WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE?

There were many questions about the chances of Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) in the GI Kentucky Derby: Did he have the pedigree to get a mile and a quarter? Could a horse that began his career at Philadelphia Park really win the Run for the Roses? But in the end, the powerfully built chestnut had all the answers, becoming the first unbeaten horse to wear the roses since Seattle Slew in 1977. He had a clean trip while stalking Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) before overcoming that valiant rival in the stretch. The victory secured a $5-million bonus offered by Charles Cella of Oaklawn Park for any three-year-old that could sweep the Rebel S., the GII Arkansas Derby and the Kentucky Derby.

The Keystone Crew

For the second straight year, a three-year-old foaled in the eastern part of the country stood in the winner's circle after the Kentucky Derby, following New York-bred Funny Cide won in 2003. Smarty Jones becomes the second Pennsylvania-bred, following Lil E. Tee (1992), to win the Derby. A homebred for Pat and Roy Chapman's Someday Farm, Smarty Jones represented the first Derby entrant for both trainer John Servis and jockey Stewart Elliott. "I don't think this horse has ever gotten the respect he deserves," said an emotional Roy Chapman. "I was watching a handicapper on TV and I'm not sure he ever mentioned Smarty Jones. Another said he's a good horse, but he's never beaten anybody, that he's some kind of a freak. Well, I hope he reads the paper tomorrow and sees that the freak won this race." Handicappers may not have touted Smarty Jones as the winner, but the on-track crowd of 140,054 sent him postward as the 4-1 favorite. NO HAAFHD MEASURES

Avenging the narrow defeat of his dam Al Bahathri in the fillies' equivalent in 1985, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's Haafhd (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}) surged to an impressive 1 3/4-length score in yesterday's G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. The 11-2 second choice stalked a furious early gallop in the centre as the pack spread across the Rowley Mile, was committed by jockey Richard Hills passing the three-furlong marker and, despite the late challenges of Snow Ridge (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift), was always in command in the uphill climb to the line. "He's a very good horse," Hills said. "They were going very quick and he wanted to go after them, but I didn't want him to do too much. Once I lengthened, they had to be very good to catch me." 2000 Guineas cont. p4

Perfect Smarts

Smarty Jones had sustained a skull fracture in a starting gate accident last July and spent some time at the New Jersey Equine Clinic, but recovered in due time and was the even-money favorite for his career opener Nov. 9. Few people who visited Philadelphia Park that day realized they might be witnessing the debut of a future Kentucky Derby winner, but that's exactly what happened. Smarty Jones posted a handy 7 3/4-length score, then trounced state-breds by 15 lengths in the Pennsylvania Nursery S. Nov. 22. He covered seven furlongs in 1:21 4/5 that day, earning a Beyer Speed Figure of 105, and trainer John Servis determined that it was time to take his charge on the road. After a comprehensive five-length tally in Aqueduct's Count Fleet S. going two turns Jan. 3, Smarty Jones took the Arkansas route of the Triple Crown trail. His victory in the Southwest S. Feb. 28 going a mile at Oaklawn didn't inspire confidence in his ability to handle added furlongs, but Servis tightened the screws afterwards and Smarty Jones responded, finding another gear to win the Mar. 20 Rebel S. with a 108 Beyer Speed Figure. The Chapmans, who sold off most of their stock following the murder of their previous trainer Robert Camac in 2001, resisted offers to sell Smarty Jones, and Servis declined switching to a higher-profile rider. The Apr. 10 $1-million GII Arkansas Derby would be the one and only chance for Smarty Jones to pick up much-needed graded stakes earnings and the chestnut came through, posting his sharpest win to date with a 107 Beyer Speed Figure.

Servis With a Smile

Though Smarty Jones had been a perfect six-for-six while racing without medication, John Servis made the decision to treat the colt with Lasix as a precautionary measure for the Kentucky Derby. He had been training brilliantly ahead of his date with destiny, posting four straight bullet works, including three five-furlong breezes in :58 and change. His final tune-up for the Run for the Roses was completed in :58 under motionless jockey Willie Martinez.

Family Matters

But if there was one reason Smarty Jones was not the morning-line favorite for the Derby (he was the 9-2 second choice), it was likely based on pedigree concerns. After all, he was by record-setting miler Elusive Quality out of a mare by champion sprinter Smile. Once again, though, it pays to look a bit deeper. Elusive Quality, second (with Distorted Humor third) in the GII King's Bishop S. at three, set a track record going seven furlongs and a world record for a mile as a four-year-old. With Hero's Honor as a broodmare sire and Sir Ivor as the sire of his second dam, Elusive Quality certainly had the credentials to endow his offspring with stamina. Smarty Jones' dam I'll Get Along was a confirmed sprinter, but she was produced by a stakes-winning Foolish Pleasure mare and had major stamina influence *Herbager the next generation back. And the aforementioned Smile, hero of the Breeders' Cup Sprint on his way to an Eclipse Award as a four-year-old, was an accomplished performer at two turns. At three, the Frances Genter homebred landed the nine-furlong GI Arlington Classic and finished third to Belmont hero Creme Fraiche in the 10-furlong GI American Derby.

