KING OF THE CUP

Favored King Kamehameha (Jpn) (Kingmambo), preparing for the May 30 G1 Japanese Derby, took a big step forward winning Sunday's G1-JRA NHK Mile Cup by an impressive five-length margin. The bay broke from the outside in the field of 18 and settled in mid-pack under jockey Katsumi Ando. Ando switched the sophomore to the outside in deep stretch and King Kamehameha hit top gear to burst clear of the field en route to an easy win. The colt, winner of the Erica Sho last December, finished third in his 2004 bow in the Keisei Hai in January, but returned to the winner's circle with a victory in the Sumire S. and added a gutsy win in the G3 Mainichi Hai last time out. "He had a good attitude today," Ando said of the winner. "The 2400 meters of the Derby does not worry me." King Kamehameha is a half brother to The Deputy (Ire), who in 2000 won the GII Santa Catalina S. and GI Santa Anita Derby. Click for the jair.jrao.ne.jp chart.

★ TRIPLE THREATS ★

Smarty Gets His Bonus

The connections of Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality), the Pennsylvannia bred who scored the richest payday in Thoroughbred history when he netted $5,854,800 winning the GI Kentucky Derby, were yesterday awarded the $5 million bonus that accounted for the majority of the massive payday. At a ceremony at Philadelphia Park Morning morning, a check was handed over to Someday Farm's Patricia and Roy Chapman, who bred and own Smarty Jones, from Oaklawn Park's Charles Cella. To celebrate the 100th anniversary of Oaklawn Park, Cella had offered up a $5-million bonus to any horse that could sweep the Rebel S. and the GII Arkansas Derby--both at Oaklawn--as well as the Kentucky Derby. Smarty Jones stretched his legs yesterday at Philly Park, galloping a mile and a half. The burgeoning folk hero will next attempt the second leg of the Triple Crown, Saturday's GI Preakness S. at Pimlico.

Rock Hard Ten Breezes at Churchill

Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) was up and at 'em early at Churchill yesterday, breezing five furlongs in 1:00 flat shortly after the track opened at 5:15 a.m. Providing he comes out of the work in good order, the big colt will ship to Pimlico Wednesday with an eye on the Preakness. "We're pretty excited about getting to run now," said trainer Jason Orman, whose charge was left out of the Derby because of a lack of graded earnings. "We're putting everything behind us and, hopefully, things will work out for the best. I don't know if he can beat those horses, but I think he can compete with them." Cont. p2

Borrego Brilliant in Work

Trainer Beau Greely's Borrego (El Prado {Ire}), 10th in the Kentucky Derby, looked especially sharp in his final tune-up for the Preakness S., sizzling through four panels at Churchill Downs yesterday in :46 flat. The work was easily the quickest of 53 moves at the distance and bested the next-fastest horse by a full second. The blistering time didn't dismay Greely, who watched on from the Clubhouse. "The horse worked well," said Greely. "I just wanted to go a nice, easy half mile with him and gallop out five eighths. It looked like he was striding out and did it nice and easy, so I think it was pretty much just what we were looking for."

Passing the Bar

Mike Pegram's Preachinathebar (Silver Charm), withdrawn from Derby consideration after trainer Bob Baffert was unsatisfied with pre-race works, seems to have snapped out of his funk with a sharp five-furlong move at Churchill yesterday in :57 4/5. Working with stablemate Determined, the gray bounded clear through the lane under exercise rider John Burns, recording the fastest work of 32 at the distance. Determined was second-fastest on the day with a final time of :59 flat. Assistant trainer John Good said the colt would fly to Baltimore Wednesday. Across the country, trainer Kristen Mulhall's Imperialism (Langfuhr) worked a maintenance three furlongs in :35 4/5, the second fastest of 20 works at the distance. Owner Steve Taub said the colt, who was one of few horses in the Derby to make up ground when a fast-closing third to Smarty Jones and Lion Heart, would most likely ship to Maryland today.

