EARNING IT THE HARD WAY

Hard Buck (Brz) (Spend a Buck), a Group 1 winner in his native Brazil, kicked off his North American campaign with three straight wins last fall and got back on the winning track with a late-charging victory in yesterday's GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. The five-year-old came to the U.S. last year after a ninth-place showing in the G2 UAE Derby at Nad al Sheba in March and culminated his three-race win streak with a half-length tally in the Nov. 16 GIII River City H. The bay suffered his first North American loss when fourth in the off-the-turf GIII Canadian Turf H. and he was dismissed at 11-1 in yesterday's 1 3/8-mile event. As favored Balto Star (Glitterman) led the field through a mile in 1:36.23, Hard Buck tracked the pacesetter in fourth. He loomed three wide on the final turn and finished determinedly to just nail Balto Star on the wire. Cont. p. 2

EMA BOVARY BLOOMS IN LAS FLORES

Ema Bovary (Chi) (Edgy Diplomat) made it a clean sweep for Southern Hemisphere-breds in U.S. stakes action yesterday with an impressive 3 1/4-length victory in Santa Anita's GIII Las Flores H. Since losing her U.S. debut at Golden Gate last February, the five-year-old Chilean-bred had reeled off seven straight victories, most recently taking the Jan. 24 Orinda H. at Golden Gate. Making the jump to graded stakes company, Ema Bovary was sent off the 7-5 second choice behind 6-5 Buffythecenterfold (Capote). She stalked a swift early pace, angled out for running room on the turn and inhaled Buffythecenterfold in upper stretch to win going away in stakes record time of 1:08 for the six furlongs. "Buffy's a pretty nice horse, but Ema loves the mud, too," said winning trainer Larry Ross. "I was surprised that she won as easy as she did, carrying that much weight [121]." Winning rider Roberto Gonzalez added, "I just sat behind the speed, I found the spot and from then on I said, 'I'll see how much horse I got.'" Margins: HF, 1, HF. Odds: 19.70, 0.50, 15.00.

Bullish Luck continued a tremendous year for trainer Tony Cruz and jockey Felix Coetzee, storming from last to catch odds-on favorite Elegant Fashion for his first pattern victory. A two-time winner in Europe for trainer Pip Payne while racing as Al Moughazel, the bay has been a progressive sort since his arrival in Hong Kong and was coming into this with wins in two of his last three starts, including a 1 3/4-length success over 1600 meters Feb. 1. Trying this distance for just the second time in his career, Bullish Luck was content to trail early as they went only a moderate tempo on the front end. Still trailing as the field turned into the stretch, he was switched out to the grandstand side and kicked hard to catch Elegant Fashion in the shadow of the post. The latter had a very nice trip saving ground from fourth, took command with 300 meters to run, but could not hold the late charge of the winner. "He kicked very hard for me," the winning rider commented. "I wasn't sure if I was going to catch Elegant Fashion, because she is so tough, but he got there in the end. Great performance." For the victorious trainer and jockey combination, it was their fourth Group 1 win of the season. Bullish Luck and Elegant Fashion are likely to rematch in the G1 Audemars Piguet QE II Cup. David Hayes, trainer of the Australian mare, indicated that he would sidestep the Dubai World Cup program in favor of the QE II Cup, where Elegant Fashion was second a year ago.

