ISN'T THAT SPECIAL

An exceptional group of horses has been assembled for this afternoon's GI Pimlico Special. Three are already Grade I winners, four are millionaires and all have earned Beyer Speed figures of 109 or better. So who is the best of the bunch? Southern Image (Halo's Image) is the most lightly raced, but, beaten just once in six tries, he is arguably the most accomplished. The four-year-old ended 2003 with a head victory in the seven-furlong GI Malibu S., came back to make it two in a row in the nine-furlong Sunshine Millions Classic and made it three straight in the Mar. 6 GI Santa Anita H.

at a mile and a quarter. "If he has a knock at all, it's he's a real excitable horse, that's my biggest thing with him," trainer Mike Machowsky told Daily Racing Form.

"He's not a nervous horse, he's just aggressive." But can he take his act on the road? While Southern Image will be racing outside Southern California for the first time, Dynever (Dynaformer) has shown an affinity for travel. Last year, the four-year-old handled racetracks as diverse as Gulfstream, Lone Star, Meadowlands, Mountaineer and Santa Anita, winning the Aventura S. and Gill Lone Star Derby, running second in the Gill West Virginia Derby and Gill Meadowlands Cup and ending the season with a third in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

Dynever Horsephotos

After wintering at Payson Park, the dark bay colt flew to Santa Anita and cruised to a 4 1/2-length score in the Apr. 3 Gill San Bernardino H. "If we can repeat that performance, I'd be pretty happy," trainer Christophe Clement told DRF. Trainer Barclay Tagg will be happy if Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) can duplicate his effort from his last trip to Pimlico. The New York-bred powered to a 9 1/4-length win in the 2003 GI Preakness. Third in both the Feb. 7 GI Donn H. and Feb. 29 Gill New Orleans H., he comes off a half-length tally over Evening Attire (Black Tie Affair {Ire}) in the Apr. 3 Gill Excelsior Breeders' Cup H. Pimlico Special field, p2

UNBEATEN LORD DU SUD WINS HOCQUART

Lord du Sud (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) stepped from the shadow of stable companion Fast And Furious (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}) to win yesterday's G2 Prix Hocquart at Longchamp. The colt will now carry an unbeaten record into the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 6. Rising to prominence after a low-key start in the provinces, Lord du Sud followed a conditions tally at Toulouse Mar. 15 with another at Saint-Cloud Apr. 9. A 5-1 chance in his first stakes try, the grey was settled in a stalking third early and inherited the lead when long-time leader Malevitch (Ire) (Exit to Nowhere) drifted left under pressure at the quarter pole. He had first run on Prospect Park (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and held on to beat that rival by 3/4 of a length. "We built up his program slowly to see if he was fit to run against the best," commented conditioner Jean-Claude Rouget. "He won very nicely. We knew there was not much difference between him and Fast and Furious, who unfortunately refused to race in the straight. Lord du Sud has booked his ticket for the Jockey-Club and Fast and Furious may go there in blinkers." Fast and Furious tracked the early pace before tiring down the straight to be last of six. Yearly Report suffered her only loss in four career starts to the talented Silent Sighs in the California Breeders' Championship last December, but has since recorded back-to-back stakes scores. The Golden Eagle homebred filly came from off the pace to defeat fellow Cal-bred House of Fortune by four lengths in the GII Santa Ynez S. Jan. 19 and most recently returned from a three-month absence to win the restricted Melair S. by four lengths Apr. 24. Jerry Bailey, aboard for the Santa Ynez win, gets the return call. The home team is headed by Pawyne Princess, who comes into this off a neck defeat at the hands of Preakness hopeful Water Cannon in the Apr. 17 Federico Tesio S. over track and trip. Prior to that effort, the 3/4 sister to stakes winner Scottish Halo defeated her peers by 13 lengths in a 1 1/16-mile allowance test Mar. 31 and looks primed for her graded-stakes debut.

