SEEKING REDEMPTION

Eclipse Award finalist Sightseek (Distant View), beaten a half length as the 7-10 choice last year, looks to redeem herself in this year's edition of the GI Santa Monica H. this afternoon. The chestnut mare has tried her luck over the Santa Anita strip four times before, but has yet to get to the winner's circle. Second in her first three Arcadia appearances at the beginning of 2003, she reeled off four consecutive Grade I wins when taken out of town for the heart of the campaign and was once again the odds-on favorite on her return for the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff.

Sightseek A Coglianesa

But the Juddmonte Farms homebred failed to fire on racing's championship day and finished a distant fourth. "If she doesn't win this race, I'll probably never run her at Santa Anita again," trainer Bobby Frankel told Daily Racing Form. Sightseek makes her five-year-old debut in the Santa Monica. She faces Got Koko (Signal Tap) and Island Fashion (Petionville), who are both Grade I winners at Santa Anita. Got Koko, five-for-eight at the track, swept the 2002-2003 La Canada series. Freshened after running fourth in the GI Santa Margarita H. last March, she came back to finish second behind Azeri in the Aug. 10 GII Clement L. Hirsch at Del Mar, then added another Santa Anita score in the Sept. 28 GII Lady's Secret Breeders' Cup H. She has not been out since running third in the Breeders' Cup Distaff, but has been working sharply for her 2004 opener. Island Fashion comes off a scintillating six-length victory in the GI La Brea S. over track and trip.

A MILLION REASONS TO SMILE

Southern Image (Halo's Image), the winner in his most recent start of the seven-furlong GI Malibu S. Dec. 26, proved he is an equally good router after scoring a three-length victory in the Sunshine Millions Classic yesterday at Santa Anita. "The Malibu was very nice, but this is special, too," said winning trainer Mike Machowsky. "I couldn't be happier." Sidelined off a third to Kafwain in the GII San Vicente S. last February, the Florida-bred took a Del Mar allowance going two turns Aug. 2, but did not reappear until the Malibu. Sent up to stalk the pace of Excess Summer (In Excess {Ire}) from the outside, Southern Image kicked on gamely three wide into the stretch, took command in upper stretch and edged clear. Favored Peace Rules (Jules) attempted to race from off the pace, but never factored and put in a mild late bid to finish fourth. "He was strong when I didn't want him to be strong," commented jockey Jerry Bailey. "He very much resented trying to lay off the pace."

Fire Slam, who reportedly popped a quarter crack after kicking a stall door recently, certainly showed no ill effects yesterday, coming from just off the pace to take the Lecomte in his three-year-old debut. The handsome bay overcame a slow start to take his Oct. 15 debut at Keeneland and made it two straight with a 3/4-length allowance victory at Churchill Downs Nov. 15. Stretched out to a distance of ground in his latest, the colt was once again sluggish at the start, but rallied willingly to finish a strong second in the $1-million Delta Jackpot S. at Delta Downs Dec. 5. Smoothly into stride this time around, Fire Slam stalked the early pace set by Two Down Automatic before going up after that rival with a quarter mile to run. The Stan Fulton colorbearer eased by that one in upper stretch and finished with good energy to easily account for the previously undefeated Shadowland. "He had his ears pinned back and was very comfortable," said winning rider Shane Sellers. "He stayed very alert throughout the race and when I nudged him, he responded very well." A multiple graded stakes winner as a three-year-old, Proud Man had a tough time sustaining that form afterwards, but came rolling down the center of the course to get all the money this time. Beaten a nose in the Gill Kelso Breeders' Cup H. Oct. 4, the Florida-bred was third in the Bonnie Heath Turf Cup Nov. 15 at Calder before being freshened up. He returned to run third in the Gill Appleton H. over this course Jan. 4 and went postward as the third choice in this 11-horse field.

Jockey Rene Douglas settled the six-year-old in midpack as longshot Hear No Evil tried to take it all the way up front. Switched to the outside on the far turn, Proud Man shifted gears and took aim on the pacesetter, collaring him inside the final sixteenth and going on to win by a half-length. The 5-2 favorite Man from Wicklow (Turkoman), making his first start since April, broke last and never budged from the back of the pack.