Playing Favorites

The large crowd on hand at Churchill Downs sent Smarty Jones postward as the 4-1 favorite. Breaking from post 15--the first spot in the auxiliary gate--he had extra cushion to his left when the doors opened and used his natural speed to cross over several paths approaching the clubhouse turn. He was in a bit tight between Read the Footnotes (Smoke Glacken) and Pollard's Vision (Carson City) as Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) showed the way through an opening quarter of :22.99, but bowled along over the sloppy surface and began to edge closer to the leader after a half in :46.73. His fellow stalkers began to drop back on the far turn, but Smarty Jones set his sights on Lion Heart and moved up to tackle that rival passing the quarter pole. Lion Heart, once again game in defeat, could not match strides with the winner. Smarty Jones joins Fusaichi Pegasus (2000) as the only winning Derby favorites since Spectacular Bid in 1979.

First Time for Everything

At 39, Stewart Elliott had his first Derby mount aboard Smarty Jones. But the journeyman rider kept his nerves in check. "Before the race, they played 'My Old Kentucky Home,'" said Elliott. "People were right, that is pretty emotional. But I think riding him in the Arkansas Derby helped me a lot. I was pretty relaxed today." Elliott summoned his experience to give the favorite a perfect ride. "I've been doing this a long time," he added. "A horse race is a horse race, even if it is the Kentucky Derby. I've ridden in thousands of them." Winning trainer John Servis was rewarded for keeping faith in Elliott. "Stewart Elliott gave this horse a masterful ride," said Servis. "Like I was saying all week, after the Kentucky Derby I'm not sure I can get him to ride for me back at Philadelphia Park. He can go anywhere he wants and ride. I'm sure his phone will be ringing off the hook after this."

Horsephotos

Smarty's Next Test?

Servis said that he would give his Derby winner a few days before committing to the GI Preakness S. two weeks hence. "I'll have to see how he comes out of this race," he said. "He's had a pretty tough schedule since February, running three weeks apart. He came through it very well. I can't imagine him training any better than he did this week. If he comes out of this race and trains as well, I'm going to be real excited about the Preakness."

The Heart of a Lion

A surprise 5-1 second choice, Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) went right to the front and tugged jockey Mike Smith as they clicked off solid fractions. Still a head in front after a mile in 1:37.35, the chestnut battled gamely to the eighth pole before grudgingly giving way. "I had a great trip and every opportunity to beat him, but Smarty Jones just had another gear today," jockey Mike Smith said. "I tried to get away from him and he hung with me--I knew it was going to be a dogfight to the end."

Wet Track Takes Its Toll

GI Toyota Blue Grass hero The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), looking to give trainer Nick Zito his third Derby trophy, was far back early after getting away slowly and was carried five wide around the first turn. Seventeenth at the quarter pole, he came with a mild late bid to be fifth, beaten 12 1/2 lengths. "He just didn't handle the track at all, not one bit, and he had to overcome a horrible trip," jockey Shane Sellers said. "There were 16 horses in front of me, bumping me around. It's the greatest race in America and the toughest race to win." Zito was gracious in defeat. "First of all, I definitely would like to salute the winner," he said. "He ran a great race and he's a champion. I hate making excuses and I know the fans hate it too, but The Cliff's Edge lost two front shoes during the race. Due to that fact, you definitely have to give my horse a lot of credit." GI Wood Memorial winner Tapit (Pulpit) also had trouble with the muddy Churchill surface. Next to last after the opening quarter, he closed some ground on the far turn, but had nothing left for the stretch drive and finished ninth. "[Jockey Ramon Dominguez] said he never handled the surface," trainer Michael Dickinson said. "In the Wood Memorial, he was always cruising and just took Ramon to the lead. Today, he never had much horse and he had to ask him to go. He said that, throughout the race, he never thought he was going to win."

Haafhd looked a top-class prospect at two as he smashed the juvenile track record in the Listed Washington Singer S. at Newbury in August, but could only manage third behind Lucky Story in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster the following month. He filled the same spot behind Milk it Mick (Millkom {GB}) in the G1 Dewhurst S. at this track in October, but had his picture taken again after beating Three Valleys (Diesis {GB}) by five lengths in the G3 Craven S. over course and distance Apr. 15. Looking to become the first Craven winner to follow up in the 2000 Guineas since Tirol (Ire) in 1990, Haafhd was settled just off a quick pace as Golden Sahara (Green Desert) and Tumblebrutus (Storm Cat) took them along. The chestnut drove to the lead with more than two furlongs to run and held on with determination. "This one's for Sheikh Hamdan, Tom Jones [trainer of Al Bahathri] and everyone who has helped me," said winning jockey Richard Hills.

Click for the brisnet.com pedigree or the racingpost.co.uk chart.

