WELL FANCIED EARNS HIS STRIPES

It appeared to be an uphill battle on paper with the re-emergent Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy) in the race, but the spoils went to Well Fancied (Prosper Fager), who made it look easy in yesterday's GII General George H. at Laurel. The six-year-old capped off a four-race skein when he stretched out to beat New York-breds in the Oct. 18 Empire Classic H., but was in too deep in the Nov. 29 GI Cigar Mile and finished a well-beaten fifth.

Working lights-out in recent weeks off the brief respite, the crowd's second choice jumped out to an early lead and set measured fractions while Gators N Bears (Stormy Atlantic) and Badge of Silver tracked intently. Well Fancied never let them get any closer than the length advantage he had established early and won his first graded stakes with something left. Badge of Silver faded to fifth, while Gators N Bears failed to stave off the closing Unforgettable Max (Northern Afleet) for show honors. STAR ON PARADE

It's taken her a few North American starts to find her groove, but the Argentine-bred Star Parade (Arg) (Parade Marshall) has emerged as a leading lady on the West Coast. The dark bay took advantage of the scratch of MGISW Island Fashion (Petionville) in yesterday's GI Santa Maria H. at Santa Anita and led gate-to-wire for her initial Grade I triumph. "She doesn't like to get beat," said winning jockey Victor Espinoza. Coverage cont. p2.

PUERTO BANUS IN SAN LUIS OBISPO

Known best last year for being Spain's baby brother, Puerto Banus (Supremo) has carved out a nice identity for himself as a turf marathoner. Winning his second Grade II event at 12 furlongs, he showed steely determination in closing into soft fractions to prevail in a blanket finish in Monday's GII San Luis Obispo H. at Santa Anita. Coverage cont. p2.

☆ SANTA MARIA CONT. ☆

Star in the Making...

A maiden winner in her native country before moving to America last summer, Star Parade was two-for-three on the main track against allowance foes before registering the 12-1 upset in the Dec. 7 GII Bayakoa H. at Hollywood. Eager to prove that was no fluke, she sped out from the gate and set testing fractions on the lead, but left enough in the tank to repel Bare Necessities (Silver Deputy) in the dying strides.

Scratched Island Fashion Looks for Bigger Fish...

Morning-line favorite Island Fashion (Petionville) was scratched from the race and will instead take aim at a future Grade I race. "The owner [Jeffrey Nielsen] called me yesterday about noon," explained trainer Marcelo Polanco, "and said he would like to run in the next Grade I in a bigger race for more money." Polanco indicated the Mar. 14 GI Santa Margarita H. and the Apr. 3 GI Apple Blossom H. as possibilities.

☆ SAN LUIS OBISPO CONT. ☆

Coming Into His Own...

Puerto Banus raced with only moderate success on the dirt early in his career, but turned the corner as a racehorse when switched to the sod last April; his third turf started yielded a victory in the 1 1/2-mile GII Sunset H. at Hollywood in July. On the sidelines for five months off a sixth in the GI Sword Dancer H. last August, he just missed third in the 10-furlong GII San Marcos S. Jan. 19 and figured to enjoy the added distance here. Off the leaders in eighth as they plodded along through easy fractions, Puerto Banus kicked into gear a panel out and narrowly bested Continuously (Diesis {GB}), Continental Red (Flying Continental) and a slew of challengers for the top prize. When Smoke Glacken covered his first mares at Gainesway in 1998, he was still basking in the glory of having been voted champion sprinter of 1997, yet his fee was a comparatively modest $10,000.

The relative cheapness of his fee was no doubt a reflection of his none-too-fashionable pedigree, which had seen him sell for $34,000 as a weanling and $65,000 as a two-year-old. It also no doubt reflected the fact that the phrase "champion sprinter" hasn't exactly been synonymous with stallion success in the States in recent decades. While the likes of Tom Fool, Bold Ruler, Intentionally and Dr. Fager were all named champion sprinter during the 1950s or '60s, successful stallions have been the exception rather than the rule among the Eclipse-winning sprinters. Significantly, the ones which have tended to make the grade, such as Gulch and Cherokee Run, conformed to the pattern of their illustrious predecessors in that they, too, stayed at least a mile and an eighth.

Perhaps his fee also reflected the fact that he had become one of the few horses to take this particular Eclipse Award without having won the Breeders' Cup Sprint. In fact, the Breeders' Cup had not been on his agenda, because he would have needed supplementing for the race, but he never made it to the King's Bishop or the Vosburgh either, having been forced into premature retirement by chips in a knee.

