READ THE FOOTNOTES MIGHT SKIP WOOD...

Read the Footnotes (Smoke Glacken) is likely to pass the Apr. 10 GI Wood Memorial and train up to the GI Kentucky Derby instead, reports trainer Rick Violette Jr. "I'm afraid that he could run in another prep, run huge

Read the Footnotes
Adam Coglianesse

and then regress off that for the Derby, the race we are really pointing for," Violette said. "I think another race could do him more harm than good. If he were to run well, that would make all the connections feel better and show that he is back on track, but I'm sure it would make the horse do better in the long run. We still feel he's the fastest three-year-old out there. My job is to get him back to that level by the 1st of May. It's a gut call. I'm not concerned about getting him there. It's only seven weeks between races, not seven months. If I were to run him again, I'd want an easy race, a cakewalk. But when you lead them over there, that's out of your control." Violette plans to leave Read the Footnotes in Florida until a week prior to the Kentucky Derby, when he will ship to Churchill Downs. He said he wants to take advantage of the warm weather in Florida, which makes for good training conditions. Should Read the Footnotes not run again between now and May 1, he will attempt to become the first horse since Needles in 1956 to win the Kentucky Derby without having raced in April.

...BUT TAPIT LIKELY IS NEW YORK-BOUND

The Wood Memorial may be next for Tapit (Pulpit), who was a disappointment when sixth in the GI Florida Derby in his 2004 debut. According to a posting on the website of trainer Michael Dickinson, an endoscopic examination revealed a significant amount of debris in Tapit's upper airway after the Florida Derby and there was an abscess in Tapit's front left foot. "Neither the mucous in his trachea after the race nor the foot abscess is believed to be a major impediment to Tapit's continued training and the Wood Memorial at Aqueduct remains a strong possibility for his next start," the website reports.

BLACK TIDE RISING

Black Tide (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) came from well back in a field of 16 three-year-olds to win Sunday's G2 Fuji TV Sho Spring S. at Nakayama by one length. After a maiden win last year, the colt ran fourth in the G3 Radio Tampa Sho Nisai S. in December. He resurfaced this season to win the Wakagoma S. in January before a runner-up effort in the G3 Kisaragi Sho in February. At Nakayama Sunday, Black Tide trailed the field early before unleashing a powerful rally nearing the stretch. He turned back the late stretch challenge of Kyowa Splendor (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) to win going away. "I didn't ask him for anything at the start," confirmed winning rider Norihiro Yokoyama. "He is a really good horse and he won't have any problem with the 2000 meters [of the Apr. 18 G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas)]." Daiwa Major (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) completed the Sunday Silence trifecta, while favored Cosmo Sunbeam (Jpn) (Zagreb) finished fifth.

The Quiet Before the Sand Storm

Things were relatively quiet yesterday morning on the backstretch of Nad Al Sheba racetrack as horses and horsemen continue to prepare for Saturday's Dubai

World Cup. One horse that did raise the pulse of a throng of passers-by was Gerald Ford's G1 Dubai World Cup prospect Pleasantly Perfect (Pleasant Colony), who stretched his legs with a light gallop while Ford and trainer Richard Mandella looked on in approval. "He looks great," said Ford, who added that he was eager to pit his late-developing superstar against international competitors. Pleasantly Perfect's exercise rider Crystal Brown was also pleased with the six-year-old's condition, calling out "He's happy and he's settling in" as she guided the towering bay off the track.

Well-Traveled Paolini Returns in Duty Free

It's been over seven months since we've seen Paolini (Ger) (Lando {Ger}) enter a starting gate and nearly three years since the seven-year-old last had his picture taken, but the German champion will try to make a successful return to the races in the 1777-meter G1 Dubai Duty Free on the grass.

Paolini Andrew Watkins

The globetrotting multi-millionaire was placed a dead-heating second in August's controversial G1 Arlington Million, then went to the sidelines for an extended break. "He suffered a hoof injury," explained exercise rider Bianca Sieling. "And because he is a bit of a softie, we kept him packed away." Sieling was aboard yesterday as the veteran put in an easy canter over Nad Al Sheba's main track. "He is going super and he is in a good mood," said Sieling. "On Wednesday, we'll have a proper go."

The 6-5 favorite was settled in second under jockey Yutaka Take and easily took the lead in upper stretch to win going away by 1 1/4 lengths. Bred at Shadai Farm and a full sister to champions Dance in the Dark and Dance Partner, Dance in the Mood was a maiden winner last December and captured the Wakatake Sho in January last time out. There will surely be a few anxious moments ahead for the people who stand to pay a $5-million bonus to any horse which completes the Rebel S., Arkansas Derby and Kentucky Derby treble. I doubt, though, that their fingernails are at serious risk of damage now that the GIII Rebel S. has been won by Smarty Jones.

