NO STRETCH FOR ISLAND FASHION

Looking for her third consecutive Grade I victory, Island Fashion (Petionville) stretches out to a mile and a sixteenth for the Santa Maria H. at Santa Anita this afternoon. But the added distance should prove no problem for the filly. Winner of the Dec. 27 GI La Brea S. and the Jan. 25 GI Santa Monica H. at seven furlongs, the four-year-old showed she could handle a route of ground last season, taking the 1 1/16-mile GIII Delaware Oaks by 6 1/2 lengths and adding a six-length romp in the 10-furlong GI Alabama S. at Saratoga. "This distance is much better for her," trainer Marcelo Polanco said. "Going seven-eighths, she has to force herself a lot more. At a mile and a sixteenth, she can take a little breather. She will be a lot more dangerous going long." As the 121-pound highweight, Island Fashion gives from one to nine pounds to her six Santa Maria rivals. Adoration (Honor Grades), who upset the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff field at 40-1, gets in at 120 after finishing second to Star Parade (Arg) (Parade Marshal), 114, in the Dec. 7 GII Bayakoa H. The two make their 2004 debuts. Making her seasonal and her U.S. bow is Preeminence (Jpn) (Afleet). The seven-year-old mare, with 13 wins from 49 career starts, has amassed a total of $5,037,956 in purses while racing on the lucrative Japanese circuit. She beat the boys in the Nov. 20 G2-Jpn Urawa Kinen two starts back and comes off a second-place finish in the Dec. 23 G2-Jpn Nagoya Grand Prix.

A GAME ADVENTURE

A.P. Adventure (A.P. Indy) closed powerfully and gamely held off Hollywood Story (Wild Rush) to win yesterday's GI Las Virgenes S. at Santa Anita by a determined half-length. Trained by Wally Dollase, the bay filly stormed to a 5 1/2-length debut win last October and returned to win the GIII Santa Ysabel S. in her sophomore debut Jan. 4. Sent off the even-money favorite in yesterday's one-mile event, A.P. Adventure was allowed to settle off the pace after a slow start. She moved closer down the backstretch, split foes to take the lead at midstretch and refused to let Hollywood Story by in the final strides. "She's a runner, no doubt about it," said winning jockey Alex Solis. "She's just playing with these fillies; she's still got no clue what she's doing out there. If she learns how to run, she's going to be something else." Dollase added, "She kind of runs in spurts. She'll learn. She's got a lot of talent, she's just got to put it to a little better use down the road." A.P. Adventure will now be pointed towards the Mar. 13 GI Santa Anita Oaks. BADGE OF HONOR

He faces a talented field of sprinters in just his second start following a 10 1/2-month layoff, but Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy) has been made the overwhelming early favorite for today's GII General George H. at Laurel Park. The four-year-old colt, listed at 4-5 on the morning line, took his first three starts by a combined 26 lengths, including a 10-length triumph in last year's GIII Risen Star S. at Fair Grounds. But he suffered a displaced palate and finished sixth in the GII Louisiana Derby, then fractured his cannon bone while getting ready for the GI Blue Grass S. He finally made his return in a Fair Grounds allowance Jan. 23 and showed no signs of rustiness, going gate to wire to win by 2 3/4 lengths after stopping the timer in 1:08 4/5 for the six furlongs. "He is just an impressive horse," trainer Ronny Werner said. "Nothing he does really surprises me." But Leo Nechamkin, who owns and trains Gators N Bears (Stormy Atlantic), is hoping the favorite falters. "Badge of Silver will go out to the front and, if he does, hopefully we will be one of the horses waiting for him to back up a little...if he actually does," he said. Gators N Bears was third against top company in his last two starts at three, finishing 1 3/4 lengths behind A Huevo in the Nov. 15 GI DeFrancis Dash and four lengths in back of Shake You Down in the Dec. 21 GIII Gravesend H. He started 2004 with a half-length tally in the Jan. 24 Hoover S., but looks for his first win at seven furlongs.

Badge of Silver Lou Hodges Jr.

