BACK IN THE WYNNER'S CIRCLE

Wynn Dot Comma (Struggler {GB}), who suffered his first career defeat when second to Sir Oscar in the restricted Jack Price Juvenile S. at Calder Race Course

Wynn Dot Comma Equi-Photo

Nov. 15, was back in the winner's circle at Gulfstream Park yesterday afternoon. Sent off the 8-5 favorite in the GIII Spectacular Bid S., the bald-faced chestnut closed from off pace to win it by 1 1/4 lengths over Saratoga County (Valid Expectations).

"The pace was setting up nicely," jockey Joe Bravo said. "I knew the others were kind of rambling along because I broke a length and a half in front of them and was able to let them go. [Trainer Martin Wolfson] told me this horse could lay back or he could go to the front and that gave me the confidence to know I would be there when the picture was taken."

MEGAHERTZ SPURTS TO SANTA ANITA SCORE

Last of four early, Megahertz (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) flew through a final furlong in a tick over :11 to take yesterday's GII San Gorgonio H. at Santa Anita by a length over front-running Garden in the Rain (Fr) (Dolphin Street {Fr}). The five-year-old mare had just missed in the race last year, finishing second by 3/4 of a length to stablemate Tates Creek. The 3-5 chalk to make amends this time, she trailed the compact field as Garden in the Rain lazed through splits of :25.51, :51.08 and 1:14.79, but turned on the afterburners in the stretch to win going away. "This is a real good filly--she ranks up there with any of them," said trainer Bobby Frankel, who was recording his seventh win in the San Gorgonio and his 100th Santa Anita stakes win overall. He added, "A snail's pace in a small field doesn't hurt her because she can outfinish them...she's got a better turn of foot than most horses." San Gorgonio cont. p2

FUNNY CIDE RULES

Kentucky Derby hero Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) made his 2004 debut a winning one at Gulfstream yesterday...p1, ATW

EN-DURING EFFORT IN SAN FERNANDO

Erasing the memory of his disappointing performance when eased in the Nov. 28 GII Clark H. at Churchill, During (Cherokee Run) showed determination to take yesterday's GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup S. at Santa Anita by a length over Toccet (Awesome Again). The $350,000 KEESEP yearling dogged Excessivepleasure (In Excess {Ire}) through the early fractions and looked ready to take over at the top of the stretch, but 9-1 chance Touch of the Wire (Birdonthewire) got the jump on him, driving through along the rail to grab the advantage. During would not be denied, however, closing resolutely as Touch of the Wire tired late to get the victory. Toccet finished well to be second. During earned his first stakes win in the July 13 GII Swaps S. at Hollywood Park, beating subsequent GI Travers S. winner Ten Most Wanted by a head, then shipped to New York. After running off the board in the GII Jim Dandy S. and GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga, he collected wins in the Sept. 13 GII Jerome H. at Belmont and GIII Discovery H. at Aqueduct before closing out the year in the Clark. Back on track after the return to the West Coast, the four-year-old added a fourth stakes score with this game effort. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Second in this test in her first start of 2003, Megahertz came back to be a close-up third in the Mar. 22 GII Santa Ana H. before picking up her first win of the campaign in the Apr. 19 GII Santa Barbara H. at a mile and a quarter. The chestnut was third behind Bates Creek in the May 26 GI Gamely Breeders' Cup H. and behind Voodoo Dancer in the June 28 GII Beverly Hills H., but surprised the crowd in her next outing, taking the July 26 GI Mabee H. at Del Mar as an 8-1 shot. Off at 16-1 in her final start of the season, the Oct. 25 GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf, she got rolling just a little too late, finishing 3 1/2 lengths behind Islington (Ire) in fifth. But her closing kick stood her in good stead in her 2004 opener as she flew down the lane for the victory. "She is an incredible filly," winning jockey Alex Solis said. "She is so little and athletic that when she comes down the stretch she can really finish. She is one of those rare horses that has a quick turn of foot to finish strong the last quarter mile. There aren't many horses that can sustain that kind of kick." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Also Ran: Smokume, Excellent Band, Fortunate Buy, Heart of Jules.