That's not to say that Smarty Jones isn't a very good colt--he has, after all, won his first five starts by a total of nearly 32 lengths. The catch is that his pedigree suggests he may struggle once he ventures beyond a mile and an eighth, the distance of his next intended start in the Arkansas Derby.

Smarty Jones comes from the second crop by Elusive Quality, a stallion who has done so well that his fee has risen from its original level of $10,000 to $50,000 in the space of three years. A leap from $10,000 to $30,000 last year did nothing to limit demand for the son of Gone West's services, with his book rising from 125 mares to 143. He also covered 83 mares in the second half of 2003 on his first visit to Australia, so plenty will be expected of him from 2006 onwards.

Until then, he will have to rely on his progeny sired his comparatively modest opening fee, and anyone trying to assess Elusive Quality's progress will need to remember that his current crop of two-year-olds is considerably smaller than its predecessors.

Considering that Elusive Quality's sire Gone West was a Grade I winner over a mile and an eighth and that his first two dams are by Hero's Honor, a Grade I winner at up to 11 furlongs, and Sir Ivor, winner of the Epsom Derby, his connections could have been forgiven for thinking that he would stay a mile and a quarter. However, they quickly realised that speed was his forte, and were rewarded with a track record over seven furlongs on dirt at Gulfstream and a world record for a mile on turf at Belmont. It's not so surprising, then, that none of his progeny's numerous stakes successes have so far been gained over a distance longer than 1 1/16 miles.

Smarty Jones is his second consecutive son to have won the Southwest S. over a mile at Oaklawn, his predecessor being Great Notion, who went on to be second in the Rebel S. Coincidentally, both these colts are out of mares by stallions who performed very well in the Breeders' Cup Sprint, but there are reasonable grounds for thinking that Smarty Jones has more stamina in his make up than Great Notion, who failed by only a neck to land the GI King's Bishop S. over seven furlongs. Whereas Great Notion's broodmare sire, Dayjur, was a sprinter pure and simple, Smarty Jones' dam is by a much more versatile performer in Smile.

This Frances A. Genter-bred son of In Reality had the valuable talent of being able to switch up and down the distance scale, to the extent that he was beaten less than a length in the Breeders' Cup Sprint in 1985, the same year that he gained a Grade I win and set a track record over a mile and an eighth. Then, at four, he won the Breeders' Cup Sprint in fast time, having set another track record over a mile and an eighth.

Unfortunately, hopes came to nothing that Smile would follow the examples of Relaunch, Valid Appeal and Known Fact by becoming another good stallion son of In Reality. After starting his career at Tartan Farms, Smile moved to Gainesway, where his fee in 1989 was $20,000, but he was banished to Texas in 1994 and died there of EPM in 1997. He managed to sire only one graded winner (the Grade III scorer Goldseeker Bud).

Altogether, Smile sired only 12 stakes winners from 269 foals, one of them being Smarty Jones' dam I'll Get Along. This tough mare retired with more-than-respectable earnings of over $275,000, having won 12 of her 39 starts. Although nine of her wins came over sprint distances, I'll Get Along was also capable of good form over a mile and an eighth.

The next dam, Don't Worry Bout Me, gained her stakes success over six furlongs at three and raced almost exclusively over sprint distances. Her race record was somewhat at odds with her pedigree, though, as she was by a winner of the Kentucky Derby (Foolish Pleasure) out of a mare by a winner of the French Derby (Herbager). That Herbager mare, Stolen Base, produced two Grade I performers to Smile's sire In Reality, with both doing well over a mile and a quarter. One of them, Basie, won the GI Delaware H. over that distance.

Smarty Jones' female line traces back to the exceptional La Troienne (his seventh dam), through Bases Full, Striking and Baby League. With Elusive Quality's female line tracing to Frizette, both of Smarty Jones' parents come from celebrated female lines which have been making their mark for many generations.

There are also plenty of classic influences, such as Nashua, Secretariat, Northern Dancer, Sir Ivor, What A Pleasure and Herbager, in the fourth and fifth generations of Smarty Jones' pedigree. Consequently, he could conceivably last the Kentucky Derby distance, but I can't get away from the fact that his three grandparents which raced--Gone West, Smile and Don't Worry Bout Me--all seemed to find nine furlongs their limit.

TVG, NTRA and Race for Education Joins Forces:

TVG, The Race for Education and the National Thoroughbred Racing Association announced yesterday that the triumvirate will offer a three-month summer internship with TVG's Production Department, located in Los Angeles, California. The full-time internship, sponsored by the NTRA and administered by The Race For Education, will be offered to a sophomore or junior studying broadcasting or journalism. The program will run from June through August 2004 and will also include a day spent in Hollywood Park's press box. Applications will be accepted from Apr. 1-15 and can be found at www.racingscholarships.com.

