The winner of the 2000 Gill Hallandale Beach H. at Gulfstream, Mountain Top was off the board in two subsequent graded-stakes tries in the winter and earned some time away from the races. The dark bay returned to be third at Aqueduct Oct. 26 and was most recently beaten two lengths when third in Laurel's Lite The Fuse S. Nov. 26. The clear favorite was rated in behind runners, was fanned six wide for the drive, but was along in time for the narrow success.

After a spring campaign that included a second in the WHAS-11 S. and a fourth in the Gill Kentucky Breeders Cup S., Daring Pegasus was given the summer off. His return to the races, versus allowance company at Turfway Sept. 16, was marred by a troubled start which eliminated him from contention. Anxious to get back to the races, "D-Peg" had been working well for his return to stakes company. This time he found himself in-tight at the backstretch, but grabbed the lead along the rail, then cruised to victory to become the first stakes winner for freshman sire (by Alydar).

DANEHILL'S INTERNATIONAL DOUBLE

Coolmore stallion Danehill (USA) (Danzig {USA})'s worldwide reputation received another boost yesterday when two of his progeny pulled off a Southern Hemisphere Group 2 "double." At Randwick in Sydney, the six-year-old gelding Grey and Gold (Aus) (Danehill), trained by John O'Shea and ridden by Darryl McLellan, captured the A$200,000 G2 Villiers S. over a mile by three-quarters of a length from the six-year-old Irish-bred horse Taberann (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}). At Kenilworth racecourse in The Cape, South Africa, the Chris Snaith-trained four-year-old filly Laisserfaire (Aus) (Danehill), ridden by Karl Neisius, followed up her victory in last month's G3 Southern Cross S. with a comfortable 2 1/4-length win in the R125,000 G2 Sceptre S. over six furlongs. Owned by Sabine Plattner, Laisserfaire, who is out of the Jade Hunter (USA) mare Procrastinate (Aus), cost A$575,000 at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale in 1997. She has now won five of her seven starts in South Africa and for earnings of R263,300.

CAL-BREDS SWEEP BAYAKOA

Feverish (Pirate's Bounty) finally made the step up from state-fair sweetheart to graded-stakes winner with a tough-as-nails victory in the GII Bayakoa H., leading home a top-three sweep for California-breds on the penultimate day of racing at Hollywood Park yesterday. The winner of the Alameda City H. at Pleasanton July 8, the homebred mare shipped to Santa Rosa to annex the L Burbank H. before some time off. She returned to easily win the E.B. Johnston S. at the L.A. County Fair at Fairplex Sept. 17, but developed a case of seconditis for her following three outings, most recently filling that spot in the 7 1/2-furlong Cat's Cradle H. for state-breds Nov. 23. Stretching back to two turns, the dark bay was the narrow second choice behind Gourmet Girl (Cee's Tizzy). Sent immediately for the lead, Feverish was joined at the half-mile pole by Gourmet Girl. The cadence quickened at the top of the stretch as the two continued to race side by side, but Feverish proved just the better at the line to improve on her fourth-place finish a year ago. "It's nice to be on the right end of the photo," said winning trainer Dan Hendricks. "She's just been tremendous. In a few days, they all turn another year older and she'll be back."

A L'IL BIT O' DIXIE IN MALIBU?

The Winter-Spring meeting at Santa Anita Park kicks off Tuesday afternoon, with its traditional opening-day feature, the GI Malibu. The seven-furlong event is the beginning of the Strub Series, which continues with the GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup Jan. 13 and concludes with the GII Strub S. Feb. 3. Dixie Union (Dixieland Band) makes a much-anticipated return to competitive racing for trainer Richard Mandella. One of the top juveniles in 1999, the dark bay was second by a neck to Tiznow in the GII Affirmed H. before shipping East to annex the GI Haskell Invitational. Fourth as the favorite in the GI Travers at Saratoga Aug. 26, Dixie Union has been training well for the return and looms the class of the septet. Caller One (Phone Trick) moved to the head of the three-year-old sprint division with daylight victories in Calder's Carry Back S. and the GII Kentucky Cup Sprint, before finishing a solid fourth in the Breeders' Cup Sprint after setting fractions of :20 4/5 and :43 2/5. Jockey Kent Desormeaux takes over the reins from Corey Nakatani, who retains the mount on last-out allowance victor Wooden Phone (Pick Up The Phone) for conditioner Bob Baffert.

Still going strong at age six, Say Florida Sandy relaxed nicely off the pace and came running late to grab the spoils in the GIII Gravesend H. for the second time in the last three years. The dark bay was making his 15th start of the season, having won four of those starts and three stakes events, including the General MacArthur H. at Belmont Sept. 8. Second in the Wilmington H. at Delaware Oct. 7, the veteran was fourth in the GIII Sport Page H. two starts later and was most recently runner up to Lake Pontchartrain in a Nov. 29 money allowance test. Settled in midpack early on, jockey Joe Bravo sent his mount six wide into the lane and gunned down the front runners for the victory. "I was upset after he lost his last race because I thought he was the best," commented winning trainer Juan Serey. "Today I had him ready to go and I really loved him coming into this race. He kicked like he always does."
