THE REAL PHILADELPHIA FLYER

He's been called America's Horse and has already graced the cover of Sports Illustrated, but Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) added perhaps the most electrifying chapter yet in his story as he crushed a talented field in the GI Preakness S. The powerful chestnut became just the third unbeaten horse in history to annex the first two jewels of the Triple Crown, following Majestic Prince (1969) and Seattle Slew (1977). The final margin of victory was 11 1/2 lengths, a record in the 129-year history of the Preakness. "He came through for America," said winning trainer John Servis. "I'm so pleased with his effort. I knew he had to bring his best game; I knew this was the toughest race he was going to be in in a long time. And he brought it, he brought it big time." Preakness cont. p2-3

RUSSIAN RHYTHM RULES LOCKINGE

Classic heroine Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) made a victorious return to the races by battling her way home to land the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury yesterday afternoon. She is the first distaffer to win the race since Cormorant Wood (GB) shared the honors in 1984. "It's the first time she's beaten the colts and that's a big thing, but I always thought she was capable," said winning rider Kieren Fallon. "She was always going to get better as she got older since she's a lovely big, strong filly." Lockinge cont. p3

GREY DAY

Gary Stevens has captured the public imagination in the short time he has been riding in France and Grey Lilas (Ire) (Danehill) would prove a fitting first domestic Classic winner in today's G1 Gainsborough Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp. It was the imposing grey who opened the Hall of Famer's scoring in France when taking a hot course-and-distance conditions event Apr. 4. She was also the one to provide the Andre Fabre--

Gary Stevens partnership with their first group success in this Classic's vital prep, the G3 Prix de la Grotte here last time Apr. 25. With the stable firing on all cylinders, all the ticks are in the right boxes for Fabre to collect his third renewal since 1990. Cont. p5

READY TO DELIVER

Khalid Abdullah's American Post (GB) (Bering {GB}) will be favored when he seeks his sixth straight victory in the G1 Gainsborough Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp this afternoon. A top effort could see the three-year-old target the G1 Epsom Derby. "American Post will be even better when he tackles a longer distance, but I don't want to talk about the Derby for the moment as we must take one race at a time," trainer Criquelette Head-Maarek said last month. Cont. p4

THIRD TIME THE CHARM? For the third straight year, the winner of the Kentucky Derby has doubled up at Pimlico before heading to New York with a chance to sweep the Triple Crown. But while it can be said that War Emblem (2002) and Funny Cide (2003) blossomed at the right time, there is no questioning that Smarty Jones has established himself as the best of his generation to date. He has been perfect in eight career starts, and has passed every test with flying colors. After beginning his career with a pair of lopsided sprint victories at Philly Park, the Pennsylvania-bred successfully negotiated two turns in winning the Count Fleet S. at Aqueduct before embarking on his well-publicized sojourn to Arkansas. He landed the Southwest S. Feb. 28 prior to taking the sequence of the Rebel S. Mar. 20 and the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 10, victories which put him into contention for the $5-million bonus offered by Oaklawn's Charles Cella for any three-year-old who won the Rebel, the Arkansas Derby and the Kentucky Derby. Though the heavens opened up on Churchill Downs shortly before the Run for the Roses May 1, the sloppy footing proved no obstacle for Smarty Jones, who tracked Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat) throughout before moving past him in the stretch to become the first unbeaten Kentucky Derby winner since the venerable Seattle Slew.

Smarty Jones Horsephotos

The Philly Fan Club...

Several days after his rousing Derby victory, Smarty Jones returned to a hero's welcome at his Philadelphia Park base, then went out for a public gallop last Saturday in front of several thousand fans. Trainer John Servis elected not to work his charge between the Derby and the Preakness. "He was a little vulnerable," Servis admitted. "I would have liked to have had another week with him." But while handicappers cited the fact that his Derby victory was aided by a sticky surface which inconvenienced his major rivals, the record Pimlico crowd of 112,668 became enamored with the Smarty Story and sent him postward at 3-5.

Racing Into the Record Books...