Millenary pounced late to provide John Dunlop with his second Yorkshire Cup win. Reined back in rear off honest early fractions, he made smooth progress as they approached the quarter pole, then quickened alongside Alcazar and had too much acceleration for that rival, pulling clear for an emphatic score. Like the trainer's 1988 victor Moon Madness (GB), the ever-green Arundel stalwart has held his form admirably since winning the G1 St Leger at three. In his 19 races since, all at group level, he has been out of the first three only five times while winning two renewals of the G2 Princess of Wales's S. and the G2 Jockey Club S. Bouncing back from a well-beaten third in the G3 Sagaro S. at Ascot Apr. 28, the seven-year-old became the oldest horse to win this prestigious contest. "That was a nice smooth performance and a nice bit of confidence for him after that run at Ascot on atrocious ground," Quinn said. "He practically won on the bridle." Mister Sacha made a winning debut at Angers Mar. 22 before following up in a conditions event at Maisons-Laffitte last time Apr. 16. Ridden with restraint by Iloritz Mendizabal off this even tempo, the imposing colt had five rivals to pass at the quarter-mile marker. Given two slaps with the whip there, he quickened in impressive fashion to grab the lead with 150 yards remaining and surged clear for a facile success. "He's a real nice horse who can really quicken," commented conditioner Jean-Claude Rouget. "You always have doubts when they step up against strong opposition but he's done it in good style, despite showing greenness. All being well, he will go for the G1 Prix Jean Prat [at Chantilly June 6]." Click for the racingpost.co.uk race chart.

A BREEDERS' CUP FOR THE GARDEN STATE?

Representatives of the Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships management spent five hours touring Monmouth Park yesterday. The track, located in Oceanport, New Jersey, is under consideration as the host of the 2007 Breeders' Cup. "It was a very thorough tour and the subsequent meeting proved productive," said Bruce Garland, the senior executive vice president of racing for the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority, which runs Monmouth and the Meadowlands.

Angelic Aura was haltered for $50,000 out of a winning effort at Gulfstream in February of 2003 and has paid solid dividends, winning three of his next seven, including a tally in the Princeton S. at the Meadowlands and a third in the Gill Jersey Derby. The chestnut was third in a NW4X in his seasonal debut at Aqueduct Feb. 13 and came back to romp in a 1 5/16-mile starter allowance on the Wood Memorial undercard Apr. 10. Here, he raced with the pace from the two path, scampered clear by five lengths in upper stretch and was never threatened by even-money chalk Ground Storm, who closed to be second. Each horse in the trifecta was entered for a $100,000 tag.

Aventura Place filled the show spot in his last two, including a non-threatening effort to Kissin Saint and Rogue Agent in a trip-and-track allowance event Apr. 7. The Vegso homebred, under jockey John Velazquez, was well-placed stalking the leaders before tackling heavily favored Rogue Agent with an eighth to run. The latter gave way grudgingly, but Aventura Place would not be denied the upset.

WAR TRACE (c, 3, Storm Cat--Memories of Silver {GISW, $1,448,715}, by Silver Hawk) was unimpressive in a pair of main-track races this past winter, then, following a stumbling start, showed an eye-catching turn of foot to blow past 'em all through the lane when breaking his maiden in his turf and route debut at Gulfstream on St. Pat's day. Biting off a bit more than he could chew in the nine-furlong Forerunner S. over Keeneland's sod in his next Apr. 15, the well-bred Phillips homebred trailed home seventh and was given an easier spot to regroup here. The crowd's slight 5-2 second choice rallied to the fore turning for home and was under a stiff drive to account for favored Inducement (Danzig) by half a length. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-0, $47,238.

BALUSTRAD (c, 4, Green Dancer--Maria Balastiere {SW, $102,752}, by Majestic Light), a two-length winner against entry-level allowance foes on Churchill's lawn last November, ran a listless sixth when stepped up to this level at Gulfstream Jan. 3 and was offered a five-month breather. Sent off the 2-1 second choice when heavily favored Mighty Military (Military) was forced to scratch after rearing up in the gate, Balustrade began picking off foes with a wide move on the turn. Kept to a steady drive, he hit the front a furlong out and raced under the line 1 3/4 lengths clear of game but tiring pace factor Shake the Bank (Sandpit {Brz}). Lifetime Record: 7-3-0-0, $90,220.

