STORM CAT MARE TOPS THURSDAY SESSION

A stakes-winning Storm Cat mare in foal to Broken Vow topped Thursday's strong penultimate session of the Keeneland January Sale in Lexington, Kentucky.

Saturday's Child, selling as hip 1415 from the draft of Mill Ridge Sales, agent, elicited a bid of $260,000 from Domino Stud of Lexington, LLC. Out of the stakes-winning Capote mare Bashful Charmer, Saturday's Child won Delaware's Hildene S. as a two-year-old before being retired after finishing unplaced in a pair of three-year-old starts. She's from the extended family of leading sire Unbridled's Song. This will be the five-year-old's first foal. The only other mare to bring six figures on the afternoon was hip 1493, the Slewacide mare Twin Induction, who was knocked down to Lane's End Farm's William Farish, Jr. for $150,000. The seven-year-old Warrendale Sales, Agent XXVIII, consignee received a big boost just prior to the sale when her unbeaten three-parts sister, sophomore A.P. Adventure (A.P. Indy), won the GIII Santa Ysabel S. at Santa Anita Jan. 4. Twin Induction is in foal to Prospector's Music. Leading the way for the yearlings was hip 1314, a Tiger Ridge colt purchased for $87,000 by Reiley McDonald & Tom VanMeter. Out of the Copelan mare Lantana, the Feb. 28 foal was consigned by Lakland LLC, agent. Coverage cont. p.2

JUNE IN JANUARY?

Though Mother Nature is having her way with the East Coast, laying down blankets of snow and forcing track cancellations with arctic temperatures, tomorrow's GIII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream Park is a reminder that the first Saturday in May is just around the corner. The first legitimate stop on the road to the GI Kentucky Derby will offer a chance for owner/trainer Bill Cesare's Second of June (Louis Quatorze) to prove he's the real deal. The well-muscled sophomore was sent off the second choice behind GI Hopeful S. winner Silver Wagon (Wagon Limit) in the Dec. 13 What a Pleasure S. at Calder, but was the best horse on the afternoon and romped by five lengths as Silver Wagon struggled home third. The two will line up against each other once again with eight challengers joining the fray. While the jury is still out on Second of June's Classic potential, don't expect conditioning to play a factor: Cesare has been busy hammering endurance into his young charge, sending him out to one-mile works in his last two recorded moves. The dark bay got eight panels in 1:41 3/5 in his latest work at Calder Jan. 7. Cornelio Velasquez will be in the irons for the Holy Bull.

Hip 1543 Bettybird (m, 5, Personal Hope--Betty's Bathroom, by Lord Avie)

Consigned by Winchester Equine (William Snowden), Agent II

The fifth horse to stride into the ring this morning is the quick Bettybird, who equaled a world record in August of 2002 by covering 5 1/2 furlongs over Ellis Park's sod in 1:00 2/5. Out of the winning Lord Avie mare Betty's Bathroom, she sells as a racing or broodmare prospect.

Hip 1872 Tri Pac (Ire) (m, 7, Fairy King--Triumphant {GB}, by Track Spare {Ire})

Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent LXXVI

The unraced Tri Pa, a half sister to Irish and German champion Timarida (Ire) (Kalaglow {Ire}), goes through her third Keeneland sale this afternoon. The seven-year-old realized a bid of $375,000 at the July yearling sale, then sold in foal to Siphon (Brz) for $100,000 at the November sale in 2001. That produce, a filly named Ardnageeha, made $105,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton July sale. Tri Pac is carrying her second Siphon.

"SUPER" AZERI EYES APPLE BLOSSOM 2002 Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter) has settled in comfortably in the barn of new conditioner D. Wayne Lukas, according to owner Michael Paulson, who was at Santa Anita Thursday morning to check up on his star six-year-old. While no definite plans have been set, Paulson indicated a return engagement in the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park in April is a distinct possibility. "It's on the radar target screen," said Paulson. "That's the first big Grade I with a nice purse, so we're looking at it. But she'll dictate which race. We're just taking our time and Wayne's going to be real patient. Everything looks super. We don't see any problems whatsoever, but with a champion horse like that we're going to take our time and be real diligent in bringing her back and making sure everything's perfect." Azeri, who is up for an Eclipse Award in the Older Female division, has won the Apple Blossom twice, including a rousing victory over Take Charge Lady in last year's renewal.