Simple Arithmetic

Vincent Papandrea's Preakness hopeful Little Matth Man (Matty G) earned the bullet yesterday at Philadelphia Park, zipping through four furlongs in :47 flat. It was the best of eight works at the distance. "He was awesome out there today," exclaimed trainer Marty Ciresa. "He was really sharp and needed the work. I had him going three-eighths in :34 and change, the half in :46 4/5, and :59 2/5 for five-eighths. He was still going at a good clip galloping out. This is a deep track, and you're really working when you go :47 here." Little Matth Man, winner of the Whirlaway S. at Aqueduct in February, will run in new shoes for the Preakness: three glued on and one nailed on.

Saturday, Pimlico

PIMLICO SPECIAL-GI, $500,000, 4yo/up, 1 3/16m

Midway Road (Jade Hunter) arrived at Pimlico yesterday morning. The four-year-old, second in last year's GI Preakness S., had his final prep for the Special Sunday, going a half in a brisk :46 1/5 at Churchill Downs. Trainer Neil Howard was looking for a slightly slower breeze. "He does that anyway, but things are never going to go prefect," Howard said.

Evening Attire (Black Tie Affair {Ire}) prepped for the race yesterday with a half-mile in :49 on the Belmont main track. "We will show up Thursday or Friday ready to run," trainer Pat Kelly said.

Two Special runners, Dynever (Dynaformer) and Bowman's Band (Dixieland Band) are scheduled to work today. "We will breeze him [Tuesday], travel on Wednesday and take our shot against some tough horses Friday," said Allen Jerkens, who trains Bowman's Band. He added, "There's nothing not to like about how he's been training." Dynever will ship from Belmont to Maryland Friday morning.

14	8	Airwave (GB)	Air Express (Ire)	Candy	125

Airwave will attempt to begin 2004 in the same vein as last year as she encounters a deep field for today's G2 Duke of York S. on the Knavesmire. There were few more visually impressive performances last season than her demolition job in the G2 Temple S. at Sandown on her sophomore bow in May, but surprisingly that was to prove her only success of the campaign. However, she remained one of the season's top sprinters by finishing runner-up to Choisir (Aus) in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot in June and third behind Oasis Dream (GB) and that rival in the G1 July Cup the following month. Her best days may have already been behind her when subsequently third to Somnus (GB) in the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and sixth in the G2 Diadem S. at Ascot in September, before trailing in 11th in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp the following month. She starts here unpenalised for those defeats and bids to become the third filly to win this since 1998. Arakan steps up after beating subsequent G3 Palace House S. winner Frizzante (GB) and Ashdown Express (Ire) in the Listed Abernant S. at Newmarket last time Apr. 15 and remains relatively unexposed at this trip. That also applies to Monsieur Bond (Ire), whose best form is at seven furlongs. He trounced Steenberg (Ire) by seven lengths in a smart renewal of the G3 Gladness S. over that trip at The Curragh last time Apr. 4, but needs to prove his speed dropped back in distance here.

All carry 120 pounds.

This Epsom Oaks trial should be a penalty kick for Punctilious, who bids to provide Godolphin with their third renewal since opening the scoring in 1998. Trained by Michael Jarvis last term, she left no doubt she was out of the top drawer with easy successes in a Yarmouth maiden in July and conditions event at Salisbury in September. She beat subsequent G1 Racing Post Trophy runner-up Fantastic View in the latter contest despite carrying a penalty, before finding only Red Bloom (GB) and Sundrop (Jpn) too strong in the G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot at the end of the month. Glen Innes, who suffered a troubled trip when runner-up to Shady Reflection in the Listed Swinley S. at Ascot last time Apr. 28, should fill the exacta.

10	2	Siberian Highness (Fr)	Highest Honor (Fr)	Toux

All carry 121 pounds.

