STRONG START FOR MAGIC MILLIONS

Magic Millions began on a decidedly strong note Thursday as domestic purchasers competed determinedly against a strong international contingent, helping to boost the session average to A$114,264 from last year's A$91,000. Trainer Gai Waterhouse struck early with a decisive A$650,000 winning bid for lot 57, a Danehill--Sommes Sound (Assert {Ire}) colt offered by Stratheden Stud; Waterhouse also gave A$300,000 for the colt's full brother at Easter 2003. She trained the pair's half siblings, Assertive Lad (Aus) and Assertive Lass (Aus), to Group 1 success. "This colt had enormous presence," said Waterhouse. "The sale is extremely competitive and it is only going to get stronger." Redoute's Choice (Aus) (Danehill) averaged around A$160,000 with Magic Millions race favorite Not a Single Doubt (Aus) proving a capable advertisement for the young sire. Hong Kong Jockey Club gave A$240,000 for lot 89, a Redoute's Choice--Suburban

Blues (Aus) colt. Not a Single Doubt also featured as a 3/4-brother to the session's top-priced filly by Flying Spur (Aus). Produced by Singles Bar (Aus) (Rory's Jester {Aus}), a half sister to Snippets (Aus), lot 40 was consigned by Arrowfield Stud as agent and was purchased by Graeme Rogerson for A$450,000. The striking chestnut is also a half to Natural Is My Name (Aus) (Naturalism {NZ}), multiple stakes placed in Australia, and to Hanky Panky (Aus) (Anabaa), who was second in the G2 Magic Night S.

Big Score...

Perhaps the biggest surprise was lot 181, a colt by Guineas winner Pins (Aus) (Snippets {Aus}) who fetched an remarkable A$260,000 when knocked down to trainer Bart Cummings. The purchase underscored the emphasis on type that permeates the current market. Pins stood at NZ$9,000 in 2001 and his first crop averaged A$52,662. Magic Millions cont. p2

VALLEYS STRIPPED OF MIDDLE PARK

As expected, Juddmonte Farms' Three Valleys (Diesis {GB}) has been officially disqualified from first place in the Oct. 3 G1 Middle Park S. after testing positive for the prohibited substance clenbuterol; Sanford Robertson's Balmont (Stravinsky) has been awarded the contest. Conditioner Roger Charlton has stated that the substance was administered as the trade drug Ventipulmin in order to combat a lung infection the colt picked up when finishing third in the G1 Phoenix S. in July. However, he maintains that Three Valleys was withdrawn from the drug nine days before the Middle Park, two and a half days before the recommended period. Charlton was also found in breach of Rule 53 and fined £600 at the hearing. "It is a difficult balancing act to keep your horse on the treatment for as long as possible and as close as possible to the race without breaching the rules," commented the Jockey Club's veterinary director Peter Webbon. The promotion of Balmont, a son of the Seattle Slew mare Aldebaran Light, provides leading freshman sire Stravinsky with his first Group 1 winner, and the £105,560 winner's prizemoney bolsters the young stallion's earnings. Holborn (UAE) (Green Desert) second was moved up to second in the six-furlong contest, while Auditorium (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) was placed third.

Taking the Temperature...

Bidding was fierce for the right individuals, but conditions required that all buyers maintain their determination. "The sale is great for breeders, and nice horses are recording fantastic results, but it is bloody hard to be competitive," said leading Australian agent Mark Pilkington, a theme echoed throughout the day by many would-be purchasers. However, stifling heat in the antiquated barns and the lack of ventilation drove many purchasers away from the sale complex, with a large contingent of Japanese buyers calling it quits early in the day, along with a Korean group. "Who is the marketing genius who decided to assemble the most prominent buyers in Australia and people from throughout the world and put us all in unbearable heat, and expect us to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars on horses," quipped a leading Australian trainer. And for many buyers, the call for Magic Millions to cease focusing on all the associated social events and provide service to purchasers was strident, while some vendors threatened to boycott the sale unless the complex was improved.

FUNNY CIDE RETURNS SATURDAY Kentucky Derby hero Funny Cide (Distorted Humor), an Eclipse finalist for champion three-year-old, will make his four-year-old debut at Gulfstream Saturday in the 10th race, a seven-furlong, $100,000 optional claimer/allowance. The New York-bred will break from post three with regular rider Jose Santos in the irons. "I'm looking forward to it," said Santos. "I was on him when he worked New Year's Day [6f in 1:11 2/5], and I could tell right away that he had matured, that he's bigger and stronger than he was last year. He was very strong and he was feeling very good." The chestnut has been training very smartly for his return to action, but trainer Barclay Tagg cautioned that there are bigger goals ahead for the gelding. "He's been doing really good," said Tagg, "but the target remains the Donn H. [9f, Feb. 7]." Six other runners have been entered in the race, including graded stakes winner New York Hero (Partner's Hero).

OBS-CALDER CATALOGS ON-LINE Catalogs for the OBS-Calder two-year-olds sale are now available on-line at www.obssales.com. A total of 204 juveniles have been cataloged for the Feb. 3 auction, which will take place at Calder Race Course in Miami, Florida. Under tack shows will be held Jan. 26 and Feb. 1, starting both days at 10:30 a.m. Among the graded stakes winners to graduate from last year's OBS-Calder sale are Chapel Royal, Ruler's Court, Silver Wagon and Pink Champagne.