The luck of the draw was supposed to work in favor of Lucky Owners, but in the end, the inside gate proved to be his undoing, as European export Tiber was able to register the mild surprise over the G1 Hong Kong Mile hero. A consistent performer for John Gosden, Tiber was placed seven times from nine starts in Europe and finished that portion of his career with a victory in a 17-runner Goodwood handicap Aug. 1. The bay made a solid Hong Kong debut Dec. 14, finishing runner-up in a Class 1 handicap and was coming into this off a 3 1/4-length success versus similar over course and distance Jan. 18. Always prominent while racing just off the speed, Tiber had clear sailing into the stretch, collared front-running The Duke (Aus) (Danehill) with a furlong to run and stayed on well for the victory. "He has great talent this horse," commented winning trainer John Moore. "And to defeat an International Group 1 winner like Lucky Owners is a big plus." Odds-on Lucky Owners was never far from the front, was shuffled back a bit on the final and charged home gamely, but too late. His trainer, Tony Cruz, remained upbeat following the race. "I think he's more of a distance horse," he said. "He wants further than a mile, really. The 2000 meters in the Derby is just what he needs now." The G1 Hong Kong Derby is set for Mar. 21.

Classic Contender VALUE PLUS, a $1.1-million yearling by UNBRIDLED'S SONG wires the field, drawing off by 5 3/4 lengths at Gulfstream Park in a final time of 1:21 2/5.

Third in an off-the-turf affair at Belmont Park in his Sept. 24 debut, Gradepoint came back to break his maiden going a mile and a sixteenth at Keeneland Oct. 17. Given a break for the rest of the year, the dark bay returned to post a rallying half-length score in a Fair Grounds allowance test Jan. 2. The second choice trying stakes company in his second start of the campaign, he trailed the field through six furlongs in 1:13.45, closed some ground from the inside on the far turn, then angled outside for the final drive and surged past favored Mr. Jester late to take his third straight by a narrow margin. "He was much more push-button today," winning rider Robby Albarado said of the maturing three-year-old. "I don't think his best races have showed up yet because he showed a lot of improvement in this race and I think, with his connections and his breeding, he could be a top contender." Trainer Neil Howard added, "I felt like he'd do better today than his last effort. A.P. Indy's need more time to mature, and I believe this horse is beginning to mature." Howard said the Mar. 7 GII Louisiana Derby could be next for Gradepoint. Click for the brisnet.com chart. For the RaceReplays.com replay, click here.

The dark bay filly pressured pacesetting Ivanavinalot (West Acre) before forging to the front turning for home and drawing away confidently to the wire. Continuously was unsuccessful in two starts on the Santa Anita turf last year, but looks to turn it around in his first start of 2004. The five-year-old pressed the pace before weakening to be fourth behind Storming Home (GB) in the Sept. 28 GI C. L. Hirsch H. in Arcadia. He went right to the front, then faded late and finished eighth to the trio of Runaway Dancer, Labirinto and Senor Swinger in the Oct. 24 GIII C. F. Burke H. But the bay tried new tactics in his last two outings of 2003 with good results. He closed to be second by a nose in the Nov. 22 GI Hollywood Turf Cup and was awarded the win via disqualification, and rallied to be second again in his latest attempt, the Dec. 27 GII W.L. McKnight H. at Calder. The top three from the Burke have been off the board in a combined five starts since.

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

Second of June Injured

Second of June (Louis Quatorze), who finished second as the 3-2 favorite in Saturday's GII Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream Park, suffered an incomplete, non-displaced condylar fracture of the right front cannon bone in the race, according to track veterinarian Dr. Mary Scollay. Dr. Stephen Selway operated on the three-year-old at his clinic on the Gulfstream backside yesterday afternoon. "The fracture's not displaced and it's not real wide, but it's there," trainer Bill Cesare told Daily Racing Form. "He'll be off for three or four months. He probably won't be able to run until November or December."

Sophomores on the Southern California Work Tab
Minister Eric (Old Trieste), runner-up in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, worked six furlongs Saturday at Santa Anita in 1:14.40. The chestnut colt could make his sophomore debut in the Feb. 28 Baldwin S. on the turf. "It would be just because of the timing of it," explained trainer Richard Mandella. "I don't have him ready to go long, he's about ready to go short and he would be ready by that race. He's bred to run on the grass and the Baldwin wouldn't hurt him because then I could skip on to something longer afterwards." Buddy Gil won last year's Baldwin before winning the GI Santa Anita Derby.

Quinton's Gold Rush (Wild Rush) worked a bullet six furlongs at Hollywood Park on Saturday in 1:12.80. The Mike Mitchell trainee is expected to start next in the Mar. 6 GII San Rafael S.

Post times are listed in local time. A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner.