Diamond Tango is one of the least experienced of these fillies out to book their places in the line-up for the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes (French Oaks) at Chantilly June 13. Nevertheless, she looked to have a future when scoring on her debut at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 20 and hails from an Andre Fabre stable hitting its peak. Pink Palace hails from a stable with a line to some of France's best fillies in Listed Prix Imprudence scorer Onda Nova. She is on a three-timer, having collected conditions events at this track Mar. 4 and Longchamp last time Apr. 1. Previews cont. p4

Andean has been given the go-ahead to contest this Derby trial by conditioner David Loder, having impressed when winning a Yarmouth maiden last time Apr. 12. He is without a jockey at present, as provisional booking Kieren Fallon has switched to Sir Michael Stoute's North Light (Ire) (Danehill), scratched from Saturday's G3 Lingfield Derby Trial due to the soft ground. "He's very well and we're very happy with him," Loder commented. "It's been stop start in the last few weeks because of the ground and I think he's got it all to prove at the moment, but he's obviously a horse we like a lot. He did the job very well at Yarmouth."

Heart's Cry, looking to rebound from a 14th-place effort in the G1 Satsuki Sho, put himself into contention for the May 30 G1 Japanese Derby with his win here. Last early, the bay colt showed a powerful late kick and inched clear late. "I tried to let him relax through the race," said winning jockey Katsumi Ando. "As I asked him, he quickend so gamely. I knew we would win 100 meters out."

What a difference a few months can make. In April 1999, John McEnery sent his Last Tycoon mare Manfath to Titus Livius, a stallion who commanded a fee of only IR4,000 guineas. There was nothing unusual in this, as Manfath had cost only 4,200 guineas at the end of 1994 and had subsequently made three visits to low-priced stallions at the McEnery family's Rossenarra Stud.

However, one of those visits--to Petardia, who stood at Ir£2,500--produced The Deputy, a colt who found unexpected fame after his transfer from England to the USA in the fall of 1999. Racing for Team Valor, Manfath's son did so well that he started second favorite behind Fusaichi Pegasus in the Kentucky Derby, having won the GII Santa Catalina S. and GI Santa Anita Derby along the road to Churchill Downs. Unfortunately, The Deputy's disappointing Derby effort proved to be his final appearance and he is now based at Margaux Farm at Midway.

By the time The Deputy won the Santa Anita Derby, Manfath had been purchased by Barry Irwin, of Team Valor, and the owners of Margaux Farm. After Manfath had produced a filly to her Titus Livius mating, her new owners took the gamble of sending her to an entirely different class of stallion in Kingmambo, whose services were priced at $75,000 in 2000 (up from $45,000 in 1999). Manfath appears to have changed hands once again soon afterwards, as her Kingmambo colt was born in Japan for Northern Farm. Named King Kamehameha, the colt is busily proving that Manfath was more than worthy of a visit to a stallion as good as Kingmambo.

Having recorded his fourth win in his first five starts when he took the G3 Mainichi Hai over a mile and a quarter in March, King Kamehameha was very impressive in taking the G1 NHK Mile Cup in very fast time two days ago. He came home five lengths ahead of Cosmo Sunbeam, with Meisho Bowler nearly two lengths further back in third. Bearing in mind that Cosmo Sunbeam had topped last year's Japanese two-year-old classifications, with Meisho Bowler in second position, it probably isn't too fanciful to wonder whether King Kamehameha will follow in the footsteps of El Condor Pasa, another Kingmambo colt who won the NHK Mile in 1998. This colt was one of the first to highlight the tremendous progress being made by the Japanese Thoroughbred, thanks to his victories in the Japan Cup and Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and his outstanding second to Montjeu in the Arc.

