ONE FOR THE DUKE

Sadly, just two weeks after he passed away, the Duke of Devonshire's straw colors were carried to success by the maiden Bachelor Duke (Miswaki) in yesterday's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh. Held up towards the rear by Seb Sanders off the even early tempo set by Grand Reward (Storm Cat), the 12-1 shot was eased wide for his run passing the halfway mark and was devouring the ground as Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift) battled to the front with 150 yards remaining. But that rival's lead was short-lived, as Bachelor Duke's relentless gallop carried him to the front with 75 yards to race and on to a length success. "That was fantastic and it's just a shame the owner couldn't be here to see it," commented an emotional trainer James Toller, enjoying his first Classic success. Cont. p2

ATTRACTIVE PROPOSITION

With all the ingredients to become the people's horse, Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) can take one step closer to their hearts in today's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh. Her breeder the Duke of Roxburghe's decision not to send her to auction due to the conformation of her front legs is already the stuff of folklore, but further spice is added by John Hills' rejection of the ugly duckling and her subsequent metamorphosis into a beautiful swan under the eye of Mark Johnston, who famously commented that, "when buying a Ferrari you don't look at the tires." Attraction's paddling action proved no impediment to her forward propulsion at two as she was always moving at a greater rate than her struggling rivals in both the G3 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot in June and G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket in July. The next twist of the tale came with a pedal bone fracture and ongoing bony changes in her knees, which led to a period of deserved rest at her owner's Floors Farm. However, it was not only the layoff that she had to overcome in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 2, but also the question of whether she could carry that blazing speed to the mile's end. She did so the hard way from the front with her formidable engine churning out enough power to hold Sundrop (Jpn) by a half length. Creating the necessary drama here is the foreboding fact that no filly has completed the Newmarket-Curragh Guineas double, but that can be misleading as only six have tried in the last 35 years. "She's absolutely fine and in good form," Johnston told Racing Post. "I would hope she has come on a bit from Newmarket...that was her first run of the season after a long time off the track. You are never confident at this level, but we are hopeful." Cont. p3

PURGE CLEANS UP PETER PAN

Adam Coglianese

Purge (Pulpit) couldn't quite handle Smarty Jones in Arkansas this spring, finishing second to that colt in the Rebel S. and fifth in the GII Arkansas Derby, but he overwhelmed New York foes in the GII Peter Pan S. at Belmont yesterday. "Part of the key was that we weren't being chased by Smarty Jones," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher. Cont. p2

☆ Irish 2000 Guineas ☆

BACHELOR PARTY Bachelor Duke (Miswaki) was winless on arrival at The Curragh, but he had mixed it with the best since finishing third at Yarmouth on his debut in September. Sent to Newmarket twice in the space of 16 days last October, he was far from disgraced when third to Milk it Mick (GB) in the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. and fourth behind that rival in the G1 Dewhurst S. He was making his seasonal debut when a respectable seventh behind Haafhd (GB) in the G1 2000 Guineas May 1, but turned that form on its head back on his favored fast ground here. "When I heard that Haafhd was not running, I was tempted to have a go," trainer James Toller explained. "He'd been working very well. He liked that fast ground and although he hits a flat spot, he comes home. What a way to break his maiden!" Looking ahead, he added, "We'll have to go home and think about it, but the G1 St James's Palace S. [at Royal Ascot June 15] could be next." He is likely to meet runner-up Azamour again at Royal Ascot. Trainer John Oxx, pleased with the run, said, "He did everything to win and ran to the line. He will probably go for the St James' Palace S." But Dermot Weld revealed that a step up in trip is on the cards for Grey Swallow (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}), who had every chance inside the final eighth before staying on at one pace. "He's run a very good race and stayed on as he did at Newmarket," he said. "I'm thinking of the G1 Prix Jean Prat [at Chantilly June 6] and possibly the G1 Irish Derby [at The Curragh June 27] for him."

Party On...

