WORLD SERIES KICKS OFF IN HONG KONG

The 2004 version of the World Series Racing Championship kicks off with this afternoon's running of the G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin Racecourse. The 2000-meter event has attracted five

Right Approach (outside) and Paolini (center) dead heat in Dubai A Watkins

International Group/Grade 1 winners, including Paolini (Ger) (Lando {Ger}) and Right Approach (GB) (Machiavellian), who most recently shared the spoils in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Mar. 27. Seven-year-old Paolini, making his 21st consecutive start at Group 1 level, has had good success at this track, finishing runner-up in the G1 Hong Kong Cup in 2002 before registering a third in this event last year. The home team puts forth a formidable challenge this afternoon, led by Lucky Owners (NZ) (Danehill), who bested Bowman's Crossing (Ire) (Dolphin Street {Fr}) in the G1 Hong Kong Mile in December. The mare Elegant Fashion (Aus) (Danewin {Aus}), second in this event in 2003, was an excellent third to Falbrav (Ire) in the G1 Hong Kong Cup and could venture overseas should she perform well today.

ZITO OFF TO QUICK START AT CHURCHILL

Sir Shackleton (Miswaki) won't be going on to next weekend's Kentucky Derby, but the Tracy Farmer homebred got Derby week off to an auspicious start for trainer Nick Zito, scoring his third consecutive victory in the GIII Derby Trial S. on opening day in Louisville. Second to the talented Forest Danger in his Feb. 14 bow at Gulfstream, the chestnut bounced back to win his maiden in Hallandale on Florida Derby day Mar. 13 and was coming into this off a powerful first-level allowance score at Keeneland Apr. 9. With the pace from between Quick Action (Carson City) on the rail and GIII Lafayette S. winner Bwana Charlie (Indian Charlie) to the outside, Sir Shackleton poked his head in front turning for home and dug in gamely to defeat Courageous Act (Exploit). "I've always wanted to win the Derby Trial," Zito admitted. "There are certain races you want to win and this is one of them. It's just a cool race. This is a very nice horse and our job now will be to take care of him, because it looks like he has a big future. This is an incredible way to start Derby week." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

On NFL Draft day, it seems only appropriate that Singletary would find his way to the winner's circle. A solid three-year-old grass runner last season, the bay colt won the GIII La Jolla H. at Del Mar in August, but was put away following a fifth in the GII Del Mar Derby the following month. Never worse than third at the one-mile distance, the bargain yearling purchase returned to take Santa Anita's Thunder Road H. by a length Feb. 11 and was second, beaten a half length, in the GII F.E. Kilroe Mile H. in Arcadia Mar. 6. Favored at odds-on in this spot, Singletary took up a ground saving spot as Captain Squire carved out comfortable fractions on the front end. Eased off the rail by jockey Jose Valdivia Jr. for the drive, Singletary went after the pacesetter approaching the final furlong and edged away to the narrow score. The winner goes next in the GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile at Hollywood May 31.

Hurricane Alan sprang a 25-1 surprise after being delivered with a perfectly timed run by Pat Dobbs. Following his success in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket last April, he was seventh in the G1 2000 Guineas the following month. A respectable sixth in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot, he failed to make an impact during the remainder of his sophomore campaign, but shaped with promise on his return when third behind Gateman in the G3 Earl of Sefton S. at Newmarket last time Apr. 14. Racing keenly trapped wide in midpack in this contest, he settled when found cover and was full of run inside the final quarter as Gateman turned on the pressure from the front. He quickened past that rival with 250 yards to race and had enough to contain Gateman on the uphill climb to the line. "He traveled very well but pulls up in front," explained Dobbs. "The other horse was coming back to me, but he's very tough." Conditioner Richard Hannon revealed that he will be aimed at the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 15 and G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood July 28. Margins: 5 1/4, 1HF, NK. Odds: 5.40, 4.20, 14.20. Also Ran: Snorter, Taste of Paradise, Winning Fans, Mountain General, Pie N Burger.