Smarty Jones embodies the term 'tactical speed,' possessing the ability to be placed wherever jockey Stewart Elliott wished. That tractability stood him in great stead during the Preakness. Lion Heart, breaking from the rail, came out several paths heading into the first turn, forcing Smarty Jones to remain on his outside through the opening quarter. The Derby runner-up maintained his wide position down the backstretch through a half in :47.32 before Elliott guided the favorite over to the inviting opening on the rail going into the far turn. The two chestnuts raced abreast approaching the top of the stretch before a couple of right-handed taps from Elliott's whip saw Smarty Jones hit another gear. As he left his rivals toiling, Smarty Jones pricked up his ears in midstretch and allowed Elliott to settle into a hand ride. He crossed the wire 1 1/2 lengths in front, breaking the previous record of 10 set by Survivor in 1873 and nearly equaled by Funny Cide last year with 9 3/4. Smarty Jones also became the first odds-on favorite to win the Preakness since Spectacular Bid (1979). "The original plan was to ship him back to Philadelphia late [Sunday] morning," said Servis. "We'll sit down, mapped out a plan, and see how he comes out of the race and decide what we want to do."

Bonus Scheme...

Smarty Jones, who picked up the biggest bonus in North American history in winning the $5 million offered by Oaklawn Park, could find himself the leading money earner of all time if he wins the Belmont S. three weeks hence. VISA has offered a $5-million bonus to any three-year-old who can sweep the Triple Crown. "I think this is the time to really write the check," said Carl Pascarella, VISA chairman. "It's one payment VISA really wants, wants to make."

Better Late Than Never

A pair of colts excluded from the Kentucky Derby field due to a lack of graded stakes earnings, Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) and Eddington (Unbridled), both rallied to get second and third, respectively, in the Preakness. The imposing Rock Hard Ten proved very reluctant to load, finally going into the gate with a twitch. But the nearly black colt gave a good account of himself in just his fourth career start. Breaking from post 10, he was forced to go wide on both turns, but angled to the inside in the stretch and was two lengths clear of Eddington, who won a three-way photo for third. "I had a great trip," said Gary Stevens, who was aboard Rock Hard Ten. "I was with Smarty Jones, or at least I had him in my sights. My horse made a nice swing move and had another gear. And when I asked him, he gave it. But Smarty just pulled off. That horse is as good as any horse I've ever seen, and I've seen some good ones and I've been on some good ones, and I was on a good one today. Smarty really reminded me of Secretariat the way he pulled away." Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat), so valiant in three previous runner-up finishes this year, tired to finish fourth. "My horse struggled from the word go. He kept trying to get out. I stayed after him and kept him in as best I could, but Smarty Jones was just amazing today."

Russian Rhythm justified favoritism as she bested 66-1 Salselon for her fourth Group 1 success. In doing so, she also paid tribute to the bold decision to keep her in training after a sophomore campaign sufficient to warrant rushing off to the paddocks. Settled in mid-division early by Kieren Fallon, she was pulled wide for her challenge and quickened to join a line of challengers committed at the quarter pole. Of those, it was Salselon who offered the most persistent threat, but the chestnut found extra to repel that rival and the late-running Norse Dancer. Sir Michael Stoute, winning his sixth renewal of this contest, faced a race against time to get Russian Rhythm to last year's G1 1000 Guineas, but she made the gig in some style, beating Six Perfections (Fr) by 1 1/2 lengths in one of the best renewals in recent times. She bent the rules by following up in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot the following month before taking the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood in August. She went down by only two lengths to Falbrav (Ire) at his peak when runner-up in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot in September, but closed the year with a disappointing fifth in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket in October. "She has got the right mind and physique to train on, and doesn't lack courage," Stoute said. The first three are now set to renew rivalry in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 15.

took the homebred powerhouse just 20 days in October to launch himself as one of his generation's leading juveniles when winning the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and G1 Racing Post Trophy. He left no doubt as to his quality in outclassing decent rivals over testing ground at this track in the former and on a fast surface at Doncaster in the latter.

His conditioner Criquelette Head-Maarek claimed he needed opposition ahead of his return in the Listed Prix Omnium at Saint-Cloud Mar. 31, but he found none in his league there.

His one-length defeat of the subsequently disqualified Antonius Pius (Danzig) in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau over course and distance Apr. 25 was achieved in hand, and his trainer will be disappointed if he does not double her tally in this race 10 years after Green Tune opened her account. Antonius Pius represents the Aidan O'Brien team, successful with Landseer (GB), who was also beaten in the Fontainebleau before winning this two years ago. He has improvement to find, while there is a stamina doubt surrounding Godolphin's G2 Mill Reef S. scorer Byron (GB) (Green Desert), who is bidding to provide his team with their third renewal since 1995. Andre Fabre could not have his team in better shape at present and there are grounds for believing that Diamond Green (Fr) (Green Desert) can improve off his fourth (promoted to third) behind American Post in the Fontainebleau last time. That was his first outing since winning the G3 Prix la Rochette over seven furlongs at this track in September, where Ershaad (Kingmambo) was back in third. Fabre has saddled four winners of this, two of which have come in the Lagardere colors in the last three runnings.

