WHO WILL HAVE A CIGAR?

A deep field of 11 will go postward in the GI Cigar Mile at Aqueduct today, the final Grade I race of the year in New York. Defending champion Affirmed Success (Affirmed) has been plying his trade on the turf lately and comes off a fourth, beaten just a half-length, in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Churchill Nov. 4. "He's put in a lot of good efforts this year and deserves one last shot," said trainer Richard Schosberg. "From a numbers standpoint, I think he's faster on dirt than he is on turf." Trainer Bob Baffert has shipped in the speedy El Corredor (Mr. Greeley) from his southern California base. The three-year-old turned in his two best career efforts at a mile, defeating his elders in the GI Del Mar Breeders' Cup H. before finishing a narrow second to Fusaichi Pegasus in the GI Jerome H. at Belmont Sept. 23. Fellow sophomore More Than Ready (Southern Halo) will seek to enhance his stud credentials with a victory here. Winner of the GI King's Bishop over seven furlongs at Saratoga, he has yet to win beyond that distance, but finished third, beaten two necks, in his lone start over a flat mile at two. He was fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint in his most recent outing. Florida shipper Forty One Carats (Tactical Advantage) earned a 115 Beyer in winning the Smile Sprint H. at Calder Oct. 7 after adding blinkers. He set a new track record that day, getting six panels in 1:08 4/5 over the deep Calder surface.

SURF'S UP IN THE CLARK

Overbrook Farm's Surfside (Seattle Slew), sent off as the 8-5 second choice, showed her heels to a field of older males with a front-running victory in the GI Clark H. at Churchill Downs yesterday, placing her squarely into Eclipse Award contention. Despite tossing her head a bit in the gate, the bay filly broke smoothly and settled into stride, coasting along through fractions of :23 4/5 and :47 2/5. She turned for home with a clear lead and quickly turned back the challenge of Guided Tour (Hansel), drawing off in the final furlong to win by four lengths. "I was excited at the prospect of riding her in this race," said winning jockey Pat Day. "I knew she had a great chance of winning against the boys and she was much better today than in the Breeders' Cup." It was her first victory since returning from a layoff due to ankle chips. The homebred had rattled off three straight scores to start off the year, including the GI Las Virgenes and the GI Santa Anita Oaks, but was a lackluster fifth in the GI Santa Anita Derby in April and was removed from Kentucky Derby consideration. Off for six months, Surfside was a game second in the seven-furlong Raven Run S. at Keeneland Oct. 17 after a suicidal early pace, then just missed to stablemate Spain in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff over course and distance Nov. 4. More results p3

DESERT PRINCE COLT TOPS GOFFS NOVEMBER A colt from the first crop of top miler Desert Prince (Ire) (Green Desert) brought a bid of Ir£190,000 Friday from Timmy Hyde to top all foals at the Goffs November Sale. "He is a lovely horse from a beautiful family," said Hyde. The bay colt, selling as Lot 816 from the consignment of Kilcarn Stud, is a half brother to Poliuto (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}), winner of the G1 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas). His dam, the Posse mare Ploy (Ire), is a half sister to champions Sun Princess (GB) and Saddler's Hall (Ire). One lot earlier, a grey colt by first-season sire King of Kings (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) brought the sale's second highest price with a bid of Ir£155,000 from Paul Shanahan. "We will show him again next year," said Shanahan. "He is by an exciting sire who has some smashing horses by him in the U.S." From the same consignment as the sale topper, he is out of the winning mare Sallanches (Gone West), a half sister to Mill Native and French Stress. Thursday's session was headed by a Ir£72,000 son from the second crop of Desert King (Ire). Purchased by Eddie O'Leary of Lynn Lodge Stud, the bay colt is out of Forever (Forty Niner), a daughter of Group winner Eternal Reve. "I don't have to tell you what's happening with him, he comes back here next year," remarked O'Leary. Led by Friday's strong trade, the overall average increased from Ir£10,847 to Ir£13,530 and the median price was up as well, from Ir£7,400 to Ir£8,000.

