A VICTORIOUS ENCOUNTER IN THE VANITY

The GI Vanity H. at Hollywood Park was billed as a two-horse race between GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and GI Santa Margarita H. heroine Adoration (Honor Grades) and Star Parade (Arg) (Parade Marshal), winner of the GI Santa Maria H. and in the early stages of the nine-furlong event, it appeared that all pre-race talk was going to live up to the hype. That is until the final furlong. Far off the early pace set by Adoration, who was tracked closely by Star Parade, Victory Encounter (Victory Speech) lost contact with the fast-moving pair in the early going, but turning for home, the four-year-old was closing in fast on the top rank. Distracted by the battle at hand, Adoration and Star Parade fought gamely in the final hundred yards, but it was Victory Encounter who stole the show with a rail skimming drive which carried her to victory. "I think she proved today that she belongs with these mares," said winning rider Alex Solis. "She had a nice pace in front of us and was best." A winner of four straight from July to January, including the GII El Encino S. Jan. 18, the bay finished out of the money in her two latest, including a fourth in the mile GIII Bed O Roses Breeders' Cup H. at Aqueduct Apr. 17. Zito Preps Duo for Preakness

A pair of Nick Zito trained horses, Robert LaPenta's The Cliff's Edge (Gulch) and Tracy Farmer's Sir Shackleton (Miswaki), worked Sunday at Churchill Downs in preparation for Saturday's GI Preakness S. at Pimlico Racecourse. The Cliff's Edge, fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby May 1, breezed four panels in :48 2/5 under exercise rider Maxine Correa. According to Zito, the work, which was the 19th fastest of 45 at the distance, will be the only major training move for the colt between the Derby and the Preakness. "He looks great and that's what you want," said Zito. "We don't need to overdo it. This is just what we wanted. We didn't work him in company, we didn't ask him for anything. We wanted to make sure he didn't go too fast." Also likely to contest the Preakness, Sir Shackleton drilled five furlongs in :59 flat, the best of 17 moves at the distance. Accompanied by rider Carlos Correa, the winner of the Apr. 24 GII Derby Trial S. is scheduled to arrive with his stablemate at Pimlico today.

Bear Fan closed late to dead heat for third in her 2004 debut in the Sunshine Millions Filly and Mare Sprint at Santa Anita Jan. 24 before winning by a length in her next start in the seven-furlong GII Barbara Fritchie H. at Laurel Feb. 14. Proving her versatility in her latest with a length score in the 6 1/2-furlong Irish O'Brien H. against statebred competition over the Santa Anita sod Mar. 17, Bear Fan went off a slight 7-5 second choice to keep her winning streak alive while switching back to the dirt. The bay settled in a tracking third through a sharp opening quarter mile in :22.59, forged to the front after a crisp half in :44.99 and drew off late to score by daylight over the ultra-consistent Harmony Lodge. "She's a horse that's overcome a lot of problems," said winning trainer Wesley Ward. "I had been pointing her to run against Azeri [in Churchill's GI Humana Distaff May 1], but she popped a quarter crack in behind and we had to skip the race," he said, adding, "It was very disappointing. Our blacksmith, Ian McKinley, did a great job patching it. We just got lucky today." Jockey John Velazquez, who was riding the mare for the first time, added, "I was just there for the ride. I gave her a chance during the first part and was happy with my trip behind those two horses."

Scratched: Miss Lips (Ger).