The Thrill of Victory

"Its probably the greatest thrill since Rheingold won the Arc in 1973," commented conditioner Barry Hills, who also took this event with Tap on Wood (GB) in 1979. "[Richard] rode an enterprising race on the horse, which was the plan--to take the race to the others. Haafhd has a very laid-back attitude and that was important today." As for future plans, he added, "Sheikh Hamdan takes a keen interest in this horse, knows the family very well and will decide the next step. If he stuck at a mile, the G1 St James's Palace S. [at Royal Ascot June 15] would be an obvious race." Saeed bin Suroor expressed himself "very pleased" with the run of Snow Ridge, who heads to the June 5 G1 Epsom Derby. That Classic may also be the target of Azamour, but owner-breeder His Highness the Aga Khan revealed the colt would have a prep run beforehand.

Success Begets Success

Purchased for $650,000 as a yearling in 1983, Al Bahathri developed into an excellent two-year-old, capturing the G2 Princess Margaret S. and the G2 Lowther S. as well as finishing third in the G1 Cheveley Park S. She just failed to hold off Triple Crown heroine Oh So Sharp (GB) in the G1 1000 Guineas, but earned Classic success in her next start by taking the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas before adding a victory in the G2 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot. Her first foal, Listed winner Hasbah, was second in the G1 Coronation S., but Al Bahathri didn't come up with another stakes winner until her 1998 colt Munir captured the G2 Challenge S. and the G3 Greenham S. Barren to Unfuwain in 2002, the chestnut mare has a yearling colt by 2000 Guineas hero King's Best. She failed to conceive to Alhaarth last year.

One Cool Cat Eased

One Cool Cat, who was well-supported into 15-8 favoritism, failed to quicken from the rear before being eased. He was found to have an irregular heart beat by Jockey Club vet Howard Robinson. "After the race, he was selected for routine testing," Robinson told Channel 4 Racing. "We listened to his heart and lungs and found his heart had an irregular beat. This means, in his case, that there were several fast beats followed by several slow beats. This is very abnormal after a race." But, he added, "The horse is fine. He is recovering well, his recovery rate is normal and there's no welfare problem whatsoever." The condition could be career-threatening, but more tests will be taken before deciding on the $3.1 million colt's future.

ASHFORD STUD

☆ 1000 GUINEAS ☆

IN BLOOM

Cheveley Park Stud finally broke their maiden in the G1 1000 Guineas with Russian Rhythm 12 months ago and they have the chance of a quick follow up with Red Bloom (GB) (Selkirk) at Newmarket this afternoon. A July Course maiden winner last August, Red Bloom was pitched into the deep end for her second start and displayed professionalism, belying her inexperience when beating Sundrop (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) by 1 1/4 lengths in the Sept. 27 G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot. Classic ability is in the blood--her dam, the talented Red Camellia (GB), managed a third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches despite being plagued by injury throughout her brief career. She faces Cartier Award winner Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}), who makes her first appearance since July. The unbeaten filly showed blistering speed to win the G3 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot in June and G2 Cherry Hinton S. at this track the following month, but was laid up thereafter with a fractured pedal bone. She will be trying a mile for the first time. "I can't say she's done enough for me to be confident she'll stay, but the hope is based on pedigree and build," said trainer Mark Johnston. "Most Efisios stay a mile, but it's her temperament more than physique which will determine whether she gets it."

Godolphin Goes for the Triple

Like Red Bloom's conditioner Sir Michael Stoute, Godolphin have two renewals in the locker and they are all out for a third with a three-pronged attack this time. But while stamina doubts surround unbeaten Carry On Katie (Fasliyev) and Cairns (UAE) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), Godolphin's third bullet Sundrop is more in the mold of their 2002 heroine Kazzia (Ger). She shaped like a stayer in the Fillies' Mile, where she encountered trouble at a crucial stage and had to settle for second, but has displayed adequate speed in her training in Dubai this spring. She makes her third career start today.

Mayo On the Side picked up her first-ever graded-stakes score at the expense of three-time Eclipse winner Azeri. She had started the year with a third in the Jan. 11 GIII First Lady H. at Gulfstream, but found Randaroo too much to handle in the Feb. 8 GIII Shirley Jones H. and finished 10 1/2 lengths back in fourth. Stretched out to a mile and a sixteenth in her next two, the Lothenbach homebred weakened late to be third in the Mar. 13 GIII Oaklawn Breeders' Cup S., but closed well to win the Apr. 16 Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland last time. Dropping back in distance here, Mayo On the Side was last of four as Randaroo cut out the fractions with Azeri on her tail. Randaroo gave it up as they rolled out of the turn, leaving Azeri on the lead, and it looked like the champ would hold on. But a determined Mayo On the Side, getting 11 pounds from Azeri, put her head down first on the line. Winning trainer Carl Nafzger had nothing but praise for the gallant runner-up. "We won the race and we were very glad we won it, but a great filly like Azeri running in a Grade I should not be giving weight," Nafzger said. "These Grade I's should be equal weights." Also Ran: Burning Sun, Honor in War, Kicken Kris, Everything to Gain, Sir Cherokee, Stage Call (Ire), Perfect Soul (Ire), Skate Away.

