ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL FOR ZITO

Trainer Nick Zito entered the 2004 season well positioned for a third run at a Kentucky Derby victory, with a shedrow chock full of Triple Crown prospects. But in recent weeks, the barn has endured serious setbacks, with Eurosilver suffering a mysterious infection, knocking him off the Derby trail, while Birdstone was a late scratch from yesterday's GI Toyota Blue Grass with an elevated white blood cell count. It's nice to have a third string like The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), who came from well back to catch an ultra-game Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) to win the Keeneland spring centerpiece. "This is the most gratifying victory I've ever had," a hoarse Zito said following the race. "You've got to take the good times with the bad. Cliff saved the barn." (Blue Grass cont. p2)

ON TO DERBY--TAPIT KNOCKS ON WOOD...

On an afternoon when speed was king at Aqueduct, Ron Winchell's Tapit (Pulpit) came from 11th and last early on to take a blanket finish in an exciting renewal of the GI Wood Memorial. The grey colt, trained by

Tapit wins the Wood in New York Adam Coglianesse

Michael Dickinson, found the line a half length to the good of Master David (Grand Slam), whose nose quite possibly knocked Eddington (Unbridled) out of a spot in the Kentucky Derby. It has been a tumultuous spring for last year's GIII Laurel Futurity hero Tapit, who was to have returned in the GIII Risen Star S. in mid-February, but was forced to skip the event when he missed some training. Sixth in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 13, he emerged from the race with a lung infection and was at one point a longshot to make the Wood. But he certainly didn't run like one, even if he wasn't fully cranked. "I would have done anything to be third in today's race" Dickinson admitted. "He wasn't at his best today." (Wood Memorial cont. p2)

...KEYSTONE-BRED KOPS ARKANSAS DERBY

He hails from the Keystone State, but Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) could be headed for glory in the heart of Blue Grass country. The Pennsylvania-bred, sent off the even-money favorite in the GII Arkansas Derby, drove home a 1 1/2-length winner in Hot Springs yesterday. Unbeaten coming into the $1 million event, the chestnut is now eligible for a cool $5 million bonus if he can become the first colt since Seattle Slew to win the Derby while undefeated. "He has got to be one of the Derby favorites," trainer John Servis said, but added, "I liked it when we were a no-name. I dread handling the Derby hype."

An Underrated Juvenile...

A debut winner at Saratoga Aug. 24, The Cliff's Edge was third, placed second, in the GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile Sept. 13 before finishing sixth to stablemate Eurosilver in Keeneland's GII Lane's End Breeders' Futurity Oct. 4. A relatively fresh horse, the bay ran the table at the Churchill fall meet, winning the GIII Iroquois S. by 7 3/4 lengths Nov. 2 and ending the year with a game 3/4-length score in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. Nov. 29.

Tough Luck at Three...

In an effort to keep his sophomore colts away from one another, trainer Nick Zito opted to ship The Cliff's Edge to Tampa for the Sam F. Davis S. Feb. 21. Drawn in the 11-hole that afternoon, the colt endured a nightmarish wide trip and looped up into contention in the stretch, but yielded late to be second. Wheeled back in the GI Florida Derby three weeks later, the $200,000 Keeneland September yearling bumped with a rival while trying to make a late run and settled for a solid third-place finish. It was six years ago that Zito saddled Halory Hunter to an upset victory over heavily favored Lil's Lad. Could he play the role of spoiler again?

Edging the Chalk...

Favored Lion Heart was sent for the lead, as expected, but was forced three wide around the first turn as GIII Tampa Bay Derby winner Limehouse (Grand Slam) and GII San Felipe S. hero Preachinathebar (Silver Charm) were intent on preventing the choice from securing the inside. Lion Heart opened up on the front end with three-eighths to run, but The Cliff's Edge began to advance approaching the stretch, angled out three wide for the drive and caught Lion Heart in the waning strides. "I waited a little longer than I normally would with him," winning jockey Shane Sellers confessed. "The other horse dug in when we came to him, but we were able to draw away at the end."

