“QUINTON” STRIKES GOLD IN LEXINGTON

Add Quintons Gold Rush (Wild Rush) to the list of Kentucky Derby contenders. The chestnut colt, 28th in graded earnings on the list of Derby hopefuls going into

Quintons Gold Rush Horsephotos

Saturday's GII Coolmore Lexington S., emerged with a 2 3/4-length victory and a spot in the starting gate on the first Saturday in May. Now 17th in graded earnings, he knocks Saratoga County (Valid Expectations), seventh after a tough trip yesterday, down to 21st, but that colt was always an unlikely Derby candidate. Quintons Gold Rush, however, is on his way to Churchill and jockey Jerry Bailey, who was aboard the colt for the first time yesterday, has a decision to make. Bailey is also the regular rider for GII Fountain of Youth S. winner Read the Footnotes. Who will he choose? "That's why I pay [agent] Ron Anderson 25 percent," the Hall of Fame horseman said. "We'll probably make up our minds in a couple of days." Coolmore Lexington S. cont. p2

★ TRIPLE THREATS ★

Baffert Duo Drills at Churchill

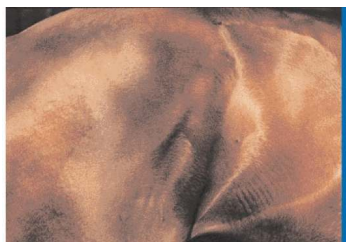

Trainer Bob Baffert sent out his two grey colts for workouts yesterday at Churchill. Wimbledon (Wild Rush) and Preachinathebar (Silver Charm) broke off together, but the former pulled away in the stretch to stop the clock in a bullet :58.40 for five furlongs, with his stablemate finishing up in :59.40. "I feel a lot better about them after this morning," said Baffert about his charges, each of whom was unplaced in their most recent starts. "Usually I can tell if they have a chance by the way they work over this track. But they've got to stay like that and continue on, and we've got to have a lot of good luck with them." Wimbledon, hero of the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 7, faded to fifth in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 3. "I trained him wrong for the Santa Anita Derby," Baffert explained. "I was very apprehensive in my training because I knew he'd gotten in [on earnings] and I'm so afraid of hurting these horses. I'm trying to get to the Derby in one piece, and I thought that if I can just get through the Santa Anita Derby, I'll get down here and I'll tighten the screws on him and we'll be ready to go. So that's what we were doing today." Preachinathebar surprised St Averil to win the GII San Felipe S., but was seventh in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. "Preachinathebar's next work will be much better," said Baffert. "I just told him [jockey Sal Gonzalez Jr.] to just sort of cruise and don't worry about the other horse [Wimbledon]."

Friendly Florida

Florida Derby hero Friends Lake (A.P. Indy) went five-eighths in 1:03 at Payson Park Saturday. "He went very well; went out in 1:17, and when he came back, he wouldn't blow out a match," said trainer John Kimmel. "That was a good work for here." It was the final Florida breeze for the chestnut, who will van to Kentucky Tuesday.

Rushing into the Triple Crown Fray...

A maiden winner in his second career start at Santa Anita Jan. 17, Quintons Gold Rush was given a short break after that effort, returning to be fourth behind Imperialism in the Mar. 6 GII San Rafael S. He dueled for the early lead in the Apr. 3 GI Santa Anita Derby and had the advantage at midstretch, but weakened in the final furlong and was fourth again, three lengths behind Castledale (Ire). Saddled by trainer Steve Asmussen for the first time after shipping east for the Coolmore Lexington, the $60,000 OBSMAR juvenile purchase shadowed longshot Dashboard Drummer (Alamocitos) early, took over after six furlongs in 1:12 and held off the late bid of Fire Slam (Grand Slam). "It was an impressive win," Jerry Bailey said. "He got into the second position with ease and the fractions were moderate. He was running well within himself. We were able to open up into the lane and that is a big advantage here." Added Asmussen, "He's a tremendously talented horse. We're definitely looking forward to running in the Derby." Hoping to Sing "My Old Kentucky Home"...

Song of the Sword (Unbridled's Song), second in the Apr. 3 GII Illinois Derby, closed some ground to be third as the 4-1 favorite at Keeneland. "He broke badly and I think that really cost me," jockey Norberto Arroyo Jr. said. "I had plenty of horse [in the stretch], but the horse in front of me stopped and by the time I was able to angle out, it was too late." The bay missed second by a neck; the $32,500 difference in purse would have put him into the Derby field at number 20, but he is currently 23rd on the list. "If we have the earnings, we're in the Derby," trainer Jennifer Pedersen said.

