UP TO THE TEST

Testa Rossa (Aus) (Perugino) took his earnings to A$2,940,240 recording his sixth Group 1 win in G1 Emirates S., the final Group 1 feature of the Victorian carnival. The four-year-old, whose stud future at Victorian Stud Yallambee was officially launched this week, settled well back in the 16-horse field after starting from the widest barrier. Rounding the turn, jockey Patrick Payne wound the speedster up to romp through to a convincing win, his first G1 victory over a trip further than seven furlongs. Testa Rossa started at 15-1 after failing to place in the Cox Plate and the G1 Yalumba S. at his past two starts. Connections will now consider a tilt at either the Hong Kong Mile or Cup at Sha Tin in December as well as a possible campaign in Europe, targeting the G1 July Cup at Newmarket. "To win the July Cup would double his stud value and make him viable as a dual-hemisphere stallion," said trainer Dean Lawson. "From barrier 16 we knew he had to go back. I really didn't expect him to win today, there was too much against him and we thought he needed a bit of luck. But to win like that was just great." Testa Rossa's Group 1 tally includes the Sires Produce S., the Vic Health Cup, the Lightning S., the Futurity S. and the Eat Well Live Well Cup.

'MOON' SHINES ON LONG ISLAND

Moonlady (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) had proven herself adept on heavy and yielding going in her native Germany, and handled a muddy track with alacrity in winning the GIII Long Island H. at Aqueduct yesterday. The bay filly had won five of her seven starts in Germany, including the G3 Deutscher Stutenpreis Sept. 10 and the G2 Deutsches St Leger Oct. 10 at Dortmund, but was no threat when seventh in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Longchamp Oct. 22, her first foreign foray. Racing with Lasix here, she broke alertly and tracked Free Vacation (Fly So Free) in the early stages, moving up to put a head in front with a half mile to go. With a clear advantage turning for home, she widened her advantage through the stretch and remained well clear of fellow Euro shipper Playact (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}). "They told me that she was pretty much one-paced," said winning jockey Chris DeCarlo. "She was moving comfortably down the backstretch, and at the 3/8 pole I asked her to run and she took off."

Illiquidity held sway in the final strides to come away with her first graded victory. Winner of the Dade Turf Classic at Ellis Park three back, the bay filly stretched out to 12 furlongs in taking the Dowager S. at Keeneland Oct. 28. The Stonerside colorbearer, never more than four lengths from the front, loomed boldly on the turn for home and opened up by 1 1/2 lengths in midstretch. Responding to the urgings of jockey Jon Court, she staved off the challenges of even-money License Fee from the inside and Miss of Wales from the outside. "I was a little concerned that we had made the lead too early," Court remarked. "I knew there were some powerful closers in there, and I knew they would be coming at us. The speed had backed up to us and she naturally inherited the lead. Taking the lead like we did was just the way it shaped up." Winning trainer Pat Byrne noted his charge's tendency to wait on horses. "If she gets to the lead too soon, she begins to loaf," he said. "You get a bit nervous when you run back in two weeks like we did today. Everything worked out, though."

Successful at this track in the 12-furlong Listed Prix Panacee Oct. 23, Aiglonne doubled her stakes tally and recorded her first group race win over this shorter trip with a well-timed run to secure victory. Jockey Goulven Toupel tried restraining tactics, but Aiglonne raced keenly in sixth as Limelighting led from Kantia (Ire) (Seattle Dancer), Nadira and Caerau (GB) (Nashwan), and made progress to challenge on the outside at the quarter-mile marker. One of two choices from John Gosden's stable, Limelighting proved game from the front and showed no signs of faltering as the field swept into the final eighth. Toupel's persistence aboard Aiglonne proved decisive in the closing stages as his mount responded well to pressure and grabbed the lead inside the final fifty yards for a tactically astute score. Limelighting proved to be a model of tenacity and held on grimly from Nadira in the dying strides, getting the judge's verdict in a three-way photo for second.

