“RIVER” DANCES TO QE II SURPRISE

Unheralded River Dancer (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a winner of just one of his 20 starts since arriving in Hong Kong last year, came from just off the pace to outlast a game Elegant Fashion (Aus) (Danewin {Aus}) and score a monstrous upset in the G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin Sunday. Purchased by Demi O'Byrne for 3.4 million guineas as a yearling and raced by Michael Tabor as Diaghilev, the bay won twice from seven European starts, including the 2002 G3 Prix La Force at Chantilly. QEII Cup, cont. p2

Slow Work for Friends Lake

Friends Lake (A.P. Indy), looking to become the second straight New York-bred to win the G1 Kentucky Derby, had his final major prep for the race at Churchill Downs yesterday morning. Working over a very sloppy track, the chestnut went five furlongs in 1:03, but trainer John Kimmel was not disappointed by the slow final time. "He worked in driving rain," Kimmel said. "But he looked good and he finished good. It was hard to see the last eighth, but I caught him in under :12." The clockers timed the colt in splits of :13, :26 and :39 and had him galloping out six furlong in 1:17. Friends Lake, who has not been out since taking the Mar. 13 GI Florida Derby, shipped in from Payson Park at the end of last week. "I thought about giving him his final work [at Payson] on Saturday and then shipping up, but decided to come early and get a work in over the track," Kimmel said. "But the weather has been terrible since we got here. I hope he got what he needed from the work."

Wimbledon Aces Final Prep

While Friends Lake may have been slowed by the sloppy strip, Wimbledon (Wild Rush) showed an affinity for the track. Working in company with stablemate Determined, the gray dashed off his five furlongs in a bullet :59.40 yesterday and went out three-quarters in 1:12.20. "It was very nice," trainer Bob Baffert said of the move. "The track was demanding and, because of Wimbledon that, I think it's hard to gauge, but I think he got a lot out of it...I knew he would like it here and every work has been great." He added, "This is a big old dude with a lot of natural raw talent, like a big dorky kid, [but] he's getting it down now."

Reading Between the Lines

Read the Footnotes (Smoke Glacken) is one of three Derby candidates without a race in April, but trainer Rick Violette Jr. is not worried about coming into the 10-furlong test after a seven-week layoff. "In fact," he said yesterday, "I feel better about it now than when I made the decision." It has been 48 years since a three-year-old won the Derby without running in April, but Violette has been looking more deeply into that stat. "When you take a closer look, you'll see that there were only 18 horses during that period who came into the Derby without an April race," he said. "Of those, only four had a legitimate shot at winning. So it's really only 0-for-four, and even the best hitter in baseball has an 0-for-four day." Read the Footnotes is set to have his final work today.

Pletcher Duo Beat Bad Weather

The early bird beats the rain. Trainer Todd Pletcher had Limehouse (Grand Slam) out at 5:45 a.m. yesterday, before the skies opened up and turned the track into a sea of slop. Coming off a third in the Apr. 10 GI Toyota Blue Grass S., the colt went five-eighths in 1:01 with stablemate Speightstown. "We went head-and-head for most of the work," said exercise rider Michelle Nihei, who was aboard Limehouse for the breeze. "Limehouse got the best of [Speightstown] right at the finish. He was strong out there today." She added, "The track was pretty good--it was holding together." Pletcher was back out with GI Illinois Derby winner Pollard's Vision (Carson City) at 6:15. Also working in company, the one-eyed runner drew off from his stablemate at the wire and was clocked in 1:00.80 for five furlongs. "I was happy with both their works," Pletcher said. "It was what we needed to get them ready."

All Systems Go for Borrego

Also working five furlongs over the wet strip at Churchill yesterday was GI Arkansas Derby runner-up Borrego (El Prado {Ire}), who went his five-eighths in 1:03 3/5. The chestnut clicked off splits of :13, :25.80, :38 and :51.20 and galloped out three-quarters in 1:19.60. "I liked what I saw," trainer Beau Greely remarked. "It was a good work for him--just what we wanted. Basically it was just a maintenance work. He's plenty fit."

Belmont Breeze for Eddington

Eddington (Unbridled) will need at least a couple of defections to get into the Derby field, but is keeping fit just in case. The Mark Hennig trainee worked at Belmont yesterday morning, going five furlongs in 1:00 and galloping out three-quarters in 1:13 1/5. The colt is not already at Churchill because of a lack of graded earnings, but Hennig does not disagree with the system used to determine who gets into the race. "I don't think there's a lot wrong with it," he said. "We had our opportunities." If he doesn't get into the Derby, Eddington will go next in the May 15 GI Preakness.

A Late Bloomer...