Bachelor Party becomes the 96th stakes winner for his 26-year-old sire, who is still covering mares at Walmac. But Miswaki, already the sire of Horse of the Year Black Tie Affair (Ire) as well as Arc heroine Urban Sea in the 1990s, has been enjoying a successful 2004. This Classic winner is his third graded/group winner of the year to date, following the Grade III victories of Etoile Montante and Sir Shackleton.

Purge aired by four lengths first time out at Saratoga last summer, but didn't put in another appearance until Feb. 22, winning a Gulfstream sprint. Favored when tackling two turns in stakes company next out, the handsome bay had to settle for second when Smarty Jones overcame him in the stretch of the Rebel S. at Oaklawn Mar. 20. Purge set the pace in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 10, but faded to fifth and was brought here to regroup. Forced to take the overland route from his outside post, the second choice ranged up four wide turning for home and showed a clean pair of heels, drawing off in a sharp 1:47 4/5. "I thought we were taking an easier route going to Arkansas," admitted winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "Unfortunately, we ran into the best three-year-old in the country." So will Purge take Smarty on a third time? "We didn't really plan on running in the Belmont, so we'll play it by ear," said Pletcher. "I would say that anything is a possibility." ☆ Irish 1000 Guineas ☆

BACK FOR ANOTHER GO Last year's Listed Radley S. scorer Secret Charm (Ire) (Green Desert) suffered a troubled trip in the G1 1000 Guineas and will be looking to continue the trend of also-rans in that Classic winning this in recent years, including the last two heroines Gossamer (GB) and Yesterday (Ire). "She ran a cracking race in the 1000 Guineas and Barry [trainer Hills] thought that she could probably do with another couple of weeks before she went there," Joe Mercer, racing manager to owner Maktoum al Maktoum, told Racing Post. "She ran a great race, though, but was sadly impeded from the top of the hill down to the dip."

"It is possible that she could have finished fourth," Mercer added. "We were delighted with her and thought she would come on a lot for the race. She is in there with a very good chance of a pretty big place and the stiffer track and faster ground should be in her favour." Majestic Desert (GB) (Fraam {GB}) disappointed when finishing ninth in 1000 Guineas off her victory in the G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury Apr. 17. Illustrious Miss (Kingmambo) could prove the fly in the ointment for the Classic fillies, with her unorthodox preparation only exemplifying her talent. After a smooth debut score at Newbury Apr. 16, she beat subsequent Listed Conqueror S. winner Gonfilia (Ger) and a clutch of older fillies in the G3 Chartwell Fillies' S. at Lingfield last time May 8.

Also ran: Echoes In Eternity (Ire), Hymn Of Love (Ire).
 Soviet Song gave the members of the Elite Racing Club a day to remember when winning the G1 Fillies' Mile in September 2002. But she had failed to revisit the winner's enclosure since, despite maintaining her reputation as one of the top fillies of her generation. The bay held her own against Russian Rhythm, Six Perfections (Fr) and Intercontinental (GB) when fourth in the G1 1000 Guineas last May and was the runner-up to Russian Rhythm in the G1 Coronation S. the following month. Fourth to Nebraska Tornado in the G1 Prix du Moulin, she ended the season with a fifth to Falbrav (Ire) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. in September. She was beaten a short head on her return in the Listed Snowdrop S. Apr. 10 before suffering a troubled trip when third in her latest, the G2 Sandown Mile Apr. 24. Settled on the rail in a stalking third by Johnny Murtagh throughout the early stages, she quickened to swamp the long-time leader Echoes in Eternity passing the quarter pole before stretching clear for an emphatic score. "Today she really showed her turn of foot," conditioner James Fanshawe said. "She's in two races at Royal Ascot. If I'm brave she'll go for the G1 Queen Anne S. [June 15] and if I'm windy it'll be the G2 Windsor Forest S. [June 16]." Also Ran: Tricky Flash Flood, Mambo Train, Running Free, Boomzeeboom, Stalking Tiger.