JIG TOPS KEENELAND SATURDAY Selling as a racing/broodmare prospect, Jig (Ire) (Catrail) topped all prices at yesterday's session of the Keeneland November Sale when she brought a bid of $360,000 from Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services, Inc. Offered by Newgate Stud Farm, Inc., the bay filly is a half sister to multiple Group-winning Dance Parade and to GSW Ocean Queen. Out of the stakes-winning Irish River (Fr) mare River Jig, Jig is a winner in both England and the U.S. First-year sires continued to be popular among weanling buyers, with a colt by GI Florida Derby winner Cape Town (Seeking the Gold) drawing a bid of $160,000 from Buzz Chace, agent, to top all foals. From the consignment of Claiborne Farm, agent, he is out of a half sister to stakes winners Hitch and Thread. Tale of the Cat maintained his strong showing at this sale, with his filly out of Basking (Alydar) going for $150,000 to Dromoland Farm. Numbers were down slightly across the board from 1999, with the gross dipping from $12.8 million to $10.1 million. The average of $39,257 was down from last year's figure of $44,194. The bay filly, a half sister to stakes-placed Dehere of the Dog, was consigned by Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services, Inc. The November Sale continues through Saturday, Nov. 18. Bidding begins at 10 a.m. daily.

SKELTON VICTORIOUS IN LEGENDS Bob Skelton, who won the 1976 Melbourne Cup aboard Van der Hum (NZ), defeated a field of international champions in yesterday's Emirates Airlines Legends race at Flemington, Australia, according to Sporting Life on-line. The 65-year-old jockey piloted Pegquoz (Aus) (Alquoz {USA}) home to a two-length victory over jockey Julie Krone's five-year-old mount Touch Of Mahogany (Aus) (Last Tycoon {Ire}). Nine-time Derby-winning jockey Lester Piggott took third on Bay Scenery (Aus) (Scenic {Ire}) in the four-furlong event.

Dynamic Trick, sporting a .500 average on the Laurel turf, took command in the stretch for his second straight stakes score and first graded success. The dark bay rebounded from an eighth in the Da Hoss S. at Colonial Downs in September to win the Bald Eagle Breeders' Cup H. over this course Oct. 22. Breaking alertly, he shadowed Maria's Tiara (Magic Prospect) through pedestrian fractions of :50 4/5 and 1:15 4/5. Called on for his run in the stretch, he grabbed the lead and stayed on bravely as the field closed in on him, getting home a neck the better of Adcat. "We were closer today because this horse was coming out of a race with a real fast pace," said winning jockey Mark Johnston. "At a mile and a half they [the riders] tend to slow the pace down, and a lot of time horses racing up close [are able to] finish and the closers can't catch them. That's exactly what happened today."

Zillah the Hun maintained his unbeaten record in winning his first graded stakes. After breaking his maiden by seven lengths at Fairplex, the bay colt tried the grass and responded with a front-running score in the Pinjara S. at Oak Tree Oct. 19. Back on dirt here, he chased pacesetter l'madrifter to the stretch and began to make up ground in the final furlong, but appeared to be heading for second at that time. l'madrifter veered suddenly into the rail, unseating jockey Miguel Perez. Zillah the Hun maintained his course and crossed the line clear of Jumron Won. "That was pretty wild," said winning jockey Corey Nakatani. "My colt is still a little green. Coming into the stretch, he was getting dirt kicked in his face and was kind of playing. He leveled out when I hit him left-handed and started to close the gap. I think it [the finish] was going to be pretty close at the wire." l'madrifter emerged with a few scratches, but no serious injuries. Perez was taken to San Mateo County Hospital for precautionary X-rays.