Wynn Dot Comma made his debut for breeders T. Wynn Jolley and Harry Hoglander at Tampa Bay Downs Apr. 21 and made short work of his maiden voyage. The eye-catching colt romped home a 6 3/4-length winner despite racing greenly as the 17-10 favorite, drawing the attention of owner Martin Cherry, and made his next start carrying new colors. Wynn Dot Comma won his first three starts for Cherry, taking an entry-level allowance at Calder July 27 and adding daylight stakes wins at that track Aug. 30 and Oct. 11. He suffered his first loss in the Jack Price, but bounced back here as the crowd's choice. Reserved off fractions of :22.47 and :45.97, the Florida-bred rallied wide down the lane to win going away. As for what's next, Martin Wolfson said he may skip the Feb. 14 GII Hutcheson S. "What I'd really like to do is run him in the Gotham [Mar. 20, Aqueduct] and see how he does in a one-turn mile," Wolfson said. Saratoga County, making his stakes debut in his first start since running second to Smokume (Smoke Glacken) in a Belmont Park allowance Sept. 26, held well for second. He earned his first win in his next start versus $62,500 maiden claimers at Del Mar Aug. 11, then ran fourth in the Bea Brummel S. at Fairplex Sept. 16. Returning nine days later, he captured the Gateway To Glory S. at Fairplex before placing third in the Bay Meadows Juvenile S. Oct. 19. Fresh off a victory over this track in the Dec. 13 Gold Rush S., Skipaslew was sent off as the chalk while making his graded-stakes debut. The chestnut colt stalked the early leaders while racing in third, began to rally on the second turn, made it to the front in the stretch and edged clear late. Looking ahead, trainer Doug O'Neill said, "We'll try to take the easiest road possible [to the Kentucky Derby]. He doesn't have the build of your average Triple Crown contender, but he has the heart, experience and seasoning. If we duck the big boys, maybe we can go on." The colt could go next in the Mar. 13 GIII El Camino Real Derby at Golden Gate Fields. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

ANOTHER STRONG SESSION AT MILLIONS

Conrad Jupiters Magic Millions Yearling Sale's third session, held under lights Saturday night, continued to demonstrate depth in the market. "We are confident we will beat last year's average, although some of our busiest buyers may have spent most of their budget or filled all of their orders," MM Managing Director David Chester said yesterday. Local trainer Jeff McCarter, acting on behalf of Gregory Pearsall, paid Saturday's co-top price of A$350,000 for a colt by Danehill out of the unraced Dehere mare Japonila, herself a half sister to GSW Castle Gandolfo (Gone West). "I liked the colt because he was not too heavy and looked a real athlete," said McCarter. "If he succeeds on the track, there is always good residual value for a son of Danehill." The yearling's third dam is the blue hen mare Sex Appeal, who produced El Gran Senor and Try My Best. He was consigned by Coolmore Stud, as agent.

Rogerson Adds to His Collection...

Trainer Graeme Rogerson, the sale's most active buyer through the first three sessions, also gave A$350,000 for a son of Danehill, this one out of Lake Alexandrina (Aus) (Bluebird). The colt, offered by Coolmore Stud, is a three parts brother to stakes-winning sire Sprinsteen (Aus) (Danehill). His dam is a half sister to G1 Golden Slipper S. winner Marauding (Aus) (Sir Tristram {Ire}) as well. Through the first three days of the sale, Rogerson has purchased 27 yearlings for a total of A$5.05 million. Gai Waterhouse, who saddled Dance Hero (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}) to victory in yesterday's A$1 million Magic Millions Classic at the Gold Coast, has spent A$2.4 million on 12 yearlings thus far. The fourth and final session of the MM Select Sale will be held today, with bidding beginning at 11 a.m. The fifth session sale is set for Tuesday. "There are still plenty of bargains to be had," Chester said. "We have some cracking yearlings catalogued [today] and hopefully we can beat some long-standing records."