UP TO THE CHALLENGE Godolphin have yet to win this Classic, but they will send Carry On Katie (Fasliyev) and Cairns (UAE) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) in a bid to put that straight. The former, who took last year's G2 Lowther S. and G1 Cheveley Park S. over six furlongs, may have needed the experience when a promising sixth behind Attraction (GB) in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 2. Despite doubts as to her stamina for the mile, she stayed on well enough to suggest she gets the trip, and brings top-level form into this race.

That is in contrast to Miss Mambo (Kingmambo), who has yet to tackle stakes company. Nevertheless, she was impressive in winning conditions events over course and distance Apr. 11 and at Chantilly last time Apr. 26. A granddaughter of U.S. champion turf mare Estrapade, she is preferred by jockey Christophe Soumillon to Torrestrella (Ire) (Orpen), who drops back in trip after taking the Listed Prix Finlande at this track last time Apr. 11. Aidan O'Brien, who saddled Rose Gypsy (GB) to win this contest in 2001, relies on the tough Royal Tigress (Storm Cat), who overcame bad ground to win the Listed Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial last time Apr. 18.

Mr O'Brien (Ire) recorded his biggest win of his sophomore year in Pimlico's nine-furlong Woodlawn S. over the turf for trainer Michael Dickinson, and ran either first or second in five subsequent dirt starts in optional claiming company along the Mid-Atlantic circuit while under the care of Anthony Dutrow Jr. Robin Graham picked up training duties last fall and tinkered with the gelding over the course of the next few months, trying Mr O'Brien over distances ranging from 6 furlongs to 1 1/16 miles on the dirt. The turnaround came last time out when the chestnut destroyed seven rivals in the mile Henry Clark H. over the Pimlico sod May 1. Settled in midpack early this time, Mr O'Brien inched closer to the front rank nearing the stretch, took command soon after and drew clear in the final strides en route to an easy score in course record time. "I wanted to make sure he relaxed, and he did," said winning jockey Ramon Dominguez. "He started passing horses on the backstretch. I had to wait a little for some traffic on the turn. After that, he responded very well." Click for the brisnet.com pedigree or the brisnet.com chart.

Storm Flag Flying was unbeaten in four starts during her championship juvenile season, but was put away following an abbreviated sophomore campaign last year. Given some time off following the discovery of a small fracture in her right hind, the dark bay returned to action with a victory going a mile and 70 yards in a Gulfstream optional claimer Feb. 26 before settling for third in the seven-furlong GII Distaff Breeders' Cup H. at Aqueduct Mar. 27. Favored here, she tracked the leaders, but looked to be in trouble turning for home as jockey John Velazquez went to the whip with seemingly no response. She weaved in and out in the stretch as Passing Shot and Roar Emotion went at it, but shifted gears and drove past her rivals on the outside with the wire fast approaching. "It looked like she had them, and then it looked like she didn't," said winning trainer Shug McGaughey, accepting his fourth trophy in the Shuvee. "I'm not sure why she is running a little bit spotty." McGaughey tabbed the GI Ogden Phipps H. June 19 as his charge's next start. On the board in 18 of his 20 career starts, the ultra-consistent Gators N Bears started his 2004 campaign with a win in the Jan. 24 Hoover S. at Laurel. He was let go at 9-1 in the Feb. 16 GII General George H., but acquitted himself admirably, finishing 1 3/4 lengths behind Well Fancied in third. Overlooked at 11-1 in his latest, the Mar. 13 GIII Toboggan H. at Aqueduct, the bay again met up with Well Fancied and that time managed a solid second. Gators N Bears was sent off the 5-2 second choice yesterday and, after tracking the pace early, rode the rail to the front in the stretch and was not threatened by the late-running longshot Highway Prospector. "I had a good trip," winning jockey Chuck Lopez said. "[Owner/trainer Leo Nechamkin] said that speed wasn't holding very good...so he suggested that I just stay off the lead and be content along the fence and go from there. When I called on him, he just took off."

