HEAR MY VOICE

Baron Thierry de Zuylen de Nyevelt's Voix du Nord (Fr) (Valanour {Ire}) enjoyed a smooth and successful return to the races in yesterday's G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp. Sent off the 13-10 pick in the first major trial for the Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby), the homebred stalked the tearaway Kensington (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}) and his own rabbit Alcinos (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}) before being asked the question by Christophe Soumillon approaching the quarter pole.

Voix du Nord

Winding up to top gear, he took command before building a comfortable three-length advantage over Cherry Mix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), as the luckless Fast and Furious (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}) closed late for third. Voix du Nord emerged on the scene when splitting Gwaihir (Ire) and Toasted (winner of Saturday's La Puente S. at Santa Anita) in the Listed Criterium du FEE at Deauville in August. He followed that with two fine efforts at this track when fourth behind Bago (Fr) in the G3 Prix des Chenes in September and second in the G3 Prix de Conde the following month. Stepped up to 10 furlongs for the first time, he proved that stamina was his strong point when besting Simplex (Fr) by 1 1/2 lengths in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud in November. He now has to defy the hoodoo faced by winners of that contest in attempting to win the following year's Chantilly Classic June 6. "He's real good," commented conditioner David Smaga. "He was the only group winner in the field, so that was no surprise to me. The question we were asking today was, 'had he come from the winter?' and he said, 'yes.' I like the way he did it and the G1 Prix Lupin back here [May 16] is the next stop before Chantilly." Prix Noailles chart, p3 Click for the france-galop.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

A TRIPLE CROWN HERO?

G1 Golden Slipper winner Dance Hero (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}) moved one step closer to taking Australia's two-year-old Triple Crown with his win in Saturday's seven-furlong G1 AJC Sires' Produce S. at Randwick. Sent out 7-4 favourite, Dance Hero skipped away effortlessly from his wide barrier to take the lead and control the race. Settled a length ahead of stablemate Wager (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}) early, he was sent wide around the turn, as jockey Glen Boss felt that the track, rated dead, was uneven closer to the fence, but the extra ground proved no problem for the professional little youngster as he held off Wager for a 3/4-length score. "He's an awesome horse, he can control the race and relax wherever you put him," said Boss. Asked if Dance Hero had the potential to be the best horse she has handled, trainer Gai Waterhouse replied, "I think so, and that's the really exciting thing. He is such a professional...he is a joy to train. They all come at him, but they can't get past him." Dance Hero will try to complete his Triple while carrying his speed a mile for the first time in the Apr. 18 G1 Champagne S. He would become the first juvenile since Burst (Aus) to win all three races, and only the fifth overall.

EARNINGS CRUNCH

Who will get into the starting gate on the first Saturday in May...and who will be left out in the cold? With just one major prep race left for the 2004 GI Kentucky Derby, it is certain that there will be more than 20 three-year-olds vying for a berth at Churchill Downs. Solid performances Saturday have earned several colts spots into the field. Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) picked up his first graded purse, pocketing $600,000 for his win in the GI Arkansas Derby. Also adding their names to the mix were GI Wood Memorial hero Tapit (Pulpit), who jumped from 29th to fifth on the list, and Wood runner-up Master David (Grand Slam), who moved from 32nd to 19th. Borrego (El Prado {Ire}) kept his spot on the roster with a second at Oaklawn. For the top 30 three-year-olds, see p2.

Blue Grass Round-Up

In addition to winner The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), four of the runners from Saturday's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland will head to Louisville for the May 1 Kentucky Derby. Trainer Patrick Biancone said of runner-up Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat), "He ran a great race. He ran very brave and he fought hard. We are here, we are in good shape and we just have to cross our fingers for the next three weeks and hope nothing happens to him." Limehouse

Limehouse Equi-photo

(Grand Slam), who pressed the pace before settling for third, is also Derby bound, but will likely employ new tactics in the Classic. "I don't think he liked being close to the lead," jockey Jose Santos said. "When I took him back, he settled and responded. I'd love to ride him in the Derby. If he comes from off the pace, I think the distance will be no problem." Champion Action This Day (Kris S.) put in another lackluster effort to be sixth, but could still run in the Derby. "I'm disappointed," trainer Richard Mandella said. "I have no excuses. He is not running the way he did as a two-year-old and I don't know why." But, he added, "I will go on to Louisville and see what happens." Trainer Bob Baffert will also persevere with seventh-place finisher Preachinathebar (Silver Charm), who is currently 20th on the earnings list. "He's going on to Louisville as long as there is nothing wrong with him," Baffert said.

Master David Headed for the Derby

Trainer Bobby Frankel, who finished second in the Derby with Aptitude in 2000 and again with Empire

Maker last year, will try to earn his first victory in the event with Master David (Grand Slam), a solid second in Saturday's GI Wood Memorial S. at Aqueduct. "He's in the Derby," Frankel said. "He ran great [Saturday] and I'm very happy with him. I think he got beat because he didn't see [Tapit] on the outside." Added Alex Solis, who has run second in three Derbies since 1997, but has yet to win one in 13 tries, "He just got a little tired. He needed the race. This will set him up good for his next race."