Making his stakes debut, Laura's Lucky Boy hit another gear at the top of the stretch en route to a stakes-record setting performance and could have a very bright future on the grass. The powerful bay, produced by a 3/4-sister to Horse of the Year Cigar, had a troubled trip when 10th in his career opener Feb. 28, but put that experience behind him with a victory next out Mar. 27. He added a narrow allowance win Apr. 28 and was the second choice in this eight-horse contest. Allowed to settle into stride as Running Free (Soft Gold {Brz}) and Boomzeeboom (Explosive Red) disputed the lead, Laura's Lucky Boy loomed boldly on the far turn and the race was suddenly over as the three-year-old opened up smartly. It was the first career stakes victory for trainer Jason Orman, who was scheduled to fly last night to New York to prepare Rock Hard Ten for the Belmont. "I always thought he was going to be a good horse, but he's developed a lot quicker than I thought," said the 35-year-old conditioner.

A seven-length winner for a $50,000 tag Sept. 7, Judiths Wild Rush added a head victory in an Oct. 19 allowance at this track and tacked on a 10-length score in the 1 1/16-mile Display S. Nov. 15. Despite a ninth-place effort as the favorite in the Dec. 5 Delta Jackpot S., the grey was named the champion of his generation in Canada and had just one start to his credit this term, a sixth-place finish behind Forest Danger in the GIII Bay Shore S. at Aqueduct Apr. 10. Favored on his return to Canada, Judiths Wild Rush assumed command entering the first turn, set a measured pace, kicked on at the quarter pole and was kept to task to account for Organ Grinder. "The Delta race had us confused," admitted winning trainer Scott Fairlie. "He didn't run a jump there. He was gawking the whole way around and was scrambling over the racetrack. When we got him back to the farm, he was quite foot-sore when we pulled the shoes off him. He got outsprinted in that race in New York." The winner is likely to be pointed for the Queen's Plate over 10 furlongs June 27.

Also ran: Hanabad (Ire), Orientor (GB), Osterhase (Ire), Favourite Nation (Ire), One Won One, Blue Crush (Ire), Sun Slash (Ire).

The Kiddykid took the Listed Sandy Lane S. at Haydock on this day last year before performing with credit in competitive sprint handicaps throughout the remainder of his sophomore campaign. He finished third on his return in the Listed Cammidge Trophy at Doncaster Mar. 27, but there was little evidence that he was capable of winning a contest of this nature in his poor seventh placing behind Arakan in the Listed Abernant S. at Newmarket last time Apr. 15. Stalking the early pace in third here under Jamie Spencer, he got first run on that rival when taking command with a furlong remaining and was driven out to hold on as Gary Stevens ran out of real estate on the favorite. "He ran very flat at Newmarket and I don't know why," winning trainer David Evans commented. "He goes on any ground except really firm and we may have to go abroad now, with a view to running in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 3]."

Darasim established himself as one of Europe's leading stayers last year, beating Westerner (GB) in the G2 Prix Kergorlay at Deauville in August and the G3 Prix Gladiateur at Longchamp the following month. That form was comprehensively reversed when he finished third in the G1 Prix du Cadran and last of 14 in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Longchamp the following month. A distant sixth on desperate ground on his return in the G3 Sagaro S. at Ascot Apr. 28, he erased that memory by wiring this contest in a relentless display of authority. A tilt at the G1 Ascot Gold Cup and a rematch with Westerner is on the cards for Darasim at the Royal meeting June 17. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Dance in the Mood looks to follow in the hoofprints of her full sister, Dance Partner, who took this event in 1995. Unbeaten in four previous starts, she comes off a record-setting performance in the Apr. 11 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas). "This filly has acted well no matter the conditions in her first four starts and I think she will run an impressive race even in her first try at 2400 meters," jockey Yutaka Take said. She bids to become the first since Miss Onward (Jpn) in 1957 to win both the 1000 Guineas and the Oaks while undefeated. The favorite will be challenged by last year's champion Japanese two-year-old filly Yamanin Sucre. Third in the Mar. 6 Tulip Sho, she came back to be third again in the Oka Sho. "I think the 2400 meters should suit her and I think she will act well down the long stretch at Tokyo," jockey Hirofumi Shii said.