Reciclada, coming off a heartbreaking loss to Chilukki at Churchill Nov. 4, strode home resolutely for her second 2000 graded stakes score. A winner of the GIII Eatontown H. over the Monmouth lawn in August, she lost by a head to Chilukki in the GII Churchill Downs Distaff H. in a track-record setting time of 1:33 1/5. She broke well from her outside post and was forwardly placed through fractions of :23 1/5 and :45 4/5. Reciclada put a head in front at the stretch call as Country Hideaway attempted to come through between horses, and found more in reserve, drawing away in the shadow of the wire. "I was happy with where she was sitting," said winning trainer Richard Mandella, who watched the race on television from California. "As big as she ran last time, I was hoping she didn't leave her race at Churchill."

Fantastic Filly earned the first win of her career in her final French outing, Oct. 4 at Saint-Cloud. Lightly regarded in her American debut, she lived up to her name here. Allowed to settle well off the pace early, she moved to the front with a powerful six-wide move into the stretch. Once in front, she ducked out, but jockey Garret Gomez got her straightened out in time to secure the victory. "Does she have a turn of foot," said an impressed Gomez. "It was unreal. When the field started to bunch up, I decided to go around, my filly was going so perfectly. I had no idea going in that she was this good." Of his mount's deep-stretch antics, Gomez added, "I really have no idea what caused her to do what she did. I mean, she stuck her feet in the ground, stuck her head out and tried to go out. I could feel her wanting to do something, but I couldn't tell which way she might go."

Bordelaise, a Group 1 winner in her native Argentina, started her U.S. campaign with a victory in the Run for the Roses H. at Santa Anita on New Year's Day, 2000, but had been held winless since. The bay had shown promise, however, finishing second to probable champion Riboletta (Brz) in the Mar. 5 GI Santa Margarita H., May 28 GI Milady Breeders' Cup H. and Aug. 12 GII Clement L. Hirsch H. In her most recent trip to the post, she was a troubled third in the GII Lady's Secret H. at Oak Tree Oct. 9. The second choice behind GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Spain in her first visit to Kentucky, the South American mare pressed a moderate pace and took a short lead after six furlongs. Always prominent, the favorite got a head in front as they raced down the stretch, but Bordelaise battled back to take a very tight photo. "Spain was definitely the horse to beat," admitted winning rider Pay Day. "She went by me at the head of the stretch and I got into my mare with the left hand. It took her a while, and at first she didn't respond, but when she did she was aggressive. When she was finally in her momentum she got the job done."

El Cielo added another victory to his collection of southern California graded turf sprints under a well-timed ride by jockey Corey Nakatani. The six-year-old bay has been on a tear this season, going four for five with just a neck loss marring a perfect record. He earned his first graded stakes success in the GIII San Simeon H. Apr. 24 going 6 1/2 furlongs down the hill at Santa Anita and went to the sidelines, but returned victoriously Nov. 6 in the GIII Morvich H., run over identical conditions. Shortening up to 5 1/2 furlongs here, the crowd's choice was guided to the rail shortly after the break as East Coast shipper Texas Glitter set out in front through snappy fractions of :22 and :43 4/5. El Cielo skimmed the rail through the turn, angled out for room at the head of the lane and kicked into gear. He collared Texas Glitter with ground-eating strides and surged past that rival in the final strides. "What a horse, he's got a heart as big as the race-track," exclaimed winning trainer Craig Dollase. "They let that horse [Texas Glitter] go; it kind of surprised me, I thought, 'they're never going to catch this guy.' I was a little concerned that the distance might be a little too short for him [El Cielo]."

