STORM THUNDERS HOME IN CAPISTRANO

Meteor Storm (GB) (Bigstone {Ire}), twice a winner at 1 1/2 miles, had no problem with an extra quarter-mile yesterday, powering clear to an easy win in Santa Anita's closing day feature, the 1 3/4-mile GII San Juan Capistrano Invitational H. The five-year-old bay, who began his North American career last season with just four 2003 starts and two allowance wins, was coming off a narrow win in the 12-furlong GII San Luis Rey H. over the Santa Anita course Mar. 20. The 5-2 Capistrano favorite was content to stalk the pacesetters in third, before charging to the front nearing the lane and kicking clear to a 1 1/2-length triumph.

Benoit

"You need a horse that can definitely go the distance and be able to relax sometime during the race," explained winning rider Jose Valdivia, Jr. "You've got to get them to gallop for at least a mile, a mile and a quarter. This horse did exactly that. He was able to put me in a good forward spot and then just relax. He was saving himself and so was I. If I called on him, I wanted him to be able to fight off all challengers. For a horse to go a mile and a half and then kick on like that the last quarter of a mile is just very impressive." Winning trainer Wally Dollase added, "The horses was relaxing all the way. He never gets in a hurry. He can run all day. He's got a great mind, great attitude. That's what separates him from the other ones." Dollase said the May 10 Jim Murray Memorial H. at Hollywood was possible for Meteor Storm, with the Breeders' Cup Turf his long-term goal. INTERCONTINENTAL FLIES TO WILEY WIN

Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill), a stakes winner at Deauville and third in the English 1000 Guineas for Andre Fabre last season, was left at the gate, but closed powerfully to take her U.S. bow in a one-mile turf allowance at Santa Anita Mar. 28. Her trip in yesterday's GIII Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland was less eventful, but just as fruitful as the full sister to champion Banks Hill (GB) charged down the lane en route to a one-length triumph. Off the pace early, Intercontinental moved up eight wide on the backstretch, came five wide into the lane and outbattled Ocean Drive (Belong to Me) to win going away. "She's a European cover-up, late runner, so I had to adjust her style to the course," explained winning rider Jerry Bailey. "She showed she's very versatile today. She had to make more of a long, sustained run, but she came the last sixteenth in six seconds." Glick, claimed for $40,000 in December, set the course record over this track and trip in his first start for his new connections in a Jan. 19 allowance before a runner-up effort in the Feb. 15 Daytona H. He returned to take a Mar. 12 optional claimer down the hill in his last outing and was looking to go three for four over this course here. The bay pressed the pace through fractions of :22.14 and :44.15 before taking charge in upper stretch and holding sway over stablemate Cayoake for the first graded stakes win of his career. "I had to hold him a little bit," said winning rider Alex Solis. "The first quarter of a mile, they were going kind of slow for this kind of race. He's a gutsy little horse. I got down on him only the last part and he flew home." Jeff Mullins, leading trainer at the Santa Anita meeting which concluded yesterday, conditioned the top two finishers. "They're both good horses," Mullins said of his one-two finishers. "There's no taking anything away from either one of them. I was surprised to see Glick laying that close. They kind of changed positions today." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Click here for the RaceReplays.com video.

With only two rivals, Yeats was open to a tactical affair, but he came in for a no-nonsense ride from Jamie Spencer in this contest. Taken to the front, he built a three-length advantage from Dabiroun and jockey Michael Kinane, which he never looked likely to relinquish. Moved into the centre of the track in the straight in search of better ground, Susan Magnier's colorbearer opened up with the threat of the whip to record an authoritative score. After taking a maiden in impressive fashion at The Curragh in September, trainer Aidan O'Brien revealed that Yeats would go the "Galileo route" to Epsom. That pattern of races, beginning with this race and including the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial back at this track May 9, has also been tried and tested by previous blue-ribbon winners Sinndar (Ire) and High Chaparral (Ire). "He's an athlete and a big, long-striding, uncomplicated horse," O'Brien said. "The Derby Trial and the G1 Epsom Derby [June 5] are the plan and, as he's a great mover, he wants better ground. Jamie was very happy with him." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Gestut Schlenderhan's homebred Assiun took this first domestic group event of 2004 for three-year-olds in a decisive fashion that suggests he could go on to better things. Settled in a stalking second throughout the early stages by Andreas Suborics, he was sent to the front inside the final half mile. Maintaining the relentless gallop in the straight, the powerful colt was always holding the game pursuit of Tarlac. Assiun, who broke his maiden at Mulheim last time Mar. 28, is a half brother to stakes-winning sprinter Anthurium (Ger). His dam Assia is a half sister to the G2 Henkel-Rennen (German 1000 Guineas) winner Princess Nana (GB).