Disqualified and placed seventh after weaving her way to victory in the Mar. 27 GII Santa Ana H., tiny Megahertz was on the short end of the traffic situation yesterday, but overcame trouble to win going away. The chestnut trailed through six furlongs in 1:13.17 and had to steady while looking for running room at the head of the lane, but showed no signs of discouragement as she swung to the outside and kicked past her rivals for the victory. "As they say in my country, that was a no-brainer," said jockey Alex Solis, back on board Megahertz after missing the Santa Ana. "If she's pointed in the right direction, she'll do the rest." Trainer Bobby Frankel compared the British-bred to Empire Maker's talented but temperamental dam. "The only filly I've had that could kick like that was Toussaud--[she] used to do that," he said. He added that the May 31 GI Gamely Breeders' Cup H., won by Toussaud in 1993, could be next. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. The winner of the GII Illinois Derby, GII Super Derby and GI Travers S. last season, Ten Most Wanted ended his sophomore campaign in the Oct. 25 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, but suffered through a disastrous trip and finished eighth. His return was nearly an instant replay of the Classic--sent off the 5-2 second choice in the Feb. 29 GII New Orleans H. at Fair Grounds, the dark bay was once again forced very wide around the first turn and never got into the hunt, running a distant fifth. Looking for a clean trip as the heavy chalk yesterday, the four-year-old settled in third for six furlongs, carried jockey David Flores to the front as they straightened into the stretch and pulled away under only mild encouragement. "I was a little worried that maybe he was going a little too early, since the stretch is so long, but it was so easy for him," trainer Wally Dollase said. "Hopefully he'll come out of it OK and we'll be off and running. He had two very bad experiences and he needed this." Dollase added that the colt would be pointed for the May 14 GI Pimlico Special.

Passing Shot capped off a three-race winning streak last summer with an 11-1 upset over Wild Spirit (Chi) in the GI Personal Ensign H., but hadn't visited the winner's circle since. After running third in the Sept. 13 GI Ruffian H., she closed out the season with a dismal seventh in the GI Beldame S. Oct. 4. The dark bay mare kicked off the new year finishing last of nine in the GIII Sabin H. Feb. 15, but moved forward last time running fourth over this course in the GIII Next Move H. Mar. 14. Overlooked a bit here, the homebred stayed close to the early leaders, rallied up the inside in the stretch and drew clear to pull off the mild upset. "She was eager today and wanted to run early," trainer Allen Jerkens said. "It's nice getting this win. A lot of people thought that her win at Saratoga was a fluke. This will help her out as a broodmare."

Superlatives about the "black flash" flowed thick and fast throughout Australia Saturday, but the partisan crowd left disappointed, as underrated Grand Armeé ruined Lonhro's much-publicized farewell at Randwick. Grand Armeé, a A$150,000 Easter purchase for owner Alan Bell, had been scorched by Lonhro's blistering speed twice in recent times, finishing second to the 11-time Group 1 winner in the G1 George Main S. last spring, and again a fortnight ago in the G1 George Ryder S. But, allowed to dawdle at the rear as Grand Armeé set a leisurely pace, Lonhro had an impossible amount of ground to make up and toiled home second in front of some 30,000 fans. Winning jockey Danny Beasley explained he took his cue from Lonhro's unsuccessful Cox Plate tilt last fall. "I thought I'd get going a long way from home and make him chase me and...it worked," he said. "There's always mixed emotions when something like this happens, but when they let him get away with sectionals like he was running and you're not going to run him down." Winning trainer Gai Waterhouse, recording her third Group 1 win for autumn, added, "It was a clever front-running ride by Danny Beasley. He made it a real sit and sprint. He stole the show and the good horse, Lonhro, couldn't pick him up in the final stages." Lonhro's rider, Darren Beadman, was chastised by chief steward Ray Murrin who told him, "Initiative was required, but no initiative was shown. You set Lonhro an impossible task." Ironically, Lonhro's sire, Octagonal (NZ), also made his final appearance in this event in 1997 and was downed by Intergaze (Aus). But not everyone was disappointed by the result--Sporting Bet took A$5 million in wagers off an overseas-based Australian businessman, who stood to win just A$1 million on the bet.

Lonhro's fairytale farewell may have been an anti-climax, but all went to script here, with Dance Hero's win never in doubt. The colt concluded his juvenile season on a high note as only the fifth to complete Australia's two-year-old Triple Crown. But unlike former Triple victors Baguette (Aus) (1970), Luskin Star (Aus) (1977), Tierce (Aus) (1991) and Burst (Aus) (1992), Dance Hero had to run on three consecutive Saturdays to complete his task, taking the Apr. 3 G1 Golden Slipper, Apr. 10 G1 AJC Sires' Produce S. and yesterday's G1 Champagne S. over progressively longer trips. The professional gelding led from start to finish and was clocked in 1:34.75 to smash the 28-year-old race record by :0.45. Dance Hero now has six wins from seven starts and a record $3,156,940 prizemoney. Trainer Gai Waterhouse made a bold assessment of her game youngster after the race. "I wonder if he's going to be a horse as good as Kingston Town, because he's got the most brilliant speed," she said. "He doesn't care if he's over 1000 meters or over a mile, he just runs those brilliant times. I know he's only a two-year-old, but what else can you ask him to do? He's backed up three times in two weeks and he's just shown them a clean pair of heels." Stablemate Wager again chased Dance Hero home.

