OCTET GATHERS AT GULFSTREAM

A solid field of eight runners, headed by Grade I winner Balto Star (Glitterman) and defending champion Man From Wicklow (Turkoman), will go postward in this afternoon's GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H., but a pair of up-and-coming runners could make their presence felt. Five-year-old Request for Parole (Judge T C), fifth in the 2002 Kentucky Derby, has made himself at home on the Gulfstream lawn, winning three of four starts and placing second in the other. After defeating Del Mar Show in a nine-furlong allowance Jan. 11, the dark bay stepped up to take the GIII

Mac Diarmida H. over this trip Jan. 25 and makes another class rise today. "I think it might be a little ambitious going into a Grade 1 for his third start," admitted trainer Stan Hough. "But he seems to be doing everything right at this time so now has to be the time to try and do it." Kicken Kris (Kris S.) proved himself to be one of the best sophomores going long on the turf last year and faces his elders for the first time in his 2004 bow. After pairing up maiden and allowance victories over this course last winter, the bay captured the GI Secretariat S. over 10 furlongs and the GIII Lawrence Realization H. over 12 furlongs before concluding his campaign with a close third, beaten a length, in the 10-furlong GI Hollywood Derby Nov. 30. "It looks like I didn't pick the easiest spot in the world," conceded trainer Michael Matz. "But he's going to have to face these horses eventually, and it seems like anyone could win it. It's the beginning of the year, so we wanted to find a spot where we could get him started on a major campaign." Field, p4

THIS KITTEN HAS CLAWS

Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}) remained unbeaten on turf with a professional victory in the GIII Palm Beach S. yesterday at Gulfstream. The Ramsey homebred celebrated the New Year with a win in the GIII Tropical Park Derby at Calder and was 3-5 to keep the streak alive.

After breaking from the rail, the chestnut skimmed the hedge and turned for home full of run, but with no place to go. Jockey Jerry Bailey found a seam and Kitten's Joy pounced on the leaders as they straightened into the lane, then fended off a host of challengers in the final sixteenth. "He looked like he just exploded out there," said winning trainer Dale Romans. Though a Triple Crown nominee, Kitten's Joy will target the big turf races in his division. "The two main goals are the Crown Royal [GIII, 4-30] and the Secretariat [GI, 8-14]," said Romans. "With a horse like him, you can never look too far in advance." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

The consistent Fun House took her game to the next level in gaining her first stakes victory. The Winchell homebred last visited the winner's circle in June after winning a Hollywood allowance, but had hit the board in each of her five subsequent outings, most recently running third to Fudge Fatale in the Tuzla H. over course and distance Jan. 28. Favored Maiden Tower (GB) (Groom Dancer) broke from the rail and eagerly took the bit in her teeth; bad news for her, but good news to the rest of the field. Fun House and jockey Gary Stevens raced in midpack over the soggy going, with Stevens taking the five-year-old to the outside approaching the stretch. Fudge Fatale inherited the lead when Maiden Tower began to stop, but she was tackled immediately by Fun House, who smoothly strode by. "She loved that stuff [the wet grass]," said Stevens. "It's really soft out there...when you get one that handles it like she just did it's fun, because you know the rest of the horses are struggling, and she was skipping through it. Nice, nice filly."

Private Emblem wins Arkansas Derby

Private Emblem remained perfect at Oaklawn with this determined victory. The New York-bred captured the GII Arkansas Derby in 2002 and added an allowance victory at this track last March, but failed to get his picture taken in seven subsequent outings in 2003. Fourth in the Maxxam Gold Cup at Sam Houston

Jan. 17, the dark bay was let go at 8-1 in his second start of the year. Favored Pie N Burger went up to set the pace, with Private Emblem shadowing him down the backstretch. They raced on even terms turning for home, but Private Emblem had a bit more in reserve and drew away late. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

The powerfully built filly Alinghi burst jockey Damien Oliver's Blue Diamond hoodoo in stunning fashion. An A$80,000 Inglis Premier Sale purchase for syndicators Rob and Corinne Slade, Alinghi settled one from last as Wager led the field and scooted to a four-length lead entering the straight. Wager seemed to have the race to herself as Oliver crept through the middle of the field with Alinghi, still some six lengths from the leader with only 250 meters remaining. But the long-striding Alinghi put her head down for a herculean effort to deny Wager the race by a length. "This is a fantastic filly, to make up the sort of ground she did, she's just sprouted wings in the last 200 meters," said trainer Lee Freedman, shaking his head in disbelief. Oliver, who has some 68 Group 1 wins, but has yet to enjoy a Golden Slipper victory, believes she is dominant enough to complete an arduous double. If Alinghi can add the Golden Slipper to her Blue Diamond success, she will become the first horse since Courtza in 1989 to do so. But Freedman, who celebrated an incredible 98th Group 1 win and his third Blue Diamond success, believes Alinghi has the ability to capture both races.

