THE PHILLY PHANATIC

The 'real' Philly Phanatic holds fort at Citizens Bank Park, is green and furry and torments unsuspecting baseball fans with his long snoot. Smarty Jones (Evasive Quality) is neither green nor fuzzy, but the

Smarty Jones Horsephotos

'phanaticism' surrounding the photogenic colt could continue to grow should he cross the line first in this afternoon's 129th running of the GI Preakness S. at Pimlico Race Course. With yesterday's scratch of The Cliff's Edge (Gulch) (see p9), a field of 10 will go postward in the 9 1/2-furlong event, including four of Smarty Jones' vanquished foes from the Kentucky Derby, two which tried to run for the roses and three other newcomers to the Triple Crown. But they've all got to answer to the Derby winner, who has a chance to become the sixth horse in the last eight years to go on to the Belmont with a shot at a sweep of the demanding three-race series. Undefeated and never seriously threatened in his seven trips to the post, Smarty Jones has taken the last two weeks very much in stride, playing to sellout audiences on the frontside and the backstretch at Philadelphia Park. However, trainer John Servis is trying to buck tradition. In the previous 128 runnings of the Preakness, never has the winner gone without a published workout in the fortnight leading up to the race. But it's all moot, according to the conditioner. "The most important thing now is that he's a happy horse," Servis said yesterday, adding this warning. "For anyone to beat him, they will really have to run. While I haven't let him do that much the last two weeks, I have seen enough to know he's ready to roll." Who better to stop that roll than Derby runner-up Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat), who will look to take the race to the favorite from the one hole. "It's the shortest way from point A to point B," trainer Patrick Biancone explained. (cont. p2)

ANOTHER SPECIAL PERFORMANCE

While top handicappers Pleasantly Perfect and Medaglia d'Oro continue to recover from their Dubai exploits, Southern Image (Halo's Image) continued his ascent toward the head of the class with a hard-fought success in yesterday's GI Pimlico Special H. at Old Hilltop. In recording the third Grade I victory of his career, the Florida-bred defeated last year's Preakness runner-up Midway Road (Jade Hunter) by a length and a tail. Preakness winner Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) was declared from the race Thursday by trainer Barclay Tagg (see p9). Following his win in the GI Malibu S. Dec. 26, Southern Image took the Sunshine Millions Classic Jan. 24 and made it two consecutive triumphs in million-dollar races with a 1 1/4-length tally in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 6. Prompting the pace of Midway Road throughout, Southern Image bid outside that rival turning for home and inched clear late. "That was quite a stretch duel," admitted winning rider Victor Espinoza. "I didn't know when we would go by, but I had confidence we would." Dynever (Dynaformer), favored at 17-10, struggled with the surface and finished fifth. Click for the brisnet.com chart. The Understudies...

Jockey Gary Stevens thinks so highly of the chances of Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) that he has made the trans-Atlantic journey to pilot the imposing dark bay this afternoon. Second, but disqualified to third in the GI Santa Anita Derby, the colt was excluded from the Derby due to a lack of graded-stakes earnings. He has thrived in Baltimore, and connections are looking to this as his proving ground. "He's still learning what racing is all about," said trainer Jason Orman. "And it's time to take another test." Eddington (Unbridled), also unable to go in the Derby, has never been off the board in his career and was most recently third in the GI Wood Memorial Apr. 10. Trainer Mark Hennig has tabbed Jerry Bailey to ride the striking chestnut, who carries the gold and purple diamonds of Willmott Stables.

After much deliberation, Steve Taub's Kentucky Derby third-place getter Imperialism (Langfuhr) will see if he can turn the tables on Smarty Jones. Well back in the early stages of the Derby, the grey colt stayed on best of all to complete the trifecta. Borrego (El Prado {Ire}), second in the GII Louisiana Derby and the GII Arkansas Derby, reportedly did not handle the sloppy Churchill surface and could do no better than 10th. But the chestnut turned in a best-of-46 half mile May 10 in :46 beneath the Twin Spires and is versatile enough to race close to a slow pace or well off a fast one. Water Cannon (Waquoit) is trained by Linda Albert, who sent out Magic Weisner to a second-place finish behind War Emblem in the 2002 Preakness. The lone gelding in the field, the grey carries a five-race winning skein into this, including the Federico Tesio S. at this track Apr. 17.

