NINE SET FOR SANTA YNEZ

Trainer Bob Baffert will saddle 5-2 morning-line favorite Yearly Report (General Meeting) in a contentious renewal of the GII Santa Ynez S. today at Santa Anita. The bay filly, making just her third career start in the seven-furlong affair, was a debut winner against fellow Cal-breds Nov. 29 at Hollywood Park and overcame a slow start to finish a strong second over track and distance in the Dec. 27 California Breeders' Championship S. She has prepared for her sophomore debut with two powerful works over the Santa Anita strip, going a bullet four furlongs Jan. 8 in :46 and five furlongs Jan. 14 in :59 3/5. Rahy Dolly (Rahy) dominated a field of maidens in her Nov. 9 debut at Santa Anita. Stepping right up to graded company for her second start, the chestnut filly set the pace in the Dec. 21 GI Hollywood Starlet before being passed in the stretch by Hollywood Story. House of Fortune (Free House) was third in the Starlet after three straight wins against state-bred company last fall. Whoopi Cat (Tale of the Cat), the only graded stakes winner in the field, has been sidelined by a foot injury since winning the GII Adirondack S. in her second career start at Saratoga Aug. 11.

AN ENCINO ENCOUNTER

Victory Encounter (Victory Speech) completed her transformation from claimer to graded stakes winner with a 1 1/4-length victory in yesterday's GII El Encino S. at Santa Anita. The dark bay filly was claimed for $32,000 from her nine-length maiden score at Santa Anita last spring. She concluded her sophomore campaign with three straight wins, culminating with her first stakes victory in the Sept. 7 Torrey Pines S. at Del Mar, but had not raced since. After settling off the pace, Victory Encounter moved to the front with a four-wide move into the stretch and held off the late rally of favored Personal Legend (Awesome Again). "I was thrilled with the race," admitted winning trainer John Sadler. "She's absolutely surpassed my expectations. You just expect to make a nice claim and win a few races, but she's just improved steadily, so it's all been good." Sadler said the Feb. 14 GII La Canada S. would be next for Victory Encounter. Morning-line favorite Island Fashion (Petionville) was scratched from the El Encino in favor of next Sunday's GI Santa Monica H. Fairly Ransom, a stakes winner and group placed in France, captured the Sept. 6 GII Del Mar Derby. The gray colt closed behind impossibly slow fractions in the Nov. 30 GI Hollywood Derby and came up just a half-length short of pacesetting Sweet Return at this distance last time out. Sweet Return was third in the Del Mar Derby and missed by just a head in the Oct. 4 GII Oak Tree Derby before his front-running score in the Hollywood Derby. The lightly raced Nothing to Lose is a winner of six of four lifetime starts and is unbeaten on the turf, but he has been off since sweeping late to win the GIII Palm Beach S. at Gulfstream last February. The bay colt, previously trained by D. Wayne Lukas, is making his first start for Bobby Frankel. Puerto Banus, winner of last summer's GII Sunset H., has been off since running a dull sixth in the Aug. 9 GI Sword Dancer Invitational H. at Saratoga.

 Super Kid provided trainer John Size with his third consecutive renewal of this event, following up on the back-to-back victories of Electronic Unicorn in 2002 and 2003. After failing to meet his NZ$10,000 reserve at auction, the bay colt went on to win the G3 Highview Guineas and was third in the G1 Bayer Classic in his native country during his three-year-old season. Sent to Hong Kong late last fall with an eye on the Hong Kong Derby, he took a Class 2 event Nov. 15, was fifth in Class 1 company on the International Races undercard Dec. 14 and was most recently beaten a nose at that level Jan. 1. Making his local Group 1 debut, Super Kid was well placed in fourth behind Hidden Dragon, who cleared the field from his outside post and led through fractions of :24.5 and :47.2. The latter still led after 1200 meters in 1:11.7 and traveled smoothly into the stretch, but he began to shorten stride and was overhauled in the final 50 meters by Super Kid. "I was a little worried at the top of the home straight when Hidden Dragon led me by about three lengths so I had to get after him," said winning rider Shane Dye. "But the way he was finishing off, I knew I was going to win at the 200 meter [mark]. He's a very good and very tough horse." Bowman's Crossing, second in the G1 Hong Kong Mile, rallied from well back to be third, while Elegant Fashion (Aus) (Danewin {Aus}), third to Falbrav (Ire) in the G1 Hong Kong Cup, appeared to struggle over the wet going and finished well back in fifth.

The Virginia-bred Tap Day became a stakes winner in his third career effort when annexing the restricted M. Tyson Gilpin S. at Delaware in mid-October, then ran a credible fourth in the Nov. 16 Huntington S. at the Big A after stumbling at the break. Sent off a 40-1 longshot in his graded debut, he ran to those odds in a distant 11th-place effort in the Gll Remsen S. Nov. 29. The Edward P. Evans colorbearer, sent postward as a double-digit longshot in this off-the-turfer, lay just off leaders while racing wide up the backstretch. Lengthening his stride nearing the quarter pole, he charged to the lead shortly thereafter and was under a spirited drive to best the fast-closing Zakocity, who came flying down the rail. "I thought this horse deserved a little more respect on the board than he got," admitted winning trainer Mark Hennig. "He only ran that one bad race [the Remsen], but that was only 13 days after his previous race. He's a big, huge horse who looks like he wants to run long. We'll see how he does coming out of this before we decide what's next."

