HISTORY IN THE MAKING

It has been 48 years since a horse has won the Kentucky Derby without a race in April. It has been 27 years since an undefeated colt wore the blanket of roses.

It has been 25 years since the reigning two-year-old champion stood in the winner's circle at Churchill Downs on the first Saturday in May. But losing streaks can't last forever, as Funny Cide proved last year when he became the first New York-bred ever, and the first gelding since Clyde Van Dusen in 1929, to capture the Kentucky Derby. Will today's 130th running of the Classic change the history of the race? Don't be surprised. On paper, Read the Footnotes (Smoke Glacken) will be the fastest horse in the starting gate this afternoon. The New York-bred bay has not started since running fourth as the favorite in the Mar. 13 GI Florida Derby, but ran the race of his life off a layoff, earning a 113 Beyer with his neck win in the Feb. 14 GII Fountain of Youth S. Trainer Rick Violette Jr. could not be happier with the way his colt is coming into the Derby. He's not even worried about the impending wet weather. "The mud might help us," Violette said yesterday. "We're going to be up near the lead, which is an advantage on a muddy track. The closers are going to be faced with a tidal wave of mud, and a horse has to be very brave to run through that."

His Day to Shine?

In addition to the possibility of a wet track, the late-running Action This Day (Kris S.) will have to overcome the juvenile champion's jinx and must rebound from

Action This Day Horsephotos

two sub-par efforts. The Eclipse winner was sixth in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. last time out. But this year's undefeated starter Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) ran his record to six-for-six with his win in the Apr. 10 GII Arkansas Derby. The Penn-bred schooled in the starting gate yesterday morning. "He was absolutely great," trainer John Servis said. "We're ready to dance." Derby Coverage cont. p2-3, Early Odds, p12

A FOR EFFORT

Ashado (Saint Ballado) couldn't catch Madcap Escapade (Hennessy) in the Apr. 3 GI Ashland S., finishing second by a half length, but she made the most of the extra sixteenth of a mile in the GI Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs yesterday. Sent off the 2-1 favorite, the dark bay filly tracked the free-running Madcap Escapade as she clicked off six furlongs in 1:09.99 over the muddy track. She closed the gap as they came out of the turn, drove to the lead at the eighth pole and turned back the late bid of Island Sand (Tabasco Cat) to take it by 1 1/4 lengths.

Ashado Horsephotos

The race lost some of its luster when reigning champion juvenile filly Halfbridled (Unbridled) was scratched after tying up following a routine gallop. It was the second such incident this month for the Wertheimer homebred, who was taken out of the Ashland for the same reason. "It just hasn't gone right for her this year," a frustrated trainer Richard Mandella said. "I thought I'd turned the corner with her. She was acting good and had trained well and I was hopeful." Oaks Coverage cont. p5

A COOL THREE MILLION

It cost Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor $3.1 million to buy One Cool Cat (Storm Cat), but a victory in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket this afternoon would mean a solid return on that investment. Whatever his price tag, this good-looking Cat is not just about pedigree and aesthetics. There was substance in his racetrack performances in 2003, from his York maiden score in June to his easy disposal of his rivals in the G1 National S. at The Curragh in September. Versatile over six and seven furlongs at two, he holds strong claims of providing Aidan O'Brien with his third English Guineas renewal since King of Kings (Ire) opened the scoring in 1998. As with that horse and 2002 hero Rock of Gibraltar (Ire), he is attempting to score on his seasonal debut, a ploy successful in seven of the last 10 runnings. 2000 Guineas cont. p4

Three of the last four Kentucky Derby winners have come out of the GI Wood Memorial S. Fusaichi Pegasus won the 2000 renewal en route to his "Run for the Roses," but both Monarchos (2001) and Funny Cide

(2003) rebounded from runner-up finishes to win on the first Saturday in May. This year's Wood winner Tapit (Pulpit) has attracted a lot of pre-race press. The eye-catching gray was sixth in the GI Florida Derby in his seasonal bow, but came out of the race with a lung infection. He bounced back to post a rallying score at Aqueduct Apr. 10. "It takes 28 days to get over a lung infection, and that was the 28th day," trainer Michael Dickinson said. "He was not completely healed. He won that race on talent and courage alone, because he wasn't totally healthy." He added, "I want him to peak on Derby Day." Trainer Bobby Frankel is also hoping that Wood runner-up Master David (Grand Slam) improves off that effort. "You hope he goes in the right direction," Frankel said. "He has to improve to win this race, but he's a nice tough horse and he tries real hard. He has that going for him."