Smoke Glacken still had solid claims to the championship, even though his campaign had ended as early as July 19. His only defeats in eight starts as a three-year-old had come on the two occasions he ventured as far as a mile and a sixteenth, when second to Touch Gold in the GII Lexington S. and third in the GIII Louisiana Derby.

His 14-race career established that he was in his element over six furlongs--a distance which yielded five wins from five starts--but he wasn't merely a speedball, as he showed with victories in the GI Hopeful S. and GIII Riva Ridge S. over seven furlongs and a win in the GIII Southwest S. over a mile.

That eight-length victory in the Southwest S. prompted some comments from his connections which were quickly disproved on the track, but which are interesting now that Smoke Glacken's admirable son Read The Footnotes is developing into a possible Kentucky Derby contender.

"Distance will be no problem for this horse," was the verdict of the winning rider, Craig Perret. Smoke Glacken's handler, Henry Carroll, also felt that a mile wasn't the colt's limit.

"My gut feeling is this horse doesn't look like a sprinter," was Carroll's reaction. "He looks like a horse that will stay. He's a big, long-striding colt. He's got a tremendous reach."

There were reasons for thinking that they might be right. Although Smoke Glacken's sire, Two Punch, had been treated like a six-furlong specialist during a short career, Two Punch is a son of the Kentucky Oaks winner Heavenly Cause. Then there was the fact that Smoke Glacken's broodmare sire, Magesterial, had been a Group 2 winner over a mile and a half in Ireland.

Fortunately for Read The Footnotes' growing band of admirers, there is more stamina to be found in the bottom half of his pedigree. His dam, Baydon Belle, raced at up to a mile and a half in Britain without showing much ability, unlike her half-brother Airport (by Lear Fan), who was stakes class at up to a mile and a quarter.

Baydon Belle's sire, Al Nasr, who excelled at around a mile and a quarter in France, is probably best known as the sire of Nasr El Arab, whose wins included the San Juan Capistrano H..

It is encouraging, too, that Read The Footnotes' second dam, Vague Prospect, is by Vaguely Noble, a powerful influence for stamina. Two very good winners out of Vaguely Noble mares were by Al Nasr's sire Lyphard, with Dahar winning the San Luis Rey S. and San Juan Capistrano H. and Sabin the Yellow Ribbon S., plus graded stakes over 11 and 12 furlongs.

Vague Prospect was a three-parts sister to Royal and Regal, winner of the Florida Derby--the likely next step on Read The Footnote's agenda. As Read The Footnotes' fourth dam, the celebrated Native Street, won the Kentucky Oaks, there is no shortage of class in his pedigree. All in all, it isn't so surprising that he was able to win the GII Remsen S. over a mile and an eighth at two and, judging by the way he finished in the Fountain of Youth on Saturday, he may well last a mile and a quarter.

Of course, there would be nothing new about a Kentucky Derby winner by a high-class sprinter, as Smoke Glacken's grandsire, Mr. Prospector, was responsible for Fusaichi Pegasus, and Mr. Prospector's son Gulch supplied Thunder Gulch. I still need a little convincing, though, in view of Smoke Glacken's stock having an average maximum winning distance of 7.01 furlongs.

What isn't in doubt is Smoke Glacken's ability as a sire. With 176 named foals in his first three crops, he has sired 108 winners, including 12 stakes winners. With that admirable filly Smok'n Frolic (who has a Grade III win over a mile and an eighth to her credit) among them, Smoke Glacken has earned the recent $10,000 rise in his fee, from $15,000 last year to $25,000 for the upcoming breeding season. With better mares coming his way, he could well build on the solid foundations he's laid down.

Red-Hot Violette Readies Man From Wicklow:

Trainer Rick Violette, Jr. hopes his stellar Gulfstream meet continues when he saddles Man From Wicklow (Turkoman) in Sunday's GI Gulfstream Breeders' Cup H. Violette enjoyed a banner day Saturday, conditioning Read the Footnotes off a three-month break to a dead-game head victory over Second of June in the GII Fountain of Youth S. Earlier on the card, his lightly raced three-year-old Swingforthe fences couldn't have been more impressive, rallying past a blockade of horses to win an entry-level allowance test. Seven-year-old Man From Wicklow, looking to defend his title in Sunday's 11-furlong contest, failed to fire off a nine-month layoff when last in the Sunshine Millions Turf. "I was very disappointed with the Sunshine Millions race," said Violette. "In hindsight, he probably never should have been in a race at a mile and an eighth. The fractions were sprint times and he just doesn't have that kind of high cruising speed." But Violette is confident his charge can reverse his fortunes Sunday, and was encouraged by the veteran's easy mile breeze in 1:43 over the dirt track at Palm Meadows Training Center last Saturday. "We feel he's training great, and he should be ready for a big race on Sunday."

