TWO DEFECTIONS FROM BELMONT

Smarty Jones will face two less challengers in the June 5 GI Belmont S. Tapit (Pulpit), ninth in the May 1 Kentucky Derby, and The Cliff's Edge (Gulch), fifth at Churchill, will both skip the 1 1/2-mile test. "He's not going to run," trainer Michael Dickinson said of Tapit. "He still has the remnants of the lung infection."

The three-year-old was apparently battling a respiratory ailment when he finished fifth in the Mar. 13 GI Florida Derby, his first start of the season, but came back to take the Apr. 10 GI Wood Memorial S. before his Classic run. As for what lies ahead for the gray, the British-bred horseman said, "There is no plan right now. I've got to get him right before we can run him again." The Cliff's Edge worked five furlongs in 1:02 3/5 at Saratoga yesterday. "He went the last three furlongs in :36 and change and looked really good, but he got very, very tired," trainer Nick Zito said. The colt will be aimed at the Aug. 28 GI Travers S., but stablemate Birdstone (Grindstone) is on track for the Belmont after working six furlongs in 1:15 1/5 at the Spa yesterday. Zito will also run Royal Assault (Kris S.), winner of the May 15 Sir Barton S.

AZERI FACES EIGHT IN MET MILE

Champion Azeri (Jade Hunter), taking on colts for the first time in her career, will face eight rivals in the GI Met Mile at Belmont Park Monday. She comes off a rare loss, a second-place finish in the GI Humana Distaff H. at Churchill Downs May 1. "I think this is a good spot," trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. "It's worth $750,000 and I think it'll make a statement about her if she can win it. She's won Grade I's against her sex--we know she can do that."

We're trying to step out of the box, as they say, and do something extraordinary." How has the six-year-old fared since her loss under the Twin Spires? "She is doing absolutely super," Lukas said. Met Mile field, p8

BURNING UP THE TRACK

Trainer James Cassidy had his hands full when he claimed Moscow Burning (Moscow Ballet) for $25,000 at the Bay Meadows Fair last August. "She was tough when we got her in the beginning," he said. "She didn't want to train. But this TLC stuff has really helped her." Handled with tender loving care since changing hands, the four-year-old filly has rewarded her new connections five wins from 10 starts, including a front-running three-length score in the GII Sheepshead Bay H. at Belmont Park yesterday. Second in her first outing off the claim, the bay came back to take three in a row, capping the streak with a victory in the Cal Cup Distaff H. in November. She ended 2003 with a solid fourth in the Dec. 20 GII Dahlia H., then kicked off 2004 with seconds in the Jan. 24 Sunshine Millions F/M Turf and the Feb. 15 Pro Or Con H. She had to settle for fifth when shipped to Gulfstream for the Mar. 21 GII Orchid H., but rebounded with a win in the Apr. 24 Fran's Valentine S. Looking for her first graded success, she was sent right to the front by jockey Mike Smith, set soft fractions and had enough left to hold off Spice Island (Tabasco Cat). Twice As Bad had not visited the winner's circle since taking an entry-level allowance test at Calder last July, and had not been out since finishing second to Second of June in the Dec. 13 Whatapleasure S. But the gray, who was purchased privately over the winter, had been working well for new trainer Vladimir Cerin and, with morning-line chalk Siphonizer (Siphon {Brz}) scratched due to a fever, he was sent off the crowd's choice. Racing head-and-head for the lead from the start, the Triple Crown nominee forged to the front as they raced around the turn and finished well for a decisive score. Jockey Alex Solis, who had been scheduled to ride Siphonizer, picked up the mount on Twice As Bad, replacing Corey Nakatani, who took off his mounts after aggravating an old back injury earlier on the card. "I'm glad I didn't go home early today," Solid told The Blood-Horse. Added Cerin, "This was supposed to be our Derby horse. [When he got off the plane from Florida], he was just so sick he wanted to die. But he seems to have recovered." Stay Forever kicked off the season with a Gulfstream allowance victory, but disappointed in her next two starts, running eighth in the GIII The Very One H. Feb. 28 and the Turf Distaff S. at Tampa Apr. 4. The lightly raced seven-year-old mare made amends in her latest start, taking the Hollywood Wildcat Breeders' Cup H. at Calder May 1. Allowed to settle towards the rear by last year's Eclipse Award-winning apprentice Eddie Castro in this one, the chestnut rallied while racing seven wide on the far turn and closed powerfully to post her first graded-stakes victory. "She was very impressive," winning trainer Martin Wolfson said. "She'd been training as good, if not better, than she did three or four years ago, and back then I thought she was as good as any filly in the country. But the last couple of months she's been training like a young horse." Stay Forever will be pointed for the GI Beverly D. at Arlington Aug. 14. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

