SILVER OPPORTUNITY

Last year, Lloyd Madison Farms' Champali followed his win in the John Battaglia Memorial S. with a third-place finish in the GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Park for trainer Greg Foley. Foley will have another opportunity to get a Lane's End trophy this year, saddling Silver Minister (Silver Deputy) for Lloyd Madison at Turfway today. "We came close last year," Foley said. "I think we have a good chance of winning it this year." Second in his first two starts while racing in Louisville, Silver Minister broke his maiden in his first try at Turfway Dec. 4 and is now a perfect four-for-four at the track. He started 2004 with a five-length score in the Jan. 4 Turfway Park Prevue S., added a 5 1/4-length tally in the Feb. 7 WEBN S. and was 2 3/4 lengths on top at the finish of the Feb. 28 Battaglia. He stretches out another sixteenth for the Lane's End, but Foley, who is winning at a 39-percent clip at Turfway, said, "Distance shouldn't be a problem--my biggest question is how he'll run against Birdstone." Birdstone (Grindstone), who capped his juvenile campaign with a victory in the Oct. 4 GI Champagne S., made his seasonal bow in a Gulfstream allowance race at a mile and 70 yards and cruised to a three-length victory. With jockey Jerry Bailey in for the ride, he is the even-money chalk on the morning line.

ALL EYES ON EDDINGTON

After capturing attention with a pair of impressive efforts going a mile and a sixteenth at Gulfstream Park, Eddington (Unbridled) steps up to stakes company for today's GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct. The chestnut donned blinkers after running second in his first two starts and broke his maiden by 4 3/4 lengths Feb. 7, then posted a 5 1/2-length allowance win three weeks later, earning a 101 Beyer Speed Figure. "[The blinkers] have helped him focus more," trainer Mark Hennig said. While Eddington cuts back to a mile for the Gotham, GII Hutcheson S. runner-up Deputy Storm (Forestry) tries eight furlongs for the first time. Expect him to be on the front end early. "He's super fast," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "Anyone that tries to run with him early will be running way too fast." But, he continued, "I hope [jockey Jorge Chavez] can ration out his speed. The Gotham will be a testing ground for the colt...we need to find out if he can handle a little extra distance." Gotham field, p2

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONES

Unbeaten Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) bids for his first graded victory in today's GIII Rebel S. at Oaklawn Park. The chestnut successfully negotiated Oaklawn's mile in winning the Southwest S. Feb. 28, but looked a little leg weary as Pro Prado (El Prado {Ire}) came at him late. Still, trainer John Servis cautioned, "He'll be much fitter than he was in the Southwest. He's ready to move up to the next level." His charge may be perfect in five starts, but Smarty Jones isn't ranked that highly as a Derby contender, which is fine with Servis. "That's OK," he said. "It puts less pressure on me and my staff." Mr. Jester (Silver Deputy) ventures to Arkansas after finishing a troubled second in the GIII Risen Star S. Feb. 15. The bay has quietly bankrolled $760,000, winning the GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile S. via disqualification last September before landing the $1-million Delta Jackpot S. in December. Rebel field, p2

Most of the horses involved in the blanket finish of the GII San Luis Obispo H. Feb. 16 are back for another go. The winner Puerto Banus had a head and a neck over third-place finisher Continental Red; a nose further back was Meteor Storm, who in turn had a neck on Labirinto. Beaten 2 1/4 lengths in seventh was Run-away Dancer, who got off to a slower start than usual before closing well. Trainer Dan Hendricks will add blinkers in hopes that the five-year-old, a winner last fall of the GIII Carleton F. Burke H. over course and distance, can keep better tabs on the field. "He slipped out of the gate and was back 20 lengths," Hendricks explained. "He made up 10 lengths when they were running :23 and :22 the last two quarters, so how fast did he go? He was running over the top of them. He just needs some pace."

De Kock Runners Work

Victory Moon (SAf) (Al Mufti), winner of last year's G2 UAE Derby, worked over the Nad al Sheba turf Friday in preparation for his start in the Mar. 27 G1 Dubai World Cup. The Mike de Kock-trained runner covered 1200 meters in 1:15.76, getting the final 400 meters in :25.34. Victory Moon is coming off wins in the Feb. 12 G3 Maktoum Challenge-Round 2 and the Mar. 6 G2 Maktoum Challenge-Round 3.

De Kock also sent out his pair of G1 Dubai Duty Free hopefuls Right Approach (GB) (Machiavellian) and Surveyor (SAf) (Western Winter) to work yesterday. The two horses covered 1000 meters over the turf in 1:04.55 and the final 400 meters in :25.34. Right Approach captured a listed stakes over the Nad al Sheba turf Feb. 21. Surveyor won the G3 BurJuman Hebel Hatta over the Duty Free trip of 1777 meters on the turf, a race that the De Kock-trained Ipi Tombe (Zim) won en route to Duty Free glory last year.

