Total Impact (Chi) (Stuka) has been held winless since driving to a two-length tally in the 2003 edition of the GII Mervyn Leroy H., but the six-year-old looks ready to return to victorious form in this year's running of the 1 1/16-mile event at Hollywood Park this afternoon. score and finished fifth in his first three starts back, but he has come to life in his last two. The Chilean-bred was runner-up to Ender's Shadow (A.P. Indy) in the Mar. 13 Tokyo City H. at a mile, then earned a solid 106 Beyer when second to Dynever at 14-1 in the Apr. 3 GIII San Bernardino H., with Ender's Shadow fourth. He will face another son of A.P. Indy for the first time today. Olmodavor ended 2003 with a victory in the Dec. 6 GIII Native Diver H. and, after a third behind Star Cross (Arg) (Southern Halo) in the Jan. 3 GII San Pasqual H., added a win in the Feb. 1 GIII Whirlaway H. at Fair Grounds. "The opinion is that he doesn't run his best races at Santa Anita," said Gary Mandella, assistant to and son of trainer Richard Mandella. The five-year-old adds blinkers in his first start since running fourth in the Mar. 6 GI Santa Anita H. He carries highweight of 121 pounds.

Attraction to The Curragh

The Duke of Roxburghe's unbeaten Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) will be supplemented for the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh May 23, it was announced yesterday. The plan for last Sunday's G1 1000 Guineas winner was revealed in a statement issued yesterday, which read, "Mark Johnston and the Duke of Roxburghe have agreed on running plans for Attraction. She will be aimed for the Irish 1000 Guineas, provided that the ground at The Curragh is no softer than good. The filly is extremely well after her Newmarket win and cantered for the first time this morning." Connections will have to pay a fee of €40,000 at the final stage May 18. More Classic Corner, p4

A six-length maiden winner at Gulfstream Park Feb. 15, Frenchglen faced a tough foe in her stakes debut, but was not disgraced when finishing third behind Madcap Escapade in the Mar. 13 GII Forward Gal S. She came back in a Keeneland allowance test Apr. 21 and galloped to a 12-length score over the sloppy surface. She is one of three Todd Pletcher-trained runners in the race. Her entry mate is Cherry Bomb, who also broke her maiden at Gulfstream this winter. The $370,000 FTFFEB juvenile was moved up to second after crossing the finish line third in a two-turn allowance test Mar. 1, then dropped back to seven furlongs at Keeneland Apr. 8 and led from gate to wire for a 1 1/2-length score. She makes her stakes debut. The Pletcher trio is completed by Forestier, who was second in a pair of stakes at Laurel Park before taking an allowance at the Big A last time out Mar. 13. Delta Sensation, an Aqueduct allowance winner Apr. 21, goes for fourth straight in her first stakes try. Grey Traffic broke her maiden by 9 1/2 lengths in her Apr. 4 debut at Santa Anita and makes her second start.

Sir Michael Stoute has not saddled the winner of this since Hawker's News (Ire) scored in 1994, but North Light can end the drought. Beaten a short head by Post and Rail on his debut in a Sandown maiden in August, he opened his account the following month in a weaker event at Goodwood. Like his brother Researched (Ire) and half-brother Cover Up (Ire), he should relish middle distances and even beyond. Tralee maiden scorer Five Dynasties was disappointing when only fourth behind Azamour (Ire) in the G2 Beresford S. at The Curragh in October, but as a brother to last year's G1 Irish Derby third Roosevelt (Ire) is also bred to want this trip. Hazyview, whose handicap form is closely tied to subsequent group scorers Red Lancer (GB) and African Dream (GB), steps up again having won the Listed Newmarket S. last time May 1.

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

“Cool Cat” Back on Track

Susan Magnier's One Cool Cat (Storm Cat) appears to be back in the Classic picture after investigations revealed the colt's heart to be "absolutely perfect." Extensive scans and ECGs have been carried out on the colt, who was favorite for the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, but was eased when hopelessly beaten in the race. He was later diagnosed with an irregular heartbeat. Conditioner Aidan O'Brien will now aim last year's G1 National S. and G1 Phoenix S. winner at the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh May 22. "The heart scans and ECGs carried out by the equine heart specialist Dr. Brendan Glazier showed One Cool Cat's heart to be absolutely perfect, so we went back to see how it might have happened on the day," O'Brien told Racing Post. "The horse got a fright when he was being loaded, ran forward and banged his chest and head off the stalls--he was very anxious after hitting his head and we now believe this anxiety started his heart to fibrillate. If everything goes well between now and then, the plan is to go to The Curragh for the Irish 2000 Guineas." He added, "He is probably the most intelligent horse I ever had anything to do with and hopefully the trauma of the whole thing at Newmarket hasn't done any mental damage when he does go racing."

