AZERI TO CARRY 117 IN MET MILE

Looking to tackle males for the first time in her storied career, 2002 Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter) will carry a 117-pound impost in Monday's GI Metropolitan

H. at Belmont Park. The six-year-old mare, the technical highweight at 122, but awarded a five-pound sex allowance, will carry two fewer pounds than GI Carter H. victor Pico Central (Brz) (Spend a Buck) and that race's second-place finisher, Strong Hope (Grand Slam), who will race at 119. Others slated to line up in Monday's prestigious race include GI Kentucky Derby hero Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) (118), Speightstown (Gone West) (117), Gygistar (Prospector's Music) (115), Mobil (Langfuhr) (115), Bowman's Band (Dixieland Band) (114), Eye of the Tiger (American Chance) (114), and Saarland (Unbridled) (113).

CITY EPSOM BOUND

Michael Tabor's Salford City (Ire) (Desert Sun {GB}) was described as "increasingly likely" to line up in the June 5 Epsom Derby after pleasing connections in a racecourse gallop at Epsom yesterday. Despite a strangles scare, Salford City's trainer, David Elsworth, was one of a host of conditioners who took their Classic contenders to the Surrey venue for a feel of the unique undulations. Partnered by Johnny Murtagh, the G3 Greenham S. scorer was accompanied by two stable companions and handled the track in "most satisfactory" fashion, according to his trainer, who told PA Sport, "We have trained him since [finishing sixth in] the 2000 Guineas so that we could run in the Derby if we wanted to and it is looking increasingly likely that he will. The owner is quite keen to run and there is only one Derby." Despite the confirmation of two cases of strangles, caused by streptococcus equi, at a nearby livery yard, Clerk of the Course Andrew Cooper reiterated that next weekend's Derby meeting would be unaffected. "All the livery yards around here have shut up and everybody is taking things very seriously," he told PA Sport.

Keeping Up With The (Smarty) Jones

Smarty Gallops, Servis Schools Penn Kids Friday

Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) stretched his legs Wednesday morning, galloping a mile and five-eighths at Philadelphia Park under the supervision of trainer John Servis. "He galloped very good," said Servis. "I was going to gallop him with the pony, but he seemed pretty full of himself early on, so I went ahead and galloped him by himself. It was very good, and I'll probably give him an easy day [today] before his workout Friday." Smarty Jones is expected to work at 5:30 a.m. with jockey Stewart Elliot aboard.

Servis, meanwhile, has more on his plate Friday than a key work for his Triple Crown hopeful: the sandy-haired conditioner is planning on stopping by the Faust School in Bensalem, PA, to talk to school children about "achieving in spite of adversity." Billed as the "Smarty Jones Rally," the event will begin at 2:00 p.m. and will include a 'Smarty' highlight video set to music. "I'm really looking forward to this," said Servis. "We've gotten so much fan mail from the kids and if I can go in there and make a difference in just one kid's life, it'll be great."

In a piece of news that isn't, Servis revealed that 'Smarty' had suffered a minor foot bruise prior to the chestnut's victory in the GI Kentucky Derby. "He was a little tender on a foot one morning," said Servis, "and we actually elected to shoe him a little earlier than his scheduled time, just to make sure he didn't have something going on. It turned out to be the right move because the blacksmith ended up cutting a bruise out of his [right] foot, and I think that helped. We've been staying on top of the foot and [it] seems real good."

Grade I Winner #20?

LAURA'S LUCKY BOY, by Theatrical, sets a Stakes Record while winning the G3 Will Rogers Handicap by 4 lengths in his first Stakes appearance.

STREET THEATRE, a $500,000 2yo also by Theatrical, was third.

OUTBREAK WON'T AFFECT BREEDERS' CUP...

FOR NOW Breeders' Cup officials, following news that three horses in West Texas were stricken with vesicular stomatitis (VS)--a contagious viral infection--have indicated that they have no immediate plans to relocate the Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships, set to take place at Lone Star Park Oct. 30. "We are closely monitoring the evidence of Vesicular Stomatitis virus in West Texas with the Texas Animal Health Center, U.S.D.A., and Lone Star Park officials," explained D.G. Van Clief, Jr., president of Breeders' Cup Limited. "It is an isolated case that has affected three horses on a nine-horse farm in a sparsely populated area located about 500 miles west of Lone Star Park. It is our intention to conduct the 2004 Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships at Lone Star Park in Grand Prairie. Any change to those plans will be determined based upon the containment of the virus. It is standard procedure for Breeders' Cup Ltd. to consider alternative sites when the situation calls for a possible change, no matter how remote. Presently, it is premature to speculate on any alternatives."

Lone Star officials announced Thursday afternoon that each of the 1,450 horses stabled on the grounds had been examined and none showed signs of VS. "Because Lone Star Park is hosting important national stakes races on Memorial Day and the Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships this October, it's only natural that we pay close attention to this case, no matter how isolated and remote it is," said the track's Vice President and General Manager Jeff Greco. "To cast fears aside, we asked the Texas Racing Commission to oversee these independent examinations so that horsemen around the globe could be assured that it's safe to bring their horses to Lone Star Park."