Last after a quarter mile, Tapit was guided to the outside for the run up the backstretch and was traveling very comfortably as the field reached the far turn. Four wide at the three-eighths pole, he continued to gain good ground, was cracked left handed when straightened for the drive and closed determinedly for the win. "He had a lot left, whether he was 100 percent or not," said winning rider Ramon Dominguez. "He was the last horse to pull up. He galloped out very strong." Master David was forwardly placed throughout and held gamely at the rail for second, while Eddington tracked the pace from easy striking distance and had every chance in the stretch, but was outnodded for the place. Value Plus, favored at 5-2, contested the pace, but had nothing left for the drive and finished sixth.

home 15 lengths in front in the Pennsylvania Nursery S., then shipped outside his home state for the first time and made it three in a row while trying two turns for the first time in the Jan. 3 Count Fleet S. Given a little break after that effort, the Keystone colt next shipped to Arkansas and, for the first time in his career, looked like he might not get to the wire in front. The Someday Farm homebred had two lengths on the field at midstretch in the Feb. 28 Southwest S. and just held on to take it by 3/4 of a length. That prompted the bettors to look elsewhere for a favorite in the Mar. 20 Rebel S., but that proved an I.Q. test failed as Smarty Jones, filling the role of second choice for the first time, powered away to a 3 1/4-length score over 2-1 chalk Purge. Off at even-money again here, he stalked Purge through a half in :46.95, forged to the lead after six furlongs in 1:11.71 and was in control to the wire despite switching to his inside lead as they neared the wire. Jockey Stewart Elliott does not seem worried about the colt's ability to get the Derby's 10 furlongs. "When we got to the lead, he had plenty left, finished strong and galloped out good," he said. When Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy) was scratched on the morning of the Carter with a foot bruise, it seemed as though the Grade I event would turn into a runaway for odds-on favorite Strong Hope. But Pico Central, a Brazilian-bred now based in California, turned in a game performance on the front end to deny the crowd's choice. The handsome dark bay won a pair of Group 1 events in his native land and took just seven months to acclimate to Northern Hemisphere time. He crossed the line second in his U.S. bow, a $100,000 optional claimer going 6 1/2 furlongs at Santa Anita Jan. 25, but was put up to first via disqualification. Dismissed at 43-1 in the GI San Carlos H. Mar. 7, he led at every call, earning a 113 Beyer Speed Figure, and was the distant second choice at 4-1 while shipping to New York. Don Six (Wild Escapade) had a head in front of him through a :21 3/5 opening quarter, but the Brazilian took the advantage back while scorching a half in :43 2/5. As Don Six dropped back turning for home, Strong Hope loomed a serious danger under a motionless John Velazquez, but Pico Central would have none of it. Fighting back along the rail under Alex Solis, he reclaimed the lead in deep stretch and edged clear crossing the wire. The time was just a tick off the stakes and track record set by Artax in 1999. "It sure was fast and this is an amazing horse," said Solis. "It was a good stretch duel between two good horses; luckily, mine had the bigger heart today. I think he might be a star in the rising." The top two may have a rematch in the GI Met Mile May 31 at Belmont. "I thought our horse ran super," said Todd Pletcher, trainer of the runner-up. "I think the Met Mile is next on our schedule, but we're not sure if we are going to run before then."

Lion Tamer allowed Private Horde and Marino Marini to slug it out on the front end before rallying from the back of the pack to win the Commonwealth and remain undefeated in four career starts at seven furlongs.

Following an impressive win in the GII Hutcheson S. over this distance last March, the chestnut was fourth as the favorite in the GII Lane's End S. going two turns and was sixth in the GI Blue Grass S. before going to the shelf. Sidelined until the Gulfstream meeting, the Michael Tabor runner was a 2 1/2-length winner of a $75,000 optional claimer Jan. 28 and was coming into this off a 3/4-length success in the GII Richter Scale Breeders' Cup H. Mar. 6. Void of early speed, Lion Tamer rallied on the far turn, came wide for the drive and wore down a game Private Horde for the win. "I was happy with my position early, because the two horses I was afraid of hooked up," said winning jockey Mike Smith, but added that it wasn't easy. "I thought we'd go right on by when I got to them, but he kind of hung. I hit him and he didn't respond, so I chucked the reins at him and it worked. He finally got by."