Yearly Report, one of a trio of extremely talented California-bred fillies this season, got a three-wide trip beneath Jerry Bailey and ground out a 1 1/2-length victory in the Gill Black-Eyed Susan S. A first-out maiden winner versus state-breds at Hollywood Nov. 29, the bay was second to Silent Sighs in the Cal Breeders' Champion S. Dec. 27 before scoring a four-length victory in the Jan. 19 Gill Santa Ynez S. Having missed the GI Santa Anita Oaks in March, the homebred got back to work with an easy four-length victory in the Apr. 24 Melair S. at Hollypark and was odds-on in this spot. Never far from the front, Yearly Report drew alongside Rare Gift at the eighth pole and held sway late. Pawyne Princess ran on gamely for the place spot. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Also Ran: Forestier, Preach It, Areek, Baldomera, A Case of Class, Ruthless Babe. DNF: Perilous Night, Among My Souvenirs.

A $325,000 FTFEB juvenile, Forest Music looked worth every nickle when breaking her maiden by 8 1/2 lengths in her debut at Laurel last October. But she was tossed in the deep end next time out, trying two turns for the first time in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, and exposed that plan as folly when she tired to finish last, 42 lengths behind Halfbridled. Turned back to six furlongs for the Nov. 23 Gill Valley Stream S. at Aqueduct, she was bet down to even-money, but tired in the stretch to finish fifth and ended the year running third behind Stephan's Angel in the Dec. 12 Mom's Command S. at the Big A. Forest Music showed only one published work for her 2004 bow, but proved ready. Trying new tactics, she rated off a fast pace, put a head in front in the stretch and held on to take the photo. The race was marred when undefeated Among My Souvenirs (Souvenir Copy) broke down and fell at the eighth pole. Perilous Night (Coronado's Quest) clipped heels and also fell, but appeared to be unhurt. Among My Souvenirs was vanned to the backstretch with a severe dislocation of the right front ankle. Jockeys Mario Pino and Jozbin Santana escaped injury. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Friel's For Real proved that she could take her game to the next level, rallying from off the pace to register her first graded-stakes victory. Off the board just twice and a winner of half of her previous starts, the Gil Campbell homebred took a pair of optional claimers at Laurel Park Jan. 8 and Feb. 8 before finishing a good second in the Maryland Racing Media H. Feb. 21. The dark bay turned in an outstanding performance in winning Laurel's Gala Lil S. by a resounding six lengths Mar. 20 and was coming into this off a five-length success versus $75,000 optional claimers going nine panels over the Aqueduct main track Apr. 30. Let go at double digits to run her seasonal record to five out of six, Friel's For Real settled four wide and fairly close to a moderate early pace set by 9-5 favorite Angela's Love (Not For Love). She commenced a rally on the far turn, struck the front in upper stretch and pulled clear late. Saintly Action closed steadily in the final eighth to earn the place spot. "This is for sure an improving filly," commented winning trainer Ned Allard. "Sword Dance progeny just seem to get better with age. I was a little leery about today's race because I was moving back in distance. The rider said the distance was no problem at all." The winner was produced from a half sister to GSW Ivanavinalot (West Acre) and MSW Shananie's Beat (Shananie); and a full sister to SW Slick Lady.