It looked like Burning Roma would be an easy winner yesterday. The bay, sent off the 9-5 favorite by the opening-day crowd of 21,869, grabbed a clear lead as they raced down the stretch, but trainer Heather Giglio knew better than to put away her binoculars. "You can never say that Burning Roma is home free," Giglio explained. "He will sit and wait for horses if he gets a clear lead too soon. But [jockey Jesus Castanon] knows him and he knows he has to keep after him." Castanon, who flew in from Churchill Downs for the ride, went to the whip and Burning Roma just hung on over Remind. The Red Bank was a near rerun of the Feb. 14 Tampa Bay Breeders' Cup S., a race that saw Burning Roma hold off Remind by a neck. He came back to be a close-up third in the Mar. 6 Budweiser Challenger S. on the Tampa main track, and was coming off a troubled second in the Apr. 9 GII Maker's Mark Mile at Keeneland. The six-year-old will make his next start in the GIII Oceanport H. at Monmouth Aug. 8.

Winless in graded-stakes company since taking the 2001 GI Carter H., Peeping Tom turned in a furious late rally to register his 14th career victory. The winner of Aqueduct's Paumonok H. Jan. 24, the bay was a rallying fourth behind Well Fancied in the Feb. 16 GII General George H. at Laurel prior to a fifth-place effort behind that rival in the Mar. 13 GIII Toboggan H. at the Big A. Third in an Apr. 2 optional claiming event in New York, the gelding was most recently a distant seventh in this year's GI Carter H. Apr. 10. Sixth and nine lengths from the front after a quarter mile, Peeping Tom commenced a steady advance on the turn, angled out wide for the drive and made up five lengths in the final furlong to best Highway Prospector. Richierichierich, one of the top local allowance horses, carried a clear lead past the eighth pole, but weakened late to be third. "He broke well, but they quickly ran away from him," commented winning jockey Ariel Smith. "By the time we got to the three-eighths pole, he was starting to pick it up little by little. Then he just exploded as we neared the finish." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

The first graded stakes of the Arlington meet boiled down to a battle of track executives Charles Cella of Oaklawn Park and Arlington's Richard Duchossois, with Cella's hickory Crafty Shaw getting the better of defending race champion Apt to Be. A tough customer at this distance, with 11 wins from 19 previous starts, Crafty Shaw won Hoosier Park's M. G. Schaefer Mile last Nov. 15 then ran 11th in the Nov. 28 GII Clark H. before getting a break. The nose winner of an Oaklawn allowance Feb. 1, the six-year-old was third in the GIII Essex H. Feb. 21 and second in both the Mar. 14 GIII Razorback H. and the Apr. 7 GIII Fifth Season S. Settled just off the early pace, Crafty Shaw edged to the front with a quarter mile to run and was under mild encouragement to hold Apt to Be. "I just let him do his own job," commented winning jockey Craig Perret. "I hit him once and shook the whip at him left handed to let him know his job wasn't over. When he started kicking it in more, I knew I could leave him alone. He was already focused." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

It took a horse of the quality of Rakti (GB) to end the long drought of Italian-trained winners of this Classic in 2002, but it was business as usual 12 months ago when Osorio (Ger) scored for Germany. That nation, responsible for two of the last four winners, is represented this time by Dayano, who holds the aces after winning the Listed Premio Emanuele Filiberto in Milan May 9. He has been in training at San Rossore all year and completed his acclimation with an easy success in that trial. Rakti's intervention stopped an overseas whitewash that had lasted since 1988, but the foreign threat is strong again this year. Privy Seal, who took the Listed Easter S. at Kempton Apr. 10, did not appear to improve for the step up in trip when second to African Dream (GB) in the G3 Classic Trial at Sandown Apr. 23 and to Red Lancer (GB) in the G3 Chester Vase May 6. He is closely matched with Putra Sas on a form line through African Dream, who brushed that rival aside in the G3 Dee S. at Chester May 7. Putra Sas will be bidding to provide Paul Cole with his third success in this Classic after the exploits of Zaizoom in 1987 and Time Star in 1994. Of the Italians, Distant Way has claims on his win in the Listed Premio Botticelli May 9.