Kela raced closest to pacesetting Yessirgeneralsir, inherited the lead when that rival began to tire and cruised home an easy winner of the Texas Mile. Kela, who defeated Orientate to win his maiden back in 2001, put together a solid four-year-old season, which included a one-length defeat at the hands of Congaree in the GII Del Mar BC H., but ended with an eighth to Pleasantly Perfect in that year's GII Goodwood BC H. The bay won the Tokyo City H. last year, his lone victory from six starts. In two trips to the post this term, the six-year-old was fourth in the GII San Carlos H. Mar. 7 and fifth to Dynever in the GII San Bernardino H. at Santa Anita Apr. 3. The fourth choice in this field of eight, Kela tracked Yessirgeneralsir from second, engaged that rival leaving the far turn and pulled steadily clear. Florida invader Supah Blitz stayed on for the place while favored Snorter (Awesome Again) was never a serious factor, finishing fourth.

Trainer Wally Dollase had won graded stakes at Hawthorne, twice with Ten Most Wanted (Illinois Derby and National Jockey Club H.) and Bare Necessities in last year's GIII Sixty Sails H. He seemed destined to add to that streak yesterday, but Jim Tafel's Allspice denied the heavily favored Bare Necessities in her repeat attempt. A stakes winner in her final start at two, Allspice failed to find the winner's circle in just four starts in a sophomore campaign, which included runner-up finishes to Lady Tak in the Thelma S. and the Tiffany Lass S. over the winter. Fifth in the GII Silverbulletday S. in February and in the GI Ashland S. in April, the bay did not race again until finishing second in a Fair Grounds optional claimer Feb. 12. Seventh two back in the Krantz Memorial H. in New Orleans, she was most recently runner-up in a Mar. 25 two-turn event at Fair Grounds. Settled in second as Mavoreen went easily on the lead, Allspice responded when set down for the drive, collared Mavoreen with an eighth of a mile to run and just held off the favorite at the wire. "Things worked out perfect," said a breathless winning rider Chris Emigh. "I got a good start out of the gate and it felt like we were just walking. On paper it didn't look like you could beat the other horse, but you never know. It's horse racing." Jockey Rene Douglas, who rode the beaten favorite, offered no excuse. "I thought I had them measured perfectly turning for home. I was getting close at the wire, but I couldn't get past her." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Chilly Rooster took a Dec. 19 optional claimer on the main track at Calder in his final start of 2003, but had been fourth in his four prior starts this term. The dark bay switched to the turf in his second outing of the year and finished two lengths behind Spotted Owl in a NW3X allowance at Gulfstream Park Jan. 23, then missed by a length and a half at that level Mar. 4. He had a new jockey last time, but clipped heels and nearly fell with Manoel Cruz replacing regular rider Sahannon Uske at Gulfstream Mar. 25. With Uske back in the irons for his stakes debut, Chilly Rooster tucked in behind the leaders to the final bend, drove between horses to take the lead at the top of the lane and turned back the challenge of 50-1 Union Place to post the upset. "I couldn't believe how great [the race] was setting up," said Uske, celebrating her second graded-stakes win (she got her first with Smokume in the 2003 GIII Cowdin S.). "I knew I had horse--that's why I sent him through there. I didn't want to get stuck in traffic."

This was the fourth Fort Marcy score for trainer Allen Jerkens, who also won with Beau Bugle (1975) and John's Gold (1983), both owned by Hobeau; and with Joseph Allen's Saint Verre last year. Click for the Chancellor emerged on to the scene when taking the G3 Classic Trial at this track in 2001 and showed his affinity for Sandown's contours when adding this contest the following year. Winless since taking the G2 Royal Whip S. at The Curragh in August 2002, he had showed he retained his ability when fourth in the G2 Prix Dollar at Longchamp on his last start of 2003. After a lackluster ninth in the Listed Magnolia S. at Kempton on his return Apr. 12, he came in for a power-packed ride from champion jockey Kieren Fallon back on his happy hunting ground. He settled in a stalking role throughout the early stages, was driven to challenge the penalised Nysaeen with 100 yards remaining and battled past that rival up the hill.