MARY KAY JOHNSON DIES Mary Kay Johnson, wife of Hall of Fame trainer Phil "P.G." Johnson, died Tuesday night at St. Francis Hospital in Roslyn, NY, of an apparent heart attack. She was 79. Mrs. Johnson was admitted to Mercy Hospital in Rockville Center, NY, after suffering a fall on Monday. She was later transferred to St. Francis for additional testing. Phil and Mary Kay, who were married for 59 years, raced horses under the banner Amherst Stable. Their blue and pink silks became part of Breeders' Cup lore when 43-1 spoiler Volponi captured the 2002 renewal of the GI Classic, resulting in one of the biggest upsets in the history of the event. Funeral services will be private. The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Ronald McDonald House of Long Island, 267-07 76th Ave., New Hyde Park, NY, 11042; telephone: (516) 775-5683; www.rmhlongisland.com.

Frenchglen exited the maiden ranks with a six-length tally at Gulfstream Feb. 15 and followed that with a third to Madcap Escapade in the GII Stonerside Forward Gal S. Mar. 13. The bay caused a stir next out in a Keeneland allowance, winning by 12 lengths Apr. 21, and was odds-on to keep her streak alive. Hustled to the front, the Jones homebred set a pressured pace and shook free in the stretch, but had to find a bit more to deny Why You's late bid.

The $130,000 KEESEP yearling wired Gulfstream allowance foes Apr. 21, but was the 7-2 third choice while travelling an additional quarter mile here. Showing good speed early, the bay assumed command in the stretch, but was headed by Kilkea Castle (Pleasant Colony) in the final furlong before battling back to win by a nose. Favored Juliette (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a Bobby Frankel-trained filly, came on late for third, beaten 5 3/4 lengths. Improving Wilson Released from Shock Trauma:

Jockey Rick Wilson, who suffered serious head injuries when unseated and then kicked by his mount in a race at Pimlico May 8, continues to improve and has been transferred from the University of Maryland's Shock Trauma Center. After being upgraded to stable condition, Wilson was moved to Kernan Rehabilitation Hospital. "He's really progressed well," said Wilson's agent, John Salzman, Jr. "His wife and I were talking over the weekend that it seemed we were at a lull, but once they stopped sedating him, he responded quickly. She called Monday to say he was being moved out of intensive care and yesterday told me he was headed to rehab. He is unbelievably tough."

Arlington Renews 'Get in the Game' Program:

Chicago's Arlington Park will renew its 'Get in the Game' program, a series aimed at educating beginners and casual racing fans about Thoroughbred racing and handicapping, beginning Memorial Day (Monday, May 31). The introductory session will be held in the Starting Gate Theatre and is slated to run from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. "What we are trying to do this summer is return the 'Get in the Game' program to its original focus," said Keith Darby, senior director of marketing and sales at Arlington Park. "We want our newer guests to be introduced to and learn all the cool things about our sport that novices might not know. We want them to be able to come to 'Get In The Game' sessions and leave saying, 'I never knew that until today.'" A total of 31 sessions are scheduled for the 2004 season. DAYANO IMPRESSES IN SPIN FOR DERBY ITALIANO

Dayano (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) came through his final serious work prior to Sunday's G1 Derby Italiano in Rome with flying colors yesterday. Conditioner Andreas Wohler was on hand to oversee the impressive winner of the Listed Premio Emanuele Filiberto in Milan May 9 on the straight sand track at the San Rossore training center. Working with stable companion Simonas (Ire) (Sternkonig {Ire}), he quickened up at the end of the gallop, leaving connections optimistic about his chances in the Classic. Relaxed Gesture (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) is likely to form a strong overseas challenge for the €990,000 contest. Conditioner Dermot Weld plans to ship the runner-up to Yeats (Ire) in the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown May 9 on the morning of the race. Other foreign interest may be added by Listed Easter S. winner Privy Seal (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and G3 Dee S. runner-up Putra Sas (Ire) (Sri Pekan), who have yet to be committed by John Gosden and Paul Cole, respectively, and Apeiron (Ger) (Devil River Peek), the winner of the G3 Stadtrat Albert von Metzler-Rennen at Frankfurt Apr. 25. Distant Way (Distant View), who beat Groom Tesse (GB) (Groom Dancer) and Sa Fem Zifulum (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}) in the Listed Premio Botticelli at the track May 9, was reported on course for the Classic by Lorenzo Brogi, while the second and third have pleased Fabrizio and Luigi Camici in their build-up. The Botti brothers will have three runners headed by G2 Premio Parioli runner-up Bravo Tazio (Ire) (Sri Pekan), while Bruno Grizzetti has booked Gary Stevens for Whilly (Ire) (Sri Pekan), who disappointed on the soft ground when sixth in that mile Classic last time. Heavy showers over the Capannelle made the ground very testing last Sunday, but the subsequent dry spell has left the ground officially good at present.

