EYE ON THE PRIZE

Eye of the Tiger (American Chance) has his sights set on his first Grade I score in the Met Mile at Belmont Park today. The four-year-old showed promise last season. Fifth behind Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) in the GI Kentucky Derby, he came back to win the GIII Affirmed H. before running a close-up third in the GII Swaps S. The bay was off the board in five of his next six starts, but, after joining the Kieran McLaughlin stable in New York, closed well to be third behind Pico Central (Brz) (Spend a Buck) and Strong Hope (Grand Slam) as a 26-1 outsider in the Apr. 10 GI Carter H. at seven furlongs. "The timing...between the Carter and the Met is perfect for him," McLaughlin said. "Seven weeks is key for him because his races were close together earlier this year." He added, "He's a neat horse with a great attitude. It's going to be a tough, tough race, but we expect him to run well."

Hope Springs Eternal...

Trainer Todd Pletcher is also expecting a big effort from Strong Hope. Five for seven last season with wins in the GII Dwyer S. and GII Jim Dandy, the $1.7-million FTSAUG yearling was sidelined after running third in the GI Travers in August, but returned to take an optional allowance at Gulfstream by 9 3/4 lengths prior to his Carter effort. "I think we've got the right kind of horse [to win the Met]," Pletcher said. "He's got a tremendous amount of speed and great staying power as well. That's what a good miler is all about." He will have to turn the tables on Pico Central. A Group 1 winner going a mile on the grass in his native country, the dark bay crossed the finish line second in his U.S. debut, but gained the victory in that optional allowance at Santa Anita Jan. 25 when original winner Ride and Shine was DQ'ed. He came back to take the GII San Carlos H. and made it a perfect three for three in the States in the Carter. "He had a very short career in Brazil, but I can tell you that he arrived in this country with great expectations," trainer Paulo Lobo said.

Head of the Class...

Azeri (Jade Hunter) will become North America's leading female money earner with a win in the Met. She would also be the first distaffer to take the race since Gallorette came home first in 1946. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas saddled Lady's Secret to a third-place finish in the 1986 Met.

3	Megahertz (GB)	Pivotal (GB)	Frankel	6-5
4	Quero Quero	Royal Academy	Lobo	4-1

Third behind stablemate Tates Creek in this event last year, Megahertz carries co-top weight of 122 pounds against this year's abbreviated field. The chestnut mare has been first across the line in all three starts this term, but, after opening 2004 with a win in the Jan. 10 GII San Gorgonio H., she was disqualified and placed seventh for swerving during the stretch run of the Mar. 27 GII

Santa Ana H. Bet down to 2-5 in her latest, the Apr. 17 GII Santa Barbara H., she made amends to her backers, closing to best Noches de Rosa by a length. She would give trainer Bobby Frankel a record seventh win in the Gamely. Jockey Kent Desormeaux will shoot for his seventh score in this stakes aboard Dimitrova. The four-year-old bay ended her European stint with a third in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, where she was beaten less than a length. She opened her American campaign with a win in the American Oaks at Hollywood last July and, after running second in the G1 Garden City Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont in September, beat older fillies in the Sept. 27 G1 Flower Bowl Invitational H. A disappointing 12th in the G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Turf, she finished an even fourth in her return, the Apr. 25 GIII Wilshire H.

Sweet Return, first or second in each of his last five starts, capped his sophomore campaign with a front-running tally in the Nov. 30 GI Hollywood Derby at a mile and a quarter. He made his 2004 debut in the 10-furlong GII San Marcos H. Jan. 19, going wire-to-wire to take it by a half length, then switched tactics when dropping back to a mile for the Mar. 6 and rallied to best Singletary by a half in the GII F.J. Kilroe H. The versatile chestnut stretched out to a mile and an eighth for his latest, but couldn't hold off Stroll in the May 1 GI Early Times Turf Classic at Churchill Downs and had to settle for second. Singletary came back after the Kilroe to take the Apr. 24 GII San Francisco Breeders' Cup Mile at Bay Meadows and trainer Donald Chatlos is looking to turn the tables this time. "He looks real good and we're going to empty the tank here," he said. "He won't run again until the [GII] Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile in October." King of Happiness, second to late defection Leroidesanimaux in an optional allowance Mar. 20, comes off a victory in a Hollywood allowance May 13. Momentum makes his first start since running second to Pleasantly Perfect in the 2002 GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. Sidelined by a tendon injury, he has been working steadily for his first start in nearly 20 months. The six-year-old was a Listed winner on the grass in England at three.

Margins: 2HF, 3, 1 1/4. Odds: 9.98, 3.90, 3.27. Also ran: Distant Way, Bravo Tazio (Ire), Putra Sas (Ire), Kaypen (Ire), Whilly (Ire), Sa Fem Zifulum (Ire), Apeiron (Ger), Domdemil (Ire), Boysun (Ire), Ceprin (Ire), Mac Regal (Ire), Larofino (Ger). Scratched: Relaxed Gesture (Ire).