In the Catbird Seat?

Nick Zito is the only trainer in Derby 130 who knows what it's like to win the big one. Zito, who earned Derby trophies with Go for Gin in 1991 and Strike the Gold in 1994, saddles potential favorite The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), winner of the GI Toyota Blue Grass S., and Birdstone (Grindstone). Birdstone has not been out since running fifth in the Mar. 20 Gil Lane's End S. "He is the forgotten horse," Zito said. "He got sidetracked, but he was brilliant as a two-year-old...I couldn't ask for anything better from either horse."

Derby Field Reduced to 18

There were two late scratches from the Derby yesterday morning. Trainer Bob Baffert, who has had a Derby starter every year since 1996, had to take out Wimbledon (Wild Rush) after discovering a knot on the gray colt's left front tendon Friday morning. "He must have rapped himself," Baffert said. "The injury doesn't appear career threatening, but you have to be extremely careful with soft tissue damage. We won't know the extent of the injury until we get an ultrasound." The defection of Wimbledon leaves jockey Jerry Bailey without a Derby mount for the first time since 1991. Also scratched yesterday was St Averil (Saint Ballado), who had been on the fence until Monday because of his sore feet. "His feet have been tender," trainer Rafael Becerra said. "We reshod him this morning, taking off the bar shoes he has been training in, but I still wasn't satisfied with the way he was traveling. He's too nice a colt to take a chance with and he has a great future ahead of him." St Averil will head to Greenfield Farm in Lexington for R and R.

A Hard and Fast Rule?

Will there ever be also-eligibles for the Derby? With early-bird betting, it would complicate matters, but history says it would make sense to work out the technical kinks. The last time 20 three-year-olds actually made it to the gate for the Derby was in 1984. In the 20 years since, the race has drawn a field of 20 just three times--but there were scratches on the day before the race on all three occasions. Trainer Jason Orman shipped Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) cross-country on the chance that the colt, who ended up 22nd in graded-stakes earnings on the list of Derby candidates, would make the cut. "Obviously, with the position we were in, we would have loved it if they had also-eligibles for the race," Orman said yesterday. "But maybe they have a really good reason why they don't--I just don't know what it is." Rock Hard Ten has been training well since scratching from the Apr. 24 GIII Derby Trial S. "He's doing really good," Orman said. "If he keeps training this well, we'll go on to the [May 15] Preakness."

☆ 2000 GUINEAS ☆

Easy To Swallow?

Trainer Dermot Weld waited a long time for a colt good enough for the Guineas, but his patience was finally rewarded 12 months ago when Refuse to Bend (Ire) landed the prize. He returns with another live chance in the unbeaten Grey Swallow (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}). There were shades of his sire in his emphatic eight-length defeat of Newton (Ire) in the G3 Killavullan S. at Leopardstown in October, which followed the rush of excitement he created when powering to a 10-length maiden score at Galway in July. He had to battle to defy a five-pound penalty in the mud when winning the Listed Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial last time Apr. 18, but should improve off that game effort.

Bucking The Trend

No winner of the G3 Craven S. has followed up in this since Tirol (Ire) in 1990, but Haafhd (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}) bids to put that right after an impressive return in that prep Apr. 15. His five-length defeat of Three Valleys (Diesis {GB}) may flatter him, as he was left alone in front, but he proved his quality when breaking the juvenile track record in the Listed Washington Singer S. at Newbury last August. France have been responsible for only two winners since '83, but Whipper (Miesque's Son) is a worthy contender. After a shock score in the G1 Prix Morny in August, he was a staying-on fifth to Three Valleys in the G1 Middle Park S. at this track in October. He confirmed his class with a smooth success in the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte later that month and began his sophomore campaign with an eight-length score in the Listed Prix Djebel Apr. 6.