HE FLEW ON THE TRACK, NOW IT'S HIS PROGENY'S TURN

His first crop sons became the highest priced Breeze-Up ever at US$4,500,000 and the highest priced European Breeze-Up ever at $950,000.

And of his first 4 runners, 3 were winners, and the other was a runner-up.

Elegant Fashion looks to erase the memory of her upset loss to River Dancer in the G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup Apr. 25 and should be favored to do so. Second in this a year ago, the Australian-bred mare has performed admirably this season, with a pair of victories and a third-place effort to Falbrav (Ire) in the G1 Hong Kong Cup Dec. 14. She was beaten 3/4 of a length in the QE II Cup and could be pointed for the G1 Cox Plate with a good performance today.

All carry 121 pounds except Vale Mantovani, 118.

Simonas shaped like a staying type when runner-up to Liquido (Ger) in the Listed Premio Saint Leger in Milan in November. He returned to record a smooth conditions score at that track Apr. 17 and looked even better last time when beating Il Bimbo de Oro and Mister Unfuwain in a similar event May 2. He should be able to dominate a weak renewal of this race in which the domestic challenge looks poor. Fielding, who was sixth in the G1 Derby Italiano last May, warmed up for this contest by beating Wildest Dream in a 10-furlong conditions race here May 2.

Scott's View has improved beyond recognition since blitzing the Listed Serlby S. at Doncaster in November. Taken to Nad al Sheba for his spring campaign, he captured two competitive handicaps Feb. 21 and Mar. 11 before finishing third in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 27. He added a stylish score in the Listed Magnolia S. at Kempton Apr. 12 and proved his prowess with an unlucky third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin last time Apr. 25. Winning Dash, third behind Olaso in the G3 Grosser Preis der Bremer Wirtschaft at Bremen Apr. 4, split subsequent Group 1 winners Altieri (GB) and Prince Kirk (Fr) in the Listed Premio Ambrosiano in Milan May 2. Olaso has improved this spring, following his Bremen success with a defeat of Well Made (Ger), Senex and Storm Trooper in the G2 Gerling-Preis at Cologne May 2, but has a stiff task attempting to give four pounds to Scott's View.

Keeping Up With The (SMARTY) JONES

Everything AOK After Work

Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) came out of Friday's workout in good order. "He came out of the work perfect," said Bill Foster, the foreman at trainer John Servis' barn. "We walked him for 25 minutes and he was really on the muscle--bucking and squealing. I even had to put the shank in his mouth to keep him under control. He gobbled down all of his dinner last night. His temperature's good, legs are cold, just perfect. He's absolutely 100 percent." Plans call for the chestnut colt to jog with his pony at Philly Park this morning. He will ship to Belmont Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

Margins: 1HF, HD, HF. Odds: 12.10, 13.60, 7.30.

Winner of the GIII Pegasus H. at three, Regal Sanction managed only two trips to the winner's circle in eight starts last year, closing out 2003 with a seventh in the GIII Fred W. Hooper H. at Calder Dec. 27. Making his first start since, the chestnut enjoyed a ground-saving trip under Jose Santos, moved through along the fence in the stretch and pulled clear for the upset. Favored New York Hero (Partner's Hero) disputed the pace, but tired to finish last of eight.

Margins: 11 1/4, 2HF, 3 1/4. Odds: 0.45, 11.70, 25.25.

Commercante notched the G3 Prix de Psyche S. at Longchamp while racing in France last summer, but followed up that effort with a pair of ninth-place finishes in the G1 Prix Vermeille S. and the G1 Prix de l'Opera S. Off since a runner-up placing in the G3 Prix de Flore S. last October, she was made the prohibitive favorite in her United States debut. Allowed to trail the field early as Letthefreedomroar opened up a seven-length early lead, the Bobby Frankel-trainee rallied on the far turn and dashed away to post a convincing score.

6th-BEL, $46,000, Alw, NW1X, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m, 1:50 1/5, ft.