Ocean Drive rattled off two consecutive victories last season notching the Appalachian S. at Keeneland Apr. 18 and the Gaviola S. at Belmont July 2, but hadn't gotten her picture taken since the latter victory. The dark bay filly kicked off her four-year-old campaign at Gulfstream with a third in an allowance Feb. 6, then a solid second after bobbling at the start in the Marshua's River S. Mar. 13. Last seen finishing second in the GIII Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland Apr. 18, she was made the chalk here to get back on track. The Todd Pletcher trainee sat in third behind the pacesetters, took over in the stretch and was able to hold off the late rush of the second-place finisher. "The filly ran the race of her life last time out, but racing luck was not on her side," said assistant trainer Tristan Barry. "She stepped up again today with a really super effort. Her drive through the stretch was powerful indeed. Mr. Bailey knew when to push her buttons." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Seattle Fitz opened up some eyes with a 10 1/2-length allowance win last September at Belmont and has been racing against graded company since. The dark bay kicked off the season with a game nose victory over Evening Attire in the GIII Aqueduct H. Jan. 17, then ran a solid second behind Medaglia d'Oro in the GI Donn H. Feb. 7. He was sent off the lukewarm favorite versus a stellar GII New Orleans H. field Feb. 29, but finished fourth beaten four lengths by Peace Rules. Stretched out to 1 1/4 miles for his most recent effort in the GII Gulfstream Park H. Apr. 3, he came home a dismal sixth as the 3-5 chalk. Made the favorite to make amends here, he sat a perfect trip behind the pacesetters in third, rolled up to the front end on the far turn and drew off to a decisive victory. "The race really set up for him perfectly," winning rider Richard Migliore said. "When you drop the lines and get him into a comfortable rhythm, he's a much better horse. He was much the best today." Kiaran McLaughlin's assistant trainer Art Magnuson indicated that Saratoga's GI Whitney S. Aug. 7 is a likely target for Seattle Fitz.

According to the Daily Racing Form, Miss Vegas was claimed for an unbelievable $299 from her first start, a 1 1/2-length win over fellow debutantes at Italy's Capannelle racecourse last April. She came back to take a conditions race by six lengths May 4 and added a Listed victory at San Siro June 15. Freshened after that effort, the bay returned to finish third while facing colts in a conditions race at San Siro Oct. 31, then ended her Italian campaign with yet another Listed success at Capannelle Nov. 16. Making her U.S. debut after the six-month layoff, the Irish-bred filly went right to the front and had daylight on the field to midstretch. Favored Ticker Tape went after the pacesetter in the final furlong and looked a winner, but Miss Vegas fought back, keeping her head in front as they flashed under the wire. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Deva took this step up to group company in stride to maintain her unbeaten record under Karoly Kerekes and initiated an afternoon stakes double for German-trained challengers at the San Siro track. Successful at Munich on her debut back in October 2002, she returned at three to follow up at that track and at Baden-Baden in June, before taking a conditions event after a 10 1/2-month layoff at Munich Apr. 12. The eventual winner was reserved off Jacira's steady early pace in sixth and gained forward momentum as the leader increased the tempo once into the home straight. Kerekes asked his mount to challenge on the outside inside the final quarter mile and Deva quickened in good style late to secure the prize. Jacira proved most game in second, holding on to the runner-up berth from the fast-closing Vale Mantovani. Click for the Racing Post chart.

After a one-year hiatus due to the outbreak of SARS in the region, the Singapore Airlines International Cup is back and should be dominated by foreign raiders.

Paolini, second to Grandera (Ire) in 2002, was promoted to second in last year's G1 Arlington Million in August, then returned to dead heat with Right Approach (GB) in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Mar. 27. In his most recent effort, the homebred seven-year-old was an uncharacteristic 11th of 12 in the Apr. 25 G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup in Hong Kong. Bowman's Crossing, third in a pair of domestic Group 1s in Hong Kong, was fifth to Elegant Fashion (Aus) in the G2 Chairman's Trophy before finishing fourth, beaten less than two lengths, in the QE II Cup.

For the past two years, Le Vie dei Colori has maintained his position as the leading domestically trained campaigner and has another opportunity to cement that reputation in this contest. Winner at two of the G3 Premio Primi Passi in Milan and the G3 Prix la Rochette at Longchamp, he returned to Paris to finish a half-length runner-up to Hold That Tiger in the G1 Grand Criterium. Re-establishing his momentum the following spring, he took the G2 Premio Parioli at this track in April before overcoming training setbacks to win the G1 Premio Vittoria di Capua in Milan in October. He warmed up for this with a length defeat of Duca d'Atri in the Listed Premio Natale di Roma over a mile Apr. 25 and will be a tough nut to crack. Godolphin, who took this in 1999 with Central Park (Ire), rely on last year's G1 Prix Jean Prat and G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Vespone. He has shaped with promise this spring, finishing runner-up in the G3 Jebel Hatta at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 6 before filling the same spot behind Execute (Fr) in the G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp May 2.

