SINISTER G STEALS BIRDSTONE'S THUNDER

Breaking from post 12, Sinister G (Matty G) shot to the front soon after the start and never looked back, capturing the $500,000 GII Lane's End S. at Turfway as 3-5 favorite Birdstone (Grindstone) could only manage fifth over the sealed track. The New York-based Sinister G had been a bit enigmatic, bouncing back from a fifth to Smarty Jones in the Count Fleet S. Jan. 3 to land a two-turn Aqueduct allowance by 5 3/4 lengths two weeks later. He then ran a dismal seventh to Little Matth Man (Matty G) in the Whirlaway S. Feb. 7, and had Lasix added for his next start Mar. 5. He missed by a nose to the highly regarded Song of the Sword that day in a $100,000 optional claimer at Aqueduct, but was given little chance here at 16-1. Cont. p2

GOTHAM GOES TO SARATOGA COUNTY

Saratoga County (Valid Expectations) posted a mild upset in the GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct, coming from just off the pace to land the one-mile affair by 2 1/4 lengths over Pomeroy (Boundary), with 6-5 favorite Eddington (Unbridled) third. The bay debuted with a 9 1/4-length win versus $75,000 maidens at the Spa last August, but was sidelined following a second in a Belmont allowance Sept. 26. He returned to be the runner-up in the GIII Spectacular Bid S. at Gulfstream Jan. 10, then had an eventful trip in the GII Hutcheson S. Feb. 14. After hitting the gate at the start and being forced to check on the backstretch, he recovered to finish third to Limehouse. Never far from the front as Deputy Storm (Forestry) set torrid fractions, Saratoga County angled to the outside turning for home, assumed command with a furlong to run and was never seriously threatened thereafter. "This was a terrific win for him," said winning trainer George Weaver. "Now, we will probably consider the Lexington [GII, KEE, 4-17]. Everything with him so far, including the Gotham, has been logical progression. The Lexington is the right next step; plus, his pedigree doesn't exactly scream, 'mile and a quarter.'" Gotham cont. p2

SMART MONEY

Unbeaten Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) maintained the sibilliance among the weekend's three-year-old winners as he drew off sharply to capture the $200,000 GIII Rebel S. The powerful chestnut also put himself into position for the $5,000,000 bonus offered by Oaklawn to the connections of any sophomore who can win the Rebel, the GII Arkansas Derby and the GI Kentucky Derby. "Our colt is really starting to put it all together at the right time," said winning trainer John Servis. Cont. p2

SINISTER SAILS ON FRONT END Jockey Paul Toscano sent Sinister G (Matty G) to the front after breaking from the far outside, and the solidly built colt cruised along while setting an honest pace over the sealed track. That's an Outrage (Quiet American) headed him at the top of the stretch, but Sinister G shook loose and edged away late. "He's been quite immature, but he's getting his act together," said winning trainer John Toscano Jr. "I was concerned [about the track], but he had his own way. We'll take him back home [to New York] and he'll let us know when he's ready." The 3-5 chalk Birdstone (Grindstone) had a ground-saving trip, but spun his wheels in the stretch. "I don't understand why they had to seal the track," said trainer Nick Zito. "I don't know if that's an excuse, but he got bogged down out there."

Eddington (Unbridled) was made the 6-5 favorite in his stakes debut, but the big chestnut got off to an awkward start and raced a bit greenly on his way to finishing third. "It looked like he got hit pretty hard [at the start]," said trainer Mark Hennig. "He didn't seem to handle the track that well when [jockey Edgar Prado] asked him. He was late switching leads and wasn't able to sustain his momentum. I don't think this race will remotely resemble the next one." Eddington will likely start next in the GI Wood Memorial Apr. 10 at Aqueduct.

The Pennsylvania-bred Smarty Jones had triumphed by five lengths in his first attempt at a route, Aqueduct's Count Fleet S. Jan. 3, but he didn't finish up as well next out in the Southwest S. Feb. 28. With that tightener under his belt, he tracked Purge from the start, moved by that colt as they entered the lane and strode out smartly for his first graded victory. "So far with the colt, it has been a textbook plan and it is working," said trainer John Servis. Next stop for Smarty Jones: the $1-million GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 10.

Defending champion Quest Star added an allowance victory at Churchill last May before suffering a series of heartbreaking losses. The dark bay missed by a half-length in both the GII Bowling Green H. and GIII Kentucky Cup Turf H. before concluding 2003 with a flirtation with the main track, finishing ninth in the GII Clark H. at Churchill Nov. 28.

Given some time off after that race, Quest Star returned to run fifth, beaten 1 3/4 lengths, in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. Feb. 22. Jockey Pat Day settled the second choice in second along the hedge as a surprising Man From Wicklow (Turkoman) set the pace. Quest Star took over on the far turn and opened up daylight, but had to dig in as favored Request for Parole came flying late.