FUNNY CIDE SHARP IN RETURN Funny Cide (Distorted Humor), a finalist for the Eclipse Award as top three-year-old of 2003 after winning the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness, made his four-year-old debut at Gulfstream Park yesterday afternoon and looked better than ever. Sent off the 2-5 favorite in the 10th race, a $46,000 allowance test at seven furlongs, the chestnut gelding was on the bit as he chased the pace from the inside. He pulled his way to the front after a half in :45.78 and left his four rivals in his wake as he cruised to a popular five-length triumph. "He felt very strong today," jockey Jose Santos said. "I was thinking to stalk the pace a little, but he was dragging me. I hit him a little, just once inside the sixteenth pole so he would finish strong, but he galloped out a little too much. The pony boy had to pick me up or else I go around again, and had to bring me back also, because I couldn't hold him." Funny Cide is slated to make his next start in the GI Donn H. Feb. 7.

BITTER COLD WIPES OUT LIVE RACING The frigid temperatures gripping the Northeast portion of the country forced the cancellation of live racing at Aqueduct, Philadelphia Park and Laurel Park yesterday. Aqueduct's featured GIII Affectionately H. will be re-opened to original nominations and will be run next Saturday, Jan. 17. Officials at the Maryland Jockey Club were forced to cancel racing when the Laurel Park jockeys refused to ride due to the weather. No decision has been made regarding the rescheduling of the $75,000 Native Dancer S. Temperatures in the region are expected to moderate today.

It had been a long time between winner's circle pictures for the dual Classic winner, but Funny Cide has not forgotten how to pose. The striking chestnut made a resounding return to the races yesterday, winning his prep for the Donn H. with consummate ease. Following a career-best performance in the Preakness, the New York-bred was third to Empire Maker in the Belmont in June then finished a dull third in the GI Haskell Invitational H. two months later. After much deliberation, Funny Cide was shipped to California for the Breeders' Cup Classic, but never factored, beating just one horse home. The gelding had adapted well to his surroundings at Palm Meadows, showing a series of fast works, and was the heavy chalk to kick off the year on a high note. Very eager beneath Jose Santos, Funny Cide tugged his way along early, began to open up on the far turn and kicked smoothly clear in the stretch. "It was just right, it was just what I wanted," said winning trainer Barclay Tagg. "He needed a confidence builder and this seven-furlong race was perfect. It helped get him fit without knocking him out. That's why I wanted him to go seven furlongs--because he was so fresh."

 + BRIDE'S BEST BOY (c, 3, Outflanker--Runaway Bride, by Runaway Groom) drew the outside post for his debut over a difficult trip, but handled it with aplomb, charging home a three-length winner. The dark bay colt had trained very nicely up at Palm Meadows, capping his workout with a bullet six furlongs in 1:14 Jan. 4 and was sent off at odds of 5-1. Close to the early pace while four wide down the backstretch, the homebred loomed up into contention on the far turn, swept past runner-up Forty Five (Gone West) at the furlong grounds and pulled away to win nicely. Morine's Victory (Victory Gallop) loomed a threat in upper stretch, but hit the rail and nearly unseated jockey Shannon Uske before staying on for third. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,200.

Stakes Horses on the Florida Worktab:

A myriad of stakes winners turned in works yesterday morning across South Florida as they prepare for their respective 2004 debuts. At the Palm Meadows training facility, Marylou Whitney's Birdstone (Grindstone), unraced since his 2 1/2-length victory in the Oct. 4 GI Champagne S. at Belmont Park, breezed four furlongs in :48 2/5, the co-fastest of 29 moves at the distance. Heckle (Hennessy), winner of the GIII Tremont S. at Belmont, also earned the four-furlong bullet. Trained by Todd Pletcher, the grey has been away since finishing seventh in the GII Sanford S. last July 24. Last year's GII Hutcheson S. hero Lion Tamer (Will's Way) worked an easy five-eighths of a mile in 1:03, while GSW True Direction (French Deputy) went the same distance in 1:01 4/5 for trainer Carlos Morales. Perfect Soul (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), winner of the GI Shadwell Turf Mile prior to a ninth-place finish in the Oct. 25 Breeders' Cup Mile, went an easy three furlongs in :39 at Payson Park and Peter Vegso's Virginia Derby winner Silver Tree (Hennessy) covered a half mile in :51 2/5. Sir Oscar (Halo's Image), who defeated yesterday's GIII Spectacular Bid S. hero Wynn Dot Comma in the Nov. 15 Jack Price Juvenile S., worked five furlongs in a leisurely 1:04 1/5 at Calder yesterday.