7th-AQU, $46,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1m, 1:38 2/5, sy.
HEARTS AT RISK (g, 4, Septieme Ciel--Missy Valentine, by Raja Baba) hadn't visited the winner's circle since taking the Mike Lee S. over fellow New York-breds in June of 1999, but had been on the board in six of 10 subsequent starts. The runner-up in the restricted Gen. Douglas MacArthur H. two back Sept. 8, he lacked a rally in his latest, finishing ninth in the Hudson H. at Belmont Oct. 21. Taking on open-company allowance rivals here, the dark bay tracked a moderate early pace, moved to challenge after six furlongs and splashed to the front in the stretch en route to a 1 3/4-length score as the 2-1 second choice. Lifetime Record: MSW, 21-5-5-4, $314,384.
 O/B-Albert Fried Jr (NY). T-Richard Schosberg.

8th-AQU, $43,000, Alw, 2yo, 6f, 1:11 1/5, my.
MUSKRAT RAMBLE (c, 2, Dixieland Band--Premier Question {MSW & GSP, $526,013}, by Premiership) graduated by 4 1/4 lengths when dropped in for a $40,000 tag over a mile at Belmont Oct. 5. The 11-1 shot stumbled at the start, but came with a four-wide move and outbattled Free of Love (Meadow Flight) by a head. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-1, $46,870.
 O-Conway, Cornacchia & Dematteis. B-Hill 'n' Dale Farm & John Franks (KY). T-Nicholas P Zito.

5th-AQU, $42,000, Msw, 2yo, 1m, 1:39 4/5, sy.
OVER THE HORIZON (c, 2, Seeking the Gold--Blitey {MGSW & MGISP, $297,746}, by Riva Ridge) raced greenly in his debut, but still managed to rally for fifth in that six-furlong test at Belmont Park Oct. 14. Going a one-turn mile at the Big A in his second start, the 1/2 to Dancing All Night (Nijinsky II), GSW, $185,420; Dancing Spree (Nijinsky II), MGISW, $1,470,484; Fantastic Find (Mr. Prospector), GISW, $335,410; and Furlough (Easy Goer), GISW, $671,844, was well back for the opening half, but finished full of run to catch Invisible Ink (Thunder Gulch) in the final strides and post a three-quarter length score at generous 9-1 odds. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $26,430.
 O-Phipps Ogden. B-Phipps Stable (KY). T-Claude McGaughey III.

A maiden winner at Arlington Aug. 26, Gold Huntress took on graded-stakes company in her second start and was not disgraced finishing fourth in the GIII Arlington-Washington Lassie Sept. 30. Facing a softer field this time, the dark bay came from off the pace to take a short lead as they wheeled out of the turn and held off second choice Shirley Temper to become the first stakes winner for her freshman sire (by Seeking the Gold).

Wade for Me rallied strongly to take the Gill Modesty H. on the turf at Arlington July 30, but failed to be a factor in three subsequent outings, including a sixth in the Due Bill H. over this surface Oct. 28. In midpack early, the chestnut mare weaved her way through traffic and finished with flair for the victory.

Margins: 9HF, NK, 3. Odds: 5.50, 16.50, 3.20.

Wild Again Again started his career at Retama Park, breaking his maiden by 9 3/4 lengths in state-bred company in August and coming back to take an open allowance race by 5 1/4 lengths Sept. 1. Shipping east to make his stakes debut in this restricted event, the dark bay kept the leaders in his sights down the backstretch, powered to the front as they raced into the stretch and left the field in the dust for another impressive victory.

7th-CDX, $54,450, Alw, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:10, ft.

1--SAND RIDGE, 121, h, 5, Known Fact--Skybox (SP), by Spend a Buck. O-Thunderhead Farms; B-Sally S Humphrey & Richard K Means Jr (KY); T-Don Von Hemel. Lifetime Record: GSP, 25-7-3-7, $253,969.

Margins: 1, HD, NK. Odds: 2.70, 6.70, 1.40.

Sand Ridge, never off the board in four previous Churchill Downs appearances, returned after a five-month layoff to capture a Keeneland allowance Oct. 27. Looking to make it two in a row, the dark bay settled off a solid pace, kicked it into gear in the lane and proved best in the drive.