He added a wire-to-wire allowance score going seven-eighths Mar. 13 and was the even-money choice in this step up in class. Breaking alertly under John Velazquez, Forest Danger went straight to the front and turned for home with a narrow advantage after a half in :44.39. Velazquez shook the reins a bit and the favorite responded, drawing off to win by daylight while posting an extremely sharp time. "The track was obviously pretty lively, but this is a fast horse," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "He has impressed us since day one." Forest Danger could make his next start in the GIII Withers S. May 1 at Aqueduct.

Canadian champion sprinter Soaring Free made a triumphant return to the races and set a light the Keeneland sod, equaling the course record of 1:01 3/5. The Sam-Son homebred began 2003 with five straight wins, included tallies in the GII Nearctic H. and the GIII Play the King H., both at Woodbine. A dead-game second to Touch of the Blues in the GI Atto Mile--the first of three straight at the distance--he was a tired fourth in the GI Keeneland Turf Mile and once again found eight panels too long when fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile. The dark bay was bumped at the start, but recovered quickly and raced up to carve out :21 2/5 and :44 flat fractions between longshot Chosen Chief and Cat Singer (Sir Cat). The former put a head in front at the top of the stretch, but Soaring Free fought back, established a clear lead and registered the win with verve. "He was running free and easy," said winning rider Shane Sellars. "He's deceptively quick. He took me to the lead and from then on, I was pretty much trying to save him. He turned for home and opened that big, long stride." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Click for the video race replay.

The favorite for this 64th renewal of the Japanese 1000 Guineas is the regally bred Dance in the Mood, a full sister to champions Dance Partner (Jpn) and Dance in the Dark (Jpn). A daughter of the recently deceased Nijinsky II mare Dancing Key, the brown filly is unbeaten in three starts, capturing the G3 Flower Cup at Nakayama Mar. 20 in her most recent effort. Her main competition could come from Move of Sunday, who is riding a three-race skein which includes the G2 Fillies' Revue at seven furlongs over this course Mar. 14.

Fast and Furious makes his eagerly awaited debut in stakes company as he builds towards the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 6. Successful at Deauville and Angers last term, Jean-Louis Tepper's promising colt beat the subsequent winner Vassilievsky (Ire) in a Saint-Cloud conditions event on his return Mar. 6 and hails from a stable in a rich vein of form. Proven stakes form is brought to the mix by Voix du Nord, who ran fine races at this track when fourth behind Bago (Fr) in the G3 Prix des Chenes over a mile in September and second in the G3 Prix de Conde over an extra furlong the following month. He stepped up off those efforts when upped in trip to take the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud in November.

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

Duo Work for Lexington

Diamond A Racing Corp's Minister Eric (Old Trieste), runner-up to champion Action This Day in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, worked a half mile yesterday morning at Keeneland and is expected to line up for next Saturday's GII Coolmore Lexington S. The chestnut colt broke off at the half-mile pole beneath exercise rider Paul Nilluang and strode smoothly past the grandstand, stopping the timer in :49. Minister Eric has made just two starts since the Juvenile, finishing a good third in a Santa Anita turf sprint and was most recently runner-up in a swiftly run allowance test going two turns Mar. 27. Also prepping for the $325,000 event was GIII Gotham S. winner Saratoga County (Valid Expectations). The bay colt, who will be trying two turns for the first time in the Lexington, worked five-eighths of a mile in company in 1:02 2/5.

Straight to the Derby for Birdstone?

If GI Champagne S. winner Birdstone (Grindstone) is going to the May 1 GI Kentucky Derby, it will be without another prep race, according to the Daily Racing Form. The three-year-old, forced to miss yesterday's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland due to a high white blood count, has not been out since running fifth in the GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Mar. 20. He is one of three colts bidding for Derby success without a race in April. "Come on, knock on my door," trainer Nick Zito quipped to the DRF, humming the theme song from Three's Company. "Three's company--us, Friends Lake and Read the Footnotes." He added, "There's no way [Birdstone] is going to run in the Lexington." The GII Coolmore Lexington S., set for Apr. 20, is the final serious prep for the Derby.