Valentine Dancer had traded decisions with several runners in this contest, but parlayed a perfect trip into a decision over main rival Moscow Burning. A three-length winner of the one-mile Harold C. Ramser H. over this course Oct. 12, she settled for third to Moscow Burning in the 10-furlong California Cup Distance H. Nov. 8 before winning the Cat's Cradle H. versus state-breds Dec. 14. The Cal-bred settled into a ground-saving fourth while favored Atlantic Ocean (Stormy Atlantic) went up to show the way. She had to wait for room at the top of the stretch, but came through a seam willingly under Jon Court and finished strongly up the rail to get the victory. "The owner and trainer gave me explicit and credible instructions of not only how to ride the race, but how the horse likes to run," said Court. "I just followed the directions to a 'T'. She is pretty much a push-button ride." Forced to take the overland route from post 11, Moscow Burning came up 3/4 of a length short. "He [jockey Jose Valdivia Jr.] got hung out to dry on both turns," said trainer Jim Cassidy, "and the other horse got the dream trip coming through on the inside." Though Florida-breds wound up winning six of the eight events in the Sunshine Millions, the F/M Turf featured California-breds sweeping the trifecta.

Sent off at 74-1, Secret Request came bounding up on the outside to spring the biggest upset of the Sunshine Millions, edging defending champion Smok'n Frolic in this $500,000 contest. After winning a Calder optional claimer going a mile Oct. 20, the bay couldn't get there against some of these rivals, running third to Scapade and Redoubled Miss (Adhocracy) in the Elmer Huebeck Distaff Nov. 15 and a close fourth to the latter in the Stage Door Betty H. at Calder Dec. 27. At the back of the pack through the opening half mile, Secret Request began to move up while saving ground, then angled to the outside and finished up strongly to deny Smok'n Frolic. The 2-1 favorite House Party (French Deputy) failed to mount a serious challenge and finished seventh, while the vaunted Pesci (Stormy Atlantic) was a flat ninth at 7-2. Mooji Moo had made one previous start at Santa Anita, zipping a quarter in :21 3/5 before tiring to be fifth in the Very Subtle H. on Breeders' Cup Day 2003. The bay returned to the East Coast to take the Dec. 7 Bluffs Dividend S. going five furlongs on the turf at Calder, and kicked off her 2004 campaign with a second in the Jan. 3 Minaret S. at Tampa Bay Downs. Overlooked by the California racing fans on Sunshine Millions Day, Mooji Moo broke well and went right to the lead. She zipped through fractions of :21.67 and :44.24, opened up a couple of lengths on the field at midtretch and was all out to hold off 49-1 Bold Roberta to the wire. "All I had to do was keep her out of trouble and get her around the racetrack and that's what I did," jockey Corey Nakatani said. Added Bruce Brown, assistant to trainer Tim Hills, "I wasn't really expecting the other horses to let her go like that. If she can get a breather around the turn, she's usually pretty tough." Shake You Down was claimed for $65,000 by Scott Lake last March, but looked like a million dollars winning this one. After reeling off consecutive scores in the GIII Bold Ruler H. May 10, GII True North Breeders' Cup H. June 7 and the GIII Smile Sprint H. July 12, the chestnut gelding threw in a rare clunker, running fourth at 1-2 in the GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. at the Graveyard of Favorites Aug. 10. He rebounded with an allowance victory at Belmont Sept. 11 before running third in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Oct. 25 and second in the GI De Francis Memorial Dash S. Nov. 15. Most recently a 2 1/4-length winner of Aqueduct's GIII Gravesend H. Dec. 21, Shake You Down was made the solid choice here. The speedy gelding showed sharp early speed, set fractions of :21 4/5, :44 1/5 and increased his lead to the wire. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Good horses are able to overcome adversity and that is precisely what Silent Sighs accomplished en route to her second consecutive stakes victory. The Wygod homebred filly was no secret in her Oct. 13 debut at Santa Anita, winning off by six lengths as part of an entry favored at odds-on. Sent a distance of ground in her next start, the Nov. 8 California Cup Juvenile Fillies, the dark bay set a fast pace and yielded late to fall by a half length to the more seasoned House of Fortune. In her most recent effort, the Cal-bred hopped at the start, but recovered nicely and charged home a three-length winner of the California Breeders' Champion S. Dec. 27, defeating Yearly Report, who would return to win the GIII Santa Ynez S. A sluggish start cost Silent Sighs early position and she was forced to wait in behind horses. Still crying out for room in upper stretch, she found a seam inside the final furlong and was all out for the win. "It kind of reminded me of a French race on the turf where they only race the last 200 yards," commented winning trainer Julio Canani, who said his filly would get a break before being aimed for the GI Kentucky Oaks Apr. 30. Also Ran: Don'tsellmeshort, Badgett's Mandate, Baronege, Race for Glory, Pioneerman, Score High, Dad's Lessons.