Silent Witness goes for a Hong Kong record 11th consecutive victory this afternoon and could earn a bonus of HK$2 million for a sweep of the Champion Sprint Series. Winner of the G1 Hong Kong Sprint last December, the bay gelding added the HK-G1 Bauhinia Sprint Trophy Feb. 1 and the HK-G1 Centenary Sprint Cup Mar. 13. An unlikely horse has emerged a possible threat to the favorite in the form of Electronic Unicorn. Named Horse of the Year in Hong Kong in 2002, the son of Housebuster was rumored to be on the brink of retirement after suffering a ruptured sheath around his left fore tendon. Second in consecutive runnings of the G1 Hong Kong Mile, the eight-year-old won his last three starts of 2003, including the G1-HK Champions' Mile last Apr. 27.

Dimitrova makes her first start since tiring to be 12th in the Oct. 26 GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf. A Listed winner in Ireland, the bay was beaten just 3/4 of a length in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas in her European finale, then captured the July 5 American Oaks in her U.S. bow. The four-year-old filly disappointed when second as the odds-on choice in the Sept. 7 GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H., but redeemed herself with a driving win over Walzerkoenigin and Heat Haze (GB) in the Sept. 27 GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. She faces 2003 Wilshire winner Dublino. The winner of the 2002 GI Del Mar Oaks, she came back after a 7 1/2-month layoff to be second in a Santa Anita allowance test Mar. 28. The competitive field also includes four-year-old fillies Makeup Artist, Quero Quero and Katdogawn, each the winner of a graded-stakes event over the Hollywood turf course in 2003.

The Niarchos Family's Denebola makes her eagerly awaited comeback in this prep for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches over course and distance May 16. The daughter of the brilliant racemare Coup de Genie made her presence felt when winning the G3 Prix de Cabourg at Deauville in August, where Via Milano was back in third. She was a creditable third behind Whipper on desperate ground in the G1 Prix Morny back at that track at the end of the month before taking the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac over this course and distance in October. Alec and Ghislaine Head's Dalna maintained her unbeaten record in the G3 Prix Miesque at Maisons-Laffitte in November and offers a major threat, as does impressive course-and-distance conditions scorer Grey Lilas.

Juddmonte Farms' American Post takes another step towards his goal of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains over this course May 16. Making dramatic strides in the fall of his two-year-old campaign, he annexed the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere here and the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster in the space of 20 days during October. He showed his versatility for different types of ground in those contests and also displayed explosive speed. That was in evidence again during his comeback success in the Listed Prix Omnium at Saint-Cloud last time Mar. 31, where Blackdoun was a well-held third. Andre Fabre has farmed this contest in recent times, collecting four renewals since 1999. He saddles the unbeaten Diamond Green, representing the Lagardere Family successful with Clodovil (Ire) 12 months ago. He beat the ill-fated Charming Prince (Ire) in the G3 Prix La Rochette at this track in September and on that form line he is not far behind American Post. Antonius Pius needs to improve on the bare form of his G2 Railway S. success at The Curragh last June, but can be forgiven his poor effort when 11th in the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket in October.

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

Sinister G Ruled Out of Derby

Sinister G (Matty G), upset winner of the GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Park Mar. 20, has been officially ruled out of consideration for the Run for the Roses by trainer John Toscano. The colt was scheduled for a breeze at Belmont Park yesterday morning, but has not sufficiently recovered from a cough. The work was scrapped, as were any plans to make the trip to Louisville. "We're out," the conditioner confirmed. "Sometimes Mother Nature takes over and if the horse is not right, to put him in the Derby would be foolish." The defection assures a spot in the starting gate for GII Coolmore Lexington S. third Song of the Sword (Unbridled's Song), who moves to 20th on the list of graded-stakes earnings.

Rock Hard Ten to Shoot for Derby

Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) was scratched from yesterday's GIII Derby Trial S. and connections hope the colt will draw into the body of the Kentucky Derby when entries are taken Wednesday afternoon. "Our chances of getting into the field are looking a little better," trainer Jason Orman told Thoroughbred Times. "And if we get in, we'll want to have the best chance." If he does not make the Derby, Orman said Rock Hard Ten would work Monday for the Preakness May 15.