A Group 3 winner in Britain at three, King of Happiness ran into Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) in his next two starts and failed to hit the board. He rebounded to be second by a nose in the G3 Criterion S. at Newmarket that June, but disappeared after that effort, returning to be a tired ninth in the 2003 G1 Dubai Duty Free H. Third in a pair of Group 3 events in Britain last June, the chestnut showed little in two tries in August and was sent across the Atlantic. King of Happiness opened his U.S. account with a close-up third in an optional claimer at Santa Anita Jan. 29, came back to win on Valentine's Day and was last seen running second by 3/4 of a length to subsequent GIII Inglewood H. winner Lesroidesanimaux Mar. 20. The crowd's choice after the brief vacation, the five-year-old shadowed Captain Squire to the stretch, then put the pacesetter away with just a tap of the whip to win going away.

BHB TWEAK TRIPLE CROWN

Peter Savill yesterday unveiled the changes made to the British Horseracing Board's Summer Triple Crown initiative, inaugurated in 2003. Dropping the "Grand Slam" component of the series, the BHB will instead offer the £1-million bonus to horses successful in three of the four legs outlined. They will be made up of Epsom's G1 Coronation Cup and G1 Oaks June 4, G1 Derby June 5, and Royal Ascot's G1 Prince of Wales's S. June 16, constituting the first leg; the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown July 3 which will form the second leg; Ascot's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. July 24 as the third; and will end with the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York Aug. 17. The Middle Distance Championship, which operates on a points system and was won last year by Falbrav (Ire), will co-exist with the new version of the Summer Triple Crown in 2004 and will offer a prize of £100,000. "The 2003 Summer Triple Crown initiative was a great success, achieving its objectives of encouraging British-trained horses to race in Britain rather than abroad and in assisting the development of a clearer narrative across the British Flat racing season," Savill said yesterday. "We hope that the £1-million prize coupled with the improved format will encourage even more owners and trainers to target the BHB Summer Triple Crown and we are confident that it will further increase racegoing attendance and media coverage. The views of many people have been taken into account, just as we promised, and I am convinced that the BHB Summer Triple Crown series will go from strength to strength."

BHB SITE OFFERS VIDEO REPLAYS

The British Horseracing Board has unveiled a new section to its website (www.britishhorseracing.com) which will allow fans to watch replays of Britain's Group 1 races. Footage of the UltimateBet.com 2000 and 1000 Guineas is available free of charge now. The section also features race backgrounds, racecards, race reviews and race results. BHB Bloodstock Marketing Executive Caley Wilson said, "Britain is the home of many of the world's most prestigious races and, through the power of the internet, we are pleased to be able to showcase the Best of British to a truly international audience."  Also Ran: Fort Dignity.

Day Flight emerged as another Derby contender with a scintillating performance in this trial. Unraced until powering away with a Salisbury maiden on his debut May 2, he took this stepping stone in his exuberant stride, stalking the early pace under Richard Hughes before taking command with a half mile remaining. From there the result was never in doubt as he raced further clear of his struggling rivals, which included the disappointing Fort Dignity (Seeking the Gold), despite exhibiting signs of greenness. "I was a bit worried at the start, as he didn't go down as well as I would have liked and was a bit cold backed, but the canter did him good," Hughes explained. "Once he's racing, he's a different horse." Conditioner John Gosden saddled Tamure (Ire) to take this in 1995 en route to finishing runner-up in the Epsom Classic, but that is not currently on the agenda for Day Flight, who would need supplementing. "At the moment the plan is to sidestep Epsom," he said. "Prince Khalid has American Post in that race and I have Percussionist, but Day Flight was very impressive and we will aim him at the G2 King Edward VII S. [at Royal Ascot June 18] or G1 Irish Derby [at The Curragh June 27]. However, we'll have to discuss it and things could change."

The 11-8 pick, who holds an entry in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 4, lengthened clear inside the final three furlongs before being heavily eased to allow Anna Pallida (GB) (Sadler's Wells) back to within a head at the line. The winner is a half brother to Trade Fair (GB) (Zafonic, GSW & G1SP-Eng, $171,759). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £7,385. O-Khalid Abdullah; B-Juddmonte Farms; T-Roger Charlton.
