DAIWA EL CIELO SCORES OAKS UPSET

Daiwa El Cielo (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) upset the field to take Sunday's G1-Jpn Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) in Tokyo, while the heavily favored previously unbeaten Dance in the Mood (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) struggled home fourth. Daiwa El Cielo won at first asking last December, but found Sweep Tosho (Jpn) (End Sweep) too much and finished behind that filly in the Kobai S. one month later. Victorious in the G3 Queen's Cup in February, Daiwa El Cielo couldn't muster the same kind of finish in her most recent start, when she had to settle for seventh in the G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) last month. Overlooked for her return to Group 1 company, the filly broke from post 13 and was content to track pacesetter Winglet (Jpn) (Taiki Shuttle) early. With a powerful move on the backstretch, Daiwa El Cielo moved past that filly and held the advantage all the way home, holding off the late charge of her nemesis Sweep Tosho, who finished 3/4-lengths back in second. Dance in the Mood, winner of the Oka Sho, finished further back in fourth. "She was in great condition and she appears to be a filly who can handle a longer distance," said winning trainer Kunihide Matsuda. Matsuda indicated that the filly will be targeted toward the G1 Shuka Sho Oct. 17.

Eddington Works Towards Belmont

Eddington (Unbridled), third in the G1 Preakness S., worked a bullet half mile at Belmont Park yesterday in :46 2/5 with retired Hall of Fame jockey Angel Cordero

in the irons. The chestnut colt is one of six confirmed starters for the June 5 G1 Belmont S. "It was quicker than we wanted, but we did want something quick," explained trainer Mark Hennig. "I wanted to make sure he didn't get too relaxed. I got him in :22 4/5 for his last quarter, so we'll look to move forward off this. He had his ears laid back and he wasn't looking around." Cordero added, "He went very good. He changed his leads perfectly. He was very aggressive. For a big horse, he's agile and a beautiful mover."

Royal Assault (Kris S.), winner of the Sir Barton S. on the Preakness undercard, worked six furlongs over Belmont's main track yesterday in 1:16.

The other definite Belmont starters are Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.), Tapit (Pulpit), Tap Dancer (Sword Dance {Ire}) and Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality). Considered possible are the Nick Zito pair of Birdstone (Grindstone) and The Cliff's Edge (Gulch).

Extra Schooling for Rock Hard Ten

Preakness runner-up Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) was a handful behind the gate before the Preakness and has been getting extra schooling at Belmont. Trainer Jason Orman has taken the giant colt to the gate the last three mornings and has been working with New York Racing Association starter Bob Duncan. "He's spent about 20 minutes to a half hour at the gate," Orman said. "The horse gets back there and Bob just gets him to drop his head. Bob knows what he's doing and we let him do whatever he wants with the horse." Rock Hard Ten is scheduled to work this morning.

Purge Likely to Skip Belmont

Purge (Pulpit), winner of Saturday's GII Peter Pan, looks likely to skip the Belmont S., according to trainer Todd Pletcher. "There are a lot of spots out there and we don't want to come back too soon in the Belmont," Pletcher explained. The July 11 GII Dwyer could be on the colt's summer schedule.

KEEPING UP WITH THE (SMARTY) JONES

Smarty Watch 2004

Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) continued his preparations for the June 5 GI Belmont S. with a 1 3/4-mile gallop at Philadelphia Park yesterday. Current plans call for the colt to work Friday and ship to Belmont June 2. "That could change, but that's the way it is right now," said trainer John Servis. "He'll gallop two miles [today] and then I'll give him two mediocre days, probably a mile and a half gallops on Wednesday and Thursday. We'll probably gallop him with the pony on Thursday leading into the work. Again, I don't want him too sharp and I don't want him too sharp for the work. Right now it probably looks like I'm going to work him seven furlongs, a slow seven furlongs for him. I don't want him too sharp. I don't want him working in :58 and then trying to run off in the first part of the race. Right now the big thing with him is trying to take a little bit of the edge off and trying to keep him happy." Jockey Stewart Elliott will be aboard for Friday's work.

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

Attraction Ascot Bound

The Duke of Roxburghe's Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) is on course for a tilt at the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 18 after her success in Sunday's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh. The dual Classic winner came out of Sunday's race with "no problems" and is set to contest the mile race at the Royal meeting. "At the moment, we are thinking about the Coronation S. at Royal Ascot for her next race," trainer Mark Johnston's wife Deirdre told PA Sport yesterday. "She is just amazing and I don't think that we have got to the bottom of her yet." Also likely in the race is Kinnaird (Ire) (Dr Devious {Ire}), fourth in Sunday's contest.