EPSOM OUT FOR BULL RUN

Godolphin have decided not to supplement Bull Run (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}) for next Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby after the unbeaten colt missed a vital exercise in Newmarket. The colt, who took an Apr. 21 Epsom conditions event by 15 lengths, was described as "not moving correctly" by the operation's website and will wait for either the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 6 or G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot June 18.

PUKKA BOOKS EPSOM TICKET

Fittocks Stud's Pukka (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) will run in next Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby after pleasing connections in a workout at Newmarket yesterday. The Newbury handicap scorer will bid to provide conditioner Luca Cumani his third renewal of the Classic after exercising around a replica Derby bend on the Newmarket gallops. "He's a very handy, well-balanced little horse, so Epsom shouldn't be a problem," the trainer's wife Sara told PA Sport. "He'll definitely stay and has an incredibly good temperament. Whether he's good enough we'll only know by running him. There's only one Derby and it looks fairly open, so it's worth a shot."

This race was supposed to showcase the return of the talented Vinnie Roe, but all it will be remembered for will be the farce that unfolded as Johnny Murtagh was handed the race on Windermere. Formerly a smart performer for John Gosden when finishing fifth in the Listed Aston Park S. at Newbury in May and second in the Listed Prix la Moskowa at Chantilly in June, he had enjoyed a brief campaign over hurdles before making his belated return to the flat here. Scampering to a lead of more than a furlong while his rivals' jockeys slept in behind, he never looked in any danger of being caught, despite the typically game effort of Vinnie Roe in the closing stages. Dermot Weld confirmed that the runner-up will head to Royal Ascot for the G1 Gold Cup June 17.

PICTAVIA (IRE) (f, 2, Sinndar {Ire}--Insijaam {MSW-Fr}, by Secretariat), seventh behind the promising Intriguing (Ire) in a six-furlong Cork maiden on her debut May 14, was sent off at odds of 6-1 stepped up in trip. Making the most of her inherent stamina, Kevin Manning sent her to the lead soon after the start and she pulled out extra when tackled by Showdance (Kingmambo) in the final eighth to assert for a 2 1/2-length score. The first winner for her freshman sire (by Grand Lodge), she was produced by a half sister to champion and classic heroine Hatoof (Irish River {Fr}). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, €13,020.

Nearly 12 months ago, Kalaman burst onto the scene when winning the Listed Heron S. in stylish fashion at Kempton. When he was subsequently an unlucky second in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot in June, the world looked to be his oyster and a trip to York was planned for a tilt at the G1 International S. in August. But he disappointed when folding under pressure, finishing seventh there, and looked to run out of steam when second to Splendid Era (UAE) in the G3 Joel S. at Newmarket in October. He returned to finish runner-up to the tough Gateman (GB) in the G3 Earl of Sefton S. last time Apr. 14, but bounced back to winning ways here under a considerate ride from Kieren Fallon. After becoming fractious in the stalls, he missed the kick and raced keenly in a pocket against the rail when ridden to join the leaders. Extricated approaching the eighth pole, he gradually reeled in the long-time leader Imtiyaz to assert in the final 75 yards and record a cozy score. Described by Fallon as "a horse that will improve throughout the season," Kalaman may now head to Royal Ascot for the G1 Prince of Wales's S. June 16. "He's a big gross horse and with the spring we've had he's taken time to come to himself," commented traveling head lad Jimmy Scott. "He's lazy at home and needs a mile and a quarter, and although I'm guessing, I think he'll run in the Prince of Wales's S."

EPSOM PREPARE FOR HANDLER STRIKE

Officials at Epsom racecourse yesterday confirmed that they have a flip-start mechanism in place if the current threat by stalls-handlers to strike materialises next weekend. With today's ballot of stalls-handlers threatening a cessation of duties prior to the running of the Vodafone Derby and Oaks, the track management have the option of using elastic to start the famous races. "Oaks day is the first day that racing will be affected, but we have already put plans in place for flip starts if we need them," Managing Director Stephen Wallis told PA Sport. "It's up to the parties involved to resolve the situation."

SATELLITE COVERAGE RETURNS

The Horse Racing Channel yesterday announced that it will begin broadcasting on Saturday, stealing a march on its main rival attheraces, who launch June 11. Known as "Racing UK," the new channel, which will start out as a free-to-air service, will feature action from next week's Vodafone Derby meeting at Epsom, as well as the July meeting from Newmarket, Glorious Goodwood, York's Ebor Festival and the St Leger Festival from Doncaster. "Racing UK will bring the best of British racing to TV viewers in the UK and beyond," Project Director Andrew Brown said yesterday. "We are looking forward to going live on Saturday and to establishing Racing UK as the broadcast home of British horseracing."