Sunday, Longchamp, France, post time: 3:15 p.m.

PRIX LUPIN-G1, €200,000, 3yo, c/f, 1 5/16mT

SC	PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER
1	2	Millemix (Fr)	Linamix (Fr)	Head-Maarek

4	4	Alcinos (Fr)	Highest Honor (Fr)	Smaga
5	5	Voix du Nord (Fr)	Valanour (Ire)	Smaga

Voix du Nord heads a small but select field in this trial for the June 6 G1 Prix du Jockey Club. Last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud victor made a highly satisfactory return to action, running out a three-length winner of the G2 Prix Noailles at this track Apr. 11 and he will be hard to pass here. Last year's Listed Prix Isonomy winner Millemix may prove his biggest threat, just missing by a head to Prospect Park (GB) in the Listed Prix de Courcelles on his return at this track Apr. 4. He had a comfortable two-length margin back to Esperanto in the G2 Prix Greffulhe over course and distance Apr. 25 and could be on the upgrade. Esperanto, who was eventually demoted to fifth in that contest, hails from the Aidan O'Brien stable successful in 2000 with Ciro, and takes another step forward. If this turns into a sprint, Valixir could benefit most. He had Voix du Nord back in fourth when runner-up to the top-class Bago (Fr) in the G3 Prix des Chenes over a mile at this track last September and was impressive when winning the Listed Prix Matchem at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 20.

Brunel had connections pondering a tilt at the G1 2000 Guineas after he had powered away with the Listed European Free H. at Newmarket Apr. 14. That represented improved form on his fifth-place finish in the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. at that track last October. He hails from the William Haggas stable, successful with Dupont (GB) here in 2001. Assiun stamped himself as the leading sophomore colt in Germany when winning the G3 Dr Busch-Memorial at Krefeld Apr. 18. He represents Peter Schiergen, who scored with Tiger Hill (Ire) in 1998 and Sumitas (Ger) in 1999. Mokabra, who took the G2 Maurice Lacroix-Trophy at Baden-Baden last September, followed a sixth-place effort behind Brunel in the European Free with a third in the G3 Tetrarch S. at The Curragh Apr. 3. That looked a smart renewal, and time may prove that he had a tough task attempting to give three pounds to Leitrim House (GB) and Grand Reward there.

Artie Schiller had been beaten just once in his four prior tries on the turf, closing for second behind Timo in the Pilgrim S. at Belmont last October. The bay switched to the dirt and finished fourth in the Nov. 29 Gill Remsen S. and the off-the-turf Dave Feldman S. at Gulfstream Park Jan. 18, then returned to the grass to take an Aqueduct allowance test May 1. Taking on Timo again as the second choice here, Artie Schiller bided his time in sixth for six furlongs, was steadied for a few strides at the three-eighths pole, but angled outside for the stretch drive and finished full of run to win handily. Timo raced wide on both turns, but closed some ground in the stretch to just miss the place.

Unraced at two, Royal Assault kicked off his career with a 1 1/4-length victory going seven furlongs at Gulfstream Jan. 10 before finishing a well-beaten third to the talented Value Plus in an entry-level allowance test Feb. 14. Sent around two turns two starts back, the homebred ran on well to be second to subsequent GII Illinois Derby third Suave Mar. 13 and was most recently a respectable fifth, beaten 6 1/4 lengths, in the GI Wood Memorial Apr. 10. Allowed to settle in the rear of a well-bunched field, Royal Assault galloped along comfortably beneath Pat Day, circled wide for the drive and was going away late. Sarava won this two years ago en route to his monster upset in the GI Belmont S., which is the next destination for the winner. "I think the way he ran in the Wood definitely puts him with those [Belmont] horses, so I'm definitely looking forward to that," winning trainer Nick Zito explained. "I actually toyed with running this horse in the Preakness, but I said, 'let's just keep gradually trying to develop these horses like we do.'" Abbondanza was sent straight into stakes company after taking his Feb. 4 debut at Aqueduct, setting the early pace in the Feb. 21 Best Turn S., but tiring to be fifth behind Redskin Warrior (Indian Charlie). He bounced back to take a Laurel allowance Mar. 20, then returned to stakes company and finished a non-threatening second in the seven-furlong Gill Bay Shore S. Apr. 10. Dropping back to six panels here, the chestnut was uncharacteristically far back as Penn Pacific cut out a quick pace, but weaved his way through the field to take over in the stretch before holding off Bwana Charlie for his first stakes score. Redskin Warrior, the 5-2 second choice, pressed early, but tired to be fifth.