Stroll went five-for-six during his three-year-old season, taking a Belmont allowance race by six lengths May 10 before earning his first stakes score in Monmouth's Lamplighter S. July 5. The half brother to Patrol, third in this event a year ago, showed he could handle some cut in the ground when taking the GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame H. by four lengths over a yielding Saratoga turf course Aug. 4, defeated Kicken Kris (Kris S.) by two in the GII Jamaica H. in New York Sept. 21 and closed the year with a 2-5 score in the GIII Calder Derby Oct. 11. In his lone trip to the post this season, the attractive dark bay colt flattened out late to be fifth, two lengths behind Perfect Soul (Sadler's Wells) in Keeneland's GII Maker's Mark Mile Apr. 9. Stalking the pace of favored Sweet Return from three wide over the yielding going, Stroll took command with three-eighths of a mile to run, shook off the pacesetter for good at the eighth pole and edged clear. The race was marred by the death of Skate Away, who suffered an apparent heart attack and collapsed on the far turn. "He had no cardiovascular function, so the presumptive diagnosis was cardiac arrhythmia and there is no evidence of a muscular-skeletal injury."

The six-year-old Speightstown had flashed brilliance at various points in his career, but had failed to put it all together through a past-performance line marked by lengthy absences from the track. The chestnut looked like an emerging sprint presence when second to City Zip in the 2001 GII Amsterdam S., then went missing for 20 months before taking a Belmont allowance race and finishing second in the off-the-turf Jaipur H.,

both in May of 2003. A 10-month break separated him from his next, an impressive wire-to-wire victory in the Mar. 27 Artax H. at Gulfstream. On his toes in the post parade while favored Congaree (Arazi) appeared flat-footed, Speightstown raced up to take the lead and was allowed sensible fractions of 22.48 and 45.27. Effectively ending the race leaving the quarter pole, he opened up by 2 1/2 lengths over the tracking McCann's Mojave and bounded home for his initial graded stakes success. "I thought he would be tough to run down," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "He's really one of those horses that thrives at seven furlongs." Congaree never seriously threatened and finished fourth as the 4-5 chalk. For more on Congaree, see p1, ATW

Shaconage (grey)

Revere S. Nov. 15 and took some time off. The grey ran second on the Gulfstream main track Feb. 25 and third over that track's sod Mar. 14 prior to checking in seventh in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 10. Those efforts saw her go postward at 19-1 against the seemingly unstoppable favorite, 3-5 Etoile Montante, but a determined ride by Brice Blanc got Shaconage to the wire a flared nostril ahead of the chalk. Skimming the hedge throughout, Shaconage advanced approaching the lane, set her sights on Etoile Montante and finished strongly for her first graded success. "Cha-Ching! I've been coming to Churchill Downs for 20 years now and this is my first stakes win here," said winning trainer Mitch Shirota. "To do it on Derby Day is even more special. The jockey [Brice Blanc] gave her the perfect trip." A Group 1 winner in France, Etoile Montante captured the GIII Las Cienegas H. in her most recent start and looked home free at the sixteenth pole. But, "the grey horse was just a better horse today," said jockey Jerry Bailey. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

A Group 1 winner in France, Dedication missed by a neck when third in the Nov. 30 GI Matriarch S. at Hollywood.