Saint Afleet, now three-for-three when not facing Lion Heart, battled nearly every step of the way to earn his first stakes victory in this $250,000 affair. The Florida-bred never got untracked in his Oct. 24 debut, winding up ninth to Lion Heart at Santa Anita, but turned things around next out with a game victory Nov. 16 at Hollywood. Following a 2 1/2-length score in a six-furlong optional claimer Dec. 7, the bay tackled Lion Heart and two turns in the GI Hollywood Futurity, but weakened to finish fifth in that Dec. 20 contest. Saint Afleet came back to post a bullet three-quarters work in 1:13 3/5 Jan. 14, and was the second choice to another son of Northern Afleet, the highly regarded Ice Wynnd Fire. Hustled away from the gate, Saint Afleet went up to duel with Don'tsellmeshort (Benchmark) through fractions of :21 1/5 and :44. He put his head in front as they straightened into the stretch, but had to summon up his reserves as Cheiron challenged from the outside, while the favorite angled to the rail in the final strides. In the end, Saint Afleet had a head on Cheiron, with a nose further back to Ice Wynnd Fire. "Last time, he didn't break very well, so I told Kent [Desormeaux], 'Make sure he gets out of there,' and he did," said winning trainer Craig Dollase. "He broke great today. He won't let anybody by him, that's for sure." As for the favorite, jockey Jerry Bailey said, "It was kind of a screwed up race. I couldn't get him to give me a solid eighth of a mile anywhere. He was up, he was back, he was out." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

KEY DEPUTY (c, 4, Deputy Minister--Key Phrase {GISW, $233,299}, by Flying Paster), a $195,000 KEESEP yearling, romped by 9 1/2 lengths while breaking his maiden at the Spa Aug. 31, then ran third in a Belmont allowance Oct. 11. Fresh off a 7 3/4-length allowance score at Aqueduct Nov. 11, he was backed as the 8-5 choice here. The half to Yankee Gentleman (Storm Cat), SW, $202,547, hit the gate at the start, but recovered to settle in third while eventual second-place finisher Record Tide (Montbrook) blazed the way in :21 4/5 and :44 3/5. The chestnut began to move on the turn and closed strongly to get up to win by 3/4 of a length. Lifetime Record: 5-3-0-2, $86,700. O-Live Oak Plantation. B-Mr & Mrs Martin J Wygod (KY). T-William I Mott.

MUSTANFAR (c, 3, Unbridled--Manwah, by Lyphard) debuted with a fifth in an off-the-turf mile at Belmont Oct. 24 before graduating in a nine-furlong contest at Aqueduct Nov. 11. Bumped at the start of the GII Remsen S. Nov. 29, the chestnut barely ran a step on his way to finishing seventh, and blinkers were added for his return to the races. In midpack early, the 7-2 shot made a sweeping run on the far turn, challenged in midstretch and just got by a game Suave (A.P. Indy) to win by a head. Suave was DQ'd to third for impeding Swingforthefences (Boston Harbor), who was moved up to second. The winner, a half to Tadriz (Red Ransom), MSW-GB, was produced by a half sister to classic hero Nashwan and MGSWs Unfuwain and Alwasmī. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-0, $49,380.

FARNUM ALLEY (c, 3, Distorted Humor--Falon, by Cox's Ridge), a $150,000 KEESEP yearling, was erratic at the start of his Nov. 1 debut at Churchill Downs and finished seventh, but got his act together for his second try. The chestnut came back to break his maiden by a neck going a mile in Louisville Nov. 19, then was given a break. Let go at 16-1 in his sophomore bow, he broke sharply before getting taken back off a moderate early pace. The 6-5 chalk Tiger Heart (Scatmandu) put a head in front at the eighth pole, but Farnum Alley came flying in the final yards to best the crowd's choice by a nose. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $47,855. O-Eugene & Laura Melnyk. B-WinStar Farm LLC (KY). T-Anthony Reinstedler.

RENARD BLEU (c, 3, Honour and Glory--G. U. Seniorita {SP}, by Pancho Villa), a $52,000 KEENOV weanling and a $170,000 FTKJUL yearling, ran fifth traveling one mile at Calder last time Dec. 27. Sent off at 5-2 while running as part of an entry, the bay colt raced in fifth-place early, moved four wide on the turn, made it to the front in deep stretch and had enough left to hold off 2-1 chalk Reggie for Three (Belong to Me) by a neck. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $21,735. O-Buckram Oak Farm. B-Budget Stable (KY). T-George Mikhalides.