Michael Bell was one of a host of overseas trainers commanding successful plunder of this race when Zanzibar (Ire) carried off the spoils in 2001. He saddles Tamarillo, who is already a Classic winner by virtue of her triumph over Festive Style (SAf) and Menhoubah in the UAE Oaks at Nad al Sheba Mar. 11. She was far from disgraced when sixth, again ahead of Menhoubah, in the G2 UAE Derby Mar. 27 and is bred to relish this distance. Menhoubah, who had finished in front of Tamarillo when second to Catstar in the UAE 1000 Guineas at Nad al Sheba Feb. 7, has stronger form on turf. She was third in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh in August and fourth in the G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot the following month. She had the requisite stamina for this trip when runner-up in the Listed Cheshire Oaks at Chester last time May 5. Germany has been responsible for three of the last five winners of this Classic and can add another with Lotta. Andreas Wohler's filly holds strong claims, having won the Listed Premio Zanoletti di Rozzano at this track Apr. 17. Of the home team, Noble Stella looks to have the right credentials and shaped up for this by taking a conditions event at this venue last time Mar. 20. Her stable companion Rumba Loca caused an upset when winning the G2 Premio Regina Elena in Rome May 1 before disappointing when only 10th in last Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp.

All carry 126 pounds except Livadiya, 123.

Godolphin received a blow yesterday when intended representative Sulamani was scratched due to a subcutaneous pastern infection. That has taken much of the shine off this contest, which has played a pivotal role in the launching the campaigns of Europe's top performers since it was upgraded to Group 1 status in 1999.

Nysaeen may be able to pick up the pieces after the withdrawal of the favorite, having been supplemented on the strength of gaining consecutive wins in the G3 Mooresbridge S. at this track May 3. Connections will be hoping he can stand up to a busier campaign than last term, when his only subsequent run came when seventh in the G2 Prix Dollar at Longchamp in October. He has certainly been made to work this spring, returning to finish fifth in the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 6 and fourth in the G2 Prix d'Harcourt at Longchamp Apr. 4. Fifth in the Listed Magnolia S. at Kempton just eight days later, he showed he was moving forward by finishing runner-up to Chancellor (Ire) in the G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown Apr. 24. He may be more suited to this test than last year's G2 Great Voltigeur victor Powerscourt, who represents the Aidan O'Brien team responsible for the impressive 2003 winner Black Sam Bellamy (Ire). He has been off the track since finishing third behind Vinnie Roe (Ire) in the G1 Irish St Leger at this track in September and will need further than this to be seen at his best. Godolphin used this to reintroduce Daylami (Ire) in 1999, when he finished runner-up to Shiva (Jpn), and two years later as a springboard for Fantastic Light. They are left with Naheef, who has graduated from rabbit to his illustrious stable companion to the operation's main hope. He is a decent performer in his own right, having finished third behind Victory Moon (SAf) in Round Three of the Maktoum Challenge at Nad al Sheba last time Mar. 6.

inating renewal of this contest. Despite the fact that Bright Sky (Ire) and Banks Hill (GB) have been beaten in the last two renewals, it will be a major surprise if one of these fillies fails to take this. Six Perfections began her sophomore campaign with a mighty reputation earned by an easy success in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at this track. Her subsequent unlucky defeats in both Newmarket's and The Curragh's G1 1000 Guineas in May, albeit by two top-class rivals in Russian Rhythm and Yesterday (Ire), did little to tarnish her halo. After a second to Bright Sky on her return in the G2 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville in early August, she gained the top-level success she deserved when winning the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at that track two weeks later. Her subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Mile success from a poor draw was nothing short of exceptional and she is primed to provide Pascal Bary with his third renewal after the exploits of Highest Honor (Fr) in 1987 and Croco Rouge (Ire) in 1999. Nebraska Tornado's rise to the top was more dramatic and meteoric in 2003, capturing the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes at Chantilly just a month after making her debut. She returned from a break to finish sixth behind Six Perfections in the Prix Jacques le Marois before blitzing her rivals in the G1 Prix du Moulin at this venue in September. However, she has proved difficult in the preliminaries, and her refusal to take part in a recent planned racecourse gallop is grounds for concern.