Trainer Brian Mayfield-Smith broke the legendary Tommy Smith's 30-odd year reign in Sydney in the late 1980s and the unassuming horseman proved he had not lost his touch sending Reactive out for a first-up Group 1 victory here. An ardent conservationist and animal lover, Mayfield-Smith left Sydney a few years ago to work on protecting endangered species in Africa, returning to set up a small stable in Melbourne. "This is my 30th Group 1 win overall and my eighth since returning from Africa, it's been very satisfying," he said, adding that Reactive was being weighted out of stakes races against her own sex so he and the mare's owners decided to go for broke first-up as she only had 52 kilograms. Emerging rider Matt Pumpa worked hard to put Reactive on the rails and hit the lead with 50 meters remaining to take the race from Salinger Stakes winner Ancient Song. Reactive now has three wins and two placings from six attempts at the trip, and she will contest the G1 Newmarket H. at her next start.

Several Japanese runners are prepping for the Dubai World Cup meeting in this contest. Japan's champion juvenile of 2001, World Cup hopeful Admire Don was a close runner-up in the Japan Cup Dirt in November and makes his first start since that race. A full brother to Japanese heroine To the Victory (Jpn)--runner-up in the 2001 Dubai World Cup--Silent Deal will be looking to punch his ticket for the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. The chestnut captured the G3 Tokyo Fusashino S. Nov. 1 prior to running seventh in the Japan Cup Dirt.

An unlucky third in this event last year, the classy mare Elegant Fashion looms strictly the one to beat this time around. Winner of last year's G1 Hong Kong Derby, the five-year-old has maintained solid form this year, as evidenced by her strong third-place effort to Falbrav (Ire) and Rakti (GB) in the G1 Hong Kong Cup over today's 2000-meter trip Dec. 14. She was compromised by a rain-soaked turf when fifth in the Jan. 18 G1 Stewards' Cup over an insufficient 1600 meters, but she can earn a trip to Dubai with a good performance today.

All The Honor ran her record on the turf to four wins from five starts with a pace-pressing victory. The 3/4-length winner of a Calder turf sprint Oct. 12, she wired a field of $40,000 optional claimers at Calder by four lengths Nov. 21. The Florida-bred posted another coast-to-coast success in the Auld Lang Syne S. across town Dec. 31 before finishing eighth after setting the pace in the Sunshine Millions Filly and Mare Turf at Santa Anita Jan. 24. Well-placed for the opening five-eighths, she was roused to the front in upper stretch and held on late for the victory.

9th-GPX, $38,000, Alw, NW3X, 4yo/up, 1mT, 1:33 1/5, fm.

SILVER TREE (c, 4, Hennessy--Blue Begum {MSP-Ger}, by With Approval) maintained his perfect record over this surface with a smart return to the races. The Florida-bred broke his maiden here last March and added an allowance win in April prior to finishing third in Woodbine's Charlie Barley S. in June. He wired his foes, including subsequent GISW Kicken Kris, in the Virginia Derby July 12, but didn't run again until Nov. 30, when he ran a bang-up fourth--beaten a length--in the GI Hollywood Derby over a mile and a quarter. The full to fellow Virginia Derby hero Orchard Park, MGSW, $663,185, was forced to miss a couple of intended starts when rain washed the races off the turf, but was bet down to 3-5 here. Never far from the front, Silver Tree came three wide on the far turn, assumed command in midstretch and glided home a 2 1/4-length winner under a hand ride. Lifetime Record: SW, 7-4-0-1, $413,460.

MENIFEEQUE (f, 3, Menifee--Quick Rhythm {SW, $140,972}, by Cure the Blues), a $200,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase, was an even fourth in a Calder turf allowance Nov. 24 before registering a seven-length victory in an off-the-turf affair at that oval Dec. 15. The dark bay most recently returned from a brief freshening to finish a distant seventh in a local turf allowance Feb. 9 and was cutting back to a main-track sprint for this effort. Allowed to settle toward the rear after a slow start, the 3-1 third choice gained four wide on the turn, engaged Code of Justice (Double Honor) inside the final furlong and prevailed by a head. Lifetime Record: 10-3-1-1, $57,830.