Papua took this race as the 4-5 favorite last year, then stepped up sharply in class to finish fourth in the Apr. 12 GI Carter H. Sidelined after that effort, the bay came back to be second to Shake You Down in a Belmont allowance Sept. 11. He tired to eighth in the GI Vosburgh S. 16 days later, but rebounded with an Aqueduct allowance score Nov. 7. Second under 132 pounds in the Nov. 27 Gill Fall Highweight H., the homebred ended the year with a fifth in the Dec. 21 Gill Gravesend H. The slight choice in his 2004 debut, he settled in fifth through a half and was making his move as they headed down the stretch when Fall Highweight winner Bossanova (Pine Bluff) broke down and fell in front of him. Papua hurdled his stricken rival and continued his rally, driving between horses in the final yards to prevail. Bossanova fractured both sesamoids in his right front leg and had to be euthanized. His jockey Javier Castellano suffered a bruised hand.

GOLDEN CONTENDER (g, 6, Key Contender--Golden Sweetheart, by Strike Gold) was claimed no less than five times last year, most recently changing hands for $16,000 after a win at Monmouth Park Sept. 28. The dark bay cruised to a 6 1/4-length score over $20,000 claimers at Aqueduct two starts later, then ended the season with a third-place finish in an entry-level allowance test on the Big A inner track Dec. 19. Third after a troubled trip as the 2-1 chalk in his 2003 opener Jan. 18, the 1/2 to Noble Sweetheart (Noble Nashua), SW, $101,149, was off at 9-2 here. Never far from the front, he joined 19-10 Elyon (Polish Pro) in the stretch and outgamed the crowd's choice to the wire for a head score. Lifetime Record: 54-7-8-8, $252,605. KENTUCKY PRIDE (c, 4, A.P. Indy--Voodoo Lily {GSW, $250,370}, by Baldski) was knocking on the door in his two latest going nine-furlongs, including last out Jan. 31 and went off the hot 1-2 chalk to graduate this time. Pressing a moderate early pace through the opening half mile, the half to Lily O'gold (Slew O' Gold), MGSP, $280,875; and Shah Jehan (Mr. Prospector), MGSP, $220,722, thrust his head in front after three quarters in 1:14.63 and held sway in the drive to score by 1 3/4 lengths over Sainted Colony (Saint Ballado). Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-0, $43,500. O/B-Joseph Allen (KY). T-Kieran P McLaughlin.

4th-AQU, $41,000, Msw, (S), 3yo, 6f, 1:13 3/5, ft.

+EVERYDAYISSATURDAY (c, 3, Storm Cat--India Divina {Chi} {GISW-US, GSW & G1SP-Chi, $256,310-US}, by Roy), sent off the 3-2 choice, raced greenly in the early going and moved in along the rail to mount his challenge on the turn for home. Building momentum from that point onward, the dark bay took command in the final sixteenth of a mile and drew clear late to score by a comfortable 2 1/4-length margin over A.P. Lax (A.P Jet). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. O-Barry K Schwartz. B-Stonewall Farm (NY). T-Michael E Hushion.

Spill Mars Philly Finale:

A five-horse spill marred yesterday's 10th and final race at Philadelphia Park. The accident started when pacesetter Little Diva broke down at the top of the stretch, throwing jockey Tony Black to the track. Four following horses were unable to avoid the fallen horse and jockey. Jockeys Eberd Estrada, Clinton Potts and Jorge Duarte, Jr. all appear to have escaped serious injury. Black and veteran rider Anibal Prado were taken by ambulance to Torresdale-Frankford hospital. Black suffered a concussion and fractured left thumb. Prado suffered a compound fracture above his right elbow. Little Diva was humanely destroyed after the spill, while the other four horses were uninjured.

TVG Loses Laurel and Pimlico Signal:

Following a decision handed down by the United States District Court in Baltimore Friday, the Maryland Jockey Club notified TVG Network that it is no longer permitted, as of yesterday, to accept wagering on or televise races from Laurel or Pimlico Racecourses. The Maryland-based race tracks are both owned by Magna Entertainment Corp.

Lukas Happy with Azeri:

D. Wayne Lukas reported that 2002 Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter) continues to train well. "She's doing very good," Lukas said of the five-year-old, who has been off since finishing second in the GII Lady's Secret Breeders' Cup H. last September. "She's absolutely training with a lot of enthusiasm. Right now she's extremely focused and has a great attitude." In her second official work for Lukas, Azeri went four furlongs yesterday at Santa Anita in :48.60. "Obviously she's not going to make any races in February or March, but we're looking at a target date for her return of around Apr. 1." While under the tutelage of trainer Laura de Seroux, Azeri won 14 of 16 races and was twice named champion older mare.
