NEW ORLEANS 'CAP BIG, BUT NOT EASY

Mardi Gras took place five days back, but the party rolls on this afternoon at the Fair Grounds, as three Grade I winners, all of whom raced in last year's Kentucky Derby, assemble in New Orleans for this afternoon's GII New Orleans H. So who'll be wearing the love beads afterwards? Peace Rules (Jules) and Funny Cide (Distorted Humor), first and second in last year's GII Louisiana Derby, renew acquaintances for a fifth time today, each having defeated the other on two occasions. The Kentucky Derby winner has continued to thrive in South Florida since finishing a well-beaten third to Medaglia d'Oro and Seattle Fitz (Arg) (Fitzcarraldo {Arg}) in the Feb. 7 GI Donn H. at Gulfstream Park, while Peace Rules is winless in three appearances since beating Funny Cide into third in the GI Haskell Invitational H. last August. Jerry Bailey has the call aboard the Bobby Frankel trainee, who looks to atone for a fourth in the Sunshine Millions Classic at Santa Anita Jan. 24. The third Grade I winner in the field is Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander), who carries topweight of 120 pounds in his first start of the season. Winner of the Travers S. last year, the dark bay took the GII Super Derby at Louisiana Downs Sept. 20 before an eighth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Sir Cherokee (Cherokee Run) upset the GII Arkansas Derby last year at 55-1, but was injured on the eve of the Kentucky Derby and was out of commission for seven months. A winner of a Churchill allowance in the slop Nov. 27, he raced uncustomarily close to the pace and fought back gamely late to win the Maxxam Gold Cup in Houston Jan. 17. His late run should be aided by a quick pace this afternoon.

A DEVILISHLY GOOD PERFORMANCE

Team Solaris Stable's Lucifer's Stone (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) charged through what jockey Jose Santos called "half a hole" to defeat favored Dynamia

(Dynaformer) by three-quarters of a length in yesterday's GIII Herecomesthebride S. A 3 1/2-length maiden winner over the Belmont turf Oct. 10, the bay filly returned 16 days later to finish third in the Miss Grillo S. and most recently resurfaced to take a first-level allowance over this grass course Jan. 14. After hitting the gate at the start, Lucifer's Stone was well held along the inside, was patiently handled rounding the far turn, found a wedge at the hedge leaving the midstretch marker and earned the win. The winner hails from the female family of champion Left Bank.

Owner Lloyd Williams may re-experience the halcyon days of his former star Mahogany (Aus)-- champion three-year-old in the 1993--94 season--with the ultra-professional Reset, who easily defeated four others, including defending champion Yell (Aus), in this contest. Reset led easily and clocked :33.34 for his final 600 meters when scoring by a length from Vocabulary, while noted backmarker Thorn Park (Aus) (Spinning World) ran off his feet to finish fourth. Jockey Danny Nikolic had no hesitation declaring Reset was capable of shaping into a Cox Plate horse. "He's the best middle-distance horse I've ridden," the rider told AAP Racing. "He's so easy to ride it makes me look good. He's a special horse. He had an easy lead today, but I do think he's a better chaser." Reset becomes the fourth three-year-old to complete the Guineas--Futurity sequence, and is the first to do so since Mouawad (NZ) in 1997.

While racing in France as a three-year-old, Binya ran third in the G3 Prix de Seine-et-Oise S. Oct. 3, then notched the Listed Prix Isola Bella S. in her final start in that country Nov. 15. On the sidelines for about two years, the chestnut mare resurfaced in the U.S. and had no problem handling allowance foes at Gulfstream last out Jan. 16. Sent off as the lukewarm choice here, she sat in second while May Gator (Green Alligator) set pedestrian-like fractions of :25 3/5 and :51. She then took over on the turn for home and drew off to notch her first graded stakes victory. "She appears to want to run all day," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said of the winning mare. "That's what Johnny [Velazquez] has been telling us. She wants to do anything we want her to do. Johnny said she can go any distance. You could probably cut her back to a mile next week and she would still be very difficult to beat because she's a very good filly. She came to us [from Europe] in September or October. She didn't have any quirks. She was very straightforward, a very classy filly."