Sophomores On Track:

GII Remsen S. winner Read the Footnotes (Smoke Glacken) worked a bullet half mile in :47 at Palm Meadows Training Center Friday. "It was great," trainer Rick Violette said of the drill. "He did it easily but he's still very fast." The colt is expected to start next in the Feb. 14 GII Fountain of Youth S. "He's exactly where he needs to be," commented Violette. "If we turn out to be good enough to get to the Derby, I would like to get three races into him and the Fountain of Youth, the Florida Derby and either the Wood Memorial or the Blue Grass would fit really nicely. He's already won around two turns and got a mile and an eighth so he's cooperating with the game plan."

Trainer Nick Zito sent out a star-studded sophomore trio to work at Palm Meadows Saturday. GII Lane's End Futurity winner Eurosilver (Unbridled's Song) drilled five furlongs in 1:02, while GI Champagne S. winner Birdstone (Grindstone) went the same distance in 1:02 2/5. GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. winner The Cliff's Edge (Gulch) worked a half mile in :49. "They all went good," Zito reported. "I'm happy with their progress. As for what is next for the colts," Zito said, "Hopefully, before too long they'll make an appearance. Everything is still a long way off, and we're just hoping everything stays on track." Zito also reported that El Prado Rob (El Prado {Ire}), third in last year's GI Futurity S., exited his fourth-place effort in Saturday's GIII Holy Bull S. in fine shape. "We're a little disappointed," Zito admitted. "That's not the way our stable progresses. Luck is a big factor, though, and he's not up to the level of a Second of June or Silver Wagon quite yet. Plus, we were trying to do something with him to get him to rate and he ended up on the lead. That was the last thing we expected. We'll see where we go from here with him."

Sir Cherokee put himself squarely on the Derby trail last spring when he dropped a 55-1 bomb on unsuspecting rivals in the Gil Arkansas Derby in mid-April, but was withdrawn just days prior to the big one after suffering a small fracture to his right rear ankle. A 7 1/2-month respite separated the bay from his comeback victory, an off-the-turf triumph going a mile at Churchill Nov. 27, and he took the majority of the crowd's money to make it three straight. Sent to the fore under Terry Thompson, he helped set modest fractions of :24 and :48 2/5 before turning for home with a narrow head advantage. The versatile Freefourinternet mounted his challenge and wrested control in mid-stretch, but a gutsy Sir Cherokee battled back for the win.

Island Fashion Eyes Santa Monica:

Island Fashion (Petionville) was scratched from yesterday's GII El Encino S. and is expected to start in next Sunday's GI Santa Monica H. "It's a Grade I race and the same distance as the La Brea [which Island Fashion won Dec. 27]," trainer Marcelo Polanco said of the Santa Monica. "The owner [Jeff Nielsen who races as Everest Stables] wants the Grade I win." The Santa Monica is also expected to mark the 2004 debut of Eclipse finalist Sightseek (Distant View).

Sunshine Millions Workers:

GI Haskell Invitational winner Peace Rules (Jules), likely favorite for Saturday's Sunshine Millions Classic at Santa Anita, worked six furlongs at Hollywood Park yesterday in 1:12.60. Fellow Classic contender Excess Summer (In Excess {Ire}) worked six furlongs under Gary Stevens in 1:12. "He really went well," Stevens said. "He was nice and relaxed and finished up strong."

Atlantic Ocean (Stormy Atlantic), prepping for the Filly and Mare Turf, went six furlongs in a bullet 1:11.40...Defending Filly and Mare Sprint champ Madame Pietra (Roy) went five furlongs at Hollywood in 1:00.60. Sprint hopeful Green Team (Huddle Up) worked four furlongs Sunday in :49.80.

Midas Eyes to Strub:

Trainer Bobby Frankel will point Midas Eyes (Touch Gold), most recently third in the GI Malibu S., to the Feb. 7 GI Strub S., instead of Saturday's Padua Stables Sprint at Gulfstream. "Even though he likes [Gulfstream], I didn't want to ship him and wasn't crazy about facing Shake You Down," Frankel said. The four-year-old worked six furlongs at Hollywood Park Sunday in 1:13.40. Midas Eyes could face Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander) in the Strub. The latter, winner of last year's GI Travers S., went five furlongs at Hollywood yesterday in 1:00. "His next work will be six or seven furlongs," explained trainer Wally Dollase. "That will tell me whether he can make the Strub or not." Ten Most Wanted has been off since running eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

Frankel also sent out Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado {Ire}) to work at Hollywood Park yesterday. The five-year-old, off since finishing second in the Breeders' Cup Classic, went six furlongs in 1:12.20. He will likely make his 2004 debut in the GI Donn H. at Gulfstream Feb. 7.

Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Action This Day (Kris S.) worked seven furlongs in company with four-year-old Middleweight (Grand Slam) in 1:25.60 yesterday at Santa Anita. "He went terrific," trainer Richard Mandella said after the work. The bay colt is scheduled to make his sophomore debut in the Sham S. at Santa Anita Feb. 8.

WINNER FROM MARS (c, 3, Benny the Dip--Smithie, by Beau Genius), a 1 1/2-length winner in his debut at Hollywood Park Nov. 26, pressed the early pace in second for a mile before taking over midstretch. Unyielding in the drive to the wire, the $25,000 KEESEP yearling held on for a 3/4-length score over Jungle Prince (Sir Cat). Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $58,200. O-Mars, Papiano & Winner. 6th-SAX, $49,000, Msw, 3yo, 1 1/16m, 1:42, ft. QUINTONS GOLD RUSH (c, 3, Wild Rush--Hollywood Gold, by Mr. Prospector) finished a respectable second after a tough trip in his debut at Hollywood Park and was made the 5-2 second choice to graduate this time. A head-strong second in the early going, the $60,000 OBSMAR juvenile purchase never lost contact with early leader Wimbledon (Wild Rush), wrestled the lead from that foe at entering the stretch and ran off to win by a comfortable 3 1/2-length margin. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $37,000.

4th-SAX, $47,000, Msw, 3yo, 6 1/2f, 1:15 3/5, ft. GAMBLIN (c, 3, Family Calling--Yuki, by Iron Constitution), a $45,000 KEESEP yearling, filled out the under-side of the exacta in his previous two outings. The bay ran second in a six-furlong Hollywood maiden Nov. 16, then finished behind the promising Roi Charmant Dec. 20. Here the half to See Yu In Court (Court Trial), SW, $162,200, tracked intently in third as firster Coronado's Pride (Coronado's Quest) cut out the running. Those two locked horns in mid-stretch, but Gamblin wouldn't be denied the 1 1/4-length tally, with another four lengths back to Hickory Pete (Ordway) in third. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $43,200.

STRONG START TO INGLIS CLASSIC SALE The Australasian sale season has started off on a strong note with the boutique Inglis Classic Sale echoing Magic Millions bullishness, recording a 16-percent average increase during the first session in Sydney yesterday. A record crowd attended the sale at the Inglis Newmarket complex, where Randwick trainer Bart Cummings gave top price of A$220,000 for Lot 21, a Redoute's Choice (Aus)--Angel In Disguise (NZ) (Sky Chase {NZ}) colt. The yearling is from a three-quarter sister to Australian Horse of the Year Saintly (Aus), who Cummings trained to Cox Plate and Melbourne Cup victories. The colt was consigned by Edinglassie Stud's Mick Talty, who said his confidence grew as the colt proved so popular during pre-sale inspections. "He was a big, strong, precocious colt, a beautiful walker, and it is a great result for his breeder Bob Oatley of Rosemount Estate winery, who has been in the industry a long time," said Talty. "We didn't have great expectations until we arrived at the sale, and he was so popular with buyers coming back again and again to see him. He certainly sold for more than we had initially expected," he added. Vinery Stud general manager Peter Orton summed up prevailing sentiment, saying, "It is very strong and consistent with plenty of buyers and from what I can see it is a good line up of horses. The first crop of horses by More Than Ready have been well-received; they have gone to good stables and averaged more than three times his service fee." Sydney-based bloodstock agent Vin Cox said, "It is very competitive. There's a nice lot of horses and I have no doubt the market will continue on a strong note throughout the rest of the year. The really positive thing is the strength of the local market, there's a lot of people here trying to buy a horse and have a bit of fun." The opening session was solid throughout, averaging A$34,500 compared to an overall average of A$29,812 last year, with a clearance rate of 86 percent. A further 250 lots will go under the hammer Monday beginning at 10:30 a.m.

THIS WEEK IN HISTORY...

January 20, 1979...Odds-on favorite Affirmed, with Steve Cauthen aboard, finished second in the San Fernando S. at Santa Anita, beaten 2 3/4 lengths by Radar Ahead. It was their fourth consecutive defeat. Cauthen subsequently lost the mount on Affirmed to jockey Laffit Pincay, Jr., who rode the horse for the remainder of his four-year-old season, winning seven victories in as many starts. Affirmed was later voted Horse of the Year for 1979. Cauthen had ridden Affirmed to a Triple Crown sweep the previous year and the pair recorded 11 wins in their 16 races together.

EDDERY HONORED

Pat Eddery received a lifetime achievement award at the Jockeys Association's 14th Lesters ceremony in London on Saturday night. The 11-time champion jockey, who retired at the end of the last turf flat season, was also nominated for the award for flat jockey of the year, but lost out to current champion Kieren Fallon. Ryan Moore received the award for Apprentice of the Year, while Lisa Jones picked up the lady Jockey of the Year honor. Recently retired jumps jockey Norman Williamson also received a special award for his contribution to the sport, while Tony McCoy was awarded Jumps Jockey of the Year.