Seventh to Derby hopeful Yeats (Ire) in a Curragh maiden last September, Hazarista returned to finish fourth in a Leopardstown maiden Mar. 28. She duly opened her account at Gowran Park last time May 2, but was passed over by Michael Kinane as one of two representatives of His Highness the Aga Khan in this contest. That mistake proved Fran Berry's gain, who settled the filly in mid-division throughout the early stages before asking her to quicken on the turn into the straight. Swooping to pass the longtime leader Felicity with 200 yards remaining, she settled the result in a matter of strides as Cache Creek stayed on at a safe distance. All carry 126 pounds except Russian Rhythm, 123.

In an intriguing clash between last year's Guineas winners, Russian Rhythm and Refuse to Bend will meet for the first time. They are in the best hands as far as this contest is concerned, as the former's trainer Sir Michael Stoute has taken five renewals of the Lockinge, and the latter hails from the Godolphin stable, which has been responsible for three of the last six winners. While Refuse to Bend failed to build on his 3/4-length score over Zafeen (Fr) in the colts' Classic at Newmarket in May, Russian Rhythm used her 1 1/2-length defeat of Six Perfections (Fr) the following afternoon as a springboard to greater things. After triumphs in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot in June and G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood in August, she chased home Falbrav (Ire) at a respectable two-length distance in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. back at Ascot the following month. She may have been feeling the effects of a long season when subsequently fifth in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket in October, but she has strong claims of ending a long drought for fillies in this race. Refuse to Bend, whose only subsequent success came in the G3 Desmond S. at Leopardstown in August, needs to improve on his eighth in the G1 Dubai Duty Free at Nad al Sheba last time Mar. 27, but Racing Manager Simon Crisford is hopeful. "Refuse to Bend is working nicely and we are pleased with him," he said. "We think it's the right thing to do to start him over a mile to kick off his European campaign."

Canadian champion Wando capped his Triple Crown campaign with a 1 1/2-length score in the Breeders' S. at a mile and a half on the grass. The chestnut colt faced older horses in his next start and was not disgraced, finishing fourth while beaten just 2 1/4 lengths in the Sept. 14 G1 Atto Mile. Put on the shelf after tiring to be third in the Oct. 4 GIII Indiana Derby on the main track, the four-year-old returned in an allowance test on the Keeneland turf and led nearly every step before holding on to take it by 3/4 of a length. Herculated, a winner in four of his six grass starts, was a 13-1 outsider in the Mar. 21 GII Mervin Muniz Jr. Memorial H. at Fair Grounds, but just missed, closing to get second. The four-year-old gelding was freshened after that effort and has been training sharply at Arlington Park. Claimed for $100,000 after a win at Saratoga last summer, confirmed frontrunner Warleigh came back to win a pair of stakes at Louisiana Downs, then was second by a half-length to Hard Buck (Brz) in his 2003 finale, the Nov. 16 GIII River City H. at Churchill. The six-year-old was second by a neck in his seasonal debut, the Col. E.R. Bradley H. at Fair Grounds Jan. 3, but was given a break after running sixth in the Jan. 31 Fair Grounds Breeders' Cup H. The chestnut made his return in the Apr. 10 J. B. Connally Breeders' Cup H. and led every step, hanging on to take it by a half length. Silver Tree, winner of the Virginia Derby and fourth in the G1 Hollywood Derby last season, was sent off the 2-1 chalk in the Muniz, but weakened in the lane and finished eighth. He was given a break after that performance and looks to improve with jockey Jerry Bailey back in the irons.

Most effective going one turn, last year's GIII La Troienne S. heroine Final Round was third in a Gulfstream sprint Jan. 11, but was sixth, beaten 13 lengths by Roar Emotion, in the GIII Sabin H. going a route of ground Feb. 15. The bay cut back in distance for her latest and responded with a determined head score in a seven-furlong Keeneland allowance Apr. 8. The latter is winless in two tries since the Sabin, including a third in the Apr. 16 Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland. Storm Flag Flying, champion two-year-old filly of 2002, made just two starts during her sophomore campaign, but returned from an 8 1/2-month hiatus to take a two-turn Gulfstream allowance Feb. 26. The Phipps homebred was most recently a lackluster third in the GII Distaff BC H. at Aqueduct Mar. 27, but is training forwardly for this.