Worse than second just once in her short career, Ashado followed a third-place effort in the GI Frizette S. with a second-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. She ended the season with a gallant nose victory in the Nov. 29 GII Demoiselle S. at Aqueduct. Freshened off that effort, the Triple Crown nominee opened 2004 with a handy score in the Mar. 6 GII Fair Grounds Oaks, and just missed in the Ashland while giving winner Madcap Escapade five pounds. She was favored to turn the tables with the added distance at Churchill Downs.

Kentucky Oaks Horsephotos

and just missed in the Ashland while giving winner Madcap Escapade five pounds. She was favored to turn the tables with the added distance at Churchill Downs.

Mad About the Mud

While Madcap Escapade had raced only on fast tracks, Ashado had shown an affinity for off going in the past, breaking her maiden by seven lengths in her debut in the slop at Belmont last June and cruising to a three-length score in the GII Schuylerville S. over a soupy Saratoga strip last July. But the Ashland heroine appeared to handle the mud as she opened up 4 1/4 lengths through a half in :46. She was still four in front after six furlongs, but began to tire as they came down the lane. Ashado kicked it into gear, fought her way to the front and had enough left to hold Island Sand safe to the wire. "That was beautiful," winning jockey John Velazquez said. "I couldn't have asked for a better trip. I was closing the way I thought I would. Madcap Escapade wasn't going to get away from us--I wasn't afraid of her at all. We were in good striking distance. My filly responded to everything I asked for--and she runs on anything." Island Sand, who had broken her maiden by 12 3/4 lengths on a muddy track at Laurel, was easily second best. "My filly kept running all the way to the wire, but [Ashado] felt us coming and picked it up again," jockey Terry Thompson said. "At the eighth pole I really thought we were going to get there, but the winner just kept going." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

First Loss for Escapade

Madcap Escapade won her first three starts by a combined 26 1/2 lengths, including a 4 3/4-length tally in the Mar. 13 GII Forward Gal S., and extended her streak in her two-turn bow, the GI Ashland. On the lead from the break again yesterday, she just couldn't hang on, tiring to be third. "She broke running and she felt comfortable all the way," jockey Jerry Bailey said. "The fractions were quick, but not ridiculously fast. She ran as hard as she could. I don't think she wants to go this far against this kind."

☆ 1000 GUINEAS ☆

No Draw Fears for Johnston

A deep field of 17 fillies will line up for Sunday's £325,000 G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket, but, despite the promise of "virgin ground" and the placing of the stalls in the centre of the track, fears that the field may split into separate groups are widespread among connections of the contenders. But conditioner Mark Johnston, whose unbeaten Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) has drawn in the middle in stall eight, is unconvinced of a potential bias. "They said when Mister Baileys won the 2000 Guineas in 1994 that the horses on the far side had the advantage and were racing on the better ground, but the form held up all season," he said yesterday. "The same thing happened with Rock of Gibraltar and Hawk Wing two years ago. I've never been a believer that there is a draw bias at Newmarket. Obviously, you don't like to see them split and I hope they don't--it's far better to stay together. We'll probably go stands' side, but we'll wait and see."

Attraction J Herbert/Getty Images

Sweet Sixteen

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's Hathrah (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}), who powered to a nine-length score in the Listed Masaka S. at Kempton Apr. 10, has been given the go-ahead after drawing post 16 yesterday. "If I read it correctly, it's not the strongest renewal and she's in good form," commented racing manager Angus Gold. "I've never seen her as a speed filly and probably 1 1/4 miles will be perfect, but I'd like to see her run on at the finish, and if there's any more ease in the ground she'll appreciate that." Cheveley Park Stud's Red Bloom (GB) (Selkirk) was also handed a middle berth in the seven hole, while Godolphin's trio of Carry on Katie (Fasliyev), Sundrop (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) and Cairns (UAE) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) are split across the track. Sundrop, the first Classic mount of new Godolphin rider Kerrin McEvoy, will exit from the one hole, while Carry on Katie and Frankie Dettori will depart from stall 10. That draw position has seen two of the last four winners: Lahan (GB) and Ameerat (GB).

Grounds for Concern...

Sheikh Maktoum's Secret Charm (Ire) (Green Desert) will take her chance, despite connections' fears that the race may come too soon. "She has progressed quite well over the last fortnight and she's coming better in her coat," racing manager Joe Mercer told PA Sport, but added, "We would be happier with her in another fortnight with some warmer weather and some fast ground." That will not be prevalent at Newmarket despite a dry night Thursday. "Ground conditions will obviously depend on how much rain we get...but it could be just on the slow side of good at the start of racing," Clerk of the Course Michael Prosser said.