Ask for the Moon bids to cement her position as a leading contender for the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes at Chantilly June 13 in this renewal weakened by the withdrawal of Lattice (Ire). After winning a maiden at Lyon-Parilly in November, she returned to take a conditions event at Salon de Provence Feb. 5 before following up in a more competitive contest at Saint-Cloud Mar. 6. She handled the step into stakes company with an assured display in the G3 Prix Penelope at Saint-Cloud last time Apr. 9, where Super Lina was two lengths adrift in second. Richard Gibson, who took this in 2002 with Marotta (Fr), already has a leading Diane hope in G3 Prix Cleopatre winner Steel Princess (Ire). It may therefore be significant that he saddles the promising Australie here in favor of a tilt at the G1 Oaks d'Italia. Unbeaten in two starts, she looked a smart prospect when winning a course-and-distance conditions event last time Apr. 22. Elie Lellouche has yet to win this race, but Asti holds strong claims of ending that long losing run. She confirmed the impression of her debut success at Saint-Cloud Apr. 5 when chasing home Lattice in the G3 Prix Vanteaux here May 2, when Green Swallow was third. She may have come up against France's best sophomore filly that day and has considerable scope to improve.

The Sam-Son homebred is perfect in two career starts over seven furlongs, breaking her maiden at Keeneland Apr. 22 and wiring Woodbine rivals in the Fury S. May 9. "She looks like she's going to be a pretty nice filly," said trainer Mark Frostad. "Everything we see so far is good. You have to watch her because she's pretty rambunctious."

Westerner forged his reputation in the heat of the battle for the stayers' crown last fall and shows no signs of relenting this season. Emerging as one of his country's leading long-distance haulers, he captured the marathon G1 Prix du Cadran at this track on testing ground in early October before beating a stellar lineup in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak at the end of the month. Both victories coincided with the introduction of earplugs to help him to settle and therefore see out the extended trips. They were back in for his return in the G3 Prix de Barbeville, in which he comfortably handed a minimum of nine pounds and a two-length beating to Forestier, Idaho Quest and Le Carre at this venue Apr. 22. While those rivals appear to have a forlorn task in making him break sweat, Clear Thinking deserves a chance stepped up in trip, having finished third in the Listed Prix de la Porte de Madrid over 12 furlongs at this track Apr. 11.

Keeping Up With The (Smarty) Jones

Keeping Up Appearances

Triple Crown hopeful Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) had his second public gallop at Philadelphia Park yesterday morning, gliding unconcerned in front of 8,500 appreciative fans.

Smarty Jones Horsephotos

"Today was awesome," said trainer John Servis. "I mean, he relaxed so well. I was a little concerned with all the people, but he handled it well. Every day he impresses me more and more.

He was so professional, and that's what's making him the horse that he is. It's a joy to me to see people come out and flock around this horse like they do. It's great for the whole industry and I just hope it carries on." Servis indicated that the unbeaten colt would likely breeze at the end of next week. Although plans had originally called for Smarty to ship to New York Wednesday, Servis said that he would instead van the colt up a day or two before the Test of Champions. When asked whether Smarty Jones would acclimate to Belmont, Servis responded, "Well, [Belmont Park] is a lot like Pimlico. I've run a lot of horses there and I've taken them up the morning of the race and they've run very well. My horse is doing really well right now, and you know the old saying, 'if it ain't broke, don't fix it.' We're keeping things the way they are."

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

Tapit Tunes Up for Belmont

Tapit (Pulpit), ninth in the GI Kentucky Derby, covered five furlongs in 1:07 2/5 at trainer Michael

Tapit Jim McCue/MJC

Dickinson's Tapeta Farm in Maryland. "Tapit breezed five furlongs on the Tapeta all-weather dirt track, which rises gently throughout," read a statement on Dickinson's website. "He worked under exercise rider Jonathan Ferriday. "The time...was the faster of the two works of the day. This is a standard time for this track." Prior to the Derby, the handsome grey captured the GI Wood Memorial S. Apr. 10.

