HOLY BULL COLT TOPS KEENELAND SUNDAY

A colt by Horse of the Year Holy Bull, sire of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero Macho Uno, brought a final bid of $175,000 as the top-selling weanling at yesterday's session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale in Lexington. The chestnut, whose second dam is GSW Blush (Sir Gaylord), was consigned by John Williams LLC, agent, and purchased by Buzz Chace, agent. The highest price commanded by a broodmare during yesterday's session was also $175,000, as six-year-old Fordyce (Cox's Ridge), carrying a foal from the first crop by champion Victory Gallop (Cryptoclearance), sold to Grade II Bloodstock, agent. The mare is out of MGSW Foresta (Alydar), who set a course record at Belmont Park. The Keeneland November Sale continues through Nov. 18.

Having suffered a fractured pelvis as a juvenile when trained in England by Peter Chapple-Hyam, Dane Friendly's career was seriously threatened. The extent of the injury was such that he missed his entire three-year-old season, but he came back to show good form this year, notably when second to Muhtathir (GB) in the G2 Premio Meilio Turati at Milan May 25 and fourth to Faberger (Ger) in the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua at Milan Oct. 8. Showing he was in fine fettle here, the colt was positioned in third as Banyumanik (Ire) (Perugino) dictated matters from the front. Mirco Demuro asked his mount to make his challenge approaching the final quarter mile and Dane Friendly quickened in good style to win going away. Slaney Squire kept on for second place, but was subsequently demoted to third for causing interference to original third place-getter Blu For Life. The winner will run back in the G1 Premio Roma at Rome Nov. 19.

Coming into this race in good form after taking the G3 Premio Omenoni at Milan Oct. 14, Development made amends for his fifth placing in this race last year with an authoritative display. Showing a liking for the heavy underfoot conditions, he travelled well in the lead from the outset, entered the final furlong with a commanding advantage and ran on strongly to the wire for an unchallenged success.

Chasin' Wimmin, who hasn't been on the turf since May, capitalized when this race was switched to the main track. The five-year-old captured an open allowance race at Belmont in July, then moved into stakes company and finished third in three of his next four starts, including the Aug. 9 Gil Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. and, most recently, the restricted Hudson H. at Belmont Oct. 21. Stretching out off that six-furlong affair, the bay settled in fifth while saving ground down the backstretch, rallied along the rail on the turn, then angled to the outside in the stretch to take the lead and edge clear. "He was having fun running in the back of the pack and, thankfully, the rail opened up for us," said winning jockey Jean-Luc Samyn. "He didn't have a tough time beating these."

Bon Fearless came from off the pace to break her maiden at first asking by four lengths Sept. 27 at Belmont going six furlongs. She was sent straight into stakes company for her next outing, finishing fourth in the one-mile Maid of the Mist S. at Belmont Oct. 21. Back at three-quarters here, she took over after a quarter and drove clear for the win. "I usually don't like to stretch them out and turn them back again, but this looked like a pretty good spot for her," said winning trainer Michael Nevin. "I'll give her a little break. You're going to hear more from her."

Crispy Jet became the first stakes winner for his freshman sire (by Fappiano) in his last outing, the Finger Lakes Juvenile Oct. 7, and added to that tally here. The field's only two-time winner picked up Jerry Bailey and was sent off the third choice. He took the lead shortly after the break, set the pace along the inside and drew clear for the win. "When he matures, I don't think he'll have to be in front," said winning trainer Patricia Bosley. "But I did tell Jerry to use his discretion about the pace." The two-year-old may try open company next in the Nov. 26 six-furlong Huntington S. at Aqueduct.

Ruby Friday broke her maiden in her sixth lifetime start one year ago at Aqueduct and ran in 11 consecutive non-winners-of-one-lifetime events in New York before finding the winner's circle once more Sept. 12 at Belmont. She is now on a streak of a different kind, having won her last three straight, including this, her first stakes victory. The filly was unhurried early, made an inside move on the turn to head for home with just one to catch, switched to the outside and drove home for the victory. "She was doing so well that we were going to take a shot on the turf," said trainer Carlos Martin. "I was tickled to see the race come off the grass. There is moisture in the track and she loves that. We were thinking about giving her the rest of the year off, but it is hard to stop when she is doing so good." The 8-5 favorite Terreavigne (Belong to Me), who had not raced on the dirt since August of '98, was fourth.

