A NEW YEAR FOR OLMODAVOR?

The newly turned five-year-old Olmodavor (A.P. Indy), who will make just his 10th career start, could use today's GII San Pasqual H. at Santa Anita as a springboard towards challenging for divisional honors.

Runner-up last winter in consecutive starts to Medaglia d'Oro and Mineshaft, the Wertheimer homebred was sidelined with ankle trouble for seven months, but proved a determined winner of the GIII Native Diver H. at Hollywood Dec. 6, running down the game Nose the Trade (GB) (Cyrano de Bergerac {GB}) in his second start off a layoff. "He's not easy to keep sound," explained trainer Richard Mandella. "He's had his troubles through the years, but when he's there he's good, and he's good right now." Star Cross (Arg) (Southern Halo) was a close third--beaten 1 3/4 lengths--in the GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. Oct. 4, finishing behind Pleasantly Perfect and Fleetstreet Dancer, who went on to capture the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and the G1-Jpn Japan Cup Dirt, respectively. The chestnut bounced off his Goodwood effort with a non-threatening 10th in the Seabiscuit H. Oct. 25, but rebounded to take Golden Gate's Forty Niner H. Nov. 28. The dark horse in the race has appropriately drawn the outside: Sharp Breeze (Mr. Prospector). This $1.9 KEEJUL yearling, now a gelding, makes his U.S. debut after a pair of all-weather track victories in England.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

FUNNY CIDE SHARPENING UP Sackatoga Stable's dual Classic winner Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) continued to edge closer to a return to the races, working a brilliant six furlongs Thursday morning in 1:11 1/5 at the Palm Meadows training center. "He came out of the work very well," trainer Barclay Tagg commented. "Ideally, I might have liked him to go a little slower early, but he did it very easily. I am tickled with the way he's doing down here." Tagg has singled out the GI Donn H. on Feb. 7 as a target for the four-year-old gelding, but is unsure whether he will train Funny Cide up to the nine-furlong event, or try to get a prep race into him before that. "I'm not sure that I have him fit enough to run yet," the conditioner admitted. "Doing it against the competition is much different from doing it in the morning. I am not going to be pressured into running him. He's not a three-year-old anymore, so I don't have to make those races. If it's too hot, I'm not going to run him; if it's too hot, I'm not going to work him." Funny Cide is likely to have another workout at Palm Meadows this coming Wednesday.

HOST WITH THE MOST Host (Chi) (Hussonet) has been elected Chilean Horse of the Year and three-year-old champion. The champion two-year-old the previous season, Host was bred by

Haras de Pirque and raced for Stud R.T. Host. The chestnut was trained by Jorge Inda Meyer at Club Hípico de Santiago. Produced by the Roy mare Colonna Traiana (Chi), Host concluded his Chilean campaign by winning the G1 Clasico Dos Mil Guineas by 6 1/4 lengths Sept. 6 at Hipódromo Chile in his only start on dirt. He was purchased by Eugene Melynk for a reported $1.4 million after that victory, his fifth in six career starts, and is currently in Florida training with Todd Pletcher. His sire, the 13-year-old Mr. Prospector stallion Hussonet, was purchased by Australia's Arrowfield Stud and will stand the upcoming Northern Hemisphere at Vinery in Kentucky for $20,000.

Other Chilean Award Winners:

- Isola Piu Bella (Chi) (Rich Man's Gold), Ch. Three-Year-Old Filly. Bred and raced by Haras Sumaya, she won six of 11 starts for trainer Alfredo Bagu, including a defeat of colts in the 2200-meter G1 St Leger.
- Ballistic (Chi) (Barkerville), Ch. Older Horse. Ballistic died this past fall after winning 21 of 27 career starts. Bred by Haras Carioca, he was conditioned by Juan Cavieres for Stud El Cedro.
- Overture Day (Chi) (Milt's Overture), Ch. Sprinter. Captured 11 of 16 starts. Bred by Stud Godolphin, he was prepared by Oliverio Martínez.
- Wolanstonita (Chi) (Wagon Master {Fr}), Ch. Older Mare. Bred by Haras Trafalgar, Wolanstonita won six of 11 starts under the tutelage of trainer José Tomás Allende for owner Stud Santa Amelia.

