FORTUNE SMILES ON AMERICAN POST

The history books will show that 2-5 favorite American Post (GB) (Bering {GB}) beat Diamond Green (Fr)

Antonius Pius hits the rail (American Post is 4th on the outside) Getty Images

(Green Desert) by a half length to win yesterday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp, but that doesn't begin to tell the story. The result would have been far different if Antonius Pius (Danzig) hadn't come close to falling in a theatrical finale to the Classic. Things did not go according to plan for American Post early. The Juddmonte homebred was trapped wide in a stalking third off a stop-start pace before quickening to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. Antonius Pius charged past and looked a sure winner when, a length in front with just 50 yards to race, he suddenly collided with the rail. Diamond Green (Fr) (Green Desert) and Byron (GB) (Green Desert) were in behind the unlucky leader and were bumped in the process, but American Post, on the outside, escaped unscathed. "I might have been a bit lucky today," admitted jockey Richard Hughes. Poule d'Essai des Poulains cont. p2

"TORR" DE FORCE

Connections of Torrestrella (Ire) (Orpen) took a chance dropping her back to a mile, but the 9-1 shot justified that decision by besting Grey Lilas (Ire) (Danehill) by 1 1/2 lengths in yesterday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp. She was supplemented to the Classic after a plan to stretch her out in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary was discarded, and that fee proved money well spent as she displayed the necessary early pace to stalk Carry On Katie (Fasliyev) in second. Asked for her effort at the top of the stretch by Olivier Peslier, she was joined by Grey Lilas and Gary Stevens, but soon had that rival in trouble and forged ahead in the final eighth under a drive. "We know she may not stay the distance, but how can we not be tempted to go for the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes [at Chantilly June 13] now?" said trainer Francois Rohaut. Poule d'Essai des Pouliches cont. p2

An American in Paris...

American Post was providing Khalid Abdullah with the missing French Classic in his repertoire and recording his third Group 1 success, having taken the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at this track and G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster in October. He had returned to win the Listed Prix Omnium at Saint-Cloud Mar. 31, before beating Antonius Pius by a length in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau over course and distance last time Apr. 25. There was an omen of the drama to come in that race, as the runner-up was disqualified after veering similarly right in the closing stages. "My horse was not stretching out and was definitely feeling the fast ground," Hughes said. "That tells you how much ability he has, as he would have been a gallant second." Winning conditioner Criquelette Head-Maarek, enjoying her second renewal of this Classic after Green Tune 10 years ago, commented, "We got lucky, but that's racing. It looked to me as though the other jockeys were riding a race to get my horse beat and Richard [Hughes] said he needs it soft. I won't decide anything for at least a week about the G1 Epsom Derby [June 5]." A downcast Jamie Spencer said of the eventual fifth, "He just jinked, I don't know why, and hit the rail so hard he did well to stay on his feet. He has got a turn of foot to kill any horse and that's how I rode him today." As for where Antonius Pius will start next, trainer Aidan O'Brien said, "With the Irish 2000 Guineas only a week away, the G1 St James's Palace S. [at Royal Ascot June 15] could be next." Poule d'Essai des Pouliches cont.
A Provincial Success...

After two seconds in the provinces at two, Torrestrella began her sophomore campaign over a mile and delivered potent acceleration to win a conditions event at Maisons-Laffitte Mar. 2. She came back to take the Apr. 11 Listed Prix Finlande, and it was winning jockey Christophe Soumillon who suggested that the 1 1/8-mile trip of that event was her limit. But she certainly had the stamina to get the Classic mile, and speed was never an issue, as she proved in equaling the race record set by Zalaiyka (Fr) in 1998. "They went fast today and Olivier [Peslier] rode a perfect race to instructions, which were to put her in the race early," Francois Rohaut said, but added, "Christophe Soumillon has to have a share of this success as he told me last time that she wouldn't stay further than a mile." Lookin' Smart After Preakness Win