Meteor Storm broke through last out, posting a determined victory in the GII San Luis Rey H. Mar. 20 over 12 furlongs. Among his vanquished rivals that day were Gene de Campeao (Brz) and Runaway Dancer, who are back for another try. Gene de Campeao, a Group 1 winner in his native Brazil, will try to take it wire to wire. "Our strategy will be to send, just send," stated trainer A.C. Avila. "Follow me if you can catch me." Rhythm Mad twice won going 1 5/16 miles in France before concluding his tenure under Andre Fabre with a fourth in the G2 Prix Niel Sept. 14. But finishing ahead of him that day were Derby heroes Dalakhani (Ire) and Kris Kin, suggesting that the four-year-old is capable of handling today's foes. Following a fourth-place finish going a mile in his U.S. debut Feb. 19, he captured a nine-furlong allowance Mar. 18. Eight-year-old Ringaskiddy, who captured this event when it was a Grade I in 2002, recently returned from an 18-month layoff. In his third start off the lengthy hiatus, the Cal-bred ran third, beaten a half-length, in the Crystal Water H. going a mile Mar. 13.

Aidan O'Brien has never been able to hide his enthusiasm for Yeats, whose lofty reputation derives from an emphatic four-length maiden score at The Curragh in September. Based on that display he has abundant stamina and will get all the assistance he requires from stable companion Acropolis here. That colt trailed France's best juveniles American Post (GB) and Bago (Fr) when sixth in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp in October and when third in the G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud the following month. Dabiroun took a mile maiden at The Curragh Mar. 21 before showing the sort of speed that will stand him in good stead here when runner-up to Newton (Ire) in the Listed Loughbrown S. over seven furlongs back at that track last time Apr. 4.

Michael Tabor's Salford City belied his inexperience to win this trial in convincing fashion and book his place in the line-up for the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 1. Heralded as a highly promising colt after an eye-catching seven-length maiden success going a mile at this track Oct. 25, the colt was subsequently acquired by Tabor, and glowing reports from the stable increased the expectation. Slowly away in this contest, he was settled in the rear by jockey Johnny Murtagh off honest early fractions before picking up the leading group inside the final eighth and surging clear of Fokine in the final 75 yards. "He's a nice horse and that was only his second run," Murtagh said. "[Trainer David Elsworth] said just teach him a bit today. I don't see why he shouldn't handle Newmarket as he's very athletic." Milk It Mick (GB) (Millkom {GB}), upset winner of last year's G1 Dewhurst S., weakened inside the final furlong to finish fifth as the 3-1 favorite. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Godolphin cast-off Dubai Success has gone from strength to strength under the care of Barry Hills, winning the Listed Troy S. at Doncaster in September before finishing third in the G3 St Simon S. at this track the following month. He was later stripped of his stakes success on a technicality, but gained his just reward with a battling success on his return in this competitive affair. Settled in a stalking role under cover early by jockey Michael Hills, he allowed Gamut first run in the straight before hooking up with that rival at the eighth pole and winning the bobber on the line. "He went to win and got tired," explained his rider. "He was out on his feet in the final 10 yards--there'll be more races in this fellow." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Mick Channon has suffered the slings and arrows of bad fortune with his brilliant fillies Bint Allayl (GB) and Queen's Logic (Ire), both of whom failed to make their dates with destiny in Newmarket's 1000 Guineas. An eternal optimist, he believes it could be third time lucky with Majestic Desert, who posted her claims for the mile Classic May 2 in this trial. Settled in a stalking third throughout the early stages by jockey Kieren Fallon, she quickened to lead at the eighth pole and went on to score comfortably. "Everything about her is professional," Channon said. "I just feel she's the one--Queen's Logic would have won for sure and she's a little bit like her in lots of ways. She wasn't as sparkling as a two-year-old, but this spring, the way she's been working suggests she's a really high-class filly. She's got speed and you can ride her from the front or drop her in--it doesn't matter."

Fourth in the G3 Chunichi Shimbun Hai in his final start of 2003, My Sole Sound bounced back to win the G3 Kyoto Kimpai over this distance in his seasonal debut Jan. 5, but was coming into this off a fourth-place effort in the nine-furlong G2 Nakayama Kinen Feb. 29. Cutting back for this, the chestnut was allowed to settle in midpack as Ace In The Race set the pace just ahead of odds-on Lohengrin. The latter edged to the front in upper stretch, but jockey Masaru Honda had My Sole Sound in gear, engaged the favorite inside the final furlong and went on to register the upset.