Peter Pan Fallout

While trainer Todd Pletcher is considering sending GII Peter Pan S. hero Purge (Pulpit) to the GI Belmont S. in two weeks, most of the also-rans will not reappear in the 12-furlong test. The 8-5 favorite Master David (Grand Slam) was outrun early before finishing belatedly to save third. "I don't think so," said trainer Bobby Frankel when asked about the Belmont.

Swingforthefences (Boston Harbor), a clear runner-up, is also unlikely. "I doubt he's going to the Belmont," said trainer Rick Violette. "If he was a legitimate mile and a half horse, then you would have to say 'yes.' But there are so many options, and it is still a long year, so you can skip the Belmont and wait for a right spot. We wouldn't just go to run; we don't need a free table that badly. Besides, there is only one horse that can beat Smarty Jones. That's Smarty Jones." Friends Lake (A.P. Indy), winner of the GI Florida Derby in March, will skip the Belmont following a lackluster seventh in the Peter Pan. "Richie [jockey Migliore] said he was very spotty," said trainer John Kimmel. "He would give a little run and then drop the bridle. He's not going to the Belmont."

Zito Looking to End Streak of Seconds

Trainer Nick Zito, who has saddled the runner-up five times in the GI Belmont S., could field as many as three colts in the starting gate two weeks hence. Birdstone (Grindstone), winner of the GI Champagne S. last October, breezed five-eighths in 1:02 4/5 over the Oklahoma track at Saratoga yesterday morning. "We all know the horse by now," said Zito. "If it looks like he can be in the money or he's got a shot at it, we'll go. If not, we'll give him more time." Zito was not discouraged by the small colt's eighth-place finish in the GI Kentucky Derby May 1. "A lot of people don't realize he ran good in the Derby," said Zito. "He finished ahead of a lot of good horses." Stablemate The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), forced to skip the Preakness with a deep bruise in his right front foot, is back in training at Saratoga and may make the Belmont. "He's galloping every day now," Zito added. "He's got to be 100 percent to run. We're going to try as hard as we can...but we're not going to do anything foolish. He's got to be his old self." Zito will definitely send Royal Assault (Kris S.) in an attempt to deny Smarty Jones the Triple Crown. "I like the way he's going," Zito said of the Sir Barton S. winner. "Before he [ever] ran, I thought he was a Belmont horse."

Gate 101 for Rock Hard Ten

Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.), who held up the start after a disagreement with the Pimlico gate crew prior to his runner-up effort in the GI Preakness S., was introduced to the New York Racing Association starter, Bob Duncan, Saturday morning at Belmont. "This was a good first day," said Duncan. "When he first came here this morning, I needed a lot of pressure to get him to back up. Before too long, I could back him up with less pressure and finally, all I had to do was move my shoulders a little bit." The imposing colt is scheduled to be ridden by Pat Valenzuela, but that jockey may be serving a suspension unless he appeals the decision by the California Horse Racing Board.

The diminutive chestnut was sent off the 17-10 favorite in her return, the Apr. 7 Madison S. at Keeneland, but tired to be seventh. She rebounded to take a Churchill allowance test Apr. 24 and was odds-on to continue her winning ways. Everheart came back after a three-month absence to be second in an off-the-turf optional claimer at the Fair Grounds Feb. 16, but went one better in her second start back, winning on the main track Mar. 7. She shipped to Keeneland after that race and was sent off the 3-5 chalk in an allowance test Apr. 17, but had to settle for third, beaten 3/4 of a length, after a troubled trip. The heavy chalk to atone for that loss in her first try in Texas, the dark bay was prominent from the outset, rolling to the front in the stretch and drawing clear.

Aidan O'Brien yesterday revealed that G1 Epsom Derby favorite Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) pulled out "a shade stiff" yesterday morning after an exercise. Susan Magnier's unbeaten G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial winner was described as on course for the Classic despite the minor scare. "It's probably nothing and has never happened before, and it's nothing unusual," he said. "Everything else has been 100 percent up until now."