VALID AGAIN (c, 3, Awesome Again--Valid Way, by Valid Appeal) graduated from the maiden ranks going a mile at the Big Apr. 17, but failed to muster any sort of response in his turf debut May 13, finishing a distant 10th, and was the second longest shot on the board here at 11-1. The bay homebred kept Ra Ra Superstar (Deputy Minister) in his sights from the start, hooked up with that rival in midstretch and got the better of him late to score by a length. It was six lengths back to favored Pay Attention (Take Me Out). Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-1, $61,009.

IRISH QUALITY (c, 3, Elusive Quality--Irish Moment {SP}, by Irish Tower), an $80,000 KEESEP yearling, returned from a six-month break to miss by a half-length against $62,500 maidens at Gulfstream Mar. 26, then ran third twice in special-weight company, at Aqueduct Apr. 17 and at Belmont May 6. The 3-5 chalk gave his backers a few scary moments when he stumbled at the start, but he recovered, rallied four wide on the turn, collared pacesetter Goal Post (Mecke) and edged away late for a one-length success. Lifetime Record: 6-1-1-2, $41,900.

9th-BEL, $44,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:38 4/5, yl. FROLICKING PRINCE (c, 3, Go For Gin--Frolicing Frog, by Waquoit) finished off the board in his four previous attempts while racing on dirt, including a sixth-place finish at the Big A last time Apr. 17. Overlooked at 20-1 while making his turf debut, the gray stalked the early pacesetter, made it to the front in the stretch and dug in gamely to hold off Sliding Home (Grand Slam) by a neck. Lifetime Record: 5-1-0-0, $28,494.

O-Wayne R Ewald. B-James Lewis (KY). T-Richard A Destasio.

Cut and Shoot made light work of his lone start at two, winning a Woodbine maiden by 7 3/4 lengths Aug. 9, and returned from a lengthy layoff to make it two straight with a 3 1/2-length allowance victory over track and trip May 1. Hammered down to odds-on for his stakes debut, the McNair colorbearer tracked pace-setting Imperial Alydeed from close range, went up after that one approaching the eighth pole and edged clear to remain undefeated.

Pilfer accompanied stablemate Smarty Jones to Oaklawn Park earlier this year, winning a one-mile allowance Feb. 12 prior to finishing second in the Instant Racing Breeders' Cup S. Apr. 10. Let go at 8-1 in her return to the Midlantic, the chestnut was prominently placed from the start, ranged up on the far turn to challenge for the lead and turned back a resurgent Hopelessly Devoted for her first stakes victory.

Three out of four at two, including a win in the Oct. 12 Cowdin S., Smokume began his sophomore season with a trio of fourth-place finishes in the Gill Spectacular Bid S. at Gulfstream Jan. 10, the Best Turn S. at Aqueduct Feb. 21 and the Gill Bay Shore S. at that same track Apr. 10. The chestnut signaled a return to best form with a runner-up finish in the restricted Kelly Kip S. at Belmont May 14 and was even-money to post his first win of the year. Fractious in the post parade and last away from the stalls, Smokume drifted out while gaining on the far turn, took aim on frontrunning War Prospect nearing the furlong pole and edged clear late.

Sent off the 5-2 chalk in this off-the-turf affair, the $180,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase was unhurried early, gained while wide on the far turn and galloped away to a 6 1/2-length success. Harthill OK After Being Hospitalized:

Dr. Alex Harthill was hospitalized Friday with stroke-like symptoms, but was given a clean bill of health after undergoing a series of tests and was scheduled to be released yesterday afternoon. The 79-year-old veterinarian had been working at his office near the Churchill Downs stable gate when an assistant noticed the symptoms. "The doctors found that his blood pressure was very high, and maybe that's the reason we thought he might have been having a stroke," trainer Jinks Fires told Daily Racing Form. "But they stabilized him in quick order, and he's doing well now."

Perfect Drift Sharp for Foster:

Looking to defend his title in the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs June 12, Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) tuned up with a solid five-furlong work in Louisville yesterday. With jockey Joe Deegan in the irons, the five-year-old was clocked in 1:01.60. "I had him a tick quicker," trainer Murray Johnson said. "He galloped out in :12 3/5 and Joe thought it was one of his best works ever. Another work like it next week and we'll be ready." Perfect Drift was second in the Apr. 30 Alysheba S. at Churchill last time out.