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

Derby Hopefuls on the Work Tab

Pollard's Vision (Carson City) worked five furlongs at Keeneland Sunday morning in 1:01. The breeze was the colt's first since winning the Apr. 3 GII Illinois Derby. After the drill, Pollard's Vision and stablemates Limehouse (Grand Slam) and Ashado (Saint Ballado) shipped to Churchill Downs.

St. Averil (Saint Ballado), most recently sixth in the Apr. 3 GI Santa Anita Derby, worked five furlongs at Santa Anita yesterday in :59 2/5. Jockey Tyler Baze was in the irons. Trainer Rafael Becerra was happy with the work, but said a decision on the Kentucky Derby would have to wait. "I would just like to see how he does the next couple of days and we will wait and see," Becerra said. "He will have one more work here [at Santa Anita] Saturday and then we will really decide."

GI Santa Anita Derby third-place finisher Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) worked seven furlongs at Churchill Downs in 1:27 3/5. Retired jockey Corey Black was in the irons. The giant colt currently stands 29th on the graded earnings list of Derby hopefuls. "We will just wait and see what happens," said trainer Jason Orman. "If we don't get in, we will probably go to the Preakness." Orman added that a start in the GIII Derby Trial a week before the Derby to boost Rock Hard Ten's graded earnings was unlikely, but possible. "We will probably give him a breeze next Monday and then see what happens Wednesday," Orman said. "I just think three races in a month is too much for a young horse, especially when you are probably going to run the toughest race of your life in the next start."

Oaks Hopefuls Work

Aiming for the Apr. 30 GI Kentucky Oaks, Ashado (Saint Ballado) zipped five furlongs in company with stablemate Speightstown at Keeneland yesterday in :59 2/5. The filly won the GII Fair Grounds Oaks and most recently was runner-up in the GI Ashland S.

GII Stonerside Beaumont winner Victory U.S.A. (Victory Gallop) worked five furlongs at Churchill yesterday in 1:01. Also working five furlongs at Churchill Sunday, Last Song (Unbridled's Song), third in the Ashland, covered the distance in 1:00 4/5. "It was a good, solid work," trainer Carl Nafzger said. "She's doing everything we want her to do." Last Song worked four furlongs Thursday in an easy :49.20.

Coming back after 4 1/2 months off, and taken down to the mile after a couple of failures over 2000 meters, Salt Champ added another Group 1 gem to her resume. The race started with Gran Muralla taking the lead, followed closely by her stablemate Dale Lunfa (Arg) (Dalhart), while Salt Champ tracked in fourth. Salt Champ rounded the final turn still several lengths off the leader, but kicked into gear and began making progress at the top of the stretch. Asked for her best 50 meters from home, the talented Argentine-bred asserted well to deny Gran Muralla by a head.

Canadian Horse of the Year and Triple Crown winner Wando tired to third in his latest in the GIII Illinois Derby at Hoosier Park Oct. 4 and went off the 5-2 second choice to record his first win in eight months. Close-up to the early pace, Wando poked his head in front after a half mile, edged clear at the top of the stretch and held it together under mild urging late to gain the narrow win.

Indy--Pemaquid, by Deputy Minister) showed plenty of talent last year, including second-place finishes in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks and the GII Black Eyed Susan S., but didn't fare as well in a handful of other starts. Among those poor performances was a distant sixth in her latest going nine furlongs in the slop at Churchill Downs in the GII Fall Highweight H. Nov. 27. Searching for her first victory in a year and a half, the 5-2 second choice was rated off the early pace, closed on the front rank after a half mile in :48.23 and gained command in the final sixteenth to score by two lengths over 24-1 shot Darby's Charm (Is It True). Seattle Queen (Seattle Slew) finished sixth as the 4-5 favorite. Lifetime Record: SW & MGISP, 13-3-3-1, $298,548.

With the late scratch of Azamour (Ire) on account of the easing ground, Grey Swallow appeared to have a facile task of maintaining his unbeaten record in this trial. Connections were given a scare, however, as the grey struggled to best the unexposed Meath in a desperate finish. Settled in a stalking fourth by Pat Smullen as that rival set a moderate early tempo, he was shaken up to gain the upper hand with 100 yards remaining before having to contain that rally in the drive to the line. Grey Swallow, who finished 2003 the top-rated Irish juvenile in the International Classifications by virtue of his impressive success in the G3 Killavullan S. at this track at the end of October, was reported on course for the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket in 13 days' time by his conditioner. "It was a hard call whether to run or not, but the track was beautifully prepared and that's what swung it for me," Dermot Weld explained. "It's been very difficult to prepare horses over the last two weeks with the weather. Some of the two-year-olds have head colds, but I am satisfied and I'm glad I ran him. It was a workmanlike performance and he blew up a few yards from the line, but he's very honest and very brave and he'll come on for the run. He'll take his chance in the English Guineas and then hopefully go for the G1 Irish Guineas [at The Curragh May 22]."