Duke to the Palace

Saturday's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Bachelor Duke (Miswaki) will attempt to confirm the form of that Classic in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 15. Confirming the plan to go to the Royal meeting after his length defeat of Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift) at The Curragh, conditioner James Toller said yesterday, "He's come out of the race very well and was extremely fresh this morning. I felt, had the Irish race been run at a stronger pace, he would have won easier as he just sprinted for three furlongs." He will face a rematch with G1 2000 Guineas winner Haafhd (GB) at Ascot, having trailed that rival in seventh in the Newmarket Classic. "We've still got ground to make up on him, even looking at the Irish form, but it's a challenge we would certainly like to have a go at," Toller added. Bachelor Duke will also meet Azamour again as John Oxx effectively ruled out next Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby for His Highness the Aga Khan's colt. "I still have to discuss things with the Aga Khan, but I expect the decision will be to run him next in the St James's Palace," the trainer told PA Sport. Irish Guineas fourth-placed Leitrim House (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) is also expected in the mile contest.

Mar. 28, En Dehors was sent off a 7-2 chance to record his second straight group victory. Settled in a stalking fourth early by jockey Mikio Matsunaga, the five-year-old squeezed in along the rail to take command in the final furlong and inched clear in the drive to collect the half-length victory. "The distance seemed to suit him," said Matsunaga. "When I asked him, he answered impressively. He has improved a lot."

A well-beaten fourth in his latest, the G1 Tenno Sho May 2, Chakra drew outside in the field of 18 in his attempt to collect his second group victory. Rushed over to the inside early by jockey Yoshitomi Shibata, the four-year-old rushed to the front in the stretch and held off the late charge of Treasure, establishing a new track record in the process.

It was quite a weekend for John and Lady Carolyn Warren, the husband-and-wife team who operate Highclere Stud near Newbury. The stud's veteran stallion Ef시오 was in the news again, thanks to his unbeaten daughter Attraction. This remarkable filly once again proved too fast and determined for the opposition when she notched her seventh victory--and her second at classic level--in the G1 Boylesports Irish 1000 Guineas. Attraction's win came less than two hours after the G1 Prix Saint-Alary provided a fifth straight victory for Ask For The Moon, a filly from the first crop by Dr Fong. This son of Kris S. will move to Highclere this summer, after his current base, Side Hill Stud, becomes part of the Juddmonte empire.

I'm sure that the Warrens will be delighted if Dr Fong proves as efficient as Ef시오 in making the most of his opportunities. With six Group 1 winners now to his credit, the 22-year-old son of Formidable has surely confounded those who gave him little chance of lasting the course when he embarked on his stallion career in 1988.

Although Ef시오 had established himself as one of only two Group 1 winners by Formidable (the other being Metropolitan H. winner Forzando), his Group 1 win was gained in the relative backwater of Italy and so was his Group 2 success. As his best efforts in England had been a pair of Group 3 successes over seven furlongs, he faced something of an uphill struggle, especially as he was based in Kent, some way from the main breeding areas. On the plus side, Ef시오 won a group race in each of his four seasons in training and he possessed the precocity which often appeals to breeders. Indeed, he was unbeaten in four juvenile starts, showing the same quick-maturing qualities that had brought Formidable five consecutive successes, including the Middle Park S., at two. No wonder Attraction did so well in the first half of last year, when she strung together five victories to establish herself as the best juvenile filly in Europe.

Ef시오's opening fee of only £2,000 soon fell lower still, and it wasn't until this year--his 17th season at stud--that Ef시오 finally commanded a five-figure fee. The turnaround in his fortunes began virtually as soon as his first runners reached the track in 1991, when his son Casteddu collected the very valuable Racecall Gold Trophy. He did even better with a second crop headed by Pips Pride (G1 Phoenix S.) and Young Ern (a dual Group 3 winner who was twice second at the Group 1 level), and his third maintained this excellent start, producing the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp winner Hever Golf Rose.

What made Ef시오's achievements all the more notable was the fact that these four group winners came from a total of only 95 foals in his first three crops. In a bid for wider opportunities, Ef시오 spent the 1992 and 1993 seasons in the north of England and the 50 foals in his 1994 crop included his third Group 1 winner in Tomba (Prix de la Foret).

Ef시오's spell at Highclere, which began in 1994, has added three further Group 1 winners from consecutive crops, with the Prix Vermeille heroine Pearly Shells coming from his 1999 crop; the impressive Italian colt Le Vie dei Colori (who has now been transferred to England) from the 2000 edition and Attraction from the 2001 vintage.

If there's an interesting story to tell about Attraction's sire, there's an even better story attached to her female line, which carried the insulting and inaccurate description of "half-bred" until 1969. Cont. p. 5

If you go back to Attraction's eighth dam Verdict, you will find that she showed excellent form in the early 1920s, starting with an unbeaten four-race campaign at two in 1922. She later gained major victories in the Cambridgeshire H. and Coronation Cup. Unfortunately, she wasn't eligible for the General Stud Book.