The five-year-old made an unsuccessful foray onto the main track in her 2004 debut, finishing eighth in the Feb. 8 GIII Shirley Jones H. at Gulfstream Park, but bounced back to take the Mar. 13 Marshua's River S. at Gulfstream Park. She was slated for retirement after that victory, but her connections opted to keep her in training for another year, and the decision is proving a wise one. The gray mare was sent cross-country after the Marshua's River and finished a solid second behind Etoile Montante in the Apr. 4 GIII Las Cienegas H. at Santa Anita. Returning to a route off that 6 1/2-furlong Las Cienegas, the odds-on choice tracked pedestrian fractions of :25.75, :51.42 and 1:16.66, took over at midstretch despite drifting towards the rail and outfinished Aud for the popular score. "I don't think she's a true mile-and-a-sixteenth filly," trainer Christophe Clement said. "She's better at seven furlongs or a mile. She's got a very good kick, but very short kick." Added jockey Javier Castellano, "She was in a good spot and, when I asked her at the quarter pole, she responded." Dedication will be pointed for the one-mile GIII Just A Game Breeders' Cup S. at Belmont June 5. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Last year, Allen Jerkens sent out Spite the Devil to victory in the Withers at odds of 16-1. One year hence and "The Chief" was up to his old tricks, besting 2-5 pick Forest Danger with longshot Medallist. As the favorite in his Jan. 24 unveiling at Gulfstream, the Clay homebred finishing a tired fourth, but turned things around in his next, taking a seven-furlong test by 3 1/2 lengths Feb. 8. Up against Forest Danger in a Gulfstream allowance race next time, Medallist ran third to that foe, beaten 4 1/2 lengths, and was runner-up in a six-furlong maiden at Hallandale Mar. 31 in his prep for the Withers. Here, he battled with Forest Danger from an inside spot through speedy fractions, getting six furlongs in a blistering 1:07.90. Medallist began to edge away in mid-stretch and, despite drifting out badly late, held on for the win. Click for the brisnet.com chart. While his trainer, Bobby Frankel, was battling the elements in Louisville, Brazilian-bred Leroidesanimaux was basking under the California sun while setting a new course record at Hollywood. The chestnut, second in a Group 1 event in his native country last summer, finished fourth in his U.S. bow sprinting 6 1/2 furlongs against allowance foes down Santa Anita's hillside course Jan. 7. Stretched to a mile for his next, he won easily in a NW1X Jan. 31, then added another score, this one in a NW3X test, at Santa Anita Mar. 20. Eager to run in his stateside stakes debut, the TNT Stud colorbearer carved out swift six-furlong fraction of 1:09 3/5 and kept on rolling through the lane under jockey Jon Court, stopping the clock in 1:38 2/5. Leroidesanimaux's dam Dissemble is a half sister to Hasili (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}), the blue hen mare who has produced champions Dansili (GB) (Danehill) and Banks Hill (GB) (Danehill), as well as MGISW Heat Haze (GB) (Green Desert) and GSW Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill). Mobil has been the model of consistency throughout his career, having finished in the money in 12 of 15 prior starts. Second behind stablemate Wando in last season's Queen's Plate S., the bay returned next time to annex the nine-furlong GIII Toronto Cup H. on the turf last July. An impressive 6 3/4-length winner later in the fall in the GIII Ontario Derby going nine panels over the main track, Mobil closed out the season with a game second-place finish in the 1 1/16-mile GIII Woodbine Slots Cup H. Nov. 8. Marking his return as the 8-5 second choice this time, the colt settled off of a crisp early pace set by six-furlong track record holder Chris's Bad Boy. Closing in on the favorite with a furlong left to negotiate, Mobil swept past his tiring foe in deep stretch and inched clear for the win. "We didn't want to mess with Chris's Bad Boy early because that's not our game. We just wanted to be close enough to close on him," explained trainer Mike Keogh. "Every time he comes out, he shows up, digs in and fights hard. He's just a lovely horse." Winning jockey Todd Kabel, who recorded his first stakes win of the season, added, "He's really grown and matured into his body. He's much stronger than he was last year and hopefully, we're looking at a good year with this horse."

This race was devalued by the scratching of Nebraska Tornado (Storm Cat), but it was Martillo who picked up the pieces to book his flight to England for the Royal meeting. He confirmed himself as Germany's top miler with a six-length score in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen at Cologne last May before justifying the boldness of his connections with a third in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot the following month. After an easy score in the G2 Grosser Porsche Preis at Hoppegarten in July, he finished seventh in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville in August. A fifth-place finish on his return in the G1 Dubai Duty Free at Nad al Sheba last time Mar. 27 suggested he retained his ability, and he proved the point under a wilful ride from William Mongil this time. Settled in mid division on the inner throughout the early stages, he was angled out for his run passing the quarter pole before quickening to lead with 125 yards remaining and holding off the late surge of Sarre. "He ran a great race in Dubai and has improved since," commented conditioner Ralf Suerland. "He is a different horse to the one last year--he is now a man. All being well, he will head to Royal Ascot for the G1 Queen Anne S. [June 15]."

Bruno Grizzetti has simply dominated the recent history of this Classic, saddling his fourth winner since 1999 when Rumba Loca caused an upset this time. After two placings in Listed company last term, she came good when winning the Listed Criterium Labronico at Livorno in August and followed up with another impressive win in the Listed Premio Repubbliche Marinare at this track in September. Her form so far this spring, when runner-up in a conditions event at this track Mar. 14 and eighth in the Listed Premio Torricola over course and distance Apr. 18, suggested she was not the force of old and punters sent her off a lightly regarded 16-1 shot. Belying those odds, she was moved up the inside from mid division by Dario Vargiu to lead approaching the final eighth and quickened clear on demand soon after. Punter's pick Zona (Mr. Greeley) looked to have the race in safe keeping as she loomed large approaching the furlong marker under Mario Esposito, before fading with little struggle under pressure.

The Italian contingent was not disappointed as hot favorite Spirit of Desert won this Classic in facile fashion, providing trainer Lorenzo Brogi with his fourth renewal since 1994. Settled in a stalking role by a confident Maurizio Pasquale, the 1-2 pick ranged up to Cepirin approaching the eighth pole before easing clear under a hand ride. Bravo Tazio came on late to clinch the runner's-up spot in the wake of the impressive winner, who was confirming the promise of his juvenile campaign. That included scores in the Listed Criterium Partenopeo in Naples in July and Listed Premio Rumon over course and distance in early October, and climaxed in a half-length second to Pearl of Love (Ire) in Milan's G1 Gran Criterium later that month. He was given an easy time when runner-up to Cepirin in a conditions event at this track Mar. 21, but looked the genuine article when taking the Listed Premio Daumier over course and distance Apr. 18. Connections are keen to keep him close to home for the present, with the G1 Derby Italiano back at this venue May 30 a possible goal.