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

POST SET TO DELIVER

Juddmonte Farms' American Post (GB) (Bering {GB}) will face only six rivals in tomorrow's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp as he bids to provide Khalid Abdullah with his first renewal of this Classic. Last year's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and G1 Racing Post Trophy winner was reported in peak condition by his conditioner Crikette Head-Maarek yesterday. "His preparation has gone very well--no problems so far," she told PA Sport, before dismissing fears that the prevailing soft ground may work against him. "I won't be using the ground as an excuse," she continued. "He doesn't mind the ground. He has run on every ground possible and that would not be an excuse for him. The excuse would be if there is a better horse than him in the race." He will have a rematch with Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's Antonius Pius (Danzig), one of two Aidan O'Brien-trained runners; and the Lagardere Family's Diamond Green (Fr) (Green Desert), the first French Classic mount of Gary Stevens. They finished second and fourth, respectively, behind American Post in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau over course and distance last time Apr. 25, before the former was demoted to last place by the stewards. The prospect of a small field and lack of pace is of no concern to Head-Maarek. "He's an easy ride," she said. "You can wait with him if there is enough pace or if there is not enough pace he can lob along. You always have to fear all the horses in a race. You never know what can happen." Richard Hughes will be reunited with the likely favorite after returning from injury.

READY TO RUMBA

Rumba Loca (Ire) (Sri Pekan), the impressive winner of G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) in Rome May 1, faces 12 rivals in her quest for another Classic in tomorrow's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches at Longchamp. Recently purchased by Teruya Yoshida, the Bruno Grizzetti-trained filly was supplemented for the mile Classic earlier in the week and was described as her trainer as having a "realistic chance." Godolphin will be double-handed with Carry on Katie (Fasliyev) and Cairns (UAE) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), sixth and 10th, respectively, in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket last time May 2. Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford yesterday described them as having come out of that Classic in "good shape." Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's Hathrah (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}), third in the Newmarket version, was the most notable withdrawal at the final stage.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

TEN MOST WANTED RETIRED One of the top three-year-olds of 2003, Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander--Wanted Again, by Criminal Type), has been retired after sustaining a ligament injury. Stud plans have not yet been announced. "We will start

Ten Most Wanted & Dollase
Horsephotos

soliciting bids," said trainer Wally Dollase. The four-year-old came home an easy 6 3/4-length winner of the GIII National Jockey Club H. at Hawthorne Apr. 17 in what would be his final career start. "He had such a good trip in his last race in Chicago," Dollase continued. "We don't know that the injury happened then. We thought this would be his best year because of his Deputy Minister [sire] line." A $70,000 FTSAUG yearling and a $145,000 FTFEB two-year-old, the handsome bay rose to national prominence with an impressive tally in the GII Illinois Derby, but had a rough journey when ninth in the GI Kentucky Derby. Second in the GI Belmont, he went on to post victories in the GI Travers S. and the GII Super Derby, a double completed by his sire when trained by Dollase in 1997. Ten Most Wanted endured a troubled trip when fifth as the favorite in the GII New Orleans H. Feb. 29 before returning to the winner's circle at Hawthorne. Owned by a 10-member syndicate headed by J. Paul Reddam, Ten Most Wanted was produced by a half sister to GI Hollywood Gold Cup hero Cutlass Reality.

THE CLIFF'S EDGE OUT OF PREAKNESS Robert La Penta's The Cliff's Edge (Gulch) was officially declared from today's Preakness S. by trainer Nick Zito. The dark bay, who registered his most important victory in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 10, threw two shoes during his fifth-place finish in the Kentucky Derby. He continued to train up until this past Wednesday, when an abscess was discovered in his right front foot. The abscess popped Thursday afternoon. "After it came out, he was acting more like himself [Thursday] afternoon," Zito commented. "But he wasn't the same way [Friday]. I decided to scratch him as soon as I saw him today. It was an easy decision." Zito, who will be represented in the race by GIII Derby Trial winner Sir Shackleton (Miswaki), said that plans call for The Cliff's Edge to run in the Belmont S. in three weeks "if he gets over this."