PAT VALENZUELA ISSUED TEMPORARY STAY

Pending an appeal, John Harris, chairman of the California Horse Racing Board, has issued a temporary stay of the suspension handed down by the Santa Anita stewards that would have sidelined jockey Pat Valenzuela through Dec. 31, 2004. The stay permits the 41-year-old to resume riding Apr. 25. Valenzuela's appeal first goes to the Office of Administrative Hearings, then to the seven racing commissioners. Harris made his decision based on information and testimony that the rider's most recent troubles were due to clinical depression and not substance abuse. "It's important to realize that Patrick has been tested hundreds of times and has not had a drug positive in four years," Harris said. "Still, clinical depression is a serious concern, and we need to know that Patrick is healthy both physically and mentally if he is riding horses."

Dyna Da Wyna could have been claimed for $100,000 last August at Saratoga, but she probably has a higher price tag these days. Following that claiming victory, the grey filly captured the Marie DeBartolo Oaks at Louisiana Downs, then annexed the Gill Valley View S. over this course before finishing up 2003 with a fifth against her elders in the Gill Cardinal H. She returned with a victory going five-eighths in a Gulfstream allowance Mar. 26 and was favored here to remain unbeaten

River Flower had won four of her five previous starts on turf, but was lightly regarded in this allowance contest written for distaffers which had never won a stakes race on the grass. In her most recent outing, the versatile six-year-old came up a nose short in Turfway's Wintergreen H. Mar. 12. The bay went up to vie for the lead, put a head in front at the head of the lane and withstood a persistent Salty Farma and a flying Party Queen to get the win.

Sept. 13 and was sent to the bench. Made the lukewarm 2-1 choice for his first start of 2004, the $19,000 KEESEP yearling and $115,000 OBSAPR two-year-old dictated the early fractions before coasting home to a 12-length decision over 2-1 co-choice Best Minister (Deputy Minister). Record Attendance at Keeneland:

With four days left of its spring meeting, Keeneland set a record Saturday for on-track attendance when 31,028 fans went through the turnstiles for the GII Coolmore Lexington S. and its undercard. "Keeneland has some of the best fans in the world," said Keeneland President Nick Nicholson. "The weather has been great. We've had two Fridays in a row with more than 20,000 people in attendance. This has been a tremendous meeting and we look forward to four more days of great racing." The previous record was 29,687, set on Apr. 15, 2000.

Wando Returns to Action:

Reigning Canadian Horse of the Year and Triple Crown winner Wando (Langfuhr) makes his return to the races in this afternoon's sixth race at Keeneland. A homebred for Gustav Schickedanz, the four-year-old colt went on a five-race tear last summer, capped by a 1 1/2-length victory in the Breeders' S. that completed his Triple Crown. Fourth as the tepid favorite in the GI Atto Mile in his penultimate start of the year, the chestnut was last seen running third, beaten 2 1/4 lengths, in the GIII Indiana Derby Oct. 4. Wando, who trained very well over the winter before shipping to Keeneland, was originally expected to make his comeback in the GII Commonwealth Breeders' Cup S. Apr. 10. He faces a stiff test in this 1 1/16-mile turf affair, in which each of the 10 starters is a stakes winner. Six are graded-stakes winners, including John Oxley's Hero's Tribute (Sea Hero), Live Oak Plantation's Miesque's Approval (Miesque's Son) and Shoal Water (Smart Strike).

Originally based in Southern California, Trieste's Honor took six starts to break his maiden, finally notching that first win at Golden Gate Fields on Valentine's Day, but has been unbeatable since. The chestnut colt came back to take a Golden Gate allowance Mar. 14 and was the second choice to make it three in a row in his stakes debut. Prominent early, he angled four wide at the quarter pole, joined favored Capitanio and outgamed that one to the wire for the narrow score.

DAMPENER AT SAINT-CLOUD

There were no fireworks at Goffs France's one-day Breeze-Up Sale at Saint-Cloud yesterday. During the single afternoon session, 72 of the 108 two-year-olds led through the ring were sold, grossing €1,302,500 and resulting in an average of €18,090, marginally down on last year's five-year low. Mocklershill Stables earned the plaudits in consigning the topper, hip 59, a Royal Anthem half-brother to two stakes winners, purchased by the MAB Agency for €71,000. Malcolm Bastard continued his fine week in Newmarket by selling hip 21, an Anabaa colt from the family of L'Ancrese (GB), Cerulean Sky (Ire) and Catcher in the Rye (Ire), to Mike Smith for €65,000. The horses-in-training sale that followed saw hip 137, Jose Gonzalez's Serment (GB) (Unfuwain), achieve a top bid of €136,000 from his current conditioner Francois Rohaut.