Kashatreya pulled off a shocker in the 1999 GII True North H., beating champion Artax by three-quarters of a length at 26-1, but had visited the winner's circle just once this year, taking his second straight in the restricted Hollie Hughes H. over the Aqueduct inner track in February. The chestnut finished a solid third in the GIII Bold Ruler H. in April, but after running seventh in both the May 7 GI Carter H. and in his True North title defense June 10, he was sent to the sidelines. The New York-bred returned Nov. 9 and showed good speed before weakening to be fourth, beaten just 1 1/4 lengths by Brutally Frank (Groovy), in an overnight handicap over this track. Looking to turn the tables on that rival here, he trailed the field after a quarter and had just one horse beaten after a half, but rallied along the rail on the turn and split horses in the stretch to best Exciting Story in the final drive. "I knew he would run good today," commented winning trainer John Hertler. "The pace set up for him. He was inside and I was just hoping there would be a spot that opened up for him. He really jumps up and runs big races when the pace sets up for him."

Here in the first running of this event, the Bobby Frankel-trained four-year-old makes his Japanese debut against the likes of 1998's Champion Dirt Horse, Wing Arrow. That millionaire won the G1 February S. in Japan Aug. 15 and most recently ran second to Gold Tiara in the G1 Mile Championship Nambu Hai. Gold Tiara was the three-length victor in the Mile Oct. 9, but the Kentucky-bred filly ran fourth in her latest trip to the post, the G3 Musachino S. Oct. 28.

Manndar and Super Quercus met just about a year ago in the GI Hollywood Derby, when the latter's strong finish carried him to a two-length success. Manndar has captured two Grade I events since his second that day and cuts back to a more suitable distance following his eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Churchill Nov. 4. That 12-furlong test was his first start off a three-month layoff following a second in the GI Arlington Million. Super Quercus has made just two starts in the interim, rallying for third in the GIII River City H. at Churchill Nov. 5. Ladies Din returns to his California home following disappointing efforts at Woodbine and Churchill Downs. The big gelding was a non-threatening eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 4 after getting checked in deep stretch.

Ommadon added blinkers and Lasix last time out and responded with a front-running score in the GIII Nashua over a mile at the Big A Nov. 5. By a Kentucky Derby winner out of a Turkoman mare, he should improve as the distances increase. Regally bred, unbeaten Easing Along makes a quick return for his stakes bow, having taken a one-mile Aqueduct allowance Nov. 15. Out of a full sister to champion Easy Goer, the bay colt was geared down in that winning effort. "We're playing catch up a bit," said trainer Shug McGaughey. "If I didn't run him here, it would make for a longer campaign next spring, having to start earlier in the Gulfstream meet." Buckle Down Ben is the only runner with a victory at nine furlongs, having taken the GIII Laurel Futurity Nov. 4. He adds Lasix for this outing.

7 My White Corvette	Tarr Road	Smith	5-1
8 Nasty Storm	Gulch	Stewart	3-1
9 Haitian Vacation	Petionville	Kenneally	9-2

The highly regarded Cash Deal went to her knees at the start of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and wound up last of 12; previously, she broke her maiden by 7 1/2 lengths and came back to finish a game third in the GII Alcibiades at Keeneland Oct. 15. If she can break cleanly here, she will be the one to catch. "We were so high on her before the Breeders' Cup," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "She's very lightly raced--she had the whole summer off. So she deserves a shot to go back in there and see if we can get something done." My White Corvette captured an allowance over a sloppy Churchill strip Nov. 9 and has shown versatility in winning three of four career starts. Nasty Storm, a debut winner over this track in June, was a rallying second in the Alcibiades, but changed tactics and tired to eighth in the Breeders' Cup. The chestnut filly adds blinkers here.

5 Dollar Bill	Peaks and Valleys	Stewart	5-2
6 Gift of the Eagle	Islefaxyou	McPeck	5-1
7 Unbridled Time	Unbridled's Song	Lukas	15-1

Never off the board in four career starts, Holiday Thunder was a troubled third at Keeneland in the GII Lane's End Breeders' Futurity Oct. 8. Second to Point Given previously in the GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile Sept. 16, he seems well spotted to gain his first stakes success. Dollar Bill was a sharp second to Arabian Light in the GII Lane's End Breeders' Futurity after defeating A P Valentine in his maiden victory. The bay colt failed to make an impact in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile over this track Nov. 4, but has trained strongly since. Meetyouatthebrig capitalized on a scorching early pace in the GIII Iroquois at Churchill Nov. 4, rallying to win by a neck.