King Kamehameha's win was part of a fine weekend for Kingmambo's three-year-olds. Illustrious Miss took the G3 Totesport Chartwell Fillies' S. in excellent style on only her second start and the very well-connected Akarem won on his second start at Leopardstown. Akarem had finished third on his debut behind another Kingmambo colt, Book of Kings, who may tackle the G2 Prix Greffuhle next Sunday. The Lane's End stallion's other winning three-year-olds include Destination Dubai, the French filly Miss Mambo, Ershaad, Erewhon, Mambo Slew (Blue Norther S.) and Mambo Train (Turf Paradise Derby). Add these to his 2003 two-year-old Listed winners King Hesperus and Rule of Law and we have the makings of an impressive crop. Cont. p7

Whatever Kingmambo's 2001 crop achieves, it is fair to expect even better from his future crops. His fee jumped from $75,000 to $175,000 in 2001, following the Grade I-winning exploits of Lemon Drop Kid, King's Best, Bluemamba and Okawango in 2000, and then to $200,000 in 2002 and 2003 before reaching today's level of $225,000.

It is going to be interesting to see whether there is any major change in the division of Kingmambo's stock between dirt and turf. King Kamehameha is his 10th Group/Grade 1 winner from his first seven crops and he is the ninth to do his winning at the top level on turf. This bias isn't too surprising in view of the fact that the broodmare sires of the nine turf Group 1 winners include Sadler's Wells, Kris, Nijinsky, Lombard, Danzig, Ahonoora, Alleged and Last Tycoon. The one exception, Lemon Drop Kid, is out of a Seattle Slew mare. I would have thought that Kingmambo, as a son of Mr. Prospector, should have no difficulty in siring more top-level dirt performers given more mares from a solid dirt background.

Another question which may need addressing more promptly is whether King Kamehameha will prove versatile enough to win the Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby), which has been mentioned as a possible target for him. You would instantly say that he would struggle over a mile and a half, judging solely on the fact that neither Kingmambo nor the colt's broodmare sire Last Tycoon was ever asked to tackle more than a mile. Indeed, Last Tycoon had never ventured beyond six furlongs prior to his victory in the 1986 Breeders' Cup Mile. However, Last Tycoon's stoutly bred dam came from a family which had produced three Derby winners in Ireland and/or France, so he was bound to sire horses which stayed much better than he did. This he did, with such as Taipan, Marju, Mahogany and Ezzoud to his credit.

King Kamehameha's dam Manfath stayed well (although not well enough to win) and she was campaigned at up to two miles. She passed on a degree of that stamina to The Deputy, whose sire never won beyond seven furlongs, and King Kamehameha has already shown that he too stays further than his sire. Manfath's dam, the mile-and-a-quarter stakes winner Pilot Bird, was bred to stay well as a daughter of Blakeney, a Derby winner who went on to be second in the Ascot Gold Cup over two and a half miles. The Japanese colt's third dam, The Dancer, was third in the G1 Oaks. The Dancer was also a sister to Kazadancoa, dam of the graded winners Jacodra, Jacodra's Devil and Changing Ways, as well as being the second dam of the Kentucky Derby runner-up Tejano Run. Another of The Dancer's half-sisters, Beaming Bride, also excelled as a broodmare in the USA, producing Simply Majestic, Alwuhush and Husband. Perhaps the most relevant of these is Alwuhush, a triple Grade 1 winner at up to a mile and a half who was by Nureyev, the broodmare sire of Kingmambo.

For good measure, King Kamehameha's fourth dam Khazaeen was a half-sister to Runaway Bride, the dam of Blushing Groom, so he will have plenty of appeal as a stallion if--as seems likely--he builds on his already impressive record.

Azeri Aces Churchill Work:

Returning to the worktab for the first time since her narrow defeat to Mayo on the Side in the GI Humana Distaff on the Derby undercard, 2002 Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter) breezed four furlongs in :47 1/5 at Churchill Downs yesterday morning. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas, who previously indicated the May 31 GI Metropolitan H. as a potential target, also listed the June 19 GI Ogden Phipps at Belmont and June 12 GII Fleur de Lis at Churchill as possible races.