A day after romping to a record 11 1/2-length victory in the GI Preakness S., Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) looked none the worse for wear and seemed to be enjoying the attention warranted by racing's newest Triple Crown hopeful. Receiving a bath Sunday morning at Pimlico, Smarty was the picture of confidence as he posed for a bank of photographers that shot the chestnut with paparazzi-like absorption. "He came out of the race terrific," explained trainer John Servis. "There was not one oat in the feed tub this morning. Mario [the groom] pulled the tub out, and he's showing me the tub. As I'm looking at it, Smarty comes from the back of the stall and dives into the tub like he's looking for more." Servis, understandably showing the signs of fatigue absent from his charge, was busy early Sunday, appearing on NBC's "Today Show" with Campbell Brown, answering questions from an ever-swelling media presence and preparing for Smarty's trip back to Philly Park later in the morning. The grind has given Servis a new appreciation for those who embark on the Triple Crown trail. "This is the first time I've been on this road and I realize now why there has only been a handful of horses to win the Triple Crown," admitted Servis. "It's a very grueling road and we've been on it since January. But I've got a good horse and he's doing real well. I was real happy with him this morning. As long as he continues to do how he is, we're going into the [June 5, GI] Belmont S. with a loaded gun." Such is the aura around Servis' 'loaded gun' that the colt's trip back to Philly Park was covered live by helicopter on local television.

Runner-Up Rock Hard Ten to Belmont

Preakness S. runner-up Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) came out of the race in good order and will likely aim towards a rematch with Smarty Jones in the Belmont S. "I think he came out of the race fine," said trainer Jason Orman. "He's eating good and acting his normal self, as well. Right now we are pointing him to the Belmont. We will stay here at Pimlico until either Monday or Tuesday and ship Rock Hard Ten to New York then." The final leg of the Triple Crown also is the next scheduled stop for Preakness third-place finisher Eddington (Unbridled), who shipped early Sunday morning from Pimlico back to his Belmont Park home.

Drawn widest of all, Epalo was sent to the front by jockey Andreas Starke and made all the running to take this second leg of the World Series Racing Championship. A consistent performer throughout his career, the bay won the G2 Grosser Mercedes-Benz Preis last June, was second two starts later in the G1 Bayrisches Zuchtrennen and closed the year with a runner-up effort in the G2 Bosphorus Cup in Turkey. In his first start for his new owner, the five-year-old registered a 1 1/2-length success in the Listed Buchmacher Efroni-Trophy May 1 in advance of his overseas journey. Allowed to dictate matters on the front end, Epalo accelerated on the turn, opened a commanding lead in the stretch and was never menaced. "I was worried before the race that he had a bad draw, but he started so quick and I had a perfect race," the winning jockey told iSports TV.
"He travelled good around the corner and then he just went." Surveyor, winner of the G3 Jebel Hatta in Dubai in March, stayed on for second while Hong Kong raider Bowman's Crossing endured a rough trip to finish another three parts of a length back in third. The next event in the WSRC is the G1 King George VI & Queen

Altieri made it third time lucky in this contest as he proved too strong in the finish for the errant Vespone.
There was no disgrace in his fourth-placing behind the following year's Horse of the Year Falbrav (Ire) in the 2002 renewal, after which he was sent to France for the summer. Trading blows with eventual GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Domedriver (Ire), he won the argument in the G3 Prix Messidor at Deauville in July. Rounding off with success in the G2 Premio Ribot at this venue in November, he encountered another giant in subsequent G1 Champion S. scorer Rakti (GB) on his return when third in this race last May. He showed he retained his ability at the end of last term by finishing a runner-up to Imperial Dancer (GB) in the G1 Premio Roma in November, before emphasising the point with a smooth score in the Listed Premio Ambrosiano in Milan last time May 2. Settled in fourth early by Mario Esposito as Kerrin McEvoy set honest fractions on Vespone, he traveled strongly to challenge as that rival jinked left and then right at the quarter pole. Taking command soon after, Altieri was pushed out to assert from the tiring long-time leader, who according to McEvoy "lost concentration in the straight." Connections are likely to send the winner overseas, with the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown July 3, in which trainer Vittorio Caruso saddled the 1993 runner-up Misil, a possible target.

Also ran: Esperanto (Ire), Alcinos (Fr).