Bedanken ran her record over the Fair Grounds turf course to a perfect three-for-three with an authoritative victory in the newly graded Bayou Breeders' Cup H. Winner of the GIII Valley View S. in Oct. 2002, the grey was dealt one of her three career defeats when she finished third in the GII Mrs. Revere S. the following month and bounced back to win this track's Pago Hop S. by seven lengths that December, but was sidelined for more than a year thereafter. The Pin Oak homebred returned to the races in style, winning the Dec. 26 Furl Sail H. by a length in a stakes record time of 1:36 for the mile. Favored in her five-year-old debut, Bedanken was well placed along the inside in fourth for the opening six furlongs, slipped through an opening inside Mexican Moonlight (El Prado {Ire}) turning for home and was under only mild encouragement late. "The race set up really well," said Pettinger, who has been aboard for each of the mare's 12 career starts. "She was very comfortable. The horse on the lead was getting out at the top of the stretch and I took advantage of it." Added winning trainer Donnie K. Von Hemel, "This was a stronger field than last time," referring to the Furl Sail. "It was beautiful watching her run down the stretch." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Trainer Bobby Frankel was in Louisiana preparing to saddle Edmund Gann's Peace Rules in today's Gil New Orleans H., but the owner and trainer were represented at Santa Anita by Seattle Borders, who took the Baldwin in his first start for those new connections. Previously trained for his breeder by former Todd Pletcher assistant George Weaver, the bay colt was fifth, placed fourth, sprinting over the Monmouth main track last Sept. 14, but improved greatly in two starts on the Delaware turf, finishing second in an Oct. 8 maiden before breaking through with a 4 1/4-length victory at that track Oct. 26. Missing since that effort, the Triple Crown nominee was a forward factor as the field raced down the hill, came out into the stretch and rallied past Stalking Tiger in the final strides for the win. Favored Saint Afleet was carried out very wide across the dirt and could not recover while finishing two lengths fourth. Breeders' Cup Juvenile runner-up Minister Eric (Old Trieste) failed to draw into the race.

Smarty Jones debuted with a rousing 7 3/4-length victory at Philadelphia Park Nov. 9 and negotiated the jump to stakes competition with aplomb, winning the Nov. 22 Pennsylvania Nursery S. for state-breds by a dominating 15 lengths. The chestnut colt was given his first true test in his most recent effort, and passed with flying colors, coming from just off the pace to register a five-length success in the Count Fleet S. at Aqueduct Jan. 3 in his first attempt at two turns. Sent off the overwhelming favorite to remain undefeated, Smarty Jones attended quick early fractions, edged to the front turning for home and held off a late run from Two Down Automatic. Undefeated in his three previous tries at Turfway Park, Silver Minister kept his record at the track unblemished with this decisive victory. The dark bay was second in his first two tries while racing at Churchill Downs, but picked up his maiden score in his Turfway debut Dec. 4. He came back to take the Jan. 3 Turfway Park Prevue S. and made it three-for-three with a 5 1/4-length tally in the one-mile WEBN S. Feb. 7. The slight choice adding a sixteenth of a mile this time, he vied for the lead through a half in :46.99, turned back a challenge from White Mountain Boy as they clicked off six furlongs and was under a steady drive to keep Little Matth Man at bay. Silver Minister follows in the hoofsteps of Champali, who took the Turfway Prevue, WEBN and Battaglia for owner Lloyd Madison Farms and trainer Greg Foley. "This is what you get into it for," owner Rob Lloyd said. "That's what you hope for. We're just enjoying this one." Champali went on to be third in the GII Lane's End S., Turfway's major Triple Crown indicator. The Mar. 20 Lane's End is also Silver Minister's next target. "He seems to be coming into it perfectly," Foley said.

Fond confirmed her pattern of every other start with another stakes win at 21-1. The bay followed up her maiden win with a dismal sixth in the Gill Tempted S., then returned to miss by just a neck in a Nov. 20 allowance. After winning the Open Mind S. at 16-1 Dec. 28, she ran fifth in the Busanda S. Jan. 25 and was the longest shot on the board in this race.

Fond A Coglianesse

Hustled to the lead by Aaron Gryder, Fond led at every call and was never seriously threatened by Taittinger Rose, who closed from last. "Looking at the race on paper, we figured [Please Take Me Out] would take the lead and we could sit off her," said assistant trainer Glen Brookfield. "But she hesitated a little bit, and Aaron decided to go to the front. [Fond] is tough to get by when she has her head in front at the quarter-pole."