Sold during the summer of 2002 to Hong Kong Jockey Club Chairman Ronald Arculli and later gelded, River Dancer struggled to find the winner's circle, but turned in some promising efforts, most notably a fourth in last year's QE II Cup. However, he had managed just two minor placings in 11 starts since that appearance and was coming off a 10th to Elegant Fashion in the Chairman's Trophy over a mile Mar. 21. Settled in sixth early as fellow European import Saturn (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) set a moderate gallop, he advanced on the final turn, raced in tandem with Elegant Fashion past midstretch and edged clear from the five-year-old mare late to light up the tote at 57-1. "He was always travelling well and it was the first time there has been speed on for him," commented winning rider Glyn Schofield. "He's a good honest horse and I knew he would keep finding for me, which he did." River Dancer becomes the first locally based winner of this event since 2000. Most on hand thought that distinction would fall to Lucky Owners (NZ) (Danehill), the G1 Hong Kong Mile and Hong Kong Derby winner who was dispatched the 6-5 favorite. But the Tony Cruz trainee never looked comfortable, came under pressure with a half mile to run and struggled home sixth. "He just never picked up for me," a dejected jockey Felix Coetzee said. "It was disappointing." Both River Dancer and Elegant Fashion, who filled the runner-up spot for a second consecutive year, are possible for the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup, the second leg of the World Series Racing Championship, at Kranji May 16. As if it was a mere formality, Silent Witness broke cleanly from the two hole, took command midway on the turn and waltzed home an easy winner to complete a clean sweep of the Champions Sprint Series and set an all-time Hong Kong record for consecutive wins at 11. The victory was his fourth in a row at Group 1 level and earned his owners a bonus of HK$2 million for the sweep. Confidently handled by jockey Felix Coetzee, Silent Witness held the rail throughout, but let Able Prince (Aus) (Hurricane Sky {Aus}) set the early pace. He eased by that rival approaching the stretch and was on cruise control from there, winning by a comfortable margin. Cape of Good Hope ran on for second while Electronic Unicorn, first-up off a year's absence, rallied strongly from last to earn third and announce his return. So, with all of the local competition conquered, what's next? "He'll have an early summer. He won't be going to Royal Ascot," owner Archie da Silva said. "We are undecided about the G1 Sprinters' S. in Japan Oct. 3, because there might be no lead-up race for him here. He's a Hong Kong horse and, as you can see, the public love him. Wherever he races, Hong Kong interests will come first." Click here for the HKJC chart. For a video replay, choose: modem or broadband.

Millemix ended his juvenile campaign with a smooth score in the Listed Prix Isonomy at Fontainebleau in November. As a result, he was saddled with a five-pound penalty on his return in the Listed Prix de Coucelles at this track last time Apr. 4, but failed only by a head to defy that burden when runner-up to Prospect Park (GB). This time, the colt was settled in third by Christophe-Patrice Lemaire off the moderate early tempo set by his rabbit

Mythe (Fr) (Sillery). Up to take command with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, he quickened late en route to a convincing score. "He is a handsome horse, but also a very good one," conditioner Criquette Head-Maarek commented. "He needs a regular pace, so that's why we had Mythe in there. He goes for the G1 Prix Lupin [at Longchamp May 16] now before hopefully running in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club [French Derby at Chantilly] June 6." After closing to finish second, Esperanto (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), ridden by the suspension-plagued Jamie Spencer, was demoted to fifth for causing interference to the second and fourth finishers. It was the second disqualification suffered by Spencer on the afternoon. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Also Ran: Dimitrova, Katdogawn (GB), Makeup Artist, Fudge Fatale, Fun House, Esmay (Aus).

A Group 2 winner in her native land at three, Spring Star made one U.S. start that season, finishing a very close sixth in the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont Park. She was sidelined for 8 1/2 months after that effort, then alternated wins and third-place finishes in five tries last year, capturing the Sept. 7 GII Palomar Breeders' Cup H. in her penultimate appearance before filling the show spot in the Dec. 29 GIII Monrovia H. to close out the campaign. Making her first outing of 2004 here, the bay mare gave the starters a hard time before finally entering the gate with the aid of a blindfold, but broke well and shadowed 54-1 Fudge Fatale (Roar) through six furlongs in 1:10.49. The Wertheimer homebred took over in the stretch and powered home a decisive winner in stakes-record time. "She was just incredible," jockey Alex Solis said. "We've always thought she was a nice mare, and now she's putting it together. You just have to get along with her because she has a mind of her own. But obviously all that acting up at the gate didn't take anything out of her." Added trainer Richard Mandella, "She's very hard-headed--got a little mean streak in her. She reminds me of a girl I used to date...then I married her." Dimitrova, the 9-5 favorite in her seasonal debut, stalked the pace, but didn't have an answer when the running began in earnest and settled for fourth.