As the Biographical Encyclopaedia of British Flat Racing records:

"The original compiler [of the Stud Book] defined no qualifications for entry...Problems arose later as other countries began to develop breeds of racehorses of their own, derived mostly from English stock...After the middle of the 19th Century foreign-bred horses and mares began to be imported into England, and were admitted to the General Stud Book if used for breeding. Most of these imports were traceable directly to English stock, but there were exceptions. The majority of these exceptions were bred in the United States, because there had been horse racing on the North American continent since the early days of English colonization and many racehorse bloodlines had been established there before the formation of the General Stud Book; moreover, the first American Stud Book was not published until 1868, and contained many demonstrable inaccuracies.

"The problem became acute as the flow of imports from the United States increased rapidly and became a flood early in the 20th Century as anti-betting legislation was introduced in many States. The pedigrees of a high proportion of these American-bred horses contained elements considered to be of doubtful authenticity. In order to cope with this problem the conditions for admission to the General Stud Book were made progressively more stringent. The tightening-up process culminated in the so-called Jersey Act of Vol 22 (1913), which imposed the following qualification for entry: 'No horse or mare can, after this date, be considered as eligible for admission unless it can be traced without flaw on both sire's and dam's side of its pedigree to horses and mares themselves already accepted in the earlier volumes of the Book.'"

Information as to the American races, race results and earnings was obtained from results charts published in Daily Racing Form and utilized here with the permission of the copyright owner, Daily Racing Form.

Both Verdict's sire, Shogun, and her dam, Finale, were classified as half-bred and she also had some American blood further back in her pedigree. That didn't stop Verdict becoming the dam of Quashed, an outstanding filly who won the Oaks in 1935, and Versicle, a Ribblesdale S. winner who ranks as Attraction's seventh dam. Although the Jersey Act was rescinded in 1949, this didn't help the Verdict family and Verdict's great granddaughter Lavant was still considered a half-bred when she produced a filly by Lucero in 1962 and a colt by Princely Gift in 1965. However, the stigma was finally removed in 1969 after the Lucero filly Lucasland collected the 1966 July Cup and the Princely Gift colt So Blessed had won the same race in 1968, plus the Nunthorpe S.

Attraction has Lucasland's granddaughter Eastern Shore as her second dam. Small breeders will note with enthusiasm that none of Attraction's first three dams managed to win, but her third dam Land Ho is ancestress of such notable performers as Lord of Men, winner of the G1 Prix de la Salamandre, and Her Ladyship, runner-up in the French Oaks.

Another of Lucasland's granddaughters, the Group 3-winning miler Stumped, produced the outstanding Sonic Lady. This daughter of Nureyev followed up her win in the 1986 Irish 1000 Guineas with Group 1 victories over the colts in the Sussex S. and Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. Could history be about to repeat itself through the similarly talented Attraction? It's not impossible, as Attraction was rated only two pounds below the top colt on the International Classification and she will receive three pounds when she meets the males.

Met Mile Hopefuls Work:

Strong Hope (Grand Slam), scheduled to make his next start in Monday's GI Metropolitan H. at Belmont Park, worked five furlongs at Belmont yesterday in :59 2/5. "He's set," retired Hall of Fame jockey Angel Cordero said after working the Todd Pletcher trainee. "I've been getting on him since he was a baby and it's been fun watching him develop. He's very powerful and reminds me a lot of Seattle Slew the way he carries himself. He's got so much power, but he's smooth as silk. He's very obedient and a very, very good horse." Strong Hope is coming off a strong runner-up finish to Pico Central in the Apr. 10 GI Carter H. at Aqueduct.

Also working towards the Met Mile, 2002 Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter) zipped six furlongs in 1:12.20 over a fast track at Churchill Downs yesterday. It was the fastest of three moves at the distance. The six-year-old chestnut was second in the seven-furlong GI Humana Distaff H. at Churchill May 1 in her most recent trip to the post.

Peace Rules (Jules), nominated to the Met Mile but expected to start in the June 12 GI Stephen Foster H. instead, worked a bullet five furlongs at Belmont yesterday in :59 1/5. The Bobby Frankel trainee has been off since winning the Apr. 3 GII Oaklawn H.

CLASSIC PIPER (c, 3, Sky Classic--Lone Piper, by Dehere), a good fourth in his career opener over Gulfstream's sod Mar. 17, drew into this event when it was moved to the main track. Proving he could handle the slop, the Chiefswood homebred tracked intently, moved into contention turning for home and outfinished Lettherebejustice (Lit de Justice) for the driving one-length tally at 7-2 odds. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $40,420.