A hold-up sprinter, Frizzante always provides excitement, and those tactics paid dividends again as she was delivered to take this contest in the dying strides. Turning herself from a competent handicapper into a stakes performer when taking the Listed Boadicea S. at this track in October, she returned to complete her metamorphosis when beaten a half length by Arakan in the Listed Abernant S. here Apr. 15. Racing in rear under a confident Johnny Murtagh, she was squeezed up a gap on the stands' rail and reeled in Avonbridge and Steve Drowne to win the bobber. "Johnny gave her a lovely ride," said trainer James Fanshawe. "We were concerned about whether we'd get the gap on the rail, but he stayed cool and kept his position. Early on she gets a bit outpaced, but she's got a tremendous burst and, although I think ideally six is better for her, she loved the cut in the ground. I'm not sure whether she'd go to York [for the G2 Duke of York S. May 11], but she's in both the Royal Ascot sprints [the G2 King's Stand S. June 15 and G1 Golden Jubilee S. June 19]." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Miss Nashwan, formerly trained by Dermot Weld, had shown little for her new conditioner Maurizio Grassi until winning a conditions race at this track last time Apr. 6. With that confidence booster under her belt, she finally delivered on the early promise, which prompted the Irish trainer to run her in two Classics last year. Held up by Marcello Belli throughout the early stages, she quickened in the centre of the track to pass Sayuri inside the final eighth and assert for the score. The 1-2 pick Marbye (Marju {Ire}) disappointed by failing to deliver her customary kick in the closing stages and finished fourth. Click for the Racing Post chart

Could this be Lincoln's year? In 2003, the bay was the runner-up to Japanese Horse of the Year Symboli Kris S. in the G1 Arima Kinen and filled the same position to That's the Plenty in the G1 Japanese St. Leger. But he started his four-year-old season with a victory in the G2 Hanshin Daishoten, turning the tables on That's the Plenty, and is the 2-1 morning-line favorite. Neo Universe captured both the G1 Satsuki Sho and the G1 Japanese Derby prior to concluding his sophomore season with a fourth in the G1 Japan Cup. He started 2004 victoriously, capturing the G2 Sankei Osaka Hai Apr. 4.

Polish Summer has found a new lease of life at the age of seven, finally gaining his first Group 1 success when accounting for Hard Buck (Brz) in the Mar. 27 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba last time. Last season, the veteran filled the runner-up spot in the G1 Prix de Saint-Cloud in June, G2 Grand Prix de Deauville in August and G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in December, but he displayed a turn of acceleration not evident in his earlier campaigns when winning the Sheema Classic and the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 6. He runs into Hong Kong Vase heroine Vallee Enchantee, who bids to provide Elie Lellouche with his fourth renewal since 1993. The four-year-old bay also won the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris over 12 furlongs on this course in October and may find this trip on the sharp side on her re-appearance. One who will not struggle for speed is Vespone, who looked a smart performer when winning the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly and G1 Grand Prix de Paris at this venue in June. Subsequently sold to Godolphin, he disappointed when well beaten in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket in October, but warmed up for his European campaign with a second in the G3 Jebel Hatta S. at Nad al Sheba last time Mar. 6. Last year's winner Fair Mix finished off the board in final three starts of the campaign. He came back to take the G3 Dubai City of Gold S. in impressive fashion at Nad al Sheba Mar. 6, but subsequently failed to land a blow when sixth behind Polish Summer in the Sheema Classic and may be best fresh.

Warrsan, successful 12 months ago, has to defy a penalty in his attempt to win back-to-back renewals of this contest. His profitable 2003 campaign included a success in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom in June and ended with a fine third behind Vallee Enchantee in the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in December. He returned to finish a creditable fifth behind Polish Summer (GB) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba last time Mar. 27 and holds strong claims in a substandard renewal. Dubai Success bested Gamut by a short head in the G3 John Porter S. at Newbury last time Apr. 17. He may be able to confirm those placings with the latter, who has shown his best form over further, as when runner-up to Vinnie Roe (Ire) in the G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh in September. Fifth in the G1 St Leger at Doncaster in September, Moments Of Joy is the type to progress at four, but may lack the experience for this arena.

Olaso warmed up for this by taking the G3 Grosser Preis der Bremer Wirtschaft at Bremen Apr. 4, but faces a more competitive line-up here. Storm Trooper, who finished third in last year's G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg and runner-up in the G1 Deutschland-Preis at Dusseldorf in July, disappointed when only seventh in the G1 Grosse Bugatti Preis at Baden-Baden in September and deserves another chance. Royal Fantasy was in unstoppable form last term, taking the G2 Deutsches St Leger in Dortmund in October before following up in the G3 Grosse Preis der Stadt Frankfurt in Frankfurt the following month.