☆ PREVIEW ☆

Saturday, Churchill Downs, post time: 4:52 p.m. EDT
WOODFORD RESERVE TURF CLASSIC-GI, $400,000,
3yo/up, 1 1/8mT

PP	HORSE	SIRE	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Perfect Soul (Ire)	Sadler's Wells	Prado	4-1
2	Burning Sun	Danzig	Solis	8-1
3	Skate Away	Belong to Me	Desormeaux	20-1
4	Everything to Gain	Sky Classic	Guidry	20-1
5	Honor In War	Lord at War (Arg)	Flores	5-1
6	Sweet Return (GB)	Elmaamul	Day	4-1
7	Mystery Giver	Dynaformer	Albarado	12-1
8	Sir Cherokee	Cherokee Run	Borel	15-1
9	Kicken Kris	Kris S.	Velazquez	8-1
10	Stroll	Pulpit	Bailey	7-2
11	Stage Call (Ire)	Sadler's Wells	Nakatani	20-1

Stroll proved he could handle just about any course last season, winning stakes on firm turf at Monmouth (Lamplighter S. in July), Belmont (GII Jamaica H. in September) and Calder (GIII Calder Derby in October) and taking the GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. on a yielding surface at Saratoga in August. Sent to the bench after his Calder score, the Claiborne homebred was the 3-1 choice in his return, the Apr. 9 GII Maker's Mark Mile, but weakened in the final drive and finished fifth, two lengths behind Perfect Soul. The four-year-old should improve in his second start off the layoff and is a perfect three-for-three at nine furlongs on the lawn. Perfect Soul was making his first start since running ninth in the Oct. 25 GI Breeders' Cup Mile. The six-year-old has also shown an ability to adapt to different footing, winning the GII King Edward Breeders' Cup H. on good turf at Woodbine last June and running second by a half length over soft grass in the GII Dixie H. at Pimlico last May. Sweet Return rides a three-race winning streak into this race. The four-year-old started the skein with a half-length tally in the GI Hollywood Derby in November and added a victory in the Jan. 19 GII San Marcos H., both at a mile and a quarter, and most recently captured the Mar. 6 GII Kilroe Mile H. Never off the board in nine turf tries, Kicken Kris won the GI Secretariat S. and GIII Lawrence Relazation H. at three. Third in the Hollywood Derby to end the season, he came back to fill that spot again in the Feb. 22 GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H.

Saturday, Churchill Downs, post time: 3:57 p.m. EDT
HUMANA DISTAFF H.-GI, $250,000, 4yo/up, f/m, 7f

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Cat Fighter	Storm Cat	Baffert	Scr
2	Randaroo	Gold Case	McLaughlin	3-1
3	Azeri	Jade Hunter	Lukas	4-5
4	Bear Fan	Pine Bluff	W Ward	5-1
5	Mayo On The Side	French Deputy	Nafzger	5-1
6	Halory Leigh	Halory Hunter	Romans	30-1
7	Keiai Sekura	Petionville	Gothard	30-1

If her third consecutive victory in the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 3 has taken anything out of her, Azeri is certainly not showing it. The winner of 15 of her 17 career starts, the striking chestnut mare is trying a one-turn event for the first time since winning a first-level allowance at the end of 2001 and is training extremely well for her Churchill debut, including a bullet five furlongs in the slop in :59 3/5 Apr. 22. She is using this as a possible prep for the GI Met Mile at Belmont May 31. To win, she will need to defeat the talented Randaroo, who is three-for-four at today's distance and enters off back-to-back scores in the GIII Shirley Jones H. Feb. 8 and the GII Distaff Breeders' Cup H. Mar. 27. Bear Fan faces the toughest test of her career, but is in excellent form, having won the GII Barbara Fritchie H. Feb. 14 prior to a success in the Irish O'Brien S. for Cal-breds going down the hill at Santa Anita Mar. 17.