"He's a fighter," trainer Ken McPeek confirmed after Hard Buck's gutsy win in yesterday's G1 Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. "He's really focused in on winning and learning where the wire is at. We knew he could show the talent for this level. He's a fantastic horse to be around." Winning jockey Edgar Prado added, "I had a beautiful trip. He broke good and gave me a chance to sit behind the speed the way I wanted to do. When I set him down for the drive, he responded the way I thought he would. The way he was running I had a good feeling all the way around." McPeek said Hard Buck may be making a return trip to Dubai. "The people from Dubai are talking with my owners right now," the trainer said. "I'm not sure which distance I would want to go in, but I'm leaning toward going the mile and a half [G1 Dubai Sheema Classic on Mar. 27]." ANGELA'S LOVE (f, 4, Not for Love--Goldgorian's Aiden, by John Aiden) gave jockey Craig Perret back-to-back wins on the card with a front-running victory in her two-turn debut. Ninth in a second-level allowance at Saratoga Aug. 31, the dark bay resurfaced to take a sloppy Churchill allowance by 4 1/2 lengths Nov. 6, was put away for the year, and prepped for this with a sixth in a local optional claiming event Jan. 11. Sent for the lead, the $58,000 FTMOCT yearling purchase controlled a moderate pace, turned for home well in front and crossed the line 3 1/2 lengths better than Serenity's Smile (Dixie Brass) at odds of 7-2. Oct. 5 and third in an Oct. 22 allowance in Lexington before getting a break. The dark bay returned to action with a respectable sixth in this oval's GIII Mac Diarmida H. over a furlong shorter Jan. 25 and was even money on the drop into allowance company. Listed as a $130,000 KEESEP yearling, In Hand was reserved early, advanced three deep on the final turn, tackled front-running Feel the Wind (Cozzene) in the stretch and powered away to win it by 3 3/4 lengths. Stepped back up into allowance company for his first try at the distance, the Pennsylvania-bred saved all the ground for the opening 10 furlongs, shifted out for the drive and ran down 4-5 National Pride (GB) (Vettori {Ire}) to win by a head at odds of 6-1. PURGE (c, 3, Pulpit--Copelan's Bid Gal {SW}, by Copelan) made his return to the races a successful one. A $180,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, bay colt had just one previous raceday appearance to his credit, resulting in a four-length maiden score at Saratoga last Aug. 16. Hammered down to 3-5 favoritism for his three-year-old bow, the Triple Crown nominee sat a perfect trip just off dueling frontrunners, pulled jockey John Velazquez to the front in upper stretch and went on to best All Hail Stormy (Stormy Atlantic) by a convincing three-length margin. GSP Grand Score (Grand Slam) was beaten 13 1/2 lengths into third. The winner is out of a half sister to the dam of former Pletcher inmate Jersey Girl, a treble Grade I winner at three. Host Gets Dubai Prep:

He was narrowly beaten by a horse from the barn of Bill Mott in his latest appearance, but that is not likely to be the case when reigning Chilean Horse of the Year Host (Chi) (Hussonet) preps for the G2 UAE Derby this afternoon at Gulfstream Park. A one-length winner of a Group 2 event on the turf in his native country, the chestnut colt was purchased privately by owners Eugene and Laura Melnyk off a six-length victory in the G1 Chilean 2000 Guineas on the dirt Sept. 6. He returned to the grass for his U.S. debut, finding only the talented Del Mar Show a length too good in a Feb. 5 allowance test. The Mott stable is represented this afternoon by Orchard Park (Hennessy), who won the 2002 Virginia Derby, but is winless in five starts since.

Claimed by current connections for a mere $25,000 last March, Fit Performer took another step toward adding to her future value with a second stakes victory. The runner-up in allowance events at the Meadowlands Nov. 1 and over the Aqueduct main track Nov. 28, the bay celebrated her seventh birthday with a 6 1/4-length victory in the Interborough H. on New Year's Day. A game second in the Jan. 31 Correction H. and was bet down to odds-on favoritism to get back into the win column. Fit Performer broke well and went up to press the pace of Cupid Season (Cobra King, fourth), put that one away turning into the stretch and won more easily than the winning margin would indicate. "She's a different filly the last couple of times I've been riding her," commented winning jockey Julian Pimentel. "She's breaking sharper and doing it on her own."