WEATHER PROMPTS MORE CANCELLATIONS

Frigid temperatures, recent snow and a brutal wind chill prompted another spate of cancellations in the eastern portion of the country as West Virginia's Charles Town and Penn National called off their Thursday night cards, while Philadelphia Park decided to cancel this afternoon's races. Live racing is slated to resume at Charles Town this evening with a first post of 7:15 p.m. and at Penn National at 7:25 p.m. Philly Park is expected to race Saturday, with action getting underway at 12:25 p.m.

Jere Smith, Sr. Dies:

Chicago-based trainer Jere Smith, Sr. died Wednesday morning from pancreatic cancer. He was 63 years old. Smith saddled his first winner at 15 at Beulah Park in 1955 before moving to Chicago in the 1960s. He earned six training titles at Sportsman's Park, five at Hawthorne and one at Arlington. Smith's most famous charges were Recoup the Cash, who became a millionaire while winning four graded stakes; and Chicago Six, a GSW of over $730,000. Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

Stauffer Honored with Second Eclipse Award:

Vic Stauffer, track announcer for Gulfstream Park and Hollywood Park, has been awarded his second Media Eclipse Award in the Audio/Multimedia category for a presentation titled "56th Birthday Tribute to Laffit Pincay, Jr." that aired on KSPN radio in Los Angeles. "What a fantastic thrill," said Stauffer. "It is especially great because we're being honored for two things that I love: our great game and Laffit Pincay, Jr." The presentation, which Stauffer co-produced with Kip Hannen, was a retrospective of Pincay's life on the all-time winningest jockey's birthday in December 2002. Stauffer and Hannen will share the Eclipse with Baltimore's WBAL, who tied the pair with a radio report on the Preakness S. Both entries will receive their honors at the Eclipse Awards Presentation and Dinner at the Westin Diplomat Resort and Spa in Hollywood, Florida Jan. 26.

Racing Series Returns to ESPN:

"Citgo Racing to the Kentucky Derby," a nine-show series that offers comprehensive coverage of key Triple Crown prep races, will return for another season to ESPN and ESPN2, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association announced yesterday. The series will also include, for the first time, coverage of several major races for older horses, including the GI Donn H. and the GI Santa Anita H. "We are happy to announce the addition of these important Classic Division races to the traditional [GI Kentucky] Derby preps, making this the most comprehensive early season series ever aired on one TV network," said Tim Smith, commissioner and CEO of the NTRA. The series kicks off with live coverage of the GII Fountain of Youth S. and GII Hutcheson S., both at Gulfstream Park Feb. 14.

The Blood-Horse Launches StallionRegister.com:

MURTAGH TEAMS UP WITH LODER

Johnny Murtagh yesterday announced that he has made an agreement to ride for David Loder this season. The former Irish champion jockey is preparing for the new campaign, having battled with weight problems associated with a back injury sustained last summer. After ending his long-time association with conditioner John Oxx at the end of last season, Murtagh revealed that he will ride as a freelance but has committed to riding for Loder when in Britain. Loder, whose five-year contract as the two-year-old trainer of the Godolphin operation came to a conclusion last term, has already sent out two winners from his new base at Egerton Stud. Murtagh told PA Sport yesterday, "I will continue to be based in Ireland, but have agreed with Mr. Loder that I will ride for him when I am available."

INTEGRITY ISSUE BRINGS FORCES TOGETHER

Relations between the Association of British Bookmakers and the Jockey Club took a step forward yesterday when both sides agreed to strengthen the defence of racing's integrity. By entering into the Memorandum of Understanding, Britain's bookmakers have a structure to inform the authorities of abnormal betting patterns and other signs of possible corruption. "This represents another step forward with regard to our increasingly positive working relationship with the betting industry," the Jockey Club's Director of Security Paul Scotney told PA Sport yesterday. "By signing the Memorandum of Understanding, the ABB is signalling the association's desire and intention to protect and maintain the integrity of racing by assisting the Jockey Club security department in its investigations, where appropriate."