Servis All Smiles Following Smarty's Work

Undefeated Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) delighted his connections when he worked five furlongs yesterday morning in a crisp :58 at Churchill Downs. It was the fastest of 34 works at the distance. Sent out immediately after the renovation break, the GII Arkansas Derby winner was caught in fractions of :22 4/5 for his opening quarter mile, :34 4/5 for three-eighths and out six furlongs in 1:11 1/5. "I am tickled to death. It went very good," trainer John Servis enthused following the move. "He looked good. I think he really liked the track. He was ready for a work." Servis explained that the breeze did not unfold exactly according to plan. "He had a horse break off in front of him going to the three-eighths pole....kind of dropped over in front of him. [Exercise rider and jockey] Willie [Martinez] had to take a hold of him. He said as soon as he took a hold, he came back to him. He hollared at the girl and the girl eased out. She didn't leave much room and he gave him his head and he shot right through there."

Birdstone Flies His Five Eighths

By a Kentucky Derby-winning sire and out of a mare which produced the winner of last year's GI Kentucky Oaks, Marylou Whitney's Birdstone (Grindstone) may be the hunch horse in this year's Derby. The diminutive bay went a long way toward proving that he could be a factor in this year's race when he cruised through a five-furlong workout yesterday morning in :58 2/5. Working to the seven-eighths pole, the winner of last year's GI Champagne S. galloped out six furlongs in 1:12 3/5 to the delight of trainer Nick Zito. "He went very well," he said. "Good horses work this way. It was a great work and I think it gives him a decent shot next Saturday." For all his accomplishments, the homebred figures a big price come post time, but should not be overlooked, according to his trainer. "He was high on the pole as a two-year-old and it wouldn't be that much of a surprise if he were to win. He got sidetracked for a while, but he's back now." The winner of a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 14, Birdstone was a disappointing fifth in the GII Lane's End S. He was scratched from the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 10 with an elevated high white blood cell count.

California Duo Tune Up

A pair of California-based horses, neither of which has been confirmed as a starter in the Derby, had their major pre-race workouts yesterday morning in the Golden State. At Hollywood Park, GI Santa Anita Derby hero Castledale (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) breezed a strong six furlongs in 1:11 4/5 beneath his regular rider Jose Valdivia Jr. Owned in part by TVG personality Frank Lyons, the colt galloped out an extra eighth of a mile in :12 1/5. "He went really good," trainer Jeff Mullins commented, who indicated that a decision on whether to run in the Derby would be made this morning. "The day after is always the key day," Mullins explained.

A decision is also pending on the Derby status of St Averil (Saint Ballado), who worked three-quarters of a mile in 1:11 4/5 at Santa Anita for trainer Rafael Becerra. The Stan Fulton runner, who has been plagued by foot problems, was fitted with a bar shoe and was guided through the breeze by his jockey Tyler Baze. "He seems OK, in good form," Becerra commented. "He went his last quarter in :23 2/5, but when he's good he can do this."

Big Names Breeze Ahead of Oaks

Grade I winner Ashado (Saint Ballado) tuned up for next Saturday's GI Kentucky Oaks with a sharp drill, covering five-eighths in :59. "It was a little faster than we normally go with our horses," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "But this track was faster than normal this morning after the break. The main thing was she skipped right along doing it. A horse broke off in front of her and that got her going." Joining Ashado was California shipper A.P. Adventure (A.P. Indy), who went five furlongs in 1:00.80. "The work was good," said trainer Wally Dollase. "Not too fast, but not too slow. Raul [exercise rider Vizcarrondo] said she really wanted to go. He said she finished up strong." Victory U. S. A. (Victory Gallop), who upset champion Halfbridled in the GII Stonerside Beaumont S. Apr. 8, cruised through five panels in 1:00.40...Out at Hollywood Park, Hollywood Story (Wild Rush) completed six furlongs in 1:13.40. "She went along at her usual good clip," said assistant trainer Michelle Jensen, who was in the irons for the work. "She cooled out fine." The three-year-old is scheduled to ship to Churchill Monday.