4th-GPX, $32,000, Msw, 3yo, 7f, 1:23 1/5, ft.
HARBOUR GATE (g, 3, Boston Harbor--Belle's Appeal {SW, $101,566}, by Valid Appeal), a $120,000 ADNMAR 2yo, closed to finish third in his Calder bow going five furlongs Nov. 29. Breaking from the 11 hole here, the 3-1 chance shot out to the lead, set a pressured pace and drew off to a 6 1/2-length decision. Intimidator (Gone West), a $2.1 million KEEJUL yearling, won the battle for second. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $21,540. O-Francis C McDonnell. B-Adena Springs (KY). T-George R Handy.

The winner of the 2002 GI Carter H., Peeping Tom was again a factor in Grade I company last year, running third behind Congaree at 10-1 in the Carter and filling that spot behind Aldebaran as a 31-1 outsider in the GI Met Mile. Given a summer break after taking the June 21 James B. Moseley Breeders' Cup H. at Suffolk Downs and running second to Aldebaran in the July 4 GII Tom Fool H., the bay was 10th in the Sept. 27 GI Vosburgh S., but rebounded to take an allowance race at the Meadowlands Nov. 1. He ended the year with a fourth in the Dec. 21 GIII Gravesend H. and was coming off a third-place finish as the favorite in an optional claimer over this track and trip Jan. 7. Let go at double-digit odds, Peeping Tom was well back early as Don Six cut out honest fractions, but finished full of run to get his head in front on the wire. "He's just an old pro," winning jockey Ariel Smith said. "He knows what's going on. I was just a passenger. I could feel him doing just enough to get up for the win." Peeping Tom is expected to go next in the Feb. 16 GII General George H. at Laurel.

AVENTURA PLACE (c, 4, Miswaki--Star Jolie {SW, $158,537}, by John Alden) won an off-the-turf affair for a $50,000 tag at Saratoga July 25 and made it two in a row after a short vacation, returning to take a Belmont allowance test Oct. 9. But the chestnut colt had not fared so well trying the Big A inner track in his last two, posting a pair of off-the-board efforts Dec. 12 and Dec. 26. A 10-1 outsider to make amends this time, he was tucked in along the rail while tugging on the bit early, angled outside for the stretch drive and caught Catlike Move (Tabasco Cat) to win it by a head. Gators N Bears, off the board in just one of his 14 prior tries at six furlongs, picked up five wins last season, including the Gill Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S. at Monmouth in July and the Sonny Hine S. at Laurel in October. The bay ended the campaign with a pair of solid efforts against top older sprinters, running third in the Nov. 15 GI DeFrancis Dash at Laurel and in the Dec. 21 Gill Gravesend H. at Aqueduct. In against a much softer field in his 2004 debut, the Jersey-bred was the odds-on chalk. Gators N Bears was with the pace from the start, opened up a daylight lead after a half in :45.26 and was three in front as they raced past the eighth pole, but had to fight off the late charge of My Good Trick for the narrow score. The winner is expected to make his next start in the GII General George H. Feb. 16.

Pro Prado won at first asking at Turfway Sept. 13, then added a Keeneland allowance score Oct. 4. Stretched out to one mile for his latest start, the GIII Iroquois S. Nov. 2, he finished fourth beaten 9 1/2 lengths. Cut back in distance here, he stalked the early pacesetter Wildcat Shoes and dug in gamely to narrowly defeat that rival. "[He] stumbled in the Iroquois, and we thought he might have hurt his cannon bone," explained winning trainer Bob Holthus. "We took him to an equine clinic to have him digitally checked. Valenzuela Suspended After Missing Drug Test:

Jockey Patrick Valenzuela was suspended by Santa Anita stewards Friday a day after taking off his mounts and not appearing for a drug test. Valenzuela had called steward Ingrid Fermin mid-day Thursday to report he had twisted an ankle leaving his house on the way to the track and was unable to ride. According to Daily Racing Form, the stewards asked Valenzuela to appear for a routine drug test, which the 41-year-old rider is required to do under an agreement with the California Horse Racing Board. Pending a hearing before the Board of Stewards at Santa Anita, Valenzuela is denied access to all premises in the jurisdiction, and cannot work horses during the ban. Valenzuela, who swept all five California riding titles in 2003, is an Eclipse Award finalist.

Action This Day Tunes Up for Sham:

Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Action This Day (Kris S.) sharpened up for the Feb. 8 Sham S. with a stiff one-mile workout yesterday in 1:37 4/5 at Santa Anita. Trained by Richard Mandella for B. Wayne Hughes, the $150,000 Keeneland July graduate was to have made his three-year-old bow in the GII Santa Catalina S. Jan. 17, but was instead rerouted to the Sham, which drew the likes of Empire Maker and Ten Most Wanted in 2002.