Saturday, Churchill Downs, post time: 1:21 p.m. EDT
CHURCHILL DOWNS H.-GII, 200,000, 4yo/up, 7f

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Speightstown	Mr. Prospector	Pletcher	5-1
2	Private Horde	Brunswick	Cain	6-1
3	Key Deputy	Deputy Minister	Mott	12-1
4	New York Hero	Partner's Hero	Pedersen	20-1
5	Mccann's Mojave	Memo (Chi)	Dorfman	5-1
6	Congaree	Arazi	Baffert	4-5
7	Saint Waki	Saint Ballado	Vestal	30-1
8	Publication	Petionville	Cerin	6-1

Though winless in two starts at this distance, Publication has turned in a pair of runner-up efforts. Second by a head in the GI Triple Bend Breeders' Cup H. last July, the five-year-old was sidelined off that effort, then returned off an eight-month absence to complete the exacta behind subsequent GI Carter H. winner Pico Central (Brz) in Santa Anita's GII San Carlos H. Mar. 7. Congaree is the deserving favorite as he celebrates the anniversary of his third-place finish in the 2001 Derby. Winner of the 2003 Carter at this trip, the chestnut scored a repeat victory in the GI Cigar Mile H. in November, but has made just one start this term, a sixth to Pleasantly Perfect in the GII San Antonio H. Jan. 31. Private Horde ran the best race of his life in the GII A.G. Vanderbilt H. in the Saratoga slop last August and comes into this off a second-place effort in the GII Commonwealth Breeders' Cup S. at Keeneland Apr. 10.

All carry 128 pounds.

Lorenzo Brogi, who has won three of the last 10 renewals of this Classic, puts forward the hot favorite Spirit of Desert. That colt stamped himself as Italy's best juvenile in 2003 by splitting the smart Pearl of Love (Ire) and Barbajuan (Ire), with Whilly back in fourth, in the G1 Gran Criterium in October. Given too much to do when runner-up to Cepirin in a conditions event at this track Mar. 21, he made amends by taking the Listed Premio Daumier with ease over course and distance Apr. 18. Whilly, from the powerful Bruno Grizzetti stable, rates as the main threat after a smooth conditions score in Milan on his return Apr. 12. Despite the widely held conviction that Cepirin was lucky to beat Spirit of Desert in March, he showed he was progressing when subsequently winning the Listed Premio Gardone in Milan Apr. 11. His stable companion Bravo Tazio has place claims off a win in the Listed Premio Pisa Mar. 28, as does Living Symbol, who took his maiden in stylish fashion over course and distance Mar. 23 before finding only Pippo di Lucilla too strong in a similar event on heavy ground last time Apr. 12.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

18	13	Vettori Loose (Ire)	Vettori (Ire)	B Grizzetti
19	4	Zona (Ity)	Mr. Greeley	Caruso

All carry 123 pounds.

Zona holds all the aces in this fillies' Classic after her five-length success in what appears to be the best trial, the Listed Premio Seregno in Milan Apr. 11. She left Rekindled Applause, Etroubles and Vettori Loose trailing in her wake that afternoon. The latter filly hails from the stable of Bruno Grizzetti, responsible for three winners since 1999. Her stable companion Shoko had beaten Rekindled Applause in the Listed Premio Coolmore at Milan in September before her form tailed off in the fall. She returned to take a conditions event at this track Apr. 12 and warrants respect. Roseanna, who beat the smart Chineur (Fr) on her debut in the Listed Prix Yacowlef at Deauville in August, was not disgraced when seventh in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp in October. She finished a fine third in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket last time Apr. 14 and rates a serious overseas threat.

Nebraska Tornado is the star in this competitive renewal. Unraced at two, she quickly made up into a top-class performer in the summer of her sophomore campaign, rattling off successes in a conditions event at this track and Listed Prix Melisande at Longchamp in May. The Juddmonte colorbearer used her raw speed to outgun stouter-bred rivals in the G1 Prix de Diane Herms at Chantilly the following month before earning some time off. Dropped to a mile for the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville in August, she finished a respectable sixth before signing off with success in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp in September. Her subsequent seven-pound penalty under these conditions means she has to give four pounds to the smart My Risk, who has improved in leaps and bounds since last summer. Last year's G3 Prix Quincey and G3 Prix Perth scorer returned to take the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc over course and distance last time Mar. 28. He hold strong claims if he has recovered from that hard race. Krataios returns to a mile after a seven-furlong conditions score at Longchamp Apr. 1. That was his first outing since finishing third in a below average renewal of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains the previous May and he has to prove he is up to this grade.