Grey Lilas captured this trial for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, to be contested over course and distance May 16, and provided the all-new Andre Fabre-Gary Stevens axis with their first Group success. The imposing grey filly had handed Hall of Famer Stevens his first score of the French season in a hot conditions event over this track and trip last time out Apr. 4, breaking her maiden in the process. Keen in the early stages while stalking Petit Calva here, she had settled by the halfway marker and was full of run as the favorite Denebola was trapped behind horses under Christophe-Patrice Lemaire. Hitting the front with a flash of the tail 300 yards out, Grey Lilas needed only two slaps with the whip to stretch away from the game long-time leader and Denebola, who was unable to quicken when in the clear inside the final eighth. "It's a huge day and she's a lovely filly," Stevens commented. "I wanted her to settle better than she did early on, but they went very slow and she settled nicely for me eventually. She was well within herself in the last 100 metres and it was like driving a Formula One car--she just won very easily." Dietrich von Boetischer's racing manager Christian de Mowbray said the winner will likely point for the mile Classic, along with stablemate Nyramba (GB). *Antonius Pius (Danzig) finished second, but was disqualified and placed fourth.

Juddmonte Farms' American Post punched his ticket for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) when he wired this prep under a confident ride by Christophe Soumillon. Aware that the favorite can race freely when there is not suitable pacesetter, the deputy for the injured Richard Hughes sent his mount to the lead from the gate, where he traveled with ease. Antonius Pius and Jamie Spencer came at him in the final quarter, forcing the Belgian to ask a question, but last year's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and G1 Racing Post Trophy winner answered with a telling turn of acceleration that was enough to comfortably hold off Antonius Pius under a hand ride to the line. Antonius Pius, who crossed the wire in second, was disqualified and placed last for interference with chief market rival Diamond Green. American Post, who won the Listed Prix Omnium at Saint-Cloud last time Mar. 31, will now head to the French 2000 Guineas over this course and distance May 16. "It's nice to see him win like that as he quickened really nicely," conditioner Criquette Head-Maarek said, adding, "We will look at the G1 Epsom Derby [June 5] after the Poulains."

A progressive filly, she had finished third behind Megec Blis in a Leopardstown maiden Mar. 28 before taking a lesser event in style at Tipperary 10 days ago. Searching for her first victory at the group stakes level, she disputed the early lead under Seamus Heffernan, gained command inside the final quarter and drew clear of Golden Nun, who hung with her challenge in the closing stages. "Like her brother King of Kings she carries her head a bit high, but she's tough and has a high cruising speed," said Heffernan. "She has class and I see her as an Oaks filly."

Hughes to Miss Classic Action

Jockey Richard Hughes is set to miss the ride on Juddmonte Farms' Three Valleys (Diesis {GB}) in Saturday's G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket after sustaining an injury in a fall at Leicester on Saturday. Khalid Abdullah's retained rider punctured a lung in the tumble, which was the result of a slipped saddle, and faces a spell on the sidelines of up to three weeks. As a result, he also missed the ride on American Post (GB) in yesterday's G3 Prix de Fontainebleau at Longchamp, but may be able to make the colt's next run in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) at Longchamp May 16.

Good to Firm On the Rowley Mile

Saturday's G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket is set to be run on good-to-firm ground as the current hot spell continues to dry the course. "Clearly, we could do with some rain or we will have to consider irrigating," Clerk of the Course Michael Prosser told PA Sport yesterday. "I'll sit tight and reassess tomorrow to see if this rain is coming on Tuesday, and I may even have to sit tight until the end of play on Tuesday."

Also having her last tune-up for a possible start in the Oaks was Stellar Jayne (Wild Rush), who went five-eighths in 1:00. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas said the filly's owners would decide whether to run by Monday.

Unsteady at the start, the chestnut recovered quickly and drew off to a 1 1/2-length lead after a half mile in :44.39. In charge from that point on, the filly drifted out slightly in the drive for the wire, but had enough to maintain that early advantage all the way home. Two Trail Sioux (Indian Charlie), a 10-1 shot, finished second with 4-5 favorite further back in third. Overlooked at 20-1 with the return to the grass after yet another break, the bay was always prominent, put his nose in front after three furlongs, opened daylight at midstretch, but was all out to hold off 5-2 firster Hendrix (Sultry Song) by a nose. SPENCER IN HOT WATER Jockey Jamie Spencer had an afternoon to forget at Longchamp yesterday when picking up two separate suspensions for careless riding. After being hit with a four-day ban at Navan on Saturday, he was judged guilty of causing interference on the runners-up Antonius Pius in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau and Esperanto (Ire) in the G2 Prix Greffulhe, both of which were subsequently demoted by the Longchamp stewards. Trainer Aidan O'Brien's first jockey is already set to miss Sunday's G1 1000 Guineas, but the new bans picked up at the weekend mean he could be out of action for the first 10 days of May. In that case, he would miss the ride on G1 Epsom Derby favorite Yeats (Ire) in the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown May 8.