RETIREMENT FOR CONGAREE? After putting in two subpar performances this season, Congaree (Arazi-Mari's Sheba, by Mari's Book) could be headed for retirement. The six-year-old ended 2003 with a 5 1/4-length score in the GI Cigar Mile, his second straight victory in that event, but opened 2004 with lackluster fourth-place efforts in the Jan. 31 GII San Antonio H. at Santa Anita and, as the 9-10 chalk, in the GII Churchill Downs H. yesterday. "Physically, he seems fine," trainer Bob Baffert said. "Like [owner] Bob McNair says, maybe he's lost the fire in his belly. He's lost the want to." Bred and raced by McNair's Stonerside Stable, Congaree won 12 of his 24 career starts, accounting for the GI Hollywood Gold Cup, GI Carter H. and GI Swaps S. in addition to his Cigar Mile scores. He also won the GII Wood Memorial, GII Del Mar Breeders' Cup H., GII San Antonio H., GII San Pasqual H. and GIII Lone Star Park H. and was third in the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness. He has amassed earnings of $3,256,400 to date.

Lunarpal pressed the early pace of Classic Elegance from the outside, took over from that filly approaching the final quarter mile and pulled away to become the first stakes winner for his sire, represented this year by his first crop. The winner was coming into this race off an impressive seven-length victory going half a furlong shorter at Keeneland Apr. 18. "The exciting thing about this colt is he showed so much professionalism [in his first start]," said winning jockey Shane Sellers. "He broke fast and laid off a horse and made the lead turning for home...I just chirped to him a couple of times and he gave me another gear. He did the same thing today." Gallant Secret, one of two fillies in the field, rallied nicely from last to finish a clear second.

A stakes-caliber field of eight lined up to contest this allowance event, but it was longshot Smile N Wildcat who walked away with the win. The chestnut was confidently ridden by Corey Nakatani to join the dueling Strength and Honor and Champali from a three-wide position. Running on strongly as that pair began to weaken, he opened by daylight in mid-stretch and won easily. The bay, third in the one-mile San Carlos H. at Golden Gate Feb. 28, was coming off a victory against $62,500 optional claimers at Santa Anita Mar. 20.

My Boston Gal kicked off her career with three straight wins, including the 8.5-furlong GII Golden Rod S. over this track in November 2002. Fifth in her 2003 debut in the GII Davona Dale S. at Gulfstream Park, she weakened late to finish second in the GII Bonnie Miss S. last March. An impressive 1 1/4-length winner over Bird Town in the seven-furlong GII Beaumont S. one month later, My Boston Gal finished fifth behind that filly in her latest start, the 2003 edition of the GI Kentucky Oaks. Given the benefit of the doubt by the crowd as the 7-5 choice in her return, the four-year-old rushed up to take the early lead, maintained a length advantage until the top of the stretch and held on in the final strides to eke out a narrow victory over My Trusty Cat.

Go for Gin On the Move:

Go for Gin (Cormorant), winner of the 1994 Kentucky Derby, will leave Claiborne Farm following the current breeding season, according to The Blood-Horse. Joseph Cornaccia, who raced the bay in partnership with William Condren, said that he recently bought out Condren and Claiborne, but did not immediately know where the 13-year-old stallion would be relocated. Among Go for Gin's six stakes winner is multi-millionaire Albert the Great, hero of the 2000 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup.

A flashy wire-to-wire debut winner at the Meadowlands last fall, Frisky Spider briefly put himself on the Triple Crown trail on the merit of two convincing seven-furlong victories at Gulfstream in January. Tossed into the deep end in the GII Fountain of Youth, he did some running for four furlongs, but began to backpedal leaving the backstretch and finished seventh. A try in the Mar. 13 GI Florida Derby yielded a similar result, with the dark bay fading to ninth after pressing the pace. A brief regrouping ensued and 'Frisky' returned here as the odds-on pick. Off the pace early, he looked to be toiling a furlong from home, but found something in the tank and got up just in the nick of time.

Atswhatimtalknbout Done for the Year:

B. Wayne Hughes' Atswhatimtalknbout (A.P. Indy), unraced since his fourth-place effort in last year's Kentucky Derby, will not race in 2004, Daily Racing Form reports. Plagued by foot problems for most of the last 12 months, the attractive bay colt has also had to fight a lung infection in recent months. The foot condition has improved, but time is too short to have the colt ready for a fall campaign, according to trainer Ron Ellis. "He will be back in the middle of June," Ellis told DRF. "We weren't going to be able to run him in the Breeders' Cup. It will take four or five months to get him ready." Atswhatimtalknbout will be sent to his owner's farm in Malibu, California, for six weeks, then will be prepared for a five-year-old campaign in 2005.

Switched to the turf for his latest, the gelding turned it around, missing by just a nose at Santa Anita Mar. 10. Dismissed at 12-1 despite the improvement, the dark bay edged to the front after a half mile, repulsed a challenge on the final turn and held on to defeat Johnny Red Kerr (Mr. Greeley) by 1 1/2 lengths. CROWD FIGURES HOLD UP

Officials at Newmarket were satisfied with the attendance on the first day of the UltimateBet.com Guineas Festival. Yesterday's crowd of 17,346 was down slightly on last year, but Managing Director Lisa Hancock remarked, "We have had a fantastic day and witnessed what I am sure will prove to be a special winner of the 2000 Guineas. The poor weather didn't help the crowd--last year it was hot and sunny--but the attendance was still well up on the previous two years." Yesterday's totepool on-course cash turnover came to a record £500,781, an increase of 9.8 percent on last year's figure. This was also the first time that the half-million pound barrier has been broken on 2000 Guineas day at Newmarket.