Third to Sulamani (Ire) in a French Listed race at three, Meteor Storm came to the U.S. in 2003, winning two of his four starts last year and hitting the board in the others. The bay bobbed at the start of his seasonal bow Jan. 8, a nine-furlong allowance, but managed to lead at the stretch call before settling for third. Stepped up to stakes company in his latest, he made most of the running before finishing a heart-breaking fourth in the GII San Luis Obispo H. Feb. 16, beaten a half-length by the winner Puerto Banus (Supremo). Meteor Storm stalked the pace this time, moving up to strike the front in midstretch before getting to the wire just ahead of a flying Labirinto. "This is a shot in the arm for me, because we've been running second or third a lot recently," said winning trainer Wally Dollase.

Bohemian Lady began her career with consecutive victories on the Aqueduct inner track, notching a maiden special weight Dec. 20 and a first-level allowance Jan. 23. Sent off as the 4-5 chalk in her next attempt, the six-furlong Dearly Precious S. Feb. 14, she finished a game second, beaten 1 1/2 lengths. Made the second-choice here off that effort, she stalked the early pacesetter, took over in the stretch and drew off impressively to post her first stakes victory. "The last time, she stumbled and had to rush up," assistant trainer Seth Benzel said. "Today she broke pretty well. Edgar [Prado] was able to get her into a stalking position. It looked like he had plenty of horse. When he asked her, she really kicked home. I didn't really think that she would kick on the way she did. She ran a supreme effort." Last year's GII Adirondack S. winner Whoopi Cat chased the early pace and was no match for the winner while easily second. "She ran a good race, the winner was just too good," trainer Patrick Biancone said. "I think we will have a good horse for Saratoga." Trainer Bobby Frankel, who shipped into Fair Grounds to take the Feb. 29 GII New Orleans H. with Peace Rules, returns with Nothing to Lose and Euro import Burning Sun. The former, a four-year-old who is a perfect two-for-two at nine furlongs on the turf, made his first start for Frankel in the Jan. 19 GII San Marcos H. and finished second, beaten only a half length by subsequent GII Kilroe Mile H. winner Sweet Return (GB). The bay has been freshened since that effort, but his conditioner scores at a 31-percent clip with runners coming off a two-month layoff. Virginia Derby hero Silver Tree ended his sophomore campaign with a solid fourth behind Sweet Return in the Nov. 30 GI Hollywood Derby. He made his first start of the new season in a Feb. 21 Gulfstream allowance test and won handily, and draws jockey Jerry Bailey to Fair Grounds for this race. Proud Man, first or second in 15 of his 23 tries on the grass, will join the ranks of millionaires if he can add to that record today. The six-year-old was a troubled third in the Jan. 4 GIII Appleton H., but enjoyed clear sailing in his latest, rallying for a half-length score in the Jan. 24 Sunshine Millions Turf. Herculated, undefeated in four starts on the Fair Grounds lawn, steps up after a 1 3/4-length win over optional company Feb. 28, a performance that earned him a 104 Beyer Speed Figure.

“When racing class and courage is augmented by good looks and a regal pedigree, a potent mix for any young sire exists. BLACK MINNALOUSHE offers commercial breeders a real chance of hitting the big time.”

Ocean Silk, the runner-up behind GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf heroine Islington (GB) in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks last August, ended her European stint with a third in the Oct. 4 G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp. Bet down to 7-10 in her U.S. bow, the Oct. 19 Dowager S. at Keeneland, she ran into Spice Island and finished a well-beaten second. The dark bay was given a break after that start, returning to be second in the Feb. 28 GIII The Very One H. at Gulfstream, and should improve in her second try after the layoff. Spice Island followed up on her Dowager success with a 1 1/4-length tally in the Nov. 15 GII Long Island H., but she makes her first start since she fell in the Dec. 27 GII La Prevoyante H. "She was moving around horses and she clipped heels," trainer John Pregman Jr. said. "It was like she hit a trip wire. She went straight down. She came out of it body sore, so we turned her out and just let her graze. We didn't do anything with her for two weeks." He added, "It's tough to be off as long as she was and go a mile and a half right off the bat, but if she's back to her old form, she deserves to be the highweight." Moscow Burning makes her first appearance outside of her native California. The four-year-old filly capped a three-race winning streak with a handy win in the Nov. 8 Cal Cup Distaff H. at a mile and a quarter. Fourth in the Dec. 20 GII Dahlia H. to end the year, she has been second in both outings this term, missing by 3/4 in the Jan. 24 Sunshine Millions F/M Turf at nine furlongs and by a nose in the Feb. 15 Pro or Con H. at a mile.