Wuthering Heights to the Mullins Barn:

Wuthering Heights (Jpn) (Fusaichi Pegasus), a recent maiden winner in Ireland, has been purchased by Michael Hirsch's Global Thoroughbreds Ltd. from Mrs. John Magnier. The second winner for his freshman sire, the bay colt took a seven-furlong maiden at Gowran Park for trainer Aidan O'Brien May 16. Wuthering Heights is a son of Jeweled Crown (Seattle Slew), a half sister to champion Chief's Crown. Purchased by Japanese interests for $150,000 at the 1992 Keeneland January sale and sent overseas, the 16-year-old mare is also the dam of Japanese stakes winner Silk Phoenix (Jpn) (Adjudicating). Wuthering Heights will be sent to the California barn of trainer Jeff Mullins and will be aimed for a fall campaign.

Godolphin's G1 1000 Guineas runner-up Sundrop (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) and G3 Musidora S. heroine Punctilious (GB) (Danehill) head a declared field of 10 fillies in Friday's G1 Vodafone Oaks at Epsom. As expected, Cheveley Park Stud's Poise (Ire) (Rainbow Quest), Newsells Park Stud's Kinnaird (Ire) (Dr Devious {Ire}) and Mrs. Niall O'Callaghan's Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) were scratched from the Classic at yesterday's five-day stage. Aidan O'Brien has left in four fillies, including Listed Salsabil S. winner All Too Beautiful (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), G1 Moyglare Stud S. winner Necklace (GB) (Darshaan {GB}) and G3 Lingfield Oaks Trial victress Baraka (Ire) (Danehill). The conditioner has warned that the latter may be switched to the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes at Chantilly June 13 if the forecast rain fails to materialise. Others bringing Classic form into the race are Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's 1000 Guineas third Hathrah (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}) and Saeed Manana's G1 Oaks d'Italia winner Menhoubah (Dixieland Band, while Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) will be stepping up in trip after winning the Listed Pretty Polly S. at Newmarket May 2.

STRIKERS WILL SUPPORT CLASSICS

Striking stalls handlers will work during next weekend's Epsom Derby meeting, but look likely to target Royal Ascot next month. Officials at the Surrey track were handed the reprieve after the Transport & General Workers' Union confirmed that stalls will be in operation for the two Classics, despite the plan to target one race at every flat meeting from Friday. However, it is likely that the handlers, who voted to strike in protest over cuts in their allowances, will withdraw their services for the G2 Temple S. at that venue Friday. Spokesman Peter Medhurst revealed that Royal Ascot would be the target of major strike action. "If it gets to Royal Ascot and we have not reached an agreement, then there would be no stalls at all there," he told PA Sport yesterday.

Connections of Tahreeb have taken an experimental approach while looking for his ideal distance, campaigning him from five to 10 furlongs, but he seems to have found his metier at a mile now. He showed natural speed to finish third in the six-furlong G2 Mill Reef S. at Newbury last September and was far from disgraced when fourth in the G3 Cornwallis S. over Ascot's five furlongs in early October. After finishing last of four in the G1 Racing Post Trophy later in the month, he returned to finish fourth in the Listed European Free H. over seven furlongs at Newmarket Apr. 14. The chestnut found only the progressive Hazyview (GB) too strong in the 10-furlong Listed Newmarket S. last time May 1, but that form has a solid look now that the winner is likely to take his chance in the June 5 G1 Epsom Derby. Disputing the early lead under Martin Dwyer here, Tahreeb shrugged off his rivals at the top of the straight and pulled out more when challenged by Leicester Square in the closing stages to assert for his first stakes score. "He deserved that and is a tough little horse," Dwyer said. "He really stuck his neck out and had a bit left in the locker." Connections will look abroad for a group race for the colt now, who "loves a little cut in the ground," according to his trainer Marcus Tregoning.

He returned to be third against his elders in the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket May 1 before finishing runner-up to Moss Vale (Ire) in the Listed Sandy Lane S. at Haydock last Saturday. Bouncing back from that effort, he showed the same natural pace here to stalk the leaders before quickening to the front passing the quarter pole. Kept up to his work from there, he was always holding the rallying Lochridge and The Tatling in the closing stages. "That was a hell of a performance for a three-year-old," jockey Richard Hughes commented. "He jumped a bit slow, but he keeps those revs up. MARBUSH (IRE) (c, 3, Linamix {Fr}--Fig Tree Drive, by Miswaki), third in the Wood Ditton S. at Newmarket on his debut Apr. 14, met a smart colt when runner-up to Aqualung (GB) in a Ripon maiden May 16 and was the joint even-money favourite this time. Stalking his betting rival Awesome Love (Awesome Again) throughout the early stages, he challenged that colt approaching the quarter pole and gained an edge soon after, that he held all the way to the line to score by 3/4 of a length. The winner, a half to Sublimity (Fr) (Selkirk), SW-GB, was a 160,000gns TATOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, £7,293.

