ROMA BELONGS TO ELLE DANZIG

Elle Danzig (Ger) (Roi Danzig) is becoming something of German folklore, earning the third Group 1 success of her remarkable career yesterday in the Premio Roma in Rome, Italy. The champion three-year-old filly in Germany in 1998, she took the G2 Henkel-Rennen (German 1000 Guineas) and Preis der Diana (German Oaks), before adding the G2 Idee Hansa-Preis at Hamburg, and G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich in August. At four, her season culminated in fine triumph here in this contest 12 months ago, in the heavy conditions that suit her so well. Despite her unplaced effort behind Shiva (Jpn) over that ground in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown May 30, connections persevered and brought her steadily back to the heights of last year. On the virtually bottomless ground yesterday, the mare was brought to the front where she had only Sumitas (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) for company in the early stages. As they entered the straight, the five-year-old mare kicked on as Sumitas started to tread water, and she soon had the race at her mercy. She came home the very impressive winner, while her rivals simply floundered in the mud.

PROUD PREVUE

Making his graded stakes debut and facing open company for the first time, two-year-old Proud Tower (Proud Irish) looked right at home, taking yesterday's GIII Hollywood Prevue S. at Hollywood Park by a confident one length. The colt was coming off a dominant eight-length win in the 1 1/16-miles California Cup Juvenile on Oct. 28. The 3-1 third choice in the field of eight, Proud Tower moved up inside to vie for the early lead. He took a slim lead on the backstretch, edged further clear at the top of the stretch and held sway late over longshot Chinook Cat (Tabasco Cat). "At the half-mile pole, I looked to the outside to see who was up there and didn't see any of the good horses," explained winning rider Victor Espinoza. "So I was thinking, this is over. I made my move and just tried to keep riding hard because he can be a little bit of a lazy horse." Winning trainer Jose Silva said, "I think this horse can run long or short. I like it better short, but he ran good long, too. I think this is one of the nicest horses I'm going to have." Favored Yonaguska (Cherokee Run) rallied four wide into the stretch, but couldn't threaten the top two. Undeclared second choice Our Shining Hour (Gilded Time) stalked the pace five wide, but dropped back leaving the turn, finishing seventh.

A 2 1/2-length winner of the Unicorn S. at Nakayama Sept. 30 on the dirt, chestnut colt remained on that surface to be second, beaten just a length in the Musashino S. over the Tokyo main track surface Oct. 30 in his last start. Bidding his time until the straight, jockey Hitoshi Matoba asked Agnes Digital for his best at the head of the stretch, switched to the outside with a furlong to run and prevailed narrowly.

Feathers, who opened her career with back-to-back wins over this track in May and June, was coming off a 1 3/4-length victory in a Nov. 5 optional claimer. Lightly regarded here, the filly dropped back to last early, moved up on the turn and finished with a rush to get up late for the victory. "She ran a good race," confirmed winning rider Mickey Walls. "She's probably a better filly than she's shown. She's had her problems with the gate, but she put it together today. At the head of the stretch, I didn't think we were going to get there. At the sixteenth pole, the field was starting to come back, so I started to look for some room. The rail opened up. So that's where we went." Trainer Ralph Biamonte added, "We always thought she was a nice filly, but we've gone through some trials and tribulations with her at the gate. We thought she would be okay today, but we thought that other times. Finally she was good. It was a thrill."

Astrapi defeated a state-bred field of Belmont maiden fillies by 18 1/2 lengths Oct. 21 and won here just as convincingly. The Bob Klesaris trainee raced toward the front of the five-horse field, hit top speed on the turn and took command entering the stretch en route to an easy victory. "This was a big jump in class for her," said Klesaris, "and I seldom do something like this, but this filly warranted it. We're going to try to go big time with her at some point." Winning jockey Diane Nelson said, "I had a lot of horse left in the stretch and I think this is the best horse that I've ever been on."

Her She Kissies had a string of seconds in her spring campaign, including the GII El Encino S., GII Barbara Fretchie H. and GII Distaff Breeders' Cup H. Most recently, the filly finished seventh in the June 17 GIII Vagrancy H. at Belmont, before taking a five-month hiatus. Here she overcame bumping at the start to stalk the pace. She headed the leaders at midstretch and went on for a safe winning margin.

Appealing Danger won a state-bred allowance event here Oct. 12 by 5 1/2 lengths before facing open company with a winning effort here. The colt took the lead with two furlongs remaining, opened a three-length advantage in the home stretch and turned back the challenge of Fajardo for the score.

On the heels of the leader Presumed Innocent (Shuailaan) around two turns, the filly wore down the long-time pacesetter in the straight, took to the fore and won by a length over that rival as the 2-1 favorite. MUSICAL (f, 3, El Gran Senor--Golden Wave Band, by Dixieland Band) broke her maiden in her bow in February before earning third behind Secret Status in the Mar. 19 GIII Florida Oaks at Tampa Bay. Coming off the shelf since that effort, the filly finished second in an allowance event at this track Oct. 26 and went on to defeat Cajun Two Step (Tabasco Cat) by a half-length here. Off to a slow start, she made up ground quickly to take the lead before the turn and held sway for the narrow victory as the 2-5 favorite. Lifetime Record: GSP, 4-2-1-1, $64,900.

Off the board in her next start, the gray came closest to scoring when second to The Happy Hopper in a Turfway allowance in her latest attempt Sept. 15. Here the Kentucky-bred mare was bet down to the 6-5 favorite and didn't disappoint when she broke into second place, battled to the lead before the turn and held a narrow advantage into the lane to capture the win, giving jockey Pat Day his fifth victory of the day.

The prohibitive favorite to remain unbeaten in three starts, the filly sprinted out to the early lead and came home unchallenged. "She broke well and just galloped to the lead," said winning rider Ramon Dominguez. "I never had to ask her to run hard the entire race. I don't believe we've seen the best of her ability yet." Trainer H. Graham Motion added, "It will be awful tempting to run back in the [Dec. 26] Maryland Juvenile Filly Championship, but the mile and an eighth could pose a question mark. DEMURO SPREADS HIS WINGS

Mirco Demuro, the leading Italian jockey, left his country this weekend to head for Japan, where he attend the G1 Japan Cup meeting on Sunday. Demuro is without a ride in the Cup, but he will ride for two months there for Teruya Yoshida, who has handed him a contract to ride from his base at Ritto Training Center, near Osaka. Last year, Demuro proved a success in his first year there, finishing second behind champion Japanese jockey Yutaka Take. When he is finished in Japan, the Italian jockey will fly to California, where he will spend February and part of March with Richard Mandella. His rides will come on the Southern California circuit, before returning to Italy to start his new contract with leading trainer Bruno Grizzetti.

DOUMEN HORSES FAIL DRUG TEST

Francois Doumen's two recent national hunt winners at Auteuil, Fulip and Indiana, have tested positive to Calmagine, a medication administered by syringe, and used to treat colic. Doumen, who sends out Jim And Tonic (Fr) (Double Bed {Fr}) for the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin Dec. 17, denies all knowledge, and has reportedly filed a police complaint against the people or persons he claims have deliberately administered the drug. He told Equidia, "We did not use this substance on our horses."