Madcap Escapade Back on Track:

Madcap Escapade (Hennessy), a game third to Ashado in the GI Kentucky Oaks, recorded her first workout since that Apr. 30 event, breezing a solid five-eighths of a mile in :59 3/5 Friday morning. "I've been very happy with her," explained trainer Frank Brothers. "I thought her work was very good--kind of what she does normally." The move has led the conditioner to "tentatively" pencil in the GI Acorn S. at Belmont Park June 4 as a possible next start for the Bruce Lunsford runner. "The mile should help her," Brothers said of the Acorn distance. "But if I'm not happy with how she's doing, I might just wait on her for the [GI] Test S. [at Saratoga July 31]."

Trainer Danny Hutt Dies:

Danny Hutt, a veteran owner and trainer on the Midwest circuit, died suddenly while eating dinner with friends at a Louisville restaurant Friday night. He was 51 years old. A native of Louisville, Hutt began his career in the Standardbred ranks, but eventually transitioned to Thoroughbreds. Among the notable horses conditioned by Hutt were Cowboy Dan, winner of the 1997 GII Arlington-Washington Futurity, and Celtic Warrior, a colt he owned in partnership who finished 10th in the 1997 Kentucky Derby. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Heavenly Humor started 2004 on a high note, winning Golden Gate's Miss California S. by five lengths Jan. 17, but faltered at odds-on in her next, finishing third in an optional claimer at that oval Feb. 26. Most recently fourth of five in this track's Stanford S. Apr. 18, the bay was trying two turns for the first time as part of the favored entry. Settled off a fast early pace set by her stablemate Secret Corsage, Heavenly Humor went up after that foe approaching the stretch and gradually wore her down for the victory.

CAPITANO (c, 3, Belong to Me--Heavenly Cat, by Tabasco Cat), a $53,000 KEESEP yearling, had only a July maiden victory to his credit coming into this, but brought some back class to the table. He turned in a pair of seconds last season in the GII Best Pal S. and GII Norfolk S. and closed out his juvenile campaign with a sixth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Coming into this off three straight second-place performances, including the California Derby last time Apr. 17, he was bet down to 9-5. Schwarzenegger Signs Workers' Comp Bill:

A bill signed by Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger Friday will raise the takeout on exotic wagers in California to defray the cost of workers' compensation insurance for trainers in the state. The takeout will increase from 20.18 percent to 20.68 percent on all bets on Thoroughbred racing other than win, place and show. It is expected that the increase will generate $7.7 million, which could fund as much as 50 percent of the compensation premiums now paid by California horsemen.

WEALINGS ON TAP AT INGLIS William Inglis and Son Ltd has catalogued 224 lots for the sixth installment of today's single-session sale, the Australian Select Weanling Sale, in Sydney, Australia. Hoping to improve on last year's sales-topping bid of A$240,000 for a colt by Quest For Fame (GB) out of Beam (Aus) (Scenic {Ire}), herself a half sister to Group 1 winner Bollinger (Aus), Inglis has catalogued several weanlings that may improve on that figure this term. Among them is lot 184, a bay colt by Fasliyev out of the Desert Wine mare Gabbing Gloria, who is also the dam of Diatribe (Brief Truce). The colt's full brother sold at this venue last year for A$200,000. Also sure to make some noise is lot 105, a chestnut colt by first-season sire Galileo (Ire) out of Verdigris (NZ) (Twig Moss {Fr}). The October foal is a half brother to South African Group 1 winner The Delegator (Aus). Deceased sire Danehill is well represented by hot young sire Redoute's Choice (Aus), who has five catalogued, including lot 29. The bay colt is the fourth foal out of the Arazi mare Opulence (GB), who is a half sister to Italian champion two-year-old colt and UAE Highweight Older Horse Lend A Hand (Aus). Danehill Dancer (Ire), Encosta de Lago (Aus), Grand Lodge, Dehere and Danzero (Aus) are among proven stallions represented in this year's sale, while freshman sires marking their entrance into the sales scene include Aristotle (Ire), Brahm, Fubu (Aus), King Cugat, Black Hawk (GB) and King Charlemagne. Bidding commences at 10:30 a.m. local time. For Inglis' complete catalog, visit www.inglis.com.au.