Shapira, who only debuted Apr. 10 when finishing runner-up at Mulheim, sprang a 50-1 shock to break her maiden in sensational fashion. Settled in mid-division throughout the early stages by Jiri Palik, she traveled with ease until being asked to quicken inside the final quarter. Striking the front soon after, she was driven out to hold the late challenge of La Ina, who found racing room too late. Gestut Schattauerhof's Stall Granum was also responsible for her sire Kornado, who took the G2 Mehl Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) in 1993. Shapira, like the 2002 heroine Portella (Ger), emanates from the Andreas Lowe stable, which also captured the 2001 G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) with Silvester Lady (Ger). Shapira is out of Semplice, a daughter of Sarah Siddons (GB), the winner of the 1976 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and Yorkshire Oaks. Yeats was bet down to 1-5 here to cement his position at the head of the ante-post lists for the June 5 G1 Epsom Derby, and duly delivered under an educative ride from Jamie Spencer. After the exuberance of his Curragh maiden score in September and his 10-length success on his return in the G3 Ballysax S. over course and distance Apr. 18, it was a time to be workmanlike in this contest. Taken to the front in the early stages, he set honest fractions before being given a breather at halfway. But he quickened all the way to the line inside the final half mile and Spencer had only to wave the whip as Relaxed Gesture came with a brief late threat. Reiterating earlier comments that Yeats is an "uncomplicated, straightforward horse," Aidan O'Brien, who used this race as a prep for Derby winners Galileo (Ire) and High Chaparral (Ire), added, "He's a very good horse who gallops, stays, is genuine and tough." He added, "He was only playing with them. Jamie was delighted with him...you can jump off him or get a lead. Jamie will decide what to do at Epsom." Runner-up Relaxed Gesture may head to the June 5 GI Belmont S., according to trainer Dermot Weld, who said, "I am very pleased with that run--we weren't disgraced coming second to Yeats. He could still be supplemented for Epsom, but I have had the Belmont in mind for him--running on dirt again certainly wouldn't worry me." Alexander Goldrun saw out a mile strongly when winning the Listed Park Express S. in testing conditions at The Curragh last time Mar. 21, but dealt with this drop back in trip on faster ground with aplomb. She gradually developed into a smart performer at two, stepping up from a nursery score at this track in September to win the Listed Silken Glider S. at The Curragh in October. Hampered in mid-division in the early stages of this contest, she was driven to take closer order on the turn into the straight as Miss Childrey applied the pressure from the front. Responding to Kevin Manning's urgings, she quickened between the long-time leader and Misty Heights in the final 50 yards and thrust her head in front in the final strides. "She tried hard and I'd imagine she'll go to The Curragh for the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas [May 23]," trainer Jim Bolger said. "We'll see how she gets on there before thinking about the G1 Epsom Oaks [June 4]."

Jockey Jose Santos and Sackatoga Stable, who teamed up to win last year's Kentucky Derby with Funny Cide (Distorted Humor), filed a $48-million lawsuit against the Miami Herald in a federal court May 4. The suit stems from an allegation in the Herald that a photo taken at the finish of last year's Derby showed Santos holding an unidentified object in the same hand as his riding whip, and states that the newspaper's articles and photos were libelous, as Santos denied the accusations and proved innocent of any wrongdoing. The Herald and its parent company, Knight Ridder Inc., have yet to see the lawsuit, but have indicated that they will defend against it 'vigorously.'

Undeterred, the crowd sent her off as the 2-1 choice here and she didn't let them down. The chestnut sat just off the hip of Terra Kate (Boston Harbor) through a half in :47.24 before opening an easy five-length lead on the turn. With jockey Edgar Prado sitting motionless, she extended her advantage with every stride and cruised under the wire clear by an impressive 17 1/2 lengths. A $110,000 KEESEP yearling, she is a half to the ill-fated $4.4 million yearling Shah Jehan (Mr. Prospector), MGSP-US, SP-Fr, $220,722; and Lily o'Gold (Slew o' Gold), MGSP, $280,875. Wilson Remains in Critical, but Improving:

Jockey Rick Wilson, who sustained head injuries and severe blood loss when he was inadvertently kicked in the head by his mount after a spill at Pimlico Saturday, remained in critical condition Sunday at the University of Maryland's Shock Trauma Unit yesterday. But according to the jockey's agent, John Salzman Jr, Wilson is awake and responsive. "He's doing great," said Salzman Jr. "He is not over the hump yet, but the nurse told me he is doing remarkably well."