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

ATTRACTION PLEASES IN GALLOP The Duke of Roxburghe's Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}), getting ready for next Sunday's G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket, satisfied connections in a racecourse spin at Ripon yesterday. Conditioner Mark Johnston was on hand to see last year's G3 Queen Mary S. and G2 Cherry Hinton S. winner pick off stable companion Caracara (Ire) after four of the six furlongs of their gallop before striding clear. "It looked like they were going a fairly gentle pace when she eventually went past the other filly, but Kevin's comments were that they'd gone a very good gallop early on and she was very relaxed, but not really liking the soft ground and undulations," the trainer told PA Sport. "He tried to coax her past and it went smoothly enough, but then when he's gone to pull up, she's taken off. That was her last work and we'll just keep her ticking over now. It just shows that she's relaxed, but the fire is still there."

CAT AT THE READY Aidan O'Brien yesterday confirmed One Cool Cat (Storm Cat) on target for next weekend's G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. After announcing that "everything has gone well" with last year's G1 Phoenix S. and G1 National S. hero, O'Brien revealed that Giant's Causeway's brother Tumblebrutus (Storm Cat) may also be entered in the mile Classic. The conditioner will saddle Necklace (GB) (Darshaan {GB}) in Sunday's G1 1000 Guineas; last year's G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine will also point for the Irish equivalent at The Curragh May 23 and the G1 Epsom Oaks June 4. But stable jockey Jamie Spencer could be sidelined for the fillies' Classic--he picked up a one-day ban last Sunday, which he is appealing, and faces another four-day suspension after being found guilty of careless riding on yesterday's Listed Salsabil S. winner All Too Beautiful (Ire) (see Irish Report).

PRETTY WILD (c, 4, Wild Again--Pretty Discreet {GISW, $230,422}, by Private Account) showed plenty of promise as a juvenile, running second in the GI Hopeful S. and GI Futurity S., but hadn't gotten his picture taken since a sharp Saratoga allowance score last summer. Most recently second, beaten 4 1/2 lengths to Speightstown, in the Artax H. at Gulfstream Mar. 27, the bay colt was made the 1-2 chalk versus this overmatched group. He showed good early speed while racing in second, took command in the stretch and drew off impressively to a 6 1/2-length victory over Buzzy's Gold (Touch Gold). The 2-1 favorite after the trip to New York, the bay fought it out on the front end for six furlongs before edging away to a 1 1/2-length score. Country Judge (Judge T C) was second best. Lady Tak began her career with five straight victories, including the GII Fair Grounds Oaks last March. She handled the rise in class to Grade I company without a problem, notching second-place showings in the GI Ashland S., the GI Acorn S. and the GI Gazelle H., and a victory in the GI Test S., but closed out her sophomore season with a dismal seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. The chesnut filly returned to the races with a sixth-place finish in Keeneland's Madison S. Apr. 7, but was still well-supported at the windows here. Ridden by Shane Sellers, the classy filly broke on top, set moderate fractions and never looked back.

7th-CDX, $51,165, Alw, NW2X, 3yo, 6f, 1:09 4/5, ft. SIPHONIZER (c, 3, Siphon {Brz}--Thesky'sthelimit, by Northern Prospect) captured the GII Del Mar Futurity last September, but faltered in his final two juvenile starts, running a distant fourth in the Oct. 5 GII Norfolk S. and 10th in the Oct. 25 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. The 3-2 second choice in his sophomore bow, the dark bay tracked 13-10 Western Roar (Roar) through a quick opening quarter, took over after a half in :45.19 and pulled away down the lane in an eye-catching 6 1/4-length return victory. The winner was a $140,000 KEENOV weanling and a $275,000 FTKJUL yearling. Lifetime Record: GSW, 6-3-0-0, $229,775. O-B W Hughes. B-B C Jones (KY). T-R Mandella.