California Workers' Comp. Woes Continue:

New California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger Thursday vetoed a bill which would have provided relief to the state's racing industry, according to the California Thoroughbred Breeders' Association website. The bill, which called for a .5 percent increase in the takeout for exotic wagers on California races, would have generated approximately $10 million in an effort to offset the cost of insurance. Schwarzenegger's veto message said: "I have several concerns with this bill, which would allow money, allocated from an increase in the takeout from the pari-mutuel pools on horse races in California, to be used to help defray the cost of workers' compensation insurance within the California horse racing industry. While I agree with the concept in this bill, providing additional takeout to help defray increased workers' compensation costs for horse racing, the entire workers' compensation system needs to be reformed in a comprehensive manner. As with other industries in California, the racing industry is severely impacted by the workers' compensation crisis." The bill had passed cleanly through the Assembly 78-0, and its supporters were not expecting a veto by the governor. Assemblyman Jerome Horton has reintroduced an amended bill.

Look out, Cigar and Hallowed Dreams, Ema Bovary is after you, having run her winning streak to seven. The Chilean-bred was put up for the win after finishing second by a nose in the Kalookan Queen H. at Santa Anita on New Year's Eve, and was the prohibitive favorite to have her picture taken once again. Checked at the start, the bay was rank as she caboosed the field while saving ground. But she regrouped, split horses in deep stretch and came home a handy winner.

2nd-GGX, $31,570, Msw, 3yo, f, 8.5fT, 1:47 2/5, sf. CALLMELAURYN (f, 3, Demons Begone--Don't Call Debi, by Native Royalty), third in three dirt starts, was most recently beaten 1 1/4 lengths going a mile in the mud at Golden Gate Fields Dec. 27. A 9-2 shot trying the turf for the first time, the $19,000 WASSEP yearling was away well and raced just off the leaders through the opening quarter, but dropped back a bit as they raced down the backstretch. The dark bay came on again in the final drive, however, rallying past front-running Windy Flapper (Cromwell) before drawing off to beat the pacesetter by 2 1/2 lengths. The winner is a 1/2 to One Night Lover (L'Enjoleur), MSW & GSP, $164,902; and Slinkylady (What A Hoist), MSW, $102,595. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-3, $26,350. O-Joseph Stiglich. B-Jean M G Welch (WA). Lacie Girl Retired:

Lacie Girl (Editor's Note--Dream Regally, by Vice Regent), a five-time stakes winner in Northern California, has been retired from racing and will be bred to Taylor Made stallion Forestry. Purchased for $55,000 out of the 2000 Keeneland January sale, the chestnut filly won her first four career starts before finishing sixth to Got Koko in the 2002 GI La Brea S. In ten trips to the post last year, she added four more victories, all in stakes company, and was second in the GIII Rancho Bernardo H. She made her final appearance in November, finishing seventh in the Star Ball H. Raced by Hollendorfer in partnership with Marta Racing Ventures, Lacie Girl retires with a record of 16-8-6-0 and earnings of $314,390.

TIME OUT FOR FALLON

Kieren Fallon has announced his decision to leave Dubai and take a break before the start of the British turf flat season at Doncaster Mar. 25, Racing Post revealed yesterday. After a winter stint in Japan, the champion jockey joined forces with conditioner Allan Smith, but found the Dubai schedule too undemanding and has returned to Newmarket. "I'm taking a break," he told the Post. "It's been a long winter and I wanted to have a month's holiday and spend time with my family. I don't have any plans at present. We were racing only twice a week and there was too much time being wasted in between. I just needed to get away and have a proper break. I could be starting the turf season for the first time in a few years. I'll just have to see what happens, and I don't know if I'll ride on the all-weather beforehand at this stage."

Yesterday's Results:

BAAWRH (GB) (c, 3, Cadeaux Genereux {GB}--Kronengold {GSP-Ger}, by Golden Act), runner-up in a course-and-distance maiden Jan. 10, was taken to the front in the early stages. Joined by Fiddlers Ford (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) inside the final 100 yards, the 7-2 joint second favorite was headed in the final strides and beaten a short head, but was awarded the race by the stewards. Lifetime Record: 6-1-2-1, £6,938. O-Sheikh Ahmed bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Darley; T-Mick Channon.

Lingfield, 1.05, Mdn, £5,905, 3yo, 7f (AWT), 1:26.04, std.

SOFISTICATION (IRE) (f, 3, Dayjur--Cieladeed, by Shadeed), ninth over track and trip in her Jan. 3 debut, was sent off at odds of 12-1 and showed early speed to stalk the pace on the inner. Quickening through a gap on the rail in the straight, she wore down Ile Facile (Ire) (Turtle Island {Ire}) with 100 yards remaining before asserting for a half-length score. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £3,838.