Wild Speed led every step of the way to graduate by 3 1/2 lengths at first asking at Laurel Aug. 16, was given a bit of time to recover from that effort and returned to be second in her first try versus winners over a wet-fast Delaware main track Nov. 5. The chestnut rebounded to take a local allowance test by 3 1/2 lengths Dec. 13 and was the third choice to make it three out of four on her career. Content to race in second behind the pacesetter Crafty Tears, Wild Speed responded when asked for her best, took aim on the frontrunner inside the final furlong and won going away.

Shiloh Bound became the third stakes winner for his sire, also a stakes winner sprinting on the turf, with a game front-running success in a rare early-season handicap for sophomore colts and geldings. The bay returned $88 in taking his Nov. 2 bow over the Churchill main track by a length against $40,000 maidens and kept that perfect record intact in his most recent effort, taking a local entry-level allowance over the main track by a nose Dec. 21. Asked to negotiate two turns and the turf for the first time, the gelding was allowed to dictate easy fractions of :24.04 and :48.58 while chased throughout by Bachelor Blues. The latter turned up the heat and threatened to overtake the front-runner at midstretch, but Shiloh Blues fought back gamely for the win.

After running sixth in a handicap at the Chicago track July 5, he was given some time off, then returned at the Fair Grounds with a fifth-place finish at this level Dec. 11. Sent off as the lukewarm 2-1 choice here, the gray gelding sat behind the pacesetters, was swung out for the drive and rallied to get up by a nose. Bridge Out Again (Concern) finished second. Peace Rules to Return In Sunshine Millions:

Grade I winner Peace Rules (Jules) is expected to make his four-year-old debut in the $1 million Sunshine Millions Barretts/CTBA Classic at Santa Anita Jan. 24. "It would be a nice race to win, and he's a nice animal," owner Edmund Gann said. Trainer Bobby Frankel added, "That's a lot of money they're offering, and right now that's the way I'm leaning for his next start." Peace Rules, who captured the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. and GI Haskell Invitational H. last season, has not been out since running 13th in the Oct. 25 GI Breeders' Cup Mile. The Florida-bred chestnut worked six furlongs in a bullet six furlongs in 1:12.80 at Hollywood Park Friday.

ANOTHER MILLIONS FOR WATERHOUSE For the third time in the last five years, trainer Gai Waterhouse has saddled the winner of the A$1 million Magic Millions Classic. Waterhouse sent out 15-4 shot Dance Hero (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}) to best 11-8 favourite Not A Single Doubt (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) by 3/4 of a length at the Gold Coast yesterday. The colt made all the running and completed the six furlongs in 1:08.75, besting the stakes record by 0.27 seconds. The previous mark was set by Catnipped (Aus) in 1998. The gelding was purchased for A$90,000 from the 2003 Magic Millions sale. "This is an exceptionally talented two-year-old and he was just too good for them today," Waterhouse told Australian Associated Press. "He had to be used up to get over from his wide barrier and was annoyed by another runner at the crucial stage in the race, but he showed just how good he is by fighting them all off and breaking the record." Jockey Chris Munce, celebrating his third magic Millions victory, added, "I wanted to ride him aggressively and be positive and he went on with it in the straight. [Dance Hero] has got plenty of depth about him and I'm sure he will win a lot of nice races." Waterhouse was heading back to the Magic Millions sales ring after the race. "The Magic Millions is where you've got to be if you want to buy the best horses in the country and I'll be spending up again tonight so I can win [this race] again next year," she told AAP. The winner will be pointed for the G1 Golden Slipper S. at Sydney's Rosehill Gardens Racetrack Apr. 3.