+ MAXWELL TERRACE (c, 3, Mazel Trick--Ten Toes, by Our Native), knocked down for $300,000 as a FTFFEB two-year-old, trained very well at his owners' Winding Oaks Farm and continued to progress at Palm Meadows, including a five-eighths drill in 1:01 Feb. 16. Sent off the even-money selection, the dark bay alternated on the front end with Pro Band (Dixieland Band) and raced on near even terms into the stretch. The pair continued their ding-dong battle down the lane, with Maxwell Terrace finding the line a head better than his game rival. The winner is a half to Tentacular (Timeless Native), SW, $136,543; Ten Sins (Tiffany Ice), GSP, $213,273; and Highway Robber (Criminal Type), GSP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,200.

MORINE'S VICTORY (c, 3, Victory Gallop--Torch {SW & MGSP, $485,014}, by Risen Star), a $150,000 KEESEP yearling acquisition, ran third in his first start for Allen Jerkens going seven furlongs over this course Jan. 10 and was most recently fourth when stretched to 1 1/8 miles Jan. 23. Given a 7-1 chance to graduate here, the gray colt stalked eventual second-place finisher Catascatcan (Storm Cat) while racing in second and wore down that rival by 3/4 of a length after a hard drive.  Redskin Warrior ran third, beaten seven lengths in his debut at the Spa Aug. 16, then improved in his next start to break his maiden by 3 1/4 lengths at Belmont Oct. 2. He had no problem handling the next level, taking an Aqueduct allowance by 4 3/4 lengths Oct. 30, but was vanned off after the race and hadn't been seen since. Trying stakes company for his sophomore debut, he sat in second while Abbondanza (Alphabet Soup) set the pace, took over in the stretch and drew away to post an impressive victory. "When he got to the lead inside the three-sixteenths pole, I was still in the bridle," winning jockey Richard Migliore said. "I hadn't asked him for anything. He kind of went a float and waited on horses a little bit, so I got into him and he set sail and finished real well." According to trainer Jennifer Pedersen, the colt may start next in the Lane's End S. [GI $500,000, nine furlongs, Turfway Mar. 20], which was won by another Paraneck Stable runner last year, New York Hero (Partner's Hero).

Kaufy Mate left the backers of MGSW The Cliff's Edge crying in their kaufy, registering the upset over the Nick Zito trainee, who endured a very tough trip. Kaufy Mate came into this event undefeated in two previous route tries over the main track, having broken his maiden for $40,000 at Calder Oct. 30 before adding a 1 1/4-length allowance try back at the Miami oval Nov. 22. Sent off the favorite for this track's Pasco S. Jan. 17, the gray colt turned in his flattest effort to date, finishing seventh of nine. Disregarded at the windows on the stretch out, Kaufy Mate showed good early foot and pressed a sensible pace from second, rallied into the stretch, took a clear lead past the eighth pole and inched away. The Cliff's Edge raced towards the back of the pack and six wide down the backstretch. He rallied willingly while still five deep turning for home and loomed a late threat, but flattened out a bit and settled for second. "I'm disappointed, but he didn't run that bad," trainer Nick Zito said of the runner-up. "A better post might have made a difference and he might not have been as fit as he could have been." Zito was non-committal as to a next start for The Cliff's Edge.

Second in maidens going 6 1/2 furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 30 and a flat mile at Belmont Oct. 5, Ender's Sister got off the mark in a big way, scoring by 10 lengths over the Aqueduct main track Nov. 8. Unraced since a two-length victory in Calder's Three Ring S. Dec. 13, the attractive bay filly was favored to get 2004 off on a high note. Forwardly placed from the outset, the homebred found herself boxed in rounding the far turn and all the way to midstretch, but punched courageously through an opening leaving the eighth pole and was fully extended to win. "She's been training very well up to this race," said Patricia Roy, assistant to trainer Rusty Arnold. Added winning rider Brian Peck, "Rusty told me to wait as long as I could. I had two tons of horse, so I knew my filly would be able to handle this field." The winner will likely start next in the Mar. 14. Florida Oaks.

Records Broken at Horsemen of All Ages Sale:

Bidding was fast and furious at The Race for Education's Horsemen of All Ages Sale held Friday evening at the Westin Diplomat Resort and Spa in Hollywood, Florida. Chaired by Nadia Sanan of Padua Stables and emceed by Gulfstream Park track announcer Vic Stauffer, the event featured a live auction of bachelors and bachelorettes. The sale-topping male, David Ingordo of Juddmonte Farms, brought a final bid of $8,000 while the highest-priced "filly", ESPN horse racing analyst Jeannine Edwards was "purchased" for $5,500. All totaled, the 17 men and women raised $46,900. Matching contributions from consignors brought the total to $93,800. A quartet of live auction items added another $13,000 to the earnings. Proceeds from the event go to Race for Education scholarships for Florida residents. "We were all blown away by the amounts bid," commented Elisabeth Jensen, executive director for the Race for Education. "I'm so grateful not only for the scholarship money raised, but for the show of support from the racing community in Florida."