Voix du Nord and Millemix provided a great spectacle as they fought out a pulsating finish, with the former winning a war of attrition. Showing progression with each run at two, he followed a fourth placing behind Bago (Fr) in the G3 Prix des Chenes at this track in September with a half-length second to the smart Latice (Ire) in the G3 Prix de Conde here the following month. Sent to the demanding 10-furlong test of the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud in November, he displayed abundant stamina to beat Simplex (Fr) by 1½ lengths. He was not seriously challenged on the front end when taking the G2 Prix Noailles on his return at this track last time Apr. 11, but met his match in this competitive renewal. Settled in rear by Dominique Boeuf as his rabbit Alcinos (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}) carved out honest fractions, he hooked up with Millemix and Christophe-Patrice Lemaire as the duo ground past Valixir inside the final quarter. It was touch and go from there, with the advantage swapping four times, but it was Voix du Nord who had the edge in the final stride to win the bobber. Conditioner David Smaga revealed that the winner, who missed the track record time set by Exactly Sharp in this race in 1988 by a 10th of a second, had suffered a setback after his last race.

"After the Noailles he was very lame and I feared he had broken something," he said. "Fortunately, it turned out to be a foot abscess, but he still missed five or six days, so his performance was remarkable today. He is a champion who really stays, so he'll definitely go to the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club [French Derby at Chantilly June 6]." Millemix will join him there, according to trainer Criquelette Head-Maarek. "He ran a great race and will go for the Jockey-Club," she confirmed. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or racingpost.co.uk chart.

Brunel had to dig deep to repel the domestic challenge in this Classic, but he had all the answers and duly provided William Haggas with his second renewal after the exploits of Dupont (GB) in 2001. Breaking his maiden in emphatic style at Salisbury last September, he finished a creditable fifth in the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. at Newmarket the following month before being put away for the winter. He showed the benefit of that consideration by recording an impressive five-length score on his return in the Listed European Free H. back at that venue Apr. 14. Exhibiting the same bold running style in this contest, he led from the gate under Daryll Holland and battled when headed by Assiun and Andreas Suborics early in the straight. Regaining the advantage inside the final quarter, he had forged a decisive advantage as Lazio ran out of real estate with his late challenge. Brunel is from the family of Group 1 scorers Bassenthwaite (GB) and Keen Hunter. An "improving sort with a lot of scope to him," according to Haggas, he will be targeted at the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 15. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or the racingpost.co.uk chart.

The Trader had finished runner-up to Patavellian in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye over course and distance last October, but made the most of a nine-pound weight shift to record a career best here. Strictly a five-furlong specialist, the six-year-old has improved with age, registering two Listed scores and earning enough to take part in two renewals of the G1 Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin. On both occasions he was far from disgraced, finishing fifth to Falvelon (Aus) in 2001 and sixth to Silent Witness (Aus) in last year's version on his most recent start. Ridden along in rear by Jamie Spencer throughout the early stages, he took time to warm up, but once in top gear reeled in Patavellian and The Tatling with 200 yards remaining before asserting for a comfortable score. "He is slightly better on soft, so we might come back for the G2 Prix du Gros-Chene [at Chantilly June 6], as he was third in that last year," commented conditioner Michael Blanshard.

Winter Garden, third a year ago in the GI Selene S., ended 2003 with three straight wins, culminating with a one-length triumph in the Nov. 16 GIII Bessarabian H. The bay filly had made only once start since that effort, running second in the Apr. 18 Whimsical S. over a muddy Woodbine oval. Sitting off the dueling early leaders while racing three wide, Winter Garden inched into contention turning for home and spurred clear to an easy win. "It was fantastic, I just had so much horse underneath me from the word go," said winning jockey David Clark. "Today, she was just dead-on." Winning trainer Robert Tiller added, "She was super today and throughout her whole career. She's probably the best sprinting mare I've ever trained."

CORRECTION: Miss Vegas (Ire) (Efisio {GB}), winner of Saturday's GIII Senorita S. at Hollywood Park, did make her first start in a claiming race, but did not change hands. TDN correspondent Giorgio Barsotti reports, "She ran for her Italian owner and was never claimed. I remember a shrewd trainer who went there to claim her, but changed his mind, saying that she was too small and crooked." Miss Vegas now has won six of her seven career starts, earning $212,942.