SISTER STAR (f, 3, Langfuhr--Little Irish Nut {SW, $149,731}, by Irish Tower) was on the board in two turf attempts versus maidens last summer, then returned to the dirt and romped to a 10-length maiden win at Turfway Park in September. Third in the Nov. 1 Pocahontas S., she ended the season with a 10th in the Nov. 29 GII Golden Rod S. She came back to be fifth in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 10 and was overlooked at odds of 9-1 switching back to the grass. The dark bay filly stalked the early leaders in third, was swung out five wide for the stretch run and powered clear to a 2 1/4-length victory over Pretty Jane (Subordination). Debuting with Lasix from the nine hole, the bay filly vied for early command and ran away to win by 2 3/4 lengths. Golden Victress (Carson City), a 106-1 shot, finished second. Bet down to 4-5 off that effort, she contested an opening quarter of :21 4/5, drew clear on the far turn and crossed the line 2 1/2 lengths clear of 90-1 firster Freedom Fries (French Deputy). Cheiron (rhymes with Skyron) kicked off 2004 with a five-length maiden victory versus state-breds at Santa Anita Jan. 10 and returned on short rest to finish second, beaten a nose, in the Sunshine Millions Dash Jan. 24. Stretched out to two turns for his next, the grey colt defeated open company by three-parts of a length at Santa Anita Feb. 20 then ran admirably in the GII San Felipe S., finishing fourth, five lengths behind Preachinathebar. Content to race in sixth for the opening three-quarters of a mile as Don'tsellmeshort showed the way, the Triple Crown nominee came out into the lane, found room between horses inside the final sixteenth of a mile and drove clear. "He is a very brave horse," said winning rider Alex Solis. "I was trapped actually and I saw a little hole. If I didn't go through there, I never would have won. When I asked him, he went for it."

Second to subsequent GI Santa Anita Oaks Silent Sighs in the Dec. 27 California Breeders' Championship S. at Santa Anita, Yearly Report came back to post a four-length score over the talented House of Fortune and set a stakes record in the Jan. 19 GII Santa Ynez S. at seven furlongs Stretching out to two turns after a three-month vacation, the bay was bet down to 1-10 with the return to state-bred competition and came through for the crowd. Never far from the front, the three-year-old moved to the lead after six furlongs in 1:09.97 and opened it up late to beat stablemate Western Hemisphere handily while setting another stakes record. "I rode her with confidence today, thinking she was so much the best today," jockey Corey Nakatani said. I let her move up at the half-mile pole and she did everything I asked her to do. She is a special horse."

Beaten a nose by Super High in the Feb. 15 Pro Or Con H. at a mile on the Santa Anita turf, Moscow Burning turned the tables this time. The bay filly had started once since her narrow defeat, finishing a close-up fifth in the 12-furlong GII Orchid H. at Gulfstream Park. Shortening up against a softer field here, the Cal-bred settled in sixth for six furlongs, but rallied to take the lead at the eighth pole and drew clear. Valentine Dancer (In Excess {Ire}), fourth in the Feb. 14 GII La Canada S. last time out, was sent off the 7-5 favorite, but had no closing kick and finished sixth.

Six-year-old Royally Chosen had never made an appearance at Hollywood Park before, but had shown ability while racing at Santa Anita and Del Mar. The bay was second to Affluent in the 2001 GI La Brea S. and the 2002 GII El Encino S. and to Adoration in the Piedra Foundation H. last September. She finished first in her last two outings of 2003, the Nov. 8 Cal Cup Matron H. and the Dec. 31 Kalookan Queen H., but had her New Year's Eve triumph taken away by the stewards as she was disqualified and placed second for bumping runner-up Ema Bovary (Chi) late. Royally Chosen had been off the board in two previous tries this season, most recently returning from a 2 1/2-month layoff and tiring badly to be seventh in the Apr. 4 Santa Lucia H. at a mile and a sixteenth. Shortening up for her second start after the break, she tracked the early leaders, found running room between horses to take the advantage in the stretch and held on gamely over the fast-finishing Summer Wind Dancer.