Winless in his first half dozen trips to the post, Spanish Empire recorded his fourth win from his last six efforts, besting a graded stakes quality field to register his first stakes success. Transferred from the barn of Nick Zito following a 10th over the Saratoga turf Aug. 20, the dark bay wired a Keeneland allowance field by 9 1/4 lengths in his first start for Steve Asmussen Oct. 5. He followed up that effort with another coast-to-coast victory going 10 furlongs at Churchill Downs Nov. 5 and made an auspicious debut in the Big Easy, finishing a good runner-up to G.W.'s Skippie in the Tenacious H. over this distance Dec. 6. Let go at double-digit odds with the likes of GSWs Tenpins and Comic Truth and Roar of the Tiger (Storm Cat) in the field, Spanish Empire was content to sit off the early pace, edged to the front outside of Tenpins approaching the stretch and withstood a late bid from the resurgent favorite for the win. Roar of the Tiger, making his first start in nearly a year, stumbled slightly out of the gate, settled towards the back of the pack and never threatened, finishing fifth, 6 1/2 lengths adrift of the winner.

The 5-2 second choice to make it two straight, he settled nicely in the early going, circled wide into the stretch and closed determinedly to take it by a half-length over Maisie's Son (Grindstone). Easyfromthegitgo to Stand in Louisiana:

Easyfromthegitgo (Dehere--Montera, by Easy Goer) has been retired from racing and will enter stud for this year at Le Mesa Stallions in Louisiana. Bred in Kentucky by Twilight Farms, Inc, the bay colt was purchased for $125,000 at the 2000 Keeneland September Sale. Trained by Steve Asmussen for the team of James Cassels, Bob Zollars and Rosendo Parra, Easyfromthegitgo took the 2002 Lecomte S. prior to finishing a nose second to Repent in that year's GII Louisiana Derby. He finished second or third in four other graded stakes at three and retires with a record of 22-4-7-2 and earnings of $694,780. A half brother to GSW Sue's Good News (Woodman), Easyfromthegitgo also hails from the female family of Cozzene and will stand the 2004 breeding season for $3,500 live foal.

Claimed for $100,000 last summer at Saratoga, Abreeze missed by a head in the Sept. 13 Skip Trial S. at Monmouth before finishing third in Delaware's Kelso H. Oct. 4. Fifth to Snake Mountain in a classified allowance at Belmont Oct. 24, the gelding was making his nine-year-old bow off an eight-length tally over Aqueduct's one-turn mile Nov. 27. The slight second choice in the wagering, he assumed command after a half mile, responded when roused and held sway late for the win.

Seven Set for Count Fleet:

New York's opening salvo for the Triple Crown trail is today's Count Fleet S. at Aqueduct, which will be contested over the inner track at a mile and 70 yards. Klaravich Stables' Distressed Debt (Smoke Glacken) returned from a two-month break to trump Aqueduct allowance foes by 6 3/4 lengths Dec. 17. Rick Violette Jr. will saddled the 5-2 morning-line second choice, who will break from post two with Shaun Bridgmohan in the irons. At 6-5 on the morning line is unbeaten Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality), who will attempt two turns for the first time. The Someday Farm homebred aired by 7 3/4 lengths in his Nov. 9 debut at Philadelphia Park, then destroyed state-bred foes by 15 lengths in winning the Pennsylvania Nursery S. Nov. 22. The chestnut earned a 105 Beyer Speed Figure in that contest, covering seven furlongs in 1:21.40. "This will be his first big test, trying two turns against quality horses," said trainer John Servis. "We have dreams, hopes and big ideas, and Saturday will give us an idea if we're right." Stewart Elliott has the call aboard Smarty Jones, who has drawn the outside post.