A maiden winner in her debut going six furlongs on the dirt at Palermo Mar. 6, Forty Marchanta came back to be fourth behind stablemate Forty Greeta (Arg) in the Apr. 24 G1 Jorge de Atucha at 7 1/2 furlongs. Trying the turf for the first time here, the dark bay filly was caught in traffic early, but fought her way through the crowd at midstretch and burst through to win going away. Forty Marchanta will be pointed for the G1 Estrellas Distaff in June, but she will not face Forty Greeta, who has been sold to foreign interests.

PREAKNESS RATINGS BEST SINCE '90 NBC Sports' broadcast of Saturday's GI Preakness S. recorded a 7.2 overnight rating and a 16 share--the event's highest rating since 1990 and a 29-percent improvement over last year's 5.6/13, according to Nielsen Media Research. The 1990 Preakness, won by Summer Squall, generated a 7.8/20 overnight. Saturday's race segment produced a 9.2/20 overnight, up 61 percent from a year ago, while the pre-race broadcast generated a 4.6/11, a 35-percent increase. The top-rated individual markets for the race segment of Saturday's broadcast were: Baltimore, Philadelphia and Louisville.

READ THE FOOTNOTES SIDELINED GII Fountain of Youth S. winner Read the Footnotes (Smoke Glacken) has been sidelined by a chip in his right knee. "He's going to be laid up for a bit," confirmed trainer Rick Violette, Jr. "He'll have surgery Tuesday or Wednesday. He's been good to us, so we've got to do the right thing by him and get this taken care of. The chip is in the upper joint, which is the best part of the knee to have that problem in. Usually horses make a complete recovery." Read the Footnotes ended his juvenile campaign with wins in the GIII Nashua S. and GII Remsen and returned at three to earn a gutsy win in the Feb. 14 GII Fountain of Youth. After tiring to fourth in the Mar. 13 GI Florida Derby, he trained up to a seventh-place finish in the May 1 GI Kentucky Derby. To date, he has won five of eight starts and earned $450,660.

LUCKY OWNERS TO WIDDEN STUD Lucky Owners (NZ) (Danehill--Miss Priority {NZ}, by Kaapstad {NZ}), winner of the 2003 G1 Hong Kong Mile, is set to enter stud for the 2004 Southern Hemisphere breeding season at Widden Stud. Owner Leung Kai-fai has sold a 50-percent interest to the New South Wales nursery, which will stand the horse for a fee of A$20,000. Lucky Owners will be the only son of his late sire on the Widden Stud roster. "He has had a great career and we are satisfied with the stud arrangements," Leung said, adding that the four-year-old could shuttle to the Northern Hemisphere. Out of a half sister to the Cox Plate and Melbourne Cup hero Might and Power (NZ), Lucky Owners cost A$350,000 at the 2001 Easter Yearling sale and went on to post a record of eight wins and four seconds from 14 starts, including his half-length score over Bowman's Crossing (Ire) in the International Mile in December. He has amassed earnings in excess of HK$27.7 million ($3.5 million). He will depart for Australia June 30.

Heading to Belmont

Preakness runner-up Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) and third-place finisher Eddington (Unbridled) top the list of those expected to challenge potential Triple Crown winner Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) in the June 5 GI Belmont S. Other horses eyeing the Belmont, according to the New York Racing Association racing office, are Castledale (Ire) (Peintre Celebre), Capitano (Belong to Me), winner of a Hollywood allowance Saturday, and Tapit (Pulpit), a disappointing ninth in the Kentucky Derby. "It's going to be very, very difficult for anyone to beat Smarty Jones," said Tapit's trainer, Michael Dickinson. "Will we beat him? It's unlikely, but anything is possible. We will be going in as an underdog versus a very good horse." Saturday's GII Peter Pan S. at Belmont should also produce some Belmont starters. The top names in the Peter Pan include Master David (Grand Slam), Friends Lake (A.P. Indy) and the Nick Zito-trained Pies Prospect (Crafty Prospector). Zito could have four horses in the Belmont. Royal Assault (Kris S.), the winner of Saturday's Sir Barton S., is a definite Belmont starter. Zito is also considering Birdstone (Grindstone) and The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), whose status will depend on how quickly his bruised foot heals. "I would like to run The Cliff's Edge in the Belmont, but we'll have to wait and see how he is," Zito said. "You never know with this kind of thing. It could take two hours, two days, two weeks or two months for him to get over it. We'll just play it by ear."