Awaiting the Belmont

Little Matth Man (Matty G), who was seventh in the Wood and is unlikely to have enough earnings to get into the Derby field, will likely be taken off the Triple Crown trail until the final jewel, the June 5 GI Belmont S. "I think we're going to take a shot with him in the Belmont," trainer Michael Ciresa said. An $11,000 OBSWIN juvenile purchase, the dark bay took the Whirlaway S. and was third in the Gil Lane's End S. at Turfway Park.

Eddington Out on Earnings?

Eddington (Unbridled) ran a very promising third in the Wood, beaten only a half length, but is 28th on the Derby list for graded-stakes earnings and will need a lot of help to get into the race that his sire won 14 years ago. Still, trainer Mark Hennig was pleased with his effort. "He lost interest [at the top of the stretch], but then he picked it up again when he saw Master David coming on the inside," Hennig said. "He started running again. It was a terrific race, and I would love to run in the Kentucky Derby. I just hope he has enough earnings to get in."

Eddington Horsephotos

But Borrego is a Go

Borrego (El Prado {Ire}), runner-up in the GII Arkansas Derby and 15th in graded earnings, is likely to go on to Louisville. "I am delighted with my horse's race," trainer Beau Greely said. "He is getting better at the right time. I am thinking Kentucky Derby." Currently 26th on the list, third-place finisher Pro Prado (El Prado {Ire}) will need an assist to get into the Derby, but trainer Robert Holthus is hoping for the chance to run. "Our horse fits with these and always runs his race," Holthus said, adding, "I have been around a while. It may be my last chance for the Derby. [Mr. James A. Winn, husband of the colt's owner] isn't in good health--it could be his last Derby opportunity as well."

Castledale Still on the Fence

Trainer Jeff Mullins said yesterday that Castledale (Ire) (Peintre Celebre), upset winner of the Apr. 3 GI Santa Anita Derby, has rebounded well from his victory, but is still an uncertain Kentucky Derby candidate. "We're just light training," Mullins said. "But he's eating good and doing good, so he's starting to come back around a little bit. He's probably 50-50 [to run in the Derby]."

NTRA LEGISLATIVE ACTION CAMPAIGN

Horse owners can support the NTRA's Legislative Action Campaign by checking off a voluntary $50 NTRA contribution on their foal registration forms. The Campaign supports federal lobbying, including efforts to repeal a 30% withholding tax on wagers by foreign bettors and a 5% surcharge on American horses exported to the EU.

A SECRET NO LONGER True Love's Secret (Desert Secret {Ire}) was an 11-1 outsider in yesterday's Yankee Affair S. at Gulfstream Park, but that didn't stop him from setting a new world record as he dashed through five furlongs on the turf in :53.85 over a firm course. The old mark of :54.60 was set by General Express at Monmouth Park in 2000 and equaled by Bop at Penn National in 2002. The seven-year-old True Love's Secret, who could have been claimed for $40,000 from his latest start, had won 11 of his 21 prior tries at five-eighths on the lawn. "This horse is a warrior," trainer Rudy Wolfendale, who has conditioned the gelding for four years, said. "When the chips are down, he always finds a way to come through. I thought he was beat about two or three times [yesterday] and he just kept coming on and found a way. I'm so proud of him."

Ticker Tape ended her European stint with a third-place finish against Listed stakes company at Newbury last October. The bay filly made her U.S. bow in the Nov. 28 Gill Miesque S., running second to Mambo Slew (Kingmambo), then had only that one in front of her once again in the Jan. 14 Blue Norther S. The British-bred turned the tables at 5-1 in her latest, getting the better of her nemesis in the Mar. 18 China Doll S., but was no better than third choice this time. Settled along the inside while rating off a solid pace, Ticker Tape advanced while still saving ground on the far turn, angled outside for the stretch drive and finished well to win going away. "She was always in the bridle and she let me know all the way around the racetrack that she was just dying to go faster," jockey Kent Desormeaux said. Dignity Faces Valleys Test

The Sir Michael Stoute-trained Fort Dignity (Seeking the Gold) will line up against Three Valleys (Diesis {GB}) in Thursday's G3 Craven S. at Newmarket, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. Britton House Stud's Fort Dignity, a Yarmouth conditions scorer last out, impressed in his workout alongside fellow Classic hopefuls Imperial Stride (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and Eden Rock (Ire) (Danehill) and older horse Gamut (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}). Conditioner Roger Charlton also expressed himself pleased with the progress of Juddmonte Farms' Three Valleys, who will turn up for the mile prep, "as long as the ground isn't slow." Also in the running for the trial is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's Haafhd (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}), who will make it a rematch of the G1 Dewhurst S. one-two-three when he meets his conquerors Milk it Mick (GB) (Millkom {GB}) and Three Valleys. Newmarket's Clerk of the Course Michael Prosser has described the ground as officially good to soft ahead of the three-day Craven meeting, with a drying weather forecast.