A costly mistake, as it turned out, as the bay rallied in tandem with Jebby (Lord Carson) to overtake 2-5 chalk Heartful Hero (Partner's Hero) in deep stretch before asserting late to best Jebby by 3/4 lengths. While the winning mutuel paid $50.40, bridgejumpers taken with Heartful Hero ensured a meager $2.10 show price. Lady Glade represents the second winner for her Florida-based freshman sire (by Saint Ballado). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,800.

Morgan Hospitalized After Churchill Spill:

Veteran jockey Mike Morgan was hospitalized overnight for treatment of injuries suffered in a spill during the running of the final race at Churchill Downs Sunday. Morgan and three other jockeys--Rafael Bejarano, Daniel Coa and Joe Deegan--were thrown to the track when their mounts fell near the top of the stretch. Bejarano did not require medical treatment. Coa and Deegan were treated and released Sunday evening, while Morgan remained overnight for observation at Norton Audobon Hospital on Monday. Morgan's mount Lady's Don't Tell was euthanized Sunday evening after suffering a fractured shoulder when she stumbled over Lil' Bit of Pucker, who was the first horse to fall in the chain-reaction spill.

Victory U.S.A. Acorn Bound:

Victory U.S.A. (Victory Gallop) will skip an expected start in Churchill's GIII Dogwood Breeders' Cup May 30 in favor of Belmont Park's GI Acorn S. on June 4 after a strong work yesterday. The filly, winner of the GII Stonerside Beaumont, worked five furlongs in :59.20 at Churchill Downs. The work tied as the fastest of three at the distance. Trainer Bob Baffert's decision was helped by the defection of the speedy Madcap Escapade. "I didn't want to hook her going that fast at that distance," Baffert said of the GI Ashland winner. "We were on the fence waiting to see what Madcap Escapade would do." Victory U.S.A. finished fourth in the Apr. 30 GI Kentucky Oaks.

FILLIES SET FOR REMATCH

The Niarchos Family's Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) looks likely to take on Cheveley Park Stud's Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 15. After finishing runner-up to Prince Kirk (Fr) in Sunday's G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp, connections nominated the mile contest for last year's G1 Breeders' Cup Mile heroine. "She ran a great race, but she didn't quite stay [the extended nine furlongs]. Now we will point her at the Queen Anne." Russian Rhythm was yesterday confirmed on target for that race, setting up a fascinating rematch a year on from their first encounter in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket. Russian Rhythm came out 1 1/2 lengths on top on that occasion, when Six Perfections suffered a troubled trip. The Sir Michael Stoute-trained filly re-appeared to take the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury last time May 15. "I still have to talk to Sir Michael and her owners, Mr. and Mrs. [David and Patricia] Thompson, but I should have thought the Queen Anne was the likely plan," Cheveley Park Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson told PA Sport yesterday. "She has come out of the Lockinge really well and she looks great."

Also ran: Country Reel, Twilight Blues (Ire), Miss George (GB), Stormont (Ire), Baltic King (GB), Bonus (Ire).

Celtic Mill has been plying his trade at small northern turf tracks and on Wolverhampton's fibresand, which lends itself to his front-running style. Stepping up from a Thirsk handicap score last time May 15, he took on proven stakes performers in this contest and showed them a clean pair of heels. Quickest away, he was soon in command of his closest pursuer La Cucaracha and had enough in the tank to comfortably hold the late challenge of Ashdown Express in the closing stages.

Starting here as the 4-6 pick, the Ir£14,000 GOFNOV weanling and 27,000gns DONSEP yearling led from the outset and kicked clear inside the final quarter mile to beat St Andrews (Ire) (Celtic Swing {GB}) by an impressive six lengths. SOLID TRADE AT BADEN-BADEN

Yesterday's Baden-Baden Spring Mixed Sale was buoyed by the involvement of Con Marnane's Bansha House Stables, who made their presence felt during the Breeze-Up section. It was that consignor who was responsible for the session's top price as hip 103, a Danehill half sister to G3 Chester Vase winner High Baroque (Ire), was knocked down to the newly-formed Stall Antanando for €70,000. That followed an earlier success for Marnane after hip 62, the sole Montjeu (Ire) colt in the sale, was purchased by the same outfit for €61,000. Germany's exciting new sire Tiger Hill (Ire) was responsible for the second highest-priced two-year-old when hip 46, a half brother to last year's G3 Prix de Seine-et-Oise hero Soave (Ger), was purchased by Stall Ampuria for €64,000. "It was a solid trade in relation to the domestic situation in Germany," commented BBAG Managing Director Verena Gang. "We are pleased with the outcome, the foreign interest and the final figures."