Margins: 1, 1 1/4, 5 1/4. Odds: 2.65, 2.30, 1.60.

Rodeo Licious stamped herself as a promising New York-bred filly last year racing solely against open competition, coming out of an impressive maiden win at Belmont in mid-May to win the Fashion S. in the mud three weeks later for trainer Carl Deville. But the chestnut went missing for the next 10 months, returning to best an entry-level allowance field of state-breds at Aqueduct Apr. 3 for new conditioner Bruce Levine. Adding a furlong in this event, Rodeo Licious was left alone on the lead through 22.16 and 45.48 fractions, appeared a bit leg weary as Capeside Lady and then Mistda came calling through the stretch, but fought hard to hit the wire first. "She's fast, but she's a little ornery in the post parade and paddock," said winning jockey Mike Luzzi. "The only other quirk she has is her leads. I got her to switch today a little late, but at least she knows now she's supposed to do it. It looked like she was drifting in the stretch, but that was me trying to get her to switch."

Houston's Prayer, who at one time ran for a $70,000 tag at Aqueduct, came home a winner against allowance foes over that track Mar. 20 before settling for fifth in his latest try there Apr. 9. The Todd Pletcher-trained Savoy Special (Grand Slam) lost his rider before yesterday's start and was forced to scratch, whittling the field down to a talented four, which included graded stakes placed Ministers Wild Cat. A close-up third through an opening quarter in :22 4/5, Houston's Prayer was allowed to fall behind after a solid four-furlong time of :45 4/5, but picked up the tempo again for the stretch run. Closing well along the rail in the final furlong, the gelding forged to the front late for the narrow score.

CUYAHOGA (f, 3, Theatrical {Ire}--Crystal Symphony {GSW, $289,759}, by Red Ransom) won as the favorite in her debut going about eight furlongs at Gulfstream Jan. 22, then regressed in a lackluster eighth-place effort at a mile at the Hallendale track Mar. 19. Stepped up to nine panels again in her next over Keeneland's sod Apr. 17, she closed to be third under jockey Jerry Bailey and was once again paired with the Hall of Famer, this time as the 3-2 pick. Near the back of the back through the opening furlongs, the Kinsman homebred moved into contention with a rail-skimming move on the far turn and, with a wide bid through the lane, surged to the lead late to win by 1 1/4 lengths over Serendipitous (Pleasant Tap). EAVESDROPPER (c, 4, Kingmambo--Weekend Surprise {MGSW & MGISP, $402,892}, by Secretariat) ran second in his two latest, including a 5 1/2-furlong affair at Gulfstream Mar. 28 before quitting trainer Bill Mott's barn. Full of speed early as the 2-1 second choice here, the bay took over in deep stretch and inched clear to win by a half length. Parkers Mill (Silver Deputy), a 5-1 shot, rounded out the exacta. Eavesdropper is a half to Summer Squall (Storm Bird), MGISW, $1,844,282; Honor Grades (Danzig), MGSP, $173,953; A.P. The filly broke sharply from the 10 hole and moved up swiftly to press early pacesetter Tyffany's Rodeo (Rodeo) through a solid opening half mile. With a ton left in reserve, the chestnut overtook that rival soon after and drew off late to win by 5 3/4 widening lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $26,240.

Cat Genius was a nose shy of victory two back in Fair Ground's Taylor's Special H. over this distance Feb. 22 before winning by a half length last time in the Pelleteri Breeders' Cup H. over that track and trip Mar. 14. Sent off the even-money choice to make it two in a row, Cat Genius broke sharply and was hustled up quickly to take a short lead. Comfortably in front after a half mile in :45.01, the colt continued to draw away from the field through the lane and went on to score by daylight.