The bay was well off the leaders after a bumpy start, moved wide rounding the turn, angled toward the rail in upper stretch and surged past Belle's Blaze (Northern No Trump) to win by a neck. Munchkin, who is slated to go under the hammer at Tuesday's Keeneland sale, is a half to GI Jim Dandy S. winner Composer (Easy Goer), $471,635; and Colonial Power (Pleasant Colony), MSW, $340,968. ABSENT FRIEND (c, 4, Runaway Groom--Fitnah, by Fit to Fight), a $340,000 KEESEP yearling, finished third in last year's July 5 Iowa Derby, but went off form shortly thereafter, missing the board in both a grassy allowance at Arlington in September and a six-furlong sprint at Golden Gate in December. Switched from Eoin Harty's barn to John Parisella, the handsome gray made up ground through the lane to be third in his 2004 bow, a six-panel test at the Big A Mar. 26, and looked to improve here stretching to a mile. The 9-1 chance rallied from well out of it and stormed down the stretch to get a neck past the game Bahama John (Saint Ballado) for the win. The latter was disqualified for crowding a rival in the stretch and demoted to fourth. The 11-1 shot Mister Hennessy (Hennessy) was moved up to second. Absent Friend is a half to Dreams Gallore (Silver Ghost), GISW, $588,615; and Fateful Dream (Distant View), GSW, $294,472. Lifetime Record: SP, 8-3-0-2, $98,125.

Given a shot in the Mar. 7 GII Louisiana Derby, the $550,000 FTSAUG yearling never got into the action and finished a well-beaten ninth. Well-backed as the 3-5 pick here, he cruised into contention with a wide move on the turn and took charge two furlongs out. Kept to his business through the drive, he reported home a confident 2 3/4-length winner. The Nick Zito-trained Pies Prospect (Crafty Prospector) was second. Lifetime Record: 6-2-2-0, $63,660.

RATING AGENCY (c, 3, Honour and Glory--Far Out Lady {MSP, $192,027}, by Bold Executive), a $60,000 KEESEP yearling, held a clear advantage in a nine-furlong maiden over this track in early February, but tired late and had to settle for second. Scaled back to six furlong for his next, he bobbed at the start and could do no better than fourth Mar. 17. Sent postward a 4-1 chance this time, the bay colt contested the pace from the outside, then dug deep in the final eighth to deny the closing Little Bentley (Archers Bay) by a neck. Indy), MGSW, $558,124, took a bit of play at the windows as a 6-1 chance in his debut at Belmont last June, but a tough trip over a sloppy track saw the colt finish a dismal fifth, over 20 lengths off the winner. A lengthy regrouping ensued and the Evans homebred made his sophomore bow here as a 50-1 bomb. Away from the gate in good order, he led the way through honest fractions, edged clear when asked by apprentice Pablo Fragosa and came home strongly to win by 3 1/4 lengths. Vienna Lodges Appeal Against Oaklawn Stewards:

Trainer Darrell Vienna has appealed the call of the Oaklawn stewards that allowed Wild Spirit (Chi) to retain second place in the Apr. 3 GI Apple Blossom H., according to the Daily Racing Form. Wild Spirit, with jockey Jerry Bailey in the saddle, drifted out and appeared to bump with the Vienna-trained third-place finisher Star Parade (Arg) during the stretch drive of the race. The stewards held an inquiry, and Star Parade's jockey John McKee claimed foul, but the original result was allowed to stand. There is a $50,000 difference between the second- and third-place purses. The Arkansas Racing Commission is expected to hear the case later this month, but a date for the hearing has not yet been set.

Slewville was sent off the 2-1 pick, ostensibly on the merits of her much more experienced entymate Wish for Gold, but the second-time starter picked a flashy forum to break her maiden. Second by a nose in her unveiling at Philly Park Mar. 2, the bay stalked in mid-pack, forged to the lead a furlong from home and was kept to a drive en route to an open-lengths score. The dark bay gelding acquitted himself quite well in his stakes debut, finishing second in the Sugar Bowl Dec. 28, then held on to be third in the GIII Lecomte S. in his route bow Jan. 24. Up against the very tough Smarty Jones in the Feb. 28 Southwest S. at Oaklawn, he made that foe work to the wire, coming home second by three-parts of a length. Here, he reeled in the free-running pacesetter and scampered clear by a convincing 5 3/4 lengths. The GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile fourth Tiger Hunt (Kris S.), making his first start of the year, was well placed, but came up empty and finished fourth.