GISW BONAPAW RETIRED Grade I winner Bonapaw (Sabona--Pawlova, by Nijinsky II) has been retired from racing, according to Daily Racing Form yesterday. "He's got arthritis and he must have developed a breathing problem," said owner Dennis Richard, explaining the reason for the gelding's retirement, told the DRF. Winner of the GIII Count Fleet Sprint H. in 2001 and the GIII Hanshin Cup H. one year later, the Norman Miller III trainee recorded his biggest win later that fall when he defeated leading sprinter Aldebaran in the seven-furlong GI Vosburgh H. at Belmont Park. Bonapaw scored in only one race in 10 starts this term, a 6 1/2-furlong allowance at Keeneland Oct. 10, although the $6,500 KEESEP yearling purchase finished in the money in a pair of graded stakes, the GIII Whirlaway S. at Fair Grounds Feb. 9 and GIII Texas Mile at Lone Star Apr. 26. Bonapaw closed out his career with a seventh-place finish in an $80,000 optional claiming event at Fair Grounds Dec. 12. The eight-year-old retires with 18 wins from 45 career starts and $1,158,752 in earnings.

The brisnet.com 'Race of the Day' is the Race 8, $46,000 allowance at Aqueduct. For pps and a complete race analysis, click here.

Frisky Spider Eyes Hutcheson:

Frisky Spider (Frisk Me Now), who remained unbeaten in two career starts with a Gulfstream allowance win Wednesday, may make his next start in the Feb. 14 GII Hutcheson S., a race won in 1997 by his multiple graded stakes winning sire. "He's smart like his sire and seems like a really intelligent horse for his age," trainer Bob Durso, who also conditioned Frisk Me Now, said of his promising three-year-old. "He also seems a little bigger than his dad already, but he's got a great attitude." Frisky Spider won his 5 1/2-furlong debut at the Meadowlands Oct. 28 before his half-length triumph over seven furlongs Wednesday. Durso reported he has had at least five different offers for the colt. "I'm not saying he's not for sale," Durso commented. "They've been calling me since he won his first race. No matter what happens, we know he's going to do a lot for his father's stud value." Durso did not rule out a possible start in the GII Fountain of Youth for Frisky Spider, who is owned by Carol Dender. That 1 1/16-mile race is the same day as the seven-furlong Hutcheson.

NYRA Drops Pre-Paid Admission Seats for Spa Meet:

The New York Racing Association announced Thursday that it will not require patrons to prepay for admission if they already have reserved seating. "We've listened to our fans," said Cathy Marino, Senior Vice President of Customer Services for NYRA. "They did not like the policy of prepaying for admission along with the seat, and we have responded to their input. As in past years, patrons will pay their admission when they arrive at the track." Unaffected for 2004, price increases for reserved seats remain in effect. For more info, go to www.nyra.com.

Badge of Silver Possible for Whirlaway:

Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy), winner of last year's GIII Risen Star S., may return to the races as soon as the Feb. 1 GIII Whirlaway H. at Fair Grounds. The four-year-old stormed into Triple Crown consideration with his 10-length victory in the Risen Star. He finished sixth in the Mar. 9 GII Louisiana Derby and was scratched the night before the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. with a hairline fracture of his right front cannon bone, and has not started since. "The Whirlaway is coming up fast, but it is a possibility," trainer Ronny Werner confirmed. "We'll let him tell us when to run." Badge of Silver's goal remains the Feb. 29 GII New Orleans H.

A P Valentine to Texas:

A P Valentine (A.P. Indy--Twenty Eight Carat, by Alydar), winner of the GI Champagne S. during his juvenile season and second in the GI Preakness and GI Belmont S. at three, has been moved to Dr. William Day's Cedar Creek Farm near Brenham, Texas for the 2004 season. The six-year-old, who stood his initial season at Ashford Stud near Versailles, Kentucky before being sent to Watercress Farm near Lexington, will stand for $5,000. A P Valentine has experienced problems in getting his mares in foal, but has 10 of 15 mares confirmed pregnant from his 2003 covers.

Halfbridled (Unbridled), winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 25 at Santa Anita, worked Thursday morning in preparation for her three-year-old bow in the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 15. The Richard Mandella trainee, who is expected to face recent GIII Santa Ysabel S. winner A. P. Adventure (A.P. Indy) in the mile event, breezed six furlongs in 1:17.20. "It was just a slow work," said Mandella. "We'll pick it up next week."

A 3/4-length winner in a 10-furlong $80,000-optional claimer over this course Oct. 8, the gelding finished out of the money in his two most recent starts, including fifth last out in a $100,000-optional claimer going a mile over the Hollywood turf Dec. 5. Off the pace early, Special Matter closed on the front rank leaving the backstretch, slipped in along the rail on the final turn and took command past the eighth pole before going on to win by a comfortable margin.

Sidelined following a second in his Aug. 30 debut at Del Mar, the chestnut returned Dec. 7 at Hollywood and wound up seventh after breaking through the gate. He was sent off at 5-1 for his turf bow, racing in striking distance down the hill. Favored Erik's the Charm (Silver Charm) bumped him in tight quarters at the top of the stretch before crossing the line a half-length in front. QUINN GIVES UP CECIL RETAINER

Richard Quinn has decided not to accept a retainer to ride for Henry Cecil for the coming flat season, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. Having partnered only 16 winners for the Newmarket-based conditioner last year, Quinn cited the journey from his Newbury home to Newmarket as the main reason for the move. "I saw Henry at the end of last year and thought it best if I didn't accept a retainer," he told the Post. "I will still ride for him, but there will be no retainer--the main reason being that I was getting worn out traveling from the Newbury area at 4:30 a.m., coming to Newmarket, then going racing and then going home. I didn't think it fair to ask for a retainer and Henry understood how I felt. God willing, there will be more opportunities open to me and I'm looking forward to the new season." Cecil is currently on holiday and will make a decision regarding riding arrangements when he returns.