2nd-AQU, $41,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:10 3/5, ft. QUIET (f, 2, Roar--Sly Maid {SP}, by Desert Wine) was sixth in his only start to date, back at Belmont June 17, and added Lasix for his second start off a five-month layoff. The $120,000 '99 KESEP yearling become the sixth winner for his freshman sire (by Forty Niner) with a pacesetting trip under Mike Smith, coming home first by 2 1/4 lengths at 7-1. Rest For She's A Devil Due

Ken McPeck has decided to bypass the GII Golden Rod S. at Churchill Downs Nov. 25 with Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies third-place finisher She's A Devil Due (Devil His Due), the trainer said yesterday. "She didn't eat up after she ran," explained McPeck, who added he was planning a spring campaign including the GI Ashland at Keeneland and the GI Kentucky Oaks for his filly. "I think if you give her time off now, you've got a big window of time to get ready for the Ashland and the Oaks," he said. The filly is slated for 45 days off and is scheduled to go back into training at Gulfstream.

Successful in the handicap ranks in England, Senure shipped to the U.S. for his 2000 campaign and found the winner's circle in his very first stateside start, taking a Santa Anita allowance in January. Given nearly four months off after that effort, the dark bay returned to capture the Apr. 29 GIII Fastness H. at Hollywood and followed with a solid fourth-place finish in the May 29 GI Whittingham H. before disappearing once again. Making his first start in 5 1/2 months here, the crowd's choice trailed the field for a half, but swept four wide around the turn and finished fastest of all to catch Self Feeder in the shadow of the wire for the popular score.

The winner of the 1998 Breeders' Cup Sprint, Reraise was named Champion Sprinter that year after a season which spanned just five races and one other stakes win, a 12-length score in the GII Kentucky Cup Sprint. He raced just twice in 1999, but made the most of his opportunities, winning the GIII Count Fleet Sprint H. at Oaklawn in April and the May 2 Oakland H. at Golden Gate. The following month, he strained his right front tendon and had not been back to the races since. The heavy favorite in his return, he dueled for the early lead, inched clear on the turn and held on for the win. "How do you explain it?" said trainer Craig Dollase. "He's been training awfully well and couldn't have come into the race better." Dollase said the Dec. 12 GIII Vernon O. Underwood H. at six furlongs could be next.

GOLDEN TICKET (c, 2, Deposit Ticket--Tide {SW, $234,459}, by Coastal) pressed the pace and tired in his first start Oct. 14 at Santa Anita, but had a couple of nice works since that time and got a little respect from the bettors, who sent him off the 4-1 fourth choice here. The $35,000 '99 KEESEP yearling and $105,000 2000 OBSMAR two-year-old led throughout, coming home under the line in front by 4 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $23,400.

2--Major Force (USA), 127, c, 4, Woodman (USA)--Ready For Action (USA), by Riverman (USA). Ir£5,700.

3--Cois Cuain (Ire), 120, f, 3, Night Shift (USA)--Pitmarie (Ire), by Pitskelly (Ire). Ir£2,700.

Margins: HF, 3/4, SHD. Odds: 16-1, 9-10, 10-1. Also ran: Tiger Royal (Ire), Cayman Sunset (Ire), Sir Ninja (Ire), Cakestown Lady (Ire), Castanetta (Ire), Dance Of Love (Ire), Final Exam (Ire), Kalimanta (Ire), Irina (Ire), Osprey Ridge (Ire).

Formerly trained by Henry Cecil, On The Ridge had been successful on only one previous occasion when winning his maiden at York in 1998. Considering his age, he is lightly raced and has had two runs to date this year. He was second to Hopeful Light (GB) in the Listed Joel S. at Newmarket Sept. 28, and returned to the same track to finish fifth behind Albarahin (USA) in the Listed Darley S. Oct. 13. He secured his first stakes win here with a determined effort for his new connections. The five-year-old was restrained off the pace as Final Exam (Ire) (College Chapel {GB}) dominated the early exchanges. Major Force took over into the straight but On The Ridge made continued progress through the field to challenge approaching the final furlong. The latter took the lead soon after and kept on well under pressure to assert his superiority close to home for the score. Major Force ran on well for second, while Cois Cuain was held up in the rear and finished strongly to grab third.

Scratched: King Of Tara (Ire).

A debut winner at this course June 28, Vinnie Roe was stepped up in class to contest the G3 Juddmonte Beresford S. at The Curragh Oct. 15, and finished third to Turnberry Isle (Ire). He showed the benefit of that experience here to record his first stakes success in good style. The joint second choice was reserved in mid-division as Annie's Luck (Ire) (Lucky Guest {Ire}) led but was pushed along approaching the final turn as Rebelline took over in front. Pat Smullen ensured Vinnie Roe made the necessary progress to challenge approaching the final furlong and his mount responded to take the lead at the distance. He ran on well for pressure thereafter and held a safe advantage at the line for a deserved victory. Rebelline kept on once headed but had no answer to the eventual winner's momentum.