Beau Soleil had sandwiched wins between runner-up finishes since taking an optional claimer at Hollywood Nov. 21. The chestnut kept the pattern going with an eight-length optional score at Santa Anita Apr. 3, but broke the streak by making it two in a row here. The odds-on choice, he was in a three-way battle for the lead for a half, but took control in deep stretch and edged clear for his first stakes success.

Claimed for $16,000 out of a seventh-place finish over the Hollywood main track last December, Black Bary won back-to-back allowance tests over the Turf Paradise grass course and was second to the classy Irish Warrior in the Turf Paradise BC H. Feb. 7. Switched back to the main track, the dark bay won the Down Isle S. by a nose Mar. 1 and was most recently the four-length winner of the Blaze O'Brien S. back on the turf in Phoenix Mar. 15. Sent for the lead by his regular rider Sandi Gann, Black Bart set methodical fractions, was hooked by Lennyfromalibu on the far turn and into the stretch, then dug in like The Bart, prevailing in a driving finish from the favorite and Continental Red, who dead heated for second.

Second and sixth in Santa Anita sprint maidens Jan. 10 and Feb. 1, Throw Me a Curve was fourth going two turns in Arcadia Feb. 12 before earning his diploma going seven-eighths of a mile Mar. 7. The dark bay gave a good account of himself in a state-bred optional claiming event Apr. 9, finishing second. Well back early while saving all the ground, the gelding advanced through traffic on the far turn, came five wide into the stretch and got up late to get just the better of Bilo.

A rank outsider facing Cal-bred stakes foes, the chestnut rated off a fast pace, closed while saving ground on the final bend, gained the lead in the stretch and held off Madam General to take the photo.

The bay switched to the main track for his 2004 opener and was third in the GIII El Conejo H. on New Year's Day, but tired to be fifth in the Feb. 15 Daytona H. at 6 1/2 furlongs on the Santa Anita grass and was given a break. Odds-on to remain undefeated on Hollywood's turf, he battled head-and-head with F J's Pace as they dashed off a half in :43.04, gave himself a little breathing room at midstretch, then was all out to hold off Geronimo.

The Flaxman Holdings colorbearer made her U.S. bow in a maiden test on the Santa Anita turf Mar. 5 and closed gamely to take it by 3/4 of a length. The even-money chalk to go two-for-two on this side of the Atlantic, the bay settled just off a slow pace, moved closer on the far turn and fought hard in the final furlong to record another 3/4-length score, with Vencedora Amiga (Broad Brush) settling for second. Tout Seul caused a shock when winning the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket in October 2002 and returned to finish a respectable fourth in the G1 2000 Guineas last May. Third in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh later that month, he lost his way after finishing seventh in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot in June and concluded his sophomore season with a fruitless excursion to Japan. Held up towards the rear by regular pilot Steve Carson, he quickened to grab the lead with 150 yards remaining and maintained his advantage from the late-closing Polar Ben. Tout Seul will now be aimed at the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury May 15.

All Too Beautiful stamped her class on this field and in the process booked her place in the lineup for the G1 Epsom Oaks June 4. Successful on her debut in a Leopardstown conditions event Mar. 28, the full sister to Galileo (Ire) was settled in fifth by Jamie Spencer throughout the early stages of this contest. The bay moved up to take command with a quarter-mile remaining, but edged left and caused Sahara Sonnet (Stravinsky) to slip up and throw jockey Mick Kinane. Undeterred, All Too Beautiful increased her advantage before being geared down to record a convincing score. "She's a beauty," commented trainer Aidan O'Brien. "The plan is to go for the Oaks and I wouldn't say that she'll run again beforehand." He added, "Jamie gave her a lovely ride," but the jockey was handed a four-day ban for taking the ground of Sahara Sonnet and precipitating the spill. A shaken Kinane was taken to a local hospital following the fall, but was not believed to be seriously injured. All Too Beautiful set a record for a filly foal when she was purchased for 1.1 million guineas at Tattersalls December in 2001, but that mark was surpassed when her half sister by Giant's Causeway sold for 1.8 million guineas in 2003.