Systematic looked a top prospect at three, winning the Listed Troy S. at Doncaster and the G3 Cumberland Lodge S. at Ascot, but injury intervened at the start of his four-year-old campaign. He appeared to pick up where he had left off when second to Mubtaker in the G2 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury in August, but lost his way and did not signal a return to form until finishing runner-up to Gamut (Ire) in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket last Sunday. Settled in a distant second by Kevin Darley throughout the early stages of this contest as the tearaway leader Narrative (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) proved intractable, he was ridden to close the gap and responded to grab the lead with three furlongs remaining. Joined by The Whistling Teal there, he was driven out to repel that challenge as that game duo drew clear of their struggling rivals. "He's a tough horse and he's back to his best," conditioner Mark Johnston said. "That was a good run and its lovely to see him come back. He'll go for the G1 Coronation Cup [at Epsom June 4] or G2 Hardwicke S. [at Royal Ascot June 19] and he might run before that."

Third in his debut at Lingfield on Valentine's Day, African Dream was dropped in for a claiming price of £20,000 a week later and, after posting a 1 3/4-length victory, found himself in a new barn. He has quickly metamorphosed into a dream claim for new trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam. The bay gelding followed up with a win in a conditions race at Kempton Mar. 27 and a Newbury handicap score Apr. 16, on both occasions beating Thursday's impressive G3 Chester Vase winner Red Lancer (GB). Last time out, he stepped up in class to take in the G3 Classic Trial at Sandown Apr. 23. After that race, Chapple-Hyam told Racing Post, "I've had some great moments, but this is the best of them all. When we got him home from Lingfield, I thought he was a dud, as he was lame, but he's lame 90 percent of the time. It's great for me, as nobody will buy him--not that the owner would sell him." Looking for his fourth straight for his current connections, African Dream settled last of the three runners off slow fractions, but quickened best of all to collar Putra Sas in the final eighth. Chapple-Hyam has his sights set on bigger things now. "We'll give him a little break, as he's had four quick races," he said. "He's in the G2 King Edward VII S. [at Royal Ascot June 18] and we'll look at some races abroad, as he wants some cut in the ground." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Pride upset more experienced rivals to take the inaugural running of this newly invented tempter for older fillies. After beginning her career with John Hammond in France, she was transferred to Gerard Butler in England and showed a glimpse of potential when winning a Newbury maiden last October. Subsequently seventh in the Listed Gillies S. at Doncaster in November, she was moved again to Alain de Royer-Dupre and returned to finish fourth in a conditions event at Longchamp last time Apr. 22. Showing vastly improved form in the deluge of rain that greeted the runners here, she was settled in fourth by Davy Bonilla. She faltered briefly when asked to quicken approaching the final quarter, but went up to join the long-time leader Russian Hill and Gary Stevens at the eighth pole and was pushed out to assert despite showing a tendency to drift right under pressure. RAYON (c, 4, Unbridled--Melleray {Ire} {GSP-Ire & SP-US, $107,805}, by Danehill), a $170,000 KEESEP yearling, capped off a one-win sophomore campaign with a near-miss third-place effort over course and distance Oct. 5. Sent to post the 2-1 choice in his return to the races, he was forced to steady through the lane and had to settle for seventh going nine panels over the Big A's lawn Apr. 24. Retaining the services of jockey Jerry Bailey, who was aboard for the colt's most recent, Rayon caboosed the field through the opening six furlongs before a sweeping move on the far turn put him into contention. The Bill Mott trainee opened a clear advantage a quarter mile out and ran on well to post the 5 3/4-length victory at 4-5 odds. Lifetime Record: 9-2-0-2, $57,156. O-Peter Vegso & Gary Seidler. Turf specialist Jose Santos kept his mount along the rail, saving ground and biding his time until swinging out for the stretch drive. With only Ulla Bloom (Wekiva Springs) to catch, Ohbeegewhyen gamely reeled in that foe and got a nose in front in the final sixteenth for the good first-out win. It was another 5 3/4 lengths back to show horse Fast Access (Keos). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $26,400. O-Hurstland Farm Inc. B-Barry Henley & Hurstland Farm, Inc (KY). T-Keith O'Brien.