MIGLIORE INJURED Jockey Richard Migliore, who is scheduled to partner with Little Matth Man (Matty G) in this afternoon's Preakness S., was injured yesterday in a gate incident prior to the fifth race at Belmont Park. The veteran reinsman was aboard Gold Dancer when the filly flipped and threw Migliore. After lying on the ground for a few minutes, the rider was put on a stretcher and was taken by ambulance to North Shore University Hospital. He was complaining of ankle pain. In addition to his Preakness mount, Migliore is also named on Millennium Dragon (GB) in the GII Argent Dixie S., Seattle Fitz (Arg) in the GIII William Donald Schaefer H. and Artie Schiller in the Woodlawn S. Gold Dancer, while scratched from her race, did not appear to be seriously injured.

FUNNY CIDE OUT OF SPECIAL Funny Cide (Distorted Humor), the 2003 Kentucky Derby and Preakness S. winner, was scratched Thursday afternoon from yesterday's GI Pimlico Special H. due to the prevailing hot and humid conditions. "He ran in the heat and humidity in the Haskell last year and that knocked him out for the rest of the year," Jack Knowlton, managing partner of Sackatoga Stable, told The Blood-Horse. "Of course I'm disappointed. We've been pointing to this race all spring." The four-year-old chestnut gelding will now be aimed at the GII Massachusetts H. June 19.

Margins: 3/4, 3 3/4, HD. Odds: 3.70, 1.75, 14.50.

Indian War Dance was claimed for $50,000 after breaking his maiden at Aqueduct Dec. 28 and came right back to win a two-turn allowance over the inner track Feb. 5. He set the pace in the GII Louisiana Derby before stopping badly to finish 10th Mar. 7, and hadn't been seen since running a distant third to Forest Danger in the GIII Bay Shore S. Apr. 10. Allowed to settle into stride at the back of the tightly bunched field, the bay rallied five wide into the stretch, collared favored Smokume in the final furlong and edged ahead late for his first stakes win.

7th-BEL, $48,000, Alw, NW2X, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:41 2/5, ft.

OFFLEE WILD (c, 4, Wild Again--Alvear, by Seattle Slew), third in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. last spring, could do no better than 12th in the GI Kentucky Derby, then went to the bench. The $325,000 KEESEP yearling was off the board against Grade III company in his first two starts back last fall, but ended the season with a promising third-place finish in a Keeneland allowance Oct. 17. The dark bay returned to be second by a head in a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 9, but changed hands after running eighth in the Mar. 13 GIII Skip Away H. Making his first start for trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. here, he settled in fifth through the opening half, closed while racing three wide around the turn and pulled away late to take it by 4 1/2 lengths over Shaniko (A.P. Indy). Mustanfar (Unbridled), the 7-5 chalk, closed some ground late to be third. Lifetime Record: GSW & GISP, 13-3-2-2, $223,825. O-Azalea Stables. B-Dorothy A Matz (KY). T-Richard E Dutrow Jr.

5th-BEL, $46,000, Alw, NW2L, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:44 2/5, ft.

GET SET (f, 3, Rahy--Ready Jet Go {MSW & GISP, $351,271}, by Northjet {Ire}) had not been out since breaking her maiden in a nine-furlong affair at Gulfstream Park Feb. 15. Paired with stablemate Vividly (Touch Gold) as the 5-2 second choice, the bay pressed the pace, took over in the stretch and held Provincial (Pulpit) at bay for a 1 3/4-length score. The filly is a half to Start at Once (Gone West), MGSP, $284,715. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $47,120. O/B-Pin Oak Stable Llc (KY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

3rd-BEL, $43,000, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:24 3/5, ft.