Lady Tak to Winning Colors:

Grade I winner Lady Tak (Mutakddim) is expected to start in Saturday's inaugural running of the Winning Colors H. at her home base of Churchill Downs. The four-year-old filly, winner of last year's GI Test S. and GII Fair Grounds Oaks, began 2004 with a dull sixth-place effort in the Apr. 7 Madison S. at Keeneland, but rebounded with a strong allowance score at Churchill Apr. 24 at the Winning Colors' six-furlong distance. "It's nice not to have to ship her around this time of year," said Scott Blasi, assistant to trainer Steve Asmussen. "Some of the better races are ahead of her--Saratoga races like the [GI] Ballerina, where she has run well. It's nice to run in your back yard while you're here."

Stephen Foster Could Be Next for Midway Road:

Midway Road (Jade Hunter), second behind Southern Image in Friday's GI Pimlico Special, could make his next start in Churchill's June 12 GI Stephen Foster H. Trainer Neil Howard indicated the June 12 GII Brooklyn H. at Belmont is also being considered for Midway Road. "We're looking at both races," Howard said. "The Stephen Foster obviously is going to be a tough race and it should be. It's a Grade I, it's a great race on the calendar and it has a big purse. Our horse is doing good, but we'll see how he comes out of the race first."

Funeral Arrangements Set for Danny Hutt:

Funeral services are scheduled Tuesday for owner and trainer Danny Hutt, who died suddenly Friday night. The service is set for 1 p.m. at Second Presbyterian Church in Louisville. Burial will be in Cave Hill Cemetery. Visitation is scheduled from 2-8 p.m. Monday at Pearson's Funeral Home, also in Louisville.

Double D Appeal closed impressively to be third in her two-furlong debut at Santa Anita Mar. 24 and graduated second time out with a come-from-behind head win Apr. 7. Those late-closing efforts were good practice for the filly's stakes debut yesterday, as she was bumped and squeezed well back shortly after the break. Appearing hopelessly beaten even into the stretch, Double D Appeal closed relentlessly under jockey Victor Espinoza to win going away. "I really got nailed at the start," Espinoza said. "I came so close to clipping heels of another horse. I almost went down. I kind of squeezed my horse's head to the outside. It was the only chance I had of staying on. When that happened, I thought it was all over. But about 40 yards later, she started to pick it up with her feet. I could feel I had a lot of horse under me, so I just stayed patient. At the three-eighths pole, I touched her on the shoulder a little bit and she really took off." For the RaceReplays.com replay, click here.

DESERT DEER EUTHANISED

Jaber Abdullah's Desert Deer (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) was humanely destroyed after sustaining a hind fetlock fracture in Saturday's G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury. The six-year-old, who took the G2 Sandown Mile last April, had been off the track after finishing ninth in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot the following month. Jockey Kevin Darley had dismounted after easing Desert Deer near the finish of the mile contest, but Racing Manager Joe Mercer told PA Sport that the surgeons could not save him. "He had shattered it completely from the fetlock joint down and also where he had it pinned last year--he had three screws in it. He was a lovely person," said Mercer. Desert Deer banked $240,510, with seven wins in 14 career starts.

REDOUTE'S CHOICE FILLY STARS AT INGLIS

A filly by Redoute's Choice (Aus) took center stage at yesterday's Inglis Australian Select Weanling Sale in Sydney, highlighting a strong single session that continued the momentum begun at the 2004 Yearling Sale Series. Out of the winning Centaine (Aus) mare Cool Chick (NZ), the Dalmore consignee was knocked down for A$200,000 to prominent Melbourne trainer John Salanitri and is from the family of The Big Chill (Aus) (O'Reilly {NZ}), who was twice-placed in Group 1 competition in Australia. "She is by one of the best young stallions in the land," explained Salanitri. "A great type which we plan to race at this stage. However, we may be persuaded to sell at Easter. The dam is by one of the best broodmare sires in Centaine and she is also a half sister to the talented stakes winner The Big Chill, whose race record did not justify her ability on the track." The sale achieved a gross of A$3,778,750, with 155 weanlings selling at an average price of $24,379, with a clearance rate of 83 percent.