Allowed to settle towards the rear by jockey Jorge Chavez, the 13-1 chance saved ground throughout and finished up full of run to defeat 9-5 chalk Love and Kris's (Kris S.) by two lengths. Fire Slam, winner of the GIII Lecomte S. in January, heads a small but talented field here. A dismal fifth behind Wimbledon in the GII Louisiana Derby, the bay colt rebounded with a solid second behind Quintons Gold Rush in the GII Lexington S. Apr. 17. "It wasn't really our plan to go for the Matt Winn, as we were looking for a suitable race at around seven-eighths of a mile," explained trainer David Carroll. "We'd rather run him out of his own stall than have him ship somewhere to run over the same distance. We would ideally have gone back to a one-turn mile or seven-eighths, but there just wasn't a suitable race anywhere." Last year's GI Futurity S. winner Cuvee also merits a long look. The handsome chestnut was last seen finishing last in the GI Breeders Cup Juvenile Oct. 25, then was sidelined after having a bone chip removed.

Fair Grounds Seeks to Annul $90m Judgment:

Fair Grounds Race Course filed suit in Louisiana District Court in Baton Rouge seeking to annul a $90-million judgement leveled against the track in late March. In 1994, just two years after the introduction of video lottery terminals at Louisiana racetracks, the state Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association filed its own action against the tracks, claiming a discrepancy in the distribution of revenue. A judge first ruled in favor of the horsemen, but that decision was subsequently overturned. However, last spring, the state Supreme Court agreed with a horsemen's argument that the tracks used an illegal formula to calculate how the proceeds would be distributed and sent the case back to District Court for a determination of damages. Judge Jewel Welch found Fair Grounds liable for $64.6 million plus interest, bringing the total to nearly $90 million. Fair Grounds remains the only track involved, since Louisiana Downs, Delta Downs and Evangeline Downs settled with the horsemen. The basis of yesterday's filing by Fair Grounds is a letter dated Sept. 12, 1992, written by an attorney for the HBPA, which acknowledges and agrees with the form and methodology with which the revenue was split. Neither the Supreme Court nor the district court had the benefit of this letter when arriving at their decisions. Fair Grounds has been under Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection since the Supreme Court ruling in the spring of 2003.

DIGNITY HEADS DANTE 18

Britton House Stud's Fort Dignity (Seeking the Gold) heads the 18 remaining entries for Wednesday's £145,000 G2 Dante S. at York. Fourth in the G3 Greenham S. at Newbury Apr. 17, the Sir Michael Stoute-trained colt will tackle an extended 10 furlongs for the first time in either the Dante or Thursday's Listed Glasgow S. "One can't be adamant about a horse like this one's trip at this stage and, while he's got plenty of turn of foot, it's certainly felt at the moment that a mile and a quarter will suit him," Anthony Penfold, manager of Britton House Stud, told PA Sport. "Whether he stays a mile and a half remains to be seen. He's a nice horse who appears to be going the right way and should progress with racing." Also among the five-day declarations for the Epsom Derby trial was Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum's Andean (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), a late scratch from yesterday's G3 Dee S. at Chester. The David Loder-trained Yarmouth maiden scorer also has the Glasgow S. as an option; John Dunlop also has that as an alternative for Newbury conditions winner Let The Lion Roar (GB) (Sadler's Wells). Aidan O'Brien has entered four, including last year's G2 Royal Lodge S. runner-up Moscow Ballet (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), while Godolphin may be represented by Rule of Law (Kingmambo), who finished third behind that rival in the Ascot contest.

REFLECTION ADDED TO MUSIDORA

Trainer John Gosden yesterday supplemented Sheikh Maktoum bin Rashid al Maktoum's Shady Reflection (Sultry Song) to Tuesday's G3 Musidora S. at York. She may renew her rivalry with Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum's Glen Innes (Ire) (Selkirk), whom she beat by a short head in the Listed Swinley S. at Ascot Apr. 28. The latter is one of two entries from the David Loder stable, alongside Bay Tree (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}). Godolphin will saddle last year's G1 Fillies' Mile third Punctilious (GB) (Danehill) in the extended 10-furlong contest.

SALFORD ASCOT BOUND

Michael Tabor's Salford City (Ire) (Desert Sun {GB}) is likely to be aimed at the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 15, as opposed to a tilt at the Epsom Derby. Trainer David Elsworth reported the G3 Greenham S. winner came out of Saturday's G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket with a haematoma on his girth after finishing sixth to Haafhd (GB). "The horse is well," he told the Racing Post. "He did have a little haematoma on his elbow on his nearside, which horses get when the girth is over-tight. It was probably unimportant and I'm not using it as an excuse. They went very fast and we didn't run as well as I hoped we would. I'm not making any excuses, but whether we go a mile and a half and take on Epsom I would say is very doubtful. But we haven't made a decision. If I had to guess, I would say we were more likely to take the Ascot route and take on the winner again in the St James's Palace S."