WAR'S PROSPECT (g, 3, Lion Cavern--lcy Reality, by Proper Reality), the 4 1/4-length winner of the restricted New Jersey Futurity at the Meadowlands Nov. 7, was a solid third versus open company in this track's Maria's Mon S. Dec. 26, but was a disappointing fifth in the Jan. 19 Fred Capossela S. in his latest effort. Trying a route of ground for the first time, the half to Bay Monster (Meadow Monster), GSP, was well handled on the front end by apprentice Daniel Santana, was allowed to go his third quarter mile in :25 4/5 and had plenty left for the drive, winning by 2 3/4 lengths at odds of 9-2. Wheeled back on short rest for this, the $30,000 OBSAPR two-year-old purchase pestered pacesetting Falconer (Ire) (Alzao) for the opening six furlongs, collared that rival in upper stretch and inched away to defeat the Irish-bred by 1 1/2 lengths as a 7-1 chance. The 3-2 favorite despite the eight-month absence, the dark bay ducked in at the start, but recovered to race with the pace three wide.  2--Eye of the Tiger, 117, c, 4, American Chance--Dial a Trick, by Phone Trick.
 3--Rojo Toro, 117, c, 4, Mountain Cat--Pinta, by Carson City. ($120,000 2yo 2002 OBSAPR).
 Margins: 3/4, 3/4, 2HF. Odds: 9.90, 0.90, 1.40.

Calkins Road, winless since narrowly taking the California Cup Classic H. in November 2002, was off the board in all four of his 2003 starts, including an eighth-place effort in the Dec. 13 On Trust H. in his last start. The longest shot in the short four-horse field, Calkins Road trailed early, rallied four wide into the stretch and gamely wore down favored Eye of the Tiger and pace-setting Rojo Toro in the final strides for a narrow victory.

2nd-SAX, $53,872, Alw, Opt. Clm. ($62,500), NW2X, 4yo/up, f/m, 6 1/2f (off turf), 1:15 4/5, wf.
CHAPEAU (m, 5, Deputy Minister--Alpride {Ire} {Hwt. 2yo Filly-Ity, MGISW-US, MGSW-Ity, $985,455}, by Alzao), winless in seven starts on the turf, had to be glad to have this one rained off that surface. The two-length winner of a Del Mar sprint Sept. 7, the homebred mare turned in a runner-up effort going six furlongs over this main track Oct. 15, but was last seen when a distant seventh in a Hollywood turf sprint Dec. 18. The 4-1 second choice in this scratched-down affair, the bay stalked the early pace off the rail, advanced on the turn, poked a head in front turning for home and edged clear to win by two lengths from Great Dancer (Chi) (The Great Shark). Lifetime Record: 13-3-3-0, $124,540. O-Sidney H & Jenny Craig. B-Jenny Craig (KY). T-Ronald L McAnally.

3rd-SAX, $52,712, Msw, 4yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:09 3/5, wf.
FUTURE THOUGHT (m, 5, Smokester--Thinker, by Chimineas) turned in a stellar debut effort, finishing a length second to the talented Hope Rises Oct. 31, but threw in a dud in her latest, finishing fifth as the odds-on favorite versus a field of California-bred maidens. Back in against open company making her first start for trainer David Hofmans, the full sister to Hemet Thought, SP, $232,627, dueled for the opening half mile with Neighbora (Dumaani), took control for good in upper stretch and drove clear to win by two lengths as the 9-10 favorite. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $44,980. O-Farrell W Jones Trust. B-Farrell W Jones (CA). T-David E Hofmans.

6th-SAX, $44,000, Msw, 3yo, 6 1/2f, 1:15 3/5, wf.
LIPAN (c, 3, Mr. Greeley--Robertina {SW, $107,670}, by Roberto) debuted with an even fourth-place effort going long over the Laurel main track last November, then tried the Southern California turf for three straight on-the-board efforts, most recently closing late to be second over one mile at Santa Anita Jan. 28. The chestnut colt, 3-1 third choice in his sprint bow, dueled for the lead before pulling away down the lane en route to a 2 1/2-length tally over late-closing Bull's Notion (Jpn) (Forty Niner). Lipan was a $17,000 KEESEP yearling and a $110,000 OBSFEB two-year-old. He is a half brother to Knight Dancer (Ascot Knight, MSP, $178,232). Lifetime Record: 5-1-2-1, $50,460. O-Michael J Gill. B-John B Crook (KY). T-Nick Canani.