Jockeys Recovering After Philly Park Spill:

Anibal Prado, the most seriously injured jockey in Sunday's horrific five-horse spill at Philadelphia Park, underwent surgery Sunday night to stabilize his broken right elbow. The veteran rider is expected to be sidelined indefinitely. Also injured in the spill, Tony Black was hospitalized overnight with a concussion.

Arroyo Gets 15 Days for Bumping Incident:

Stewards at Laurel Park have handed jockey Norberto Arroyo Jr. a 15-day suspension for his ride aboard Rogue Agent in Saturday's John B. Campbell H. The incident occurred in midstretch when Rogue Agent, under Arroyo's right-handed persuasion, swerved into the Shaun Bridgmohan partnered Evening Attire, who had established position coming through on the inside. Evening Attire slammed into the rail and was forced to take up badly, but remained on his feet and re-rallied to get third. He was moved up to second by order of the stewards. The New York-based Arroyo will begin serving the suspension this Thursday through March 11.

Pleasantly Perfect Headlines Santa Anita Work Tab:

Defending Breeders' Cup Classic winner Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony) worked toward a planned tilt in the Mar. 6 GI Santa Anita H. Monday morning over Santa Anita's fast main track. The Richard Mandella trainee went seven panels in 1:25 2/5 under regular jockey Alex Solis. "I got him in 1:25 and out a mile in 1:38 4/5," said Mandella. Explaining his decision to have Solis in the irons, Mandella explained, "It doesn't hurt to have a horse's regular jockey work it every once in a while. Alex likes to work horses and he does a good job, so I let him." Mandella said that juvenile filly champ Halfbridled (Unbridled), who is to make her three-year-old bow in the Mar. 13 GI Santa Anita Oaks, will likely work Friday.

Buffythecenterfold (Capote) also worked Monday, zipping five furlongs in :58 3/5, the second best move of 54 at the distance. The four-year-old, a very good second to Island Fashion in her latest in the seven-furlong GI Santa Monica H., is gearing up for Sunday's six-furlong GIII Las Flores H. "I'm not crazy about shortening her up from seven furlongs to six, because I think her best races are from seven-eighths to a flat mile," admitted trainer Mel Stute. "But I don't want the rail again if I can get away from it."

Bluesthstandard (American Standard), coming off a tenacious victory in the GII Palos Verdes H., worked four furlongs in a snappy :46 3/5 for trainer Ted H. West. "It was a typical work for him," said Ted West, assistant to his father. "We kind of let him train himself. He's kind of a machine. Every work is a carbon copy of the previous work." Bluesthstandard is slated to appear next in the Mar. 7 GII San Carlos H.

LIGHT JIG (GB) (f, 4, Danehill--Nashmeel {GSW-Fr & MGISP-US, $224,167}, by Blushing Groom {Fr}) had been off since finishing fifth in the listed Prix Casimir Delamarre for trainer Pascal Bary at Longchamp Oct. 26. Sent off at 5-2 in her North American bow, the Juddmonte homebred chased the pacesetters early. She took an awkward step and steadied at the quarter pole, but recovered to close strongly in the dying strides for a one-length victory. The winner is a half sister to Lynton (Lyphard, SW-Fr, $173,622) and Battle Dore (Sanglamore, SW & MGSP-Fr). Lifetime Record: MSP-Fr, 8-2-2-1, $74,363.

VRONSKY (h, 5, Danzig--Words of War {MSW & MGSP, $683,828}, by Lord At War {Arg}), a half to No Matter What (Nureyev), GISW, $185,538; and E Dubai (Mr. Prospector), MGSW & MGISP, $800,800, has taken a liking to the downhill turf course, notching his second straight over trip and track. The bay, a $1 million KEESEP yearling acquisition, returned from a 10-month holiday to gamely prevail in a first-level allowance test Jan. 7. Sent postward a 7-2 chance, he was in tight between rivals as they crossed over the main track, but found a seam and slipped through to best 3-1 shot Pohave (Holy Bull) by a half length. A half brother to the winner named War Cry, by Unbridled, was purchased for $2.7 million at last year's FTSAUG sale. Lifetime Record: 10-3-3-1, $128,527.