Twice a winner in four starts in France, Toasted ended his continental campaign with a third-place finish vs. Listed company at Deauville in August. The dark bay was shipped home to the States after that race. Making his U.S. bow after nearly seven months on the sidelines, the Triple Crown nominee was overlooked as a 21-1 shot in the Mar. 14 GII San Felipe S., but did not seem to enjoy his first start on the main track and finished eighth after a clumsy start. Toasted was a longshot again with the return to the grass, but belied his odds, closing from last to first while finding room between horses before edging away to a handy score in stakes-record time. "He's got a dirt pedigree, but he's a grass horse," trainer Laura de Seroux said. As owner Sidney Port is from Chicago, the colt could find himself at Arlington Park this summer for the Mid-America Triple--the July 3 GII Arlington Classic, July 24 GII American Derby and Aug. 14 GI Secretariat S.

Feb. 7. He was the runner-up to Rock Hard Ten in a one-mile allowance contest Mar. 3, but came up empty when sixth in the WinStar Derby Mar. 28 at Sunland. Cutting back to one turn this time, the 4-5 shot rallied four wide to defeat M. P. Cat (Tactical Cat) by 3/4 of a length. It was seven lengths back to Tenace (Double Honor). Hathrah showed a liking for rain-softened ground when breaking her maiden by an impressive eight lengths on the July Course at Newmarket in August. She proved that she could hold her own on a faster surface when runner-up to Kinnaird (Ire) in the G2 May Hill S. at Doncaster in September and to Secret Charm (Ire) in the Listed Radley S. at Newbury the following month. Back on yielding ground in her 2004 debut, the grey took a lead until the turn into the straight before powering clear for a convincing score. "She's a good filly," Hills commented. "She has a good cruising speed, stays well and doesn't mind that ground, being by Linamix. She's improved that bit from two to three and has done everything right there."

After finishing third behind Three Valleys in the G3 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot in June, Privy Seal beat the smart Wathab (Ire) in the Listed Tyros S. at Leopardstown the following month. He may have felt the fast ground when subsequently fifth in both the Listed Stardom S. at Goodwood and G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot in September, but had the easier conditions he prefers on his return here. Held up towards the rear by Frankie Dettori off the honest early fractions, he surrendered first run to Mutahayya in the straight, but eventually found top gear to cut down that tiring rival in the final 50 yards. "I wasn't surprised he won as I thought the leaders went too fast and cut each others' throats," conditioner John Gosden said. "He will now go for the G3 Classic Trial [at Sandown Apr. 23]."

If Paradise took the valuable Weatherbys Super Sprint at Newbury in July before finishing sixth in the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood later in the month. He held his form to finish runner-up in the Listed Roses S. at York the following month before two tame efforts in the fall. Stalking Harry Up in second under Ryan Moore while making his first start at three in this contest, he opened up passing the quarter pole to forge clear for a deserved first stakes score.

Kempton, 3.45, Mdn, £8,070, 2yo, 5fT, 1:03.68, gd/sf. + PRINCE CHARMING (GB) (c, 2, Royal Applause {GB} --Miss Primula {GB}, by Dominion {GB}) was settled just off the pace in a share of second, but came under pressure approaching the final furlong. The 4-6 favourite looked held in the closing stages, but found extra reserves nearing the line to deny long-time leader Grand Option (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) by 3/4 of a length. "I only have four two-year-olds in work at the moment and he is one of them," commented trainer John Gosden, who added, "I don't know what the [conditions] race is called, but he will now go for what used to be known as the Garter S. at Ascot." The winner was a 110,000gns TATOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,246. O-Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Mrs R D Peacock; T-John Gosden.

FALLON BACK ON TRACK

Kieren Fallon returned to race-riding at Kempton yesterday for the first time since allegations of race fixing were made by the News of the World. The champion jockey was returning from a 21-day suspension for failing to ride out Ballinger Ridge (GB) for first place in a Lingfield maiden Mar. 2. The race was the focus of the newspaper's article making claims of wrongdoing and suspicious betting patterns on betfair. Fallon rounded off his return at Kempton by taking the closing handicap on Petardias Magic (Ire), after which he reflected on "the longest three weeks of my life." He told PA Sport, "That will never be over. I knew I blotted my copybook, but I'm determined to forget about it and continue to try to make amends."