Frisky Spider Back on Track:

Frisky Spider (Frisk Me Now), who lost his undefeated record when a disappointing seventh in the GII Fountain of Youth S. Feb. 14, had his first breeze since that effort Saturday, going a half in :48 2/5 for trainer Bob Durso. "It was excellent," the conditioner said. "We'll see what to do now. Maybe the [GIII] Tampa Bay Derby [Mar. 14] is where we'll go. There's so many races for three-year-olds that one of them is bound to come up light, but we'll have to wait and see." Regular rider Eddie King Jr. was aboard Frisky Spider, who was wearing blinkers for the first time. "We've known for a little while that we wanted to put blinkers on him, but he won three in a row and you can't put them on until he loses," Durso explained. "He tends to look around and gets relaxed and gets to looking quite a bit."

Madcap Escapade Breezes for Forward Gal:

Madcap Escapade (Hennessy), who has won her two career starts by a combined 21 3/4 lengths, went an easy half mile yesterday morning at Gulfstream Park in :48 2/5 as she prepares for her next start in the GIII Stonerside Forward Gal S. on the Florida Derby undercard Mar. 13. "It was an easy half and she did it well within herself," said Bobby Brothers, assistant trainer to his brother Frank Brothers. "We were going for about 50 [seconds] and that's what she did. She's cooled out well since." Owned by Bruce Lunsford, the bay filly won her maiden by an impressive 10 lengths at first asking Jan. 4 before adding an 11 3/4-length victory in the Feb. 14 Old Hat S.

Gran Prospect Second in Comebacker:

Thomas M. Carey's Gran Prospect (Crafty Prospector), making his first start since finishing runner-up to The Cliff's Edge in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. Nov. 29, returned to the races with a second-place finish in yesterday's 10th race at Oaklawn Park. Trained by Pete Vestal, the attractive chestnut colt raced well off suicidal early fractions, gained good ground approaching the stretch, but flattened out late and was beaten eight lengths as the 3-10 favorite.

It took Water Cannon six attempts to break his maiden, but it looks like he has it all figured out now. Most recently an allowance winner over this strip Feb. 1, Water Cannon made it three straight wins here since adding blinkers. The gray gelding took the early lead heading into the first turn, then angled in and let the other speed go. He patiently waited for room in the stretch and closed sharply to win under a hand ride. "[Trainer Linda Albert] told me the horse didn't need to be in front," winning rider Ramon Dominguez said. "He kind of surprised me when he made the lead, then down the backside he kind of got outrun. He came back and split horses and I thought he was very game." Kentucky Derby hopeful Capac (Deputy Minister), the 2-5 favorite, faded in the stretch to finish fifth.

Candy Ride Possible For Oaklawn 'Cap?:

Candy Ride (Arg) (Ride the Rails), away since his impressive victory in the GI Pacific Classic last Aug. 24, could make his 2004 debut in the GII Oaklawn H. in Hot Springs Apr. 3. The winner of each of his three starts in his native country before being purchased by Sid and Jenny Craig, the five-year-old won the GII American H. on the turf prior to his Pacific Classic success. The bay horse recently returned to serious training, going three furlongs in :36 flat Feb. 11 at Santa Anita. "If all goes well and we have no setbacks, he'll make the Oaklawn," trainer Ron McAnally said.

Barretts Reschedules Final Breeze-Up Show:

Officials at Barretts Equine Limited have rescheduled the second of two under-tack shows for its March Two-Year-Olds in Training sale to Monday morning at 9:30 a.m. Recent storms in Southern California forced a postponement of a major drag racing event at a facility adjacent to the Fairplex to today and officials determined that the two events were incompatible from a noise and safety standpoint.

BRING ON GULDENSTERN Godolphin's Rosencrans (Forest Wildcat) proved an easy winner at Nad al Sheba last night, his second start of the year. A $200,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling purchase, the bay made one start at two for trainer Eoin Harty, taking an Arlington maiden by five lengths last July. He returned to action in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas, running third in that one-mile test Feb. 5, and was widely expected to get back to his winning ways in this conditions contest.

Rosencrans broke alertly, went straight to the front and began to pull away with 400 meters to run. He glided home under a hand ride by Frankie Dettori, winning by 9 1/2 lengths over Storm of Tara (Scatmandu). The time for the 1500-meter (7.5f) event was 1:31.42. "He was a lot fitter today and I was surprised how far in front I was," said Dettori. "He was doing it easy and then we just went for home. He is stepping up nicely and I am sure he will go on to win another and we will slowly turn up the heat." Just where Rosencrans runs next is a question; he is not nominated to the G2 UAE Derby.