While Soviet Song was tussling with Russian Rhythm and company in 2003, Beneventa was enjoying a lower profile. Her best effort came after graduating from handicap and conditions level when third to Echoes in Eternity (Ire) in the Listed John Musker Fillies' S. at Yarmouth last September. Enterprisingly ridden by Seb Sanders, the four-year-old was always at the fore as Johnny Murtagh attempted to contain the favorite's enthusiasm in behind. Taken across the track to seize the advantageous stands' rail, Beneventa looked beaten when Soviet Song loomed inside the final eighth, but rallied to outgame her rival in the final strides.

Stalking Noahs Ark (Ire) (Charnwood Forest {Ire}) throughout under Michael Kinane, the 2-1 pick hooked up with that rival at the top of the straight and only got the better of her in the final 50 yards to score by 3/4 of a length. Christophe Soumillon likes to keep it simple and that was all he had to do to steer the progressive Torrestrella to her first stakes success here. Twice a runner-up in the provinces last term, Torrestrella showed instant profit from that softly softly approach when taking a conditions event at Maisons-Laffitte on her return Mar. 2. Settled in a staking second throughout, she took command with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before holding the challenge of the giant Miss Me in the drive to the line. "She is a late-maturing filly who has not stopped improving," said trainer Francois Rohaut. "I thought beforehand that the G1 Prix Saint-Alary [at Longchamp May 23] would be her next race, but Christophe has just said she barely stays this nine furlongs, so I will have a re-think. Maybe he is right, because her pedigree contains a lot of speed, so we may have to supplement her for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches [French 1000 Guineas] back over a mile [at Longchamp May 16]."

Actrice opened her stakes account in the Listed Prix de Liancourt over course and distance in early September, before finishing fourth in the G2 Prix de Royallieu at this track a month later. She finished third in the G3 Prix de Flore at Saint-Cloud in late October, but returned to her happy hunting ground to take this competitive affair. Dominique Boeuf was content to keep her towards the rear in customary languid style as Gary Stevens and Russian Hill cut out the fractions. Despite allowing that partnership a six-length start at the top of the stretch, he did not resort to his whip as Actrice easily wore her down to clinch it in the final 50 yards. "She is quite a nice filly and that's why we kept her in training," conditioner Elie Lellouche commented. "She hasn't blossomed yet this year so there is a lot of improvement to come. We will take advantage of the new pattern program for fillies and go for the G3 Prix Allez France [at Chantilly May 7]."

GREAT BLOOD (FR) (f, 2, Great Palm--Young Blood {Fr}, by Northern Crystal {GB}), a €15,000 DEAOCT yearling, won her only other start at Bordeaux-le-Bouscat Mar. 20. In this one, she stalked the lead in a close third until easing to the fore at halfway. The 21-10 second favourite quickened away from the field approaching the final furlong and pulled further clear in the closing stages to defeat Thunder Under (Fr) (Xaar {GB}) by an impressive four lengths. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 2 wins, €22,000.

ERSHAAD (c, 3, Kingmambo--Insight {Fr} {GISW-US, GSW & G1SP-Fr, $542,484}, by Sadler's Wells), a €525,000 GOFORB yearling, was fourth behind Apsis (GB) in the G3 Thomas Bryon at Saint-Cloud last October. Making his 2004 debut, he was reserved off the pace in rear in the early stages, but inched closer to the front rank once into the stretch run. The 17-10 second choice angled to the outside approaching the final furlong and finished strongly in the closing stages to deny Kaslik (Fr) (Desert Prince {Ire}) by a head in the dying strides. Lifetime Record: GSP-Fr, 5 starts, 2 wins, 2 places, €36,500.

MISS MAMBO (f, 3, Kingmambo--Troika, by Strawberry Road {Aus}), a $220,000 KEESEP yearling, was successful on her debut at Deauville last August and finished third over course and distance on her only other start in October. A 43-10 chance on her return, she was settled in fifth until reaching the home straight and ran on strongly inside the final quarter mile to beat Payphone (GB) (Anabaa) by three-parts of a length in the shades of the post. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 2 wins, 1 place, €24,350.

Scuderia Siba's Ceprin was making his belated stakes debut in this contest, having earlier plied his trade in conditions events. Boasting just a Pisa maiden score at two, he was wound up early for his 2004 campaign, winning and finishing second in two conditions events at that track in January and February. Taken to Rome Mar. 21, he was considered lucky to upset last year's G1 Gran Criterium runner-up Spirit of Desert (Ire), but proved that was no fluke as he came out easily the best in this trial for the G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) in Rome May 1. The winner led from the outset, but was headed by Kill Cat rounding the home turn. He responded well to pressure in the straight and stayed in strongly in the closing stages to comfortably hold the late bid of Boysun. The winner and runner-up will head a strong home defence for the Premio Parioli.

Scuderia Incolinx's Zona had been restricted to this track for both of her previous starts, improving off a third behind the smart An Jolie (Ire) in a conditions race in November to take a maiden last time Mar. 21. Belying her inexperience, she turned this seemingly competitive trial for the G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) in Rome May 1 into a procession under Mario Esposito. Positioned in a stalking second as Shinka (Ire) (Shinko Forest {Ire}) set the early pace, she kicked on in the straight and ran on strongly inside the final furlong to easily account for Rekindled Applause.