MICK FOR POLYTRACK START

Milk it Mick (GB) (Millkom {GB}) will return in next Saturday's £40,000 International Trial S. at Lingfield. Paul Dixon's homebred, who created a shock when beating Three Valleys in the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket in October, will use the mile contest on the polytrack as his prep for the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 1. "I sat on him the other day and he went nicely, so it's all systems go," jockey Darryll Holland told PA Sport yesterday. "Jamie Osborne did a great job with him last season and I hope he can continue to improve. There is no reason why not. He only has to give three pounds away at Lingfield despite having won a Group 1 so Jamie's picked a good race for his return."

ITALIAN ROUND-UP

by Giorgio Barsotti

Italian racing is reaching its spring peak with Milan resuming racing last Wednesday, joining Rome, which got underway in mid-February. A host of vital conditions events were staged at both tracks over the week-end with the first major Classic pointers.

Saturday saw the smooth return to the track of Scuderia Belforte's Noble Stella (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), from the powerful Bruno Grizzetti stable. Third against the colts in the G3 Premio Guido Berardelli in Rome last October, she was made the hot favorite for Milan's 10-furlong conditions race and did not disappoint. Ridden patiently by Mirco Demuro in last place early, Noble Stella quickened well inside the final three-eighths and finished strongly to win easily. A serious candidate for the G1 Oaks d'Italia at the track May 23, she may run again in Milan in either the Listed Premio Baggio May 2 or Listed Premio Zanoletti Apr. 17.

Saturday's card at Milan also saw the return of the 2001 Premio Parioli hero Giovane Imperatore (GB) (Halling), who showed he retained his ability by easily taking the seven-furlong conditions event. Conditioner Lorenzo Brogi is aiming the six-year-old at the Listed Premio Natale di Roma Apr. 25 en route to the G2 Premio Emilio Turati at the San Siro June 2.

On Sunday in Milan the unbeaten Listed Premio del Dado winner Cromo (GB) (Grand Lodge) was made the hot favorite for the Premio Calvaire, a traditional mile prep for the G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) in Rome May 1. However, Alduino and Giuseppe Botti's stable star was a soundly beaten fourth behind the Laura Grizzetti-trained Boysun (Ire) (Askhalani {Ire}), who showed the best turn of acceleration off the pedestrian early fractions. In the main trial for the G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) in Rome May 1 on the same card, An Jolie (Ire) (Dr Devious) finished strongly to defeat the favored duo of Martha Stewart (Ire) (Daggers Drawn) and Rekindled Applause (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) to book her place in the line up for the first fillies' Classic.

Conditioner Vittorio Caruso, who is aiming his stable stalwart Altieri (GB) (Selkirk) at the G2 Prix d'Harcourt at Longchamp Apr. 4, has his stable in top form. On Sunday he introduced the once-raced filly Zona (Ity) (Mr. Greeley) to impressively take her mile maiden in Milan and catch the eye.

Bruno Grizzetti brought out his two best older fillies on Sunday and got the required result as Dan Grey (Ire) (Danehill) battled to a hard-fought success at the San Siro and Marbye (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) won in cosy fashion at the Capannelle. No specific plans have been made for the latter, with connections looking at a return trip to France, where she finished third in the G2 Prix d'Astarte last August.

Two of the best three-year-old colts in Italy were also in action in Rome. Spirit of Desert (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}), runner-up to Pearl of Love (Ire) in last year's G1 Gran Criterium, started over a mile in the Premio Arconte, a conditions prep for the Parioli, but was outpointed by Scuderia Siba's Ceprin (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}). Ridden lengths off the pace by the ultra-confident Maurizio Pasquale, Spirit of Desert finished strongly but ran out of real estate against the Botti-trained winner. While defeated, the runner-up impressed with his finish and is expected to improve from this return. Later on the card, his stable companion Distant Way (Distant View) easily took the Premio San Giuseppe over 1 3/8 mile, the first trial for the G1 Derby Italiano in Rome May 30. That proved some compensation for trainer Lorenzo Brogi and owner la Nuova Sbarra after their main Derby hope Vol de Nuit (GB) (Linamix {Fr}) was injured two weeks ago on the gallops.

Sunday Night Results:

Rome, 4.05, 3-21, Cond, €19,125, 4yo/up, f/m, 1 1/8mT, 1:51.60, gd.

MARBYE (IRE) (f, 4, Marju {Ire}--Hambye {GB} {Hwt. 2yo Filly-Ity, MSW-Ity, $121,169}, by Distant Relative {Ire}), who emerged on the international scene with a fine third placing behind Bright Sky (Ire) and Six Perfections (Fr) in the G2 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville in August, ended her 2003 campaign by winning the G3 Premio Sergio Cumani in Milan in October and finishing third in the G2 Premio Ribot at this track the following month. Making her seasonal bow as the 1-5 punter's choice here, she recorded a workmanlike 3/4-of-a-length score over Crodam di San Jore (GB) (Most Welcome {GB}), with Mirco Demuro not having to ask a serious question of the Teruya Yoshida colorbearer. Lifetime Record: GSW-Ity & GSP-Fr, 18 starts, 9 wins, 7 places, €277,910.