Russian Blue barely had to extend himself in his two encounters with a racecourse and it was plain sailing for the colt again here as he provided Aidan O'Brien with his fifth renewal in the last six years. Twice impressive over course-and-distance Mar. 21 and May 3, he never looked likely to be headed in this contest, merely needing to be kept up to his work to comfortably hold the dead-heaters L'Altro Mondo and Kay Two. "He's a lovely colt and he can go for the G2 Coventry S. [at Royal Ascot June 15] now."

He made no mistake next time when winning a similar event over Chester's five furlongs and continued his upward progression by reversing form with his Ayr conqueror in impressive fashion here. Showing early dash to shade the advantage over High Voltage, he quickened clear of that rival inside the final quarter and was in no danger as Boogie Street emerged from the pack to chase. "He showed a lot of speed early on and I was a little bit concerned he was running a bit free, but once he hit the front, he pricked his ears," jockey Kevin Darley explained. "He's very uncomplicated with a lovely attitude and when I gave him a kick in the belly two out, he lengthened well."

With African Dream (GB), Red Lancer (GB) and Hazyview grabbing a large chunk of the action in the better middle-distance events for sophomores, this spring will be remembered as the time when the handicappers rose above the blue bloods. All three have firmly established themselves as decent stakes performers and Hazyview rammed the point home here, adding to his success in the Listed Newmarket S. at this track May 1. He had received a 10-length beating in the interim from Epsom Derby contender Percussionist (Ire) in the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial last time May 8, but that margin may have been exaggerated by the heavy ground and the extended 11-furlong trip. Settled in a stalking third throughout the early stages of this contest, he allowed Duke of Venice first run inside the final quarter before quickening out of the "dip" to collar that rival at the eighth pole and asserting in the closing stages. "A lot of people wrote this horse off after what happened last time, but he is pretty decent," trainer Neville Callaghan told PA Sport. "It was my fault for running him on ground that he doesn't like, but you saw what he can do today."

Just a week after her half brother Pukka (Ire) took a competitive handicap at Newbury, Pongee stepped forward to provide another boost to her family by opening her stakes account in this contest. She took a four-timer into the Listed Galtres S. at York last August, but proved no match for subsequent G1 Prix Vermeilles winner Mezzo Soprano on that occasion, fading to finish seventh. Shaping well on her return when third behind Desert Royalty in a Salisbury handicap May 13, she reversed that form here. She stalked the early pace before quickening to lead approaching the eighth pole and comfortably held that rival in the drive to the line.

Fokine finished a head second to Balmont in the G2 Gimcrack S. at York in August before finishing seventh in the G1 Middle Park S. at this track in October. He returned to finish second to Rosencrans in the Listed Spring Cup on Lingfield's polytrack Mar. 20 before filling the same spot behind the smart Salford City (Ire) in the G3 Greenham S. at Newbury last time Apr. 17. Settled on the flanks of early pace-setter Cartography in this contest, he quickened to lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and gained a valuable advantage exiting the "dip." Joined by Peak to Creek in the final 50 yards, he showed determination to regain his advantage in the drive to the line and record a belated first stakes success. Fokine could be bound for the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot June 16, according to conditioner Barry Hills. "This is quite a poignant win for me, seeing a horse of mine win in Robert's colors," he told PA Sport. "He has always been a nice horse and he very rarely runs a bad race. He struggled to quicken off the ground a bit in the Greenham last time, but he still ran very respectably and it is good to see him back in the winner's enclosure."

UNICORN SCORES POPULAR VICTORY

Electronic Unicorn (Housebuster), favored at 7-10, uncorked a wide rally into the Sha Tin stretch and swept to the front with 300 meters to run en route to a 1/2-length victory over Super Kid (NZ) (Gaius {Ire}) in yesterday's G2-HK Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup. The eight-year-old, who has recovered from a tendon injury, was making his first trip to the winner's circle since annexing the G1-HK Champions' Mile in April 2003. Prior to this start, he was a good third to Silent Witness (Aus) in the G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize. Settled in the back of the pack as the leaders went a slow gallop, the John Size trainee gained on the far turn and showed his customary turn of foot before going on to the victory. In recording the 11th win of his career from 32 starts, Electronic Unicorn took his earnings to HK$33.7 million ($4.3 million). For a video replay, choose: modem or broadband.
