstead, Texas. Trained by Elliott Walden for Robert and Janice McNair's Stonerside Stable, the bay was third to Event of the Year in the GII Jim Beam S. in 1998, but registered his most important victories in the GIII Fifth Season Breeders' Cup at Oaklawn Park in 1999 and later that season captured the GIII Salvator Mile at Monmouth Park. Five-year-old Truluck was bred by his owners in conjunction with Arthur B. Hancock. Stonerside will retain an interest in the stallion.

EDDERY OK FOR LODGE Pat Eddery was handed the chance yesterday to attempt to gain his third Breeders' Cup success, as the ban he picked up last week at Redcar was overturned. Eddery's appeal against the four-day ban for irresponsible riding was upheld by the disciplinary committee of the Jockey Club at Portman Square, leaving Eddery free to ride Indian Lodge (Ire) (Grand Lodge {USA}) in Saturday's Breeders' Cup Mile at Churchill Downs. "I'm very, very pleased indeed," Eddery remarked. "I felt I always had to appeal, as the decision on the day was wrong. I'm very much looking forward to taking the ride aboard Indian Lodge in the Mile on Saturday."

NO GO AT WINDSOR Yesterday's card at Windsor became the latest casualty of the storm that has wreaked havoc in Britain this week. "We've had to abandon," said clerk of the course Chris Stickels after a morning inspection. "The course is still waterlogged in places. We have had three inches of rain since the weekend. The course is not raceable today and there are no prospects for any improvement."

LEVY SCHEME AGREEMENT

The Horserace Betting Levy Board and the Bookmakers' Committee yesterday reached agreement on the terms of the 40th Levy Scheme, avoiding government involvement in the process. The decisive factor, a push for a reduction in General Betting Duty, helped the representatives from racing and bookmaking to unite and come together. The rates marked out offer the chance to raise £60 million, a figure which can only aid in the growth of the horseracing industry in Britain. Robert Hughes, the Levy Board Chairman, said today: "I would like to congratulate everyone involved in securing an agreement. The result is that the racing and bookmaking industries have presented a united front in sending a message to the Chancellor that a cut in GBD is needed urgently. If he responds at an adequate level, the British bookmaking industry will be stabilised and racing's funding will be strengthened."

GO RACING STEP UP MEDIA RIGHTS ISSUE

Go Racing have now upped the stakes for the best deal for media coverage of racing in Britain by offering a deal worth £750 million, the previous best was £400 million from Carlton before yesterday. The Go Racing consortium, comprising of Arena Leisure, BSkyB, and Channel 4, offer a deal covering all 59 racecourses over 10 years on both a terrestrial and interactive level. Ian Penrose of Arena Leisure said: "We are delighted that Go Racing is in a position to go ahead with its plan. We believe this is the best solution."

MAYVILLE THUNDER (GB) (c, 2, Zilzal {USA}--Mountain Lodge {GB} {G1SW-Ire, SW & GSP-GB, $142,447}, by Blakeney {GB}), sent off the even-money favourite, was slowly away as Gilda (Ire) (Goldmark {USA}) set the early pace. Pressed by jockey Kevin Darley to take closer order as they turned into the straight, he eventually picked up So Tempting (GB) (So Factual {USA}) with a furlong remaining before going away to beat that horse by three-parts of a length. A half brother to Compton Ace (GB) (Pharly {Fr}), GSW & G1SP-GB, $108,170, he was a 75,000gns TAOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £3,140.