Horse for the course Lead Story rallied stoutly on the turn, hit the front in upper stretch and held on late for a 10-1 upset as odds-on Sightseek (Distant View) faltered badly to finish fourth. A winner of four of her eight previous starts beneath the Twin Spires, the chestnut Lead Story came to hand late last fall for trainer Carl Nafzger, registering a 35-1 surprise in the GII Churchill Downs Distaff H. going Churchill's one-turn mile last Nov. 8 before concluding her season with a powerhouse, 6 1/2-length score in the GII Falls City H. in the slop 19 days later. Brought back slowly to the races this year with this event clearly in the crosshairs, the five-year-old posted third-place efforts at Gulfstream Park, first to Roar Emotion in the GIII Sabin H. Feb. 15 and more recently to Sightseek in the GII Rampart H. Mar. 14. Allowed to lope along towards the back of the pack, Lead Story made a menacing move up the rail on the far turn, eased out for the drive, took over and was able to hold on late for the victory. Sightseek, favored at 2-5, sat just off the pace of Cat Fighter, took a slim lead for a few strides in upper stretch, but failed to sustain her bid and finished fourth. "She stumbled five times on me warming up," said jockey Jerry Bailey. "She just couldn't handle the track--not an inch." Lydgate kicked off what could be a great weekend for his sire with an off-the-pace success in the Aegon Turf Sprint. A maiden winner sprinting down the hill at Santa Anita in November, the bay was seventh in the GIII Hollywood Turf Express Nov. 28 before dropping back into allowance company to finish second in a Jan. 7 down-the-hiller. Fourth going a flat mile in Arcadia Jan. 31, the half-million dollar yearling purchase failed in his last two as the favorite, finishing fourth and second at Santa Anita Mar. 6 and Apr. 4, respectively. Four wide after breaking from the outside, Lydgate was guided out six wide for the stretch drive and closed willingly to defeat favored Mighty Beau. The winner's dam was herself a good turf mare, winning a pair of stakes races at Keeneland for Calumet Farm. "We always thought he had this quality and ability," commented winning trainer Eoin Harty. "He has a good turn of foot and always give you what he has when you ask. Today I told [jockey] Pat [Day] not to send him, or to take hold, just let him break on his own and settle. I think the softer ground helped him today."

Kitten's Joy turned in yet another virtuoso performance to run his record on the turf to a perfect five-for-five. Second over the Belmont main track Sept. 24, the chestnut colt broke his maiden by 4 1/2 lengths in his first try over the grass at Belmont Oct. 9. The Ramsey homebred closed his freshman campaign with a head success over a yielding Churchill turf Nov. 16, took the GIII Tropical Park Derby by a dominating 4 1/4 lengths on New Year's Day and was last seen defeating Prince Arch in the GIII Palm Beach S. at Gulfstream Feb. 21. After brushing the gate at the start and bumping with Prince Arch soon after the break, Kitten's Joy was taken back and raced wide up the Churchill backstretch. Six deep approaching the far turn, he gained into the stretch, took charge with a little more than a furlong to run and drove clear. "This is a special horse," trainer Dale Romans said. "We worked him on the grass at Saratoga last summer because we thought he would like it, and he sure did. He's just a different horse on the grass. This was his best race yet." The three-year-old will be heading overseas for his next start. "He's going to England for his next start, the St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot in June," owner Kenneth Ramsey said. Galloping Gal won her first two career starts on the grass, then switched to the main track to complete the exacta in the GII Darley Alcibiades S. Oct. 3. Back on the turf for her next, the dark bay took the Jessamine County S. in Lexington, but was fourth in the GII Golden Rod S. Nov. 29 before getting some time off. Sixth in her seasonal bow in the Via Borghese S. on the Gulfstream turf, she most recently filled the same spot in Keeneland's Appalachian S. Apr. 14. Getting blinkers off for this try, Galloping Gal was content to trail for the opening six furlongs, rallied eight wide into the stretch and ran down Gingham and Lace for the narrow victory.