Lucky Owners and Tiber square off again, but the former will be forced to attempt to avenge his 3/4-length defeat in the Mercedes-Benz Hong Kong Classic Mile from the unlucky 10 hole. "It's a tough gate," admitted Lucky Owners jockey Felix Coetzee. "There will be speed inside and outside of me and taking the first corner so early--that will be the tricky part. He could get caught out wide and that could harm his chance." In contrast, trainer John Moore called Tiber's post one, "perfect." Moore added, "He should get the run of the race, a nice soft trail close to the speed, so I couldn't be happier with the draw--or the condition of the horse for that matter." Moore will also saddle Shane in the Derby. "I think Shane is peaking," the trainer commented. "He has a good turn of foot and the only question mark is the trip, but he is by Singspiel (Ire) and there is stamina in his family, so we're hopeful of a good race from him, too." Shane is coming off a runner-up finish behind front-running Derby hopeful Saturn in an 1800-meter handicap Feb. 28. Roosevelt, third in last season's G1 Irish Derby, is coming off a fourth-place finish in the Hong Kong Vase in just his second start in the province.

Here Come the Americans

Trainer Richard Mandella, who had flown into Dubai from California early Saturday morning, was on hand at Nad al Sheba to supervise GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony) in his final tune-up for the G1 Dubai World Cup. "I couldn't see a whole lot, but he looked good going by," Mandella said of the six-year-old's 800-meter move in :48.97.

Fleetstreet Dancer (Smart Strike), the G1 Japan Cup Dirt winner, worked 1200 meters yesterday in 1:14.79. "I'm very happy about it," Doug O'Neill's assistant trainer Leandro Mora said of the work. "He's a great shipper and that's why we're here." Mora was also pleased with Excessivepleasure (In Excess), who went 1200 meters in 1:15. "I think he is going to be very tough in the Godolphin Mile [G2]," Mora said.

Hard Buck (Brz) (Spend a Buck) covered 1000 meters on the turf in 1:03.68 in his final preparation for the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. Now trained by Ken McPeck, the Brazilian-bred captured the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. in his most recent start. G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen hopeful Tour of the Cat (Tour d'Or) worked 600 meters in 39.48.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

SMITH STAYING WITH LION HEART Jockey Mike Smith has opted to stay aboard Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) when that colt contests the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 3. A conflict arose when it was announced that 2002 Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter), for whom Smith has also been the regular rider, will make her seasonal bow the same day at Oaklawn in the GI Apple Blossom H. "I'm the only jockey who's ridden Azeri," said Smith. "She is responsible for turning my career around. It's heartbreaking not to ride her in the Apple Blossom, but Lion Heart is an awfully good three-year-old, and he has as good a chance to win the [Kentucky] Derby as anyone." Smith remained optimistic that he and the six-year-old mare would be reunited later. "I'm hoping that [owner Michael] Mr. Paulson and [trainer D. Wayne] Mr. Lukas understand, and, hopefully, they will put me back on Azeri for her next race."

Hard to Say

Unbeaten Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) posted a bullet work yesterday at Santa Anita, covering seven-eighths in 1:24 2/5, handily. Though he was only one of four horses going that distance, he was nearly two seconds faster than the next horse on the worktab. His connections have not yet determined where the dark bay will start next, but are reportedly considering either the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 3 or the GI Arkansas Derby the following Saturday, with preference for the former. "That way we don't have to ship him anywhere and we'll get a good indication of where we're at," trainer Jason Orman told Thoroughbred Times.

HOLY BUBBETTE (f, 4, Holy Bull--Juliac, by Accipiter) captured three in a row last summer, but had not visited the winner's circle since taking the Aug. 23 Dixie Miss S. by eight lengths at Louisiana Downs. Fifth in the Oct. 4 GIII Safely Kept Breeders' Cup S. at Pimlico, the well-traveled filly ended the year with second-place finishes in a Churchill allowance Nov. 5 and the GIII Chamosa Springs H. at Calder Dec. 13. She made her 2004 debut in the Jan. 11 GIII First Lady H., but, after setting the early pace, hit the brakes and ended up ninth, beaten nearly 20 lengths by Harmony Lodge. The 9-5 favorite to improve facing softer company in her second start of the season, she went right to the front and was never seriously threatened, holding Kitty Knight (Capote) at bay by 1 1/2 lengths. Dedication to Stay in Training; Dynever Nears Return:

Plans had called for G1SW Dedication (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}) to be retired after her win in the Mar. 13 Marshua's River S. at Gulfstream Park, but the five-year-old mare is likely to have one more season on the track. Bred by Alec and Ghislaine Head, the gray races in the colours of Mrs. Head. "Mr. Head wants to concentrate more on racing than on breeding, so as long she comes out of the Marshua's River in good order, she's probably going to race one more year," trainer Christophe Clement told the Daily Racing Form. Clement added that Dynever (Dynaformer), third in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic last time out, will make his first start of the season in the Apr. 3 GII Gulfstream Park H. The four-year-old has been working steadily at Payson Park since the beginning of February, most recently going a half in :50 4/5 Mar. 16.