SWAINSON (c, 3, Swain {Ire}--Lyphard's Delta {GSW-GB, $146,477}, by Lyphard), third on debut over course and distance Feb. 28 and fourth over the same trip on this venue's turf track May 8, went to post as the punters' second pick for this one. Leading from the start, he came under pressure when pressed inside the final quarter-mile and required strong driving inside the final furlong to hold 13-8 pick St Francis Wood (Irish River {Fr}) by a half length. A $42,000 KEESEP and 38,000gns TATDEC yearling, he is a half to Delta Princess (A.P. Indy), GSW, $286,824; and Indy Five Hundred (A.P. Indy), GISW, $239,250. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, £5,129.

3--Tarakala (Ire), 115, f, 3, Dr Fong--Tarakana, by Shahastani. €4,550.

Margins: (3, 3, 1). Odds: 9-4, 5-2, 7-4.

Also ran: Royal Devotion (Ire), Imoya (Ire), Raggtime Toon (Ire).

*Tarakala finished second, but was disqualified to third.

Second in this race last year, Mkuzi eventually opened his stakes account in the Listed Kiltarnan S. at Leopardstown last September on the penultimate start of that campaign, but began this season with three unplaced performances at Nad al Sheba in Dubai. His return to European action began with a fifth to Brian Boru (GB) in the Listed Alleged S., but he doubled his stakes tally here with an easy win in his first outing since. Settled off the pace of Imoya (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}) in second for much of the contest, he began his move with a half mile remaining. Michael Kinane sent the eventual winner to the front at the top of the straight and the partnership was never in danger from there to record a comfortable success. Tarakala couldn't keep tabs with Mkuzi in the stretch and was demoted from second place for causing interference to Ivowen approaching the final eighth.

+ ALEXANDER ICEQUEEN (IRE) (f, 2, Soviet Star--Regal Revolution {GB} {SW-GB}, by Hamas {Ire}) was reserved off the pace in rear, but gained forward momentum once into the stretch run. The 3-1 chance was ridden to close on leader Belle Artiste (Ire) (Namid {GB}) approaching the final furlong and ran on well in the closing stages to deny that rival by 3/4 of a length nearing the wire. She was a €120,000 GOFORB yearling acquisition. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,020. O-Mrs N O'Callaghan; B-John O'Connor; T-D Weld.

Limerick, 9.00, Mdn, €16,388, 3yo, 1 1/2mT, 2:40.30, fm.

LISIEUX ORCHID (IRE) (f, 3, Sadler's Wells--Clear Issue, by Riverman) had placed in maidens at Navan last October and Listowel Apr. 17 before finishing sixth to Hazarista (Ire) in the G3 Blue Wind at Cork May 14. The half to Force of Will (Diesis {GB}), G1SP-Ire, started here as the 6-4 second choice. Reserved off the pace in the early stages, she made good progress from the top of the straight to challenge at the distance. From there, the Moyglare Stud homebred was ridden out to deny Dazzling Dancer (GB) (Nashwan) by a half-length close to home. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, €16,977. O/B-Moyglare Stud Farm; T-Dermot Weld.

Kurm had form in the book which suggested that giving him a soft lead would be suicidal, but that was ignored by the rival jockeys here, who handed him this contest. Gradually extending his advantage under Jean-Rene Dubosc here, he was beyond recall by the turn into the straight and was in no danger in the closing stages, where he was eased for a comfortable success. Subsequently off the track until finishing fourth in a conditions race at Maisons-Laffitte Mar. 5, he was seventh in the G2 Prix d'Harcourt at Longchamp last time Apr. 4. Sent to the front by Eric Legrix in the early stages, the 6-4 pick was always in control, galloping to the line to record a length success from Craig's Falcon (Fr) (Polar Falcon). Coroner was a 19,000gns TATOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: GSW & G1SP-Fr, 10 starts, 4 wins, 4 places, €230,280.