Congrats provided the third individual winner on the Oaks program for his sire as he put together back-to-back victories for the first time in his burgeoning career. Third to Strong Hope in the GII Jim Dandy S. last August, the impeccably bred colt was a well-beaten fifth in the GI Travers S. Aug. 23 before getting back on track with a 1 3/4-length allowance victory over GSW Thunder Blitz at Belmont Oct. 2. The bay turned in a disappointing fourth-place finish as the favorite in the GIII Discovery H. at Aqueduct Oct. 29, was put away for the year, and returned to action with an impressive two-length allowance success at Keeneland Apr. 3. Sent for the lead by jockey John Velazquez, Congrats set the early pace, but surrendered a narrow advantage to Kodema on the far turn. Asked for his best at the quarter pole, the attractive colt dug in game and turned back a mild bid from favored Perfect Drift for the win. "I didn't expect him to go wire-to-wire here," winning trainer Shug McGaughey admitted. "In the middle of the turn, I was about ready to throw my program away. It's great to finally win his first stakes."

A maiden winner at first asking, the dark bay was sixth in the GII Del Mar Futurity, but bounced back to finish a nose second in the GII Norfolk S that October. A good fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile three weeks later, he was sidelined thereafter and did not return until this past Mar. 20, when he ran third behind a stakes quality performance from Terrell at Santa Anita. The even-money chalk in this spot, the full brother to Tru Bull, SW, $129,289, stalked the pace from third, advanced from that position to poke a head in front at the eighth pole and went on to defeat Deputy Director (Gold Fever) by 2 1/4 lengths. Purchased by Bill Badgett for $60,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic September yearling sale, the Maryland-bred filly breezed the fastest eighth of a mile prior to this year's Fasig-Tipton Calder Sale, covering the distance in a record :9 4/5 seconds, and was knocked down for $425,000. Quickly into stride from the inside gate, the chestnut set easy fractions in the off going, repulsed a bid leaving the far turn and skipped home a 5 3/4-length winner. Sutton's Bay (Exploit) closed well to be second in her debut. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $22,320.

JOHNSTON PAIR HELD UP

Trainer Mark Johnston could be without a runner in the G1 Epsom Derby as well as the G1 2000 Guineas now that his Pearl of Love (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) faces a race against time. Last year's G2 Futurity S. and G1 Gran Criterium winner was forced to miss today's mile Classic due to a cracked hoof and the conditioner revealed yesterday that Epsom might come too soon. "When he's right he'll be out, but it's a big jump to a mile and a half from a mile," he said. "We'll certainly keep him in the Derby, but I can't see us going straight there without a prep." He also had news of last year's G2 Vintage S. and G2 Champagne S. scorer Lucky Story (Kris S), who had previously been ruled out of the Newmarket Classic due to intermittent lameness. "He won't be back before mid-July," Johnston said.

ATTHE RACES RISES AGAIN

At The Races yesterday announced that it has agreed commercial terms for media rights with Ascot, Chepstow Racecourse PLC including Northern Racing, GG Media Limited and Arena Leisure Plc. In a statement, the consortium revealed that 25 racecourses have now entered into negotiations to launch a live satellite racing service in June. "We have given a great deal of thought to what is best not only for Ascot, but also for British racing generally," commented Douglas Erskine-Crum, chief executive of Ascot racecourse. "In our opinion the proposal offered by At The Races is the strongest of those we have considered; it is based upon a realistic business model and offers an attractive, widely distributed channel proposition."

MEDAALY SOLD TO SOUTH AFRICA Darley stallion Medaaly (GB) (Highest Honor {Fr}), who stood at Haras du Logis in France, has been sold to South African interests and is expected to enter quarantine within the month, according to Racing Post. The 10-year-old stallion, whose first crop are four-year-olds, had been booked to 60 mares this season. "If it's at the stage whereby any breeders that are using him have not had their mares covered, they will be very well looked after," stud manager Julian Ince told Racing Post. Winner of the G1 Racing Post Trophy at two, Medaaly is a half brother to Charnwood Forest (Ire) and was produced by Dance of Leaves (Ire), a full sister to leading South African sire Fort Wood. His second dam is the blue hen mare Fall Aspen.