Fire Slam and Cuvee Face off in Riva Ridge:

Fire Slam (Grand Slam) and Cuvee (Carson City), first and second, respectively, in Saturday's Matt Winn S. at Churchill Downs, are likely to meet again in the GII Riva Ridge S. at Belmont Park June 5. According to the connections of both horses, the colts exited the race in good form and will be targeted toward the seven-furlong test on the Belmont S. undercard. "I was trying to get a race in him for [the Riva Ridge] and we got one," said Cuvee's trainer Steve Asmussen, explaining the Grade I winner's comeback effort following surgery to remove ankle chips earlier this year. "I'm sure glad that we've got a little time to prepare for it."

Hollywood Park to Irvine?:

According to published reports, Churchill Downs is considering moving Hollywood Park, currently located in Inglewood, California, to Irvine. The desire to move the facility from a depressed neighborhood into a more upscale location is cited as the primary reason. Churchill Downs has not confirmed the change of venue, however, it is reported that the company is seeking to buy over 200 acres of the 4,700-acre El Toro Marine Corps Air Station. Irvine purchased the base in January and is set to be sold as part of a U.S. Navy auction. Proceeds from the sale of Hollywood Park would be used to purchase the new tract.

Whitney Pledges Additional $50,000 to TRF Secretariat Center:

Mary Lou Whitney has donated an additional $50,000 to help fund the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation's TRF Secretariat Center at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, Kentucky. The donation comes just one year after Whitney gave $100,000 to build the barn at the center, which has been named in honor of her and her husband John Hendrickson. Whitney announced the most recent donation at a May 5 fundraiser at the center, which is expected to welcome its first horses in mid-June. Mrs. Whitney donated the money to cover sponsorship of two stalls within the barn, one that will be named in honor of trainer Nick Zito and his wife Kim and the other for longtime Daily Racing Form columnist Joe Hirsch. "My husband, John Hendrickson, and I believe it is the responsibility of every horse owner to ensure that our Thoroughbreds have a good home from the beginning to the end," Whitney said. Said TRF Executive Director Diana Pikulski, "I'm not sure I can properly put into words how grateful we at the TRF are for Mrs. Whitney's generosity. After making such a large donation in the first place, she went above and beyond the call of duty. But that's Mrs. Whitney, someone who has always cared deeply for the welfare of not just her horses, but all horses. She has been a supporter of the TRF since its inception." Each one will be suitable for retraining and adoption. Founded in 1983, the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation is the largest and oldest equine rescue organization in the world.

He came under pressure as Ancient World made a renewed effort at the quarter-mile marker but retained enough in reserve to repel that challenge with 100 yards remaining and he ran on resolutely to the wire thereafter to defy the Godolphin hope in cozy style.

ALLAN TO RETIRE

Top Hong Kong trainer Ivan Allan, who has conditioned six Horse of the Year winners since arriving in Hong Kong just 12 years ago, announced his retirement from training at the conclusion of the current season, which wraps up on June 20, reports the Thoroughbred Times. Allan cited the poor health of his mother as the primary consideration in his decision. "My 84-year-old mother has not been keeping good health and I have had to make frequent visits to our home in Singapore," Allan told the Times. "Although this has not affected my training performance, it is not fair to my owners as I have been unable to give their horses my undivided attention. Even though I have doctors and nurses looking after my mother, my presence gives her assurance and uplifts her mood and health." A three-time champion trainer in Hong Kong, Allan conditioned Fairy King Prawn (Aus) to consecutive Horse of the Year honors in 2000 and '01 and sent out the multi-millionaire to a hard-fought second in the 2001 renewal of the GII Dubai Duty Free at Nad Al Sheba. Prior to his fantastic run in Hong Kong, Allan was a successful trainer in Malaysia and Singapore, where he was named champion trainer seven times by the two countries racing body, the Malayan Racing Association. Though Allan will no longer be calling the shots from the backstretch, his days in horse racing are not over. "My plan is to be very involved in horse racing as an owner and breeder in the major jurisdictions around the world. As an owner, I'm going to make some trainer's life a nightmare," quipped the trainer.