Lundy's Liability (Brz) (Candy Stripes), expected to represent De Kock in the G2 UAE Derby, worked 1200 meters over the Nad al Sheba turf Friday in 1:19.73, going the last 400 meters in :24.20. The bay colt was fourth in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas Feb. 5 and is coming off a runner-up finish in a Mar. 6 conditions race.

SILVER CHARM FILLY TOPS ADENA SALE A filly from the second crop of champion Silver Charm brought a bid of $310,000 from George Bolton to top Thursday's Adena Springs Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training. Selling as hip 15, the Kentucky-bred bay is the first foal from the multiple graded stakes winning Classy Cara (General Meeting), who also finished third in both the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Santa Anita Oaks. The price was a record for the Adena Springs sale, surpassing the previous mark of $120,000. According to The Blood-Horse, both the saletopper and the second highest priced lot, a $250,000 son of Awesome Again, will be trained by John Kimmel. In all, 57 of the 67 youngsters offered sold for a gross of $2,228,000 and an average of $39,088. Complete results can be found on www.obssales.com.

A NEW RIDER FOR AZERI? Jockey Mike Smith has been aboard champion Azeri (Jade Hunter) in all 16 of her career starts, but he may not have the mount when the six-year-old mare makes her 2004 debut. Azeri is pointing for the Apr. 3 GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park, but new trainer D. Wayne Lukas said yesterday, "We haven't named any rider [for the Apple Blossom]. No decision has been made, but I don't think I'll have any trouble getting a rider for her." If he is offered the ride, Smith could have a decision to make. He is currently booked on Lion Heart in the GI Santa Anita Derby on the same day as the Apple Blossom. Azeri is on schedule for a trip to Oaklawn after working seven furlongs in 1:24 3/5 at Santa Anita yesterday.

Bursting Forth Euthanized:

MGSW Bursting Forth (Alwasmi--Burst of Sound, by Stop the Music) had to be put down Mar. 16 due to foaling complications. The 10-year-old mare had produced a stillborn foal by Gone West at Country Life Farm in Middleburg, Virginia. Her three surviving foals, all unraced, are La Var (Woodman), a three-year-old colt; St. Emilion (Unbridled's Song), a two-year-old colt; and an unnamed yearling filly by Saint Ballado. Bursting Forth won 10 of her 28 starts, including the GIII Bewitch S., GIII Vinery Matchmaker S. and the GIII All Along S., and set a course record at Keeneland, going a mile and a half on the turf in 2:27.54. She earned $524,474.

Having finished fifth behind Bago (Fr) in the G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud on his last start in November, Joursanvault carried the full weight of the punters' money on his return in this contest. Aware of the tactical threat of a four-runner race, Christophe Soumillon was keen to take the grey to the front in the early stages where he traveled easily before being asked to quicken inside the final quarter. Despite the attention of Raganeyev and Stephane Pasquier on his inner in the closing stages, he required only a hand ride to secure his second stakes success after his score in the Listed Criterium de Lyon at Lyon Parilly last October. "He was not 100 percent fit today but he was the class horse and won well," winning conditioner Alain de Royer-Dupre commented. "His owner turned down some offers from the States in the winter and I think he will be rewarded in the coming weeks."

JUDDMONTE ACQUIRE SIDE HILL STUD

Juddmonte Farms has purchased Side Hill Stud as an additional base for its burgeoning broodmare band, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. Philip Mitchell, general manager of Khalid Abdullah's organisation, confirmed that, "Side Hill will be run in conjunction with Banstead Manor Stud mainly to accommodate our broodmare band when they are in Newmarket supporting our stallions." Resident stallion Dr Fong (Kris S.--Spring Flight, by Miswaki) will move to Highclere Stud.

Rosencrans A Watkins photo

Godolphin saddle their first runner in Britain in 2004 in the shape of the smart Rosencrans in this competitive contest. He has already finished third in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas on dirt at Nad al Sheba Feb. 5 before taking the Skywards S. over 7½ furlongs back at that track last time Feb. 28. "Rosencrans travelled very well to England and he did his main work for the race in Dubai before he set off," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "He's ready to run and I am happy with him. We will see how he does on his first run on the all-weather surface--I believe he can run a big race. He improved a lot from his first race of the year and won very easily last time. We have decided to race him in England--this is our first runner in March--and then plan the future." He faces stiff opposition in last year's G2 Gimcrack S. runner-up Fokine, who has been off the track since finishing seventh in the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket in October.