QUICK RETURN FOR HUGHES

Richard Hughes may be back in the saddle as soon as next week as he bids to return at Chester's May meeting. Khalid Abdullah's retained jockey has made a speedy recovery from a punctured lung sustained in a fall at Leicester last Saturday. "I am improving all of the time and the last couple of days have been particularly good," he told the Daily Star. "If that rate of progress continues then I hope to make Chester." Hughes, who missed the rides on Three Valleys and Phantom Wind in the Newmarket Classics, looks certain to partner American Post (GB) in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 16.

3--Babodana (GB), 133, c, 4, Bahamian Bounty (GB)--Daanat Nawal (GB), by Machiavellian. £3,300. Margins: SHD, 1 1/4, SHD. Odds: 9-1, 7-2, 7-2. Also ran: Makhlab, El Coto (GB), Quito (Ire), Will He Wish (GB), Millennium Force (GB), Meshaheer.

Rockets 'n Rollers has endured a busy month with admirable toughness and used that experience to outgame Polar Ben in a tight finish to this contest. Having shown promise when third in the Listed Doncaster Mile Mar. 25, he filled the same spot in the G3 Gladness S. at The Curragh Apr. 4. Turned out eight days later to finish second in a Warwick conditions event, he was again third in the Listed Leicestershire S. at Leicester last time Apr. 24. Enjoying a marginal advantage from the outset under Dane O'Neill, he was tackled by all-comers in the straight, but battled relentlessly to edge Polar Ben in a driving finish.

Newmarket, 4.40, Cond, £21,150, 4yo/up, 1 1/4mT, 2:04.31, gd.

BANDARI (IRE) (h, 5, Alhaarth {Ire}--Miss Audimar {SW & GSP, $153,695}, by Mr. Leader), off the track with an injury until returning to finish 11th in the G3 John Porter S. at Newbury Apr. 17, was sent off the 9-2 second choice to revive old fortunes in his second start back. Taken to the front in the early stages by Joe Fanning, he enjoyed a soft lead and showed his customary determination to beat Private Charter (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) by a length. "It's nice to get his head back in front, but he should be running in better races," conditioner Mark Johnston said of the 2002 G1 St Leger third. "It was Sheikh Hamdan's idea to run over a mile and a quarter, so he deserves the credit." The Ir£40,000 GOFORB yearling is a half to Gaily Eagle (Ire) (Mujtahid), GSW-Jpn, $1,138,051. Lifetime Record: MGSW & G1SP-Eng, 15-7-1-1, £288,870. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum; B-Rathasker Stud; T-Mark Johnston.

Haydock, 3.20, Cond, £15,050, 3yo/up, 6fT, 1:13.04, gd.

STEENBERG (IRE) (g, 5, Flying Spur {Aus}--Kip's Sister {GB}, by Cawston's Clown {GB}), runner-up to Monsieur Bond (Ire) in the G3 Gladness S. at The Curragh Apr. 4, was sent off the 2-1 second favorite after that form was boosted when Gladness third Rockets 'n Rollers came back to win the Listed Spring Trophy earlier on the program. Held up by George Duffield throughout the early stages, Steenberg delivered his potent turn of acceleration to lead at the eighth pole and beat Bahamian Pirate (Housebuster) by 3 1/2 lengths. The 12,500gns TATOCT yearling may now be aimed at the G2 Duke of York S. at York May 11. Lifetime Record: SW & GSP-Eng, GSP-Ire, 20-3-3-1, £93,906. O-Kenneth Macpherson; B-B Ryan; T-Mark Tompkins.

Haydock, 4.30, Mdn, £8,870, 3yo, 10f 120ydsT, 2:15.78, gd.

DESTINATION DUBAI (c, 3, Kingmambo--Mysteria, by Alleged), the runner-up in maidens at Doncaster and Pontefract in September, was sent off the 4-9 pick to provide Kerrin McEvoy with his first winner on British shores. Taken to the front in the early stages, the full to Dubai Destination, G1SW-Eng, $378,987, was challenged and passed by Twofan (Lear Fan) with half a mile remaining before battling to regain the lead at the quarter pole. Pushed out from there, the $1,500,000 KEEJUL yearling purchase asserted as his rival hung right to score by two lengths. "The day ended up all right with Destination Dubai winning," McEvoy said. "He won quite well and will stay further." Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, £9,581. O-Godolphin; B-Calumet Farm; T-Saeed bin Suroor.

The 7-5 favorite quickened to challenge at the eighth pole, led soon after and ran on well in the latter stages to account for Confluence (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}) by a cozy 2 1/2 lengths. "That was a really nice performance," said winning rider Gary Stevens. "He is still a baby but he should improve some more." Lifetime Record: 1 start, 1 win, €9,000.