6th-CDX, $39,370, Msw, 3/up, f/m, 6.5f, 1:18 3/5, ft.

SIREN SONG (f, 3, Salt Lake--Tank's Fantasy, by Tank's Prospect) finished third at Arlington in August, went to the shelf for a month and a half, then came back to be second with blinkers added at Keeneland Oct. 15. Bet down to 4-5 off that effort, the $70,000 KEESEP yearling closed from midpack to put a head in front as they straightened for home and pulled away to a 2 1/4-length tally. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-2, $42,965. O-Epona Farm. B-Eaton Farms Inc & Red Bull Stable (KY). T-Richard J Lundy.

Airy Hill broke his maiden in his debut at Saratoga July 26, but tired vs. allowance company at the Spa in his next outing and finished seventh. The chestnut moved to the turf in his third try and ran a solid second in the Continental Mile at Monmouth Park Sept. 2, then returned to the dirt for his latest and was the runner-up again, this time in an Aqueduct allowance test Oct. 27. Favored facing stakes foes for the second time, he pressed the pace from the outset, took a short lead as they came into the stretch and edged clear.

A winner in her first two starts, including the Ontario Debutante S. in August, Poetically tried two turns for the first time in the GI Mazarine Breeders' Cup S. Sept. 23 and finished fourth over a sloppy Woodbine strip. Catching a fast track in her latest, the bay finished second, beaten just a half length, in the Princess Elizabeth S. Oct. 14. The odds-on choice to return to the winner's circle this time, she stalked a fast pace, swept to the lead as they raced around the far turn and cruised to the wire a decisive winner. "I love this filly," trainer Roger Attfield said. "I had the whole family. I trained the mother, the brother [Whiskey Wisdom] and the sister [Primaly]. She's a class act." The winner could go next in the Ontario Lassie S. Nov. 25.

5th-LRL, $28,000, Alw, 2yo, f, 8.5fT, 1:43 1/5, fm. MOUNT OLIVE (f, 2, Kris S.--Myrrh, by Damascus), fourth facing Saratoga allowance foes in her career opener, came back to beat maidens on the turf at Colonial Downs Oct. 10 and was the 13-10 chalk to add an allowance score here. The dark bay bided her time near the back of the pack for a half, rallied at the top of the lane and outfinished 8-1 Ghaza Run (Ghazi) by a half length. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $27,720. Taking another jump up in class, the 1/2 to Showtime Deb (Hatchet Man), MSW, $204,848, was rated off moderate fractions, but came with a solid late kick that carried him to a neck victory over Audmar (Exbourne) at 8-1 odds. Making her turf debut in her latest, she set the early pace, but tired to be seventh over the Santa Anita lawn Oct. 22. Jetin Excess, forced to miss the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies last weekend because of a foot bruise, remained undefeated with this victory. The dark bay filly had handled Cal-breds easily in each of her three prior starts, winning by an average of five lengths, and was sent off as the third choice in her first try against open company. Dueling three wide through a half in :45 1/5, Jetin Excess accelerated off the turn to take the lead as favored Princess Belle rallied up the rail, and kicked clear in deep stretch. "It seems like she has another gear," said winning trainer Pico Perdomo. "Every time she runs, she surprises me." As for the Breeders' Cup, "It broke my heart," Perdomo continued. "But one thing you learn in this game: you don't worry about the money; the horses come first, especially the good horses."

Drilling a bullet :59 1/5 Nov. 5, the bay colt rallied from just off the pace, grabbed the lead inside the eighth pole and edged away late.

Allowed to settle in fifth through fast opening fractions, the Cal-bred filly came running down the lane to win it by a length and a half. Lifetime Record: 8-3-1-1, $100,660.

She was ridden approaching the final furlong, led soon after and was pushed clear in the closing stages for an impressive five-length win from Saint Pantaleon (Fr) (Satin Wood {Ire}).