GUIDE (f, 3, Pulpit--Tour {SW, $254,939}, by Forty Niner) a half to Trip (Lord at War {Arg}), MGSW, $888,773; and to Joke (Phone Trick), SW, $121,674, turned in a promising debut at Gulfstream Park Mar. 21, finishing second by 1 1/2 lengths, but faltered to be sixth as the even-money favorite in her latest at Churchill Downs Apr. 24. Part of a three-horse entry favored at 7-5, the homebred filly took up a good stalking position from third, responded when asked for her best and sprinted clear to take it by 9 3/4 lengths over Riviera Mill (Royal Academy). Entry mate Nice Canter (Seeking the Gold) was third. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $31,880. O/B-Claiborne Farm. T-William I Mott.

Brilliant Melody Dead:

Brilliant Melody (Cornish Prince--Pavlova, by Nijinsky II), the dam of graded stakes winners Al's Helen and Straight Man, was euthanized Thursday at Winding Oaks Farm in Ocala, Florida, due to the infirmities of old age. The 25-year-old broodmare had been part of a package purchased by Eugene and Laura Melnyk from William Schettine last fall. Unraced, Brilliant Melody's first foal was Al's Helen, who set a course record of :57 1/5 for five furlongs on the turf at Hollywood

Straight Man
Cindy Mikell/Signature Stallions

Park in 1985. She also won the GIII First Flight H. and earned $220,281. Straight Man, a freshman sire of 2004, captured the GII Winnercomm H. (now the Churchill Downs H.) and was second in the GI Malibu S. He earned $333,304. The mare's last two foals are an unnamed two-year-old colt by Saint Ballado and an unnamed yearling filly by Capote.

Salmonella Outbreak Closes New Bolton:

The George D. Widener Hospital for Large Animals at the University of Pennsylvania's New Bolton Center was closed Monday after an outbreak of a multi-drug resistant strain of Salmonella was discovered. The outbreak has resulted in an undisclosed number of equine fatalities. The bacteria attacks the digestive system and can cause a number of diseases. It is usually spread through contaminated feed or water. The hospital will be closed for six to eight weeks so that the barns and clinic buildings can be decontaminated. It will be reopened after a bio-security program is instituted.

INTRINSIC WORTH (c, 3, Red Ransom--Valid Affect {SW & GSP, $181,607}, by Valid Appeal) was freshened up following a six-furlong allowance score at Fair Grounds on Groundhog Day and returned two months later to surprise Keeneland allowance foes at 9-1 Apr. 2. Way out of it early as favored Danieltown (Pioneering) freewheeled through fractions of :21.56 and :43.81, the bay went to the outside for running room in the stretch and got up by 3/4 of a length. Danieltown tired to finish fourth, beaten two lengths. Lifetime Record: 9-4-0-3, $110,772.

Elliott Fined $1,000:

Jockey Stewart Elliott has been fined $1,000 for failing to disclose that he had been convicted of a crime on his application to ride in the May 1 GI Kentucky Derby. In 2001, Elliott pleaded guilty to assaulting Alexander Kovakik at his home on New Jersey and was sentenced to a year's probation and ordered to pay the man's medical bills, which came to $13,900. The fine will not effect the outcome of the Derby, or Elliott's eligibility to ride in the Preakness.

Fee Change for Breeders' Cup Stallions?

The Breeders' Cup could begin basing stallion nomination fees on the size of the stallion's book, The Blood-Horse reports. Currently, an owner is charged one year's stud fee in order to maintain Breeders' Cup eligibility, but a committee has reviewed the matter over the past 12 months and has recommended that stallions breeding to 90 mares or less per year be charged one year's stud fee, but that there be a surcharge for each mare over 90. There would be a cap to the fee. "The board of directors approved in principle that there should be a change to the rule to take into account the disparity of book sizes," Breeders' Cup President D.G. Van Clief Jr. told The Blood-Horse. A rule change could be made at the Breeders' Cup's June meeting.

this week and will miss the remainder of the breeding season, according to Racing Post. The seven-year-old had sustain a twisted small intestine. "After having been brought in from his paddock on Monday night, Medicean was found to be off-colour, and after veterinary examination was sent to Rosssdales and Partners veterinary clinic for further observation," Chris Richardson, the stud's managing director, told Racing Post. "His condition did not improve and surgery was performed.