Thursday's Results:

8th-AQU, $46,000, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/8m, 1:53 2/5, ft.

SERRA LAKE (f, 3, Seattle Slew--Tara Roma {GSW, $192,017}, by Lyphard) finished second in her first start at Belmont back in May, but has won every other attempt since. The bay broke her maiden June 21 and added an allowance tally at Saratoga Aug. 31, but tired to be fifth in her latest outing, a Belmont allowance test Oct. 5. Part of an entry that was sent off at 3-5, she was last after a half, but kicked it into gear in the stretch to catch her pacesetter stablemate Unbridled Vice (Unbridled) at the wire for a neck victory. Lifetime Record: 6-3-1-1, $93,620.

O/B-Emory A Hamilton (KY). T-Claude McGaughey III.

7th-AQU, $44,000, Alw, (S), 2yo, 1m, 1:37 2/5, ft. PERSONABLE PETE (c, 2, Personal Flag--Critical Crew, by Dr. Blum), a 1/2 to Critical Eye (Dynaformer), GISW, $475,677, picked up his maiden victory at 11-1 vs. state-breds Oct. 21 and was hammered down to 3-5 to make it two-for-two here. Never far from the lead, the homebred raced up to take the lead as they came out of the turn and pulled away late for a 2 1/4-length victory. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $51,000.

O-Schwartz Herbert T & Carol A. B-Herbert T Schwartz (NY). T-Scott M Schwartz.

Indy--Immerse {GISW, $108,343}, by Cox's Ridge) jumped right into stakes company in her career opener and finished second, beaten a half length, in the restricted Maid of the Mist S. at Belmont Oct. 21. The 1-5 favorite facing state-bred maidens at second asking, the dark bay grabbed a short lead after a half, opened up on the field around the far turn and cruised home a 5 3/4-length winner. She is a full sister to Stephen Got Even, GISW, $1,019,200. Lifetime Record: SP, 2-1-1-0, $45,200. O/B-Chester & Mary R Broman (NY). T-John C Kimmel.

Prospectress returned from an eight-month layoff to run 10th in the Omnibus S. at Monmouth in August before finishing just a neck short in a Sept. 17 Belmont allowance last time out. Allowed to settle off the pace, the mare saved ground along the rail and drove to the front in the stretch en route to a confident win.

5th-AQU, $44,000, Alw, 2yo, 1m, 1:38 2/5, ft. SEEKING DAYLIGHT (c, 2, Seeking the Gold--Play All Day {GSW, $145,058}, by Steady Growth) raced greenly, but still won his debut by 2 1/4 lengths over this track Oct. 29. The 1-5 favorite, bumped at the start, stalked the early pacesetter, took charge in upper stretch and pulled off to score by 8 1/4 lengths. The winner is a half brother to Hedonist (Alydeed), GISW, $200,400. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $51,000. O/B-Edward P Evans (KY). T-Mark Hennig.

The bay was coming off a lackluster fourth-place effort in the Cal Cup Matron H. Two fifth placings were Oro Bering's best efforts in three previous stakes starts, most recently when filling that berth in the Listed Prix Scaramouche at Maisons-Laffitte Oct. 31. That run was followed with a confidence-boosting win in a claimer over this course and distance Nov. 14 and she posted a career best effort here to secure her first piece of black type. Jockey Dominique Boeuf rode with the utmost confidence, settling Oro Bering at the rear of the field as British challenger Dream Quest (GB) (Rainbow Quest {USA}) led from Nortolixa (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) and Vadaza (Fr) (Zafonic {USA}). The race took shape as the field entered the straight where Honorifique made giant strides to take the lead. Xinca tried to follow her run, but without success as Oro Bering was produced on the outside to make her challenge approaching the final furlong. The latter's bid was full of gusto and she swooped to the front inside the final furlong, being pushed out to the wire for a comfortable win. Honorifique kept on well in the closing stages and safely held Xinca for the runner-up spot.