"When we came in this morning, we discovered that she was lame in her right front," Dutrow said. "It's disappointing, but it looks like we've located the spot and will be able to get it out by tomorrow." NUMBER JUAN (c, 3, Silver Deputy--Colonial Reef, by Pleasant Colony), a $22,000 KEESEP yearling, broke his maiden at Santa Anita by four lengths Jan. 25, then ran sixth in the GII San Vicente S. Feb. 7. Stretched out to one mile for the Southwest S. over this course last out Feb. 28, he finished fifth, beaten 10 lengths. A 5-2 shot in this one, he fought for the early lead and edged clear to a 1 1/2-length victory. Minnamana (Wekiva Springs) stayed on for second. Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-1, $68,780.

Cooksey Comes Back:

Jockey Patricia Cooksey, who suffered two broken legs in a horrific spill at Keeneland last April, returned to race riding Friday at Turfway. Though Cooksey finished fifth aboard Religious in the 10th race, the 46-year-old rider was rejuvenated by the experience. "Once I got in the post parade, then in the gate--it was exhilarating," she said. "There's nothing like being on the back of an 11-hundred pound animal going 40 miles an hour." Cooksey has worked hard for her return. "I got a little winded," she admitted. "I've been swimming--I can't tell you how many laps I've done. But there's nothing like riding a daggone race to tell you what kind of shape you're in. But my legs felt great." It was the second major comeback in Cooksey's career, who returned to the saddle in 2002 after undergoing treatment for breast cancer in 2001. Her goal this time is simple. "I want to stand in the winner's circle again," she said. "I want to stand in the hallowed winner's circle at Churchill Downs." Cooksey has 2,136 career victories, second only to Julie Krone among female jockeys.

Leroidesanimaux ended his Brazilian career with a second-place finish in Group 1 company in June before heading north of the border. The chestnut made his first stateside start in an entry-level allowance on the turf at Santa Anita Jan. 7, finishing fourth, but made it to the winner's circle after his second U.S. appearance, taking a one-mile grass allowance Jan. 31. Looking to make it two in a row, he stalked the pace for a half, launched his bid on the far turn, drove between horses to grab the lead at the top of the stretch and got the better of favored King of Happiness late for the narrow score.

Rosencrans rewarded the decision of Godolphin to stage an early return to Britain by capturing this competitive heat, run as a Listed contest for the first time. Having impressed when winning an Arlington maiden in July, he returned to finish third behind Little Jim (Arg) in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas over a mile at Nad al Sheba Feb. 5. Dropped back to 7 1/2 furlongs last time, he turned the Skywards S. at that track into a procession Feb. 28. Using that effective early speed to race prominently under Frankie Dettori here, he quickened to lead inside the final eighth before asserting from Fokine and Michael Hills. "He ran a big race to win against a good field, commented Saeed bin Suroor. "Frankie looked after Rosencrans very well. We will see how the horse comes out of the race before making further plans. It is good to win with our first British runner of the year."

O'BRIEN WARMS UP HIS STARS

Aidan O'Brien will lead out his customary team of Classic hopefuls for workouts after racing at the Curragh today, opening day of the 2004 Irish season. The select cast will be headed by G1 Phoenix S. and G1 National S. winner and ante-post G1 2000 Guineas favorite One Cool Cat (Storm Cat). He will be joined by maiden winner Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who also holds pole position in the current market for the G1 Epsom Derby, G2 Railway S. scorer Antonius Pius (Danzig) and G2 Mill Reef S. runner-up Grand Reward (Storm Cat). O'Brien saddles four runners on the eight-race card, including juvenile colt Russian Blue (Ire) (Danehill) in the opener, who will be the first mount of Jamie Spencer as the official first jockey at Ballydoyle.

AZAMOUR HEADING TO LEOPARDSTOWN

His Highness the Aga Khan's Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift) is being targeted for the Listed Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial Apr. 18, where he could clash with fellow Classic prospect Grey Swallow (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}). Conditioner John Oxx revealed to Irish Racing Online that last year's G2 Beresford S. winner is likely to wait for livelier ground than is likely for the Listed Loughbrown S. at The Curragh Apr. 4. "We will wait for decent ground with Azamour, which means that the Loughbrown is probably unlikely, so a week later at Leopardstown could be a better option," he told the website. "He is entered in the Guineas and that is in our minds as a possible race for him, but he would like a run beforehand. We will have to play it by ear because he has to improve a fair bit to figure in a Guineas. But all the horses seem fit and well and pretty forward." Dermot Weld also confirmed 2003 G3 Killavullan S. winner Grey Swallow on course for the Guineas Trial.