Thankfully, it appears the procedure was straightforward and he is due to return home by the weekend." A close third to Giant's Causeway in the G1 St. James's Palace S. at three, the chestnut enjoyed a successful four-year-old campaign, winning the G1 Coral-Eclipse
S., the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. and the G2 Queen
Anne S., and also ran third to Sakhee in the G1 Juddmonte International S. Medicean entered stud in 2002; his first foals are yearlings of this year. His 2004 stud fee was £10,000.

So Will I took a decent course-and-distance maiden in October before returning to finish third in behind Salford City (Ire) in the seven-furlong G3 Greenham S. over this surface Apr. 17. Well supported for this drop back in trip, he raced in mid-division throughout the early stages, but appeared outpaced when the action picked up at halfway. He was switched wide for his run by Richard Hills, quickened down the outside to grab the lead with 100 yards remaining and stretched away from Mac Love and the luckless Nights Cross. "He wasn't traveling to get the gaps so when I had the option to give my horse a bit of room I moved that way," the rider explained. "He picked up well and is a decent horse." So Will I will now be aimed at the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot June 16.

Rave Reviews and Sahool were thoroughly trounced by Ouija Board (GB) in the Listed Pretty Polly S. at Newmarket last time May 2, but they gave a boost to that form by fighting out the finish of this Epsom Oaks trial. In the Pretty Polly, Rave Reviews--a mile maiden winner at this track in October--had finished behind Sahool in third. Settled in a stalking third by Kevin Darley early, she made steady progress to challenge that rival inside the final quarter and battled to the front with 200 yards remaining, before asserting under a drive. "It was a strong gallop early on and I just needed a split to get a run at them as all she does is gallop," Darley explained. "When she got there she just ran a bit green, but she was always going to hold the second. I think she's still learning--she traveled a lot better today than last time and took me round on the bridle--so hopefully she'll come on again experience-wise from today's race." Connections will now point her at the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot June 17.

Collier Hill had already shown the deftness required to handle these undulations when winning a handicap over this course last May. He ended the 2003 season with a third in the Listed Willie Park Trophy S. at Musselburgh in November before embarking on a hurdling campaign, but returned to the flat to finish 11th in the Chester Cup H. last time May 5. Held up towards the rear by Robert Winston, he arrived wide with his challenge in the straight and collared the game Vintage Premium in the final 100 yards before asserting for his first stakes score.

SIENA GOLD (GB) (f, 2, Key of Luck--Corn Futures {GB}, by Nomination {GB}) beat Dance Away (GB) by five lengths in a Newmarket maiden on her debut Apr. 14. That form was given a major boost when that rival won in impressive fashion at York Thursday and Siena Gold was duly sent off the 3-10 favorite. Quickening to the front from the gates, she needed only a shake of the reins from Frankie Dettori to assert in the closing stages and beat Indiannie Star (GB) (Fraam {GB}) by a length. "She's very talented and only does enough," said Dettori. "In the last furlong when I really asked her to pick up she went away from the field. She's a nice early type with lots of speed." Brian Meehan added, "She's a lovely filly and she'll go straight to Royal Ascot now [for the G2 Queen Mary S. June 16]." A 12,000gns DONSEP yearling, Siena Gold is a half to Crazee Mental (GB) (Magic Ring {Ire}), G1SP-GB, and runner-up in the 1997 Queen Mary. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, £12,223.

The bay had lost ground at the start in both previous efforts, most recently when winning at Leicester Apr. 24, and continued the trend here with another slow start.