Groom Tesse delivered a strong late run to overwhelm Dayano for a popular local success. Held up towards the rear by Dario Vargiu off moderate early fractions, the grey was in the slipstream of Dayano as that one battled past Privy Seal at the quarter pole. Reeling in his rival with every stride, the 10-1 Groom Tesse hit the front with 200 yards remaining before lengthening clear. The winner had looked far from a Classic contender when eighth in the Listed Premio Rumon at this track in October, but bounced back from that disappointing effort to beat Vol de Nuit (GB) in the G3 Premio Guido Berardelli later that month. After returning to this track to take a conditions event Apr. 11, he found Distant Way (Distant View) too strong when runner-up in the Listed Premio Botticelli May 9, but rebounded to give the Camici family their first Derby success in their 27th try. "It's the biggest day of my life," commented Fabrizio Camici. "I was hopeful of his chance because he needs fast ground and the blinkers to show his best. I think this horse still has a lot of improvement left in him, but we have no plans for the future. The only entry he has is for the G1 Gran Premio di Milano [in Milan June 20]. We'll have to sit with the owners and make some decisions, but at the moment its just a great fiesta and lets enjoy it." Touch of Land finished second in the G2 Prix Hocquart at Longchamp last May before filling the fourth spot behind Dalakhani (Ire) in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly the following month. He returned from a break to finish a disappointing 11th in the G1 Arlington Million in August, but earned a respectable third in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange and a fourth in the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris at Longchamp last fall.
 He returned to finish a short neck runner-up in the Listed Prix de la Porte de Madrid at Longchamp Apr. 11 before finishing sixth behind Execute (Fr) in the G1 Prix Ganay at that track last time May 2. Held up prior to the start here due to the antics of Royal Fantasy (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), Touch of Land broke well and stalked the early pace under Christophe-Patrice Lemaire. He followed Scott's View as that rival made his move approaching the final quarter, grabbed the lead with 150 yards remaining and was driven out to assert from Rotteck and Scott's View in a pulsating finish. Touch of Land is the latest advertisement for his sire, who was also responsible for G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup winner Epalo (Ger). His dam, a three-parts sister to the G2 Henkel-Rennen (German 1000 Guineas) winner
 Tryphosa (Ire), is closely related to the champion
 Turfkönig (Ger). Click for the free brisnet.com

Simonas belatedly began his career at four, but made up for lost time by finishing second to Liquido (Ger) in the Listed Premio Saint Leger in Milan in November. He returned to San Siro to take two conditions events Apr. 17 and May 2, exhibiting all the signs that had prompted connections to persevere with the gelding. Stalking the early pace in second under Eduardo Pedroza here, he was committed at the top of the straight and quickly asserted to record a comfortable success as Darrel closed late in vain pursuit. Simonas will now return to his native Germany to contest the major Group 1 events of the summer, including the G1 Grosser Bugatti-Preis at Baden-Baden Sept. 5. "I rate him a Group 1 horse; he was so unlucky in the early days of his racing career," explained Mario Hofer, racing manager to the owners Turf Syndikat 2001. "He only started to race at four and he is a fresh horse, with improvement still left in him." Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Multiple Choice began his 2004 campaign with a pair of off-the-board performances in main-track Gulfstream graded races before returning to the New York optional allowance ranks, where he most recently closed strongly to finish second behind My Cousin Matt in a May 20 six-furlong event. Dismissed as a 14-1 longshot in his turf debut, the bay gelding was never far from the leaders. He moved into contention when asked and finished gamely to overtake favored Dedication in the final strides. "I knew I had the horse, but he is the kind of horse you have to ride," explained winning rider Javier Castellano. "I rode Dedication last time and that [mare] has a short run. My horse breaks slow, but I could tell he liked the turf. He wanted to run and we had a good trip behind the horses." Trainer Jimmy Jerkens added of the winner, "He puts in a big run. You give him a little breather and then he comes again. This was very satisfying. He hasn't won a race in a year and a half." Dedication, a Group 1 winner against the boys in France last fall, was coming off a win in the May 1 GIII Beugay H. The gray mare was bumped at the start and on the backstretch, but battled gamely down the lane to come up just a half-length short. "She ran a good race," said Christophe Clement, trainer of the beaten favorite. "She finished very strong. We just got a little unlucky at the end. This is a good prep for the [June 5 GII] Just a Game."

Although unable to gain a graded stakes score in four prior racing seasons, Slew Valley showed that he possessed the class to compete in the upper ranks. Second in GI Man o' War S. and third in both the GI Sword Dancer H. and GI Bernard Baruch H. last year, Slew Valley kicked off 2004 with a game second in Gulfstream's 1 3/8-mile GIII Mac Diarmida H. before finishing sixth in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. over that distance Feb. 22. A winner next time when dropped down into a nine-furlong $80,000 optional claiming test Mar. 12, Slew Valley finished third in his latest, the 8 1/2-furlong GIII Fort Marcy H. at Aqueduct Apr. 24. Sent off the 9-5 second choice for his first Canadian start in almost three years, the seven-year-old settled behind early pacesetter and race favorite Shoal Water through pedestrian early splits, moved up to challenge midway through the turn and battled to the front late to gain a narrow score over Le Cinquieme Essai, who outlasted the Shoal Water by 3/4 of a length. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

St Paul House finished seventh behind Pleasure Place (Ire) in this race 12 months ago before spending nine months off the track. He returned to take two conditions events at this track Mar. 12 and Apr. 9 before disappointing when last of 12 from a disadvantageous draw in the G3 Prix de Saint-Georges at Longchamp last time May 16. Stalking the early pace here, he delivered a potent turn of acceleration approaching the eighth pole to hit the front and assert from Krisman and Glad to be Fast. Targets for St Paul House include the G3 Gran Premio Citta' di Napoli July 11 and various sprinting contests overseas during the summer.

Defending champion Tap Dance City defeated a talented field of 12, including nine group stakes winners, to earn the fifth group race of his career. The seven-year-old bay stalked the pacesetters from fourth before moving into contention on the final bend and taking charge in upper stretch. The veteran then had enough left to hold off the late burst of longshot Blue Eleven.

Mr Dinos looked a certain future staying champion when winning the G1 Prix Royal-Oak (French St Leger) at Longchamp in 2002. He confirmed that impression when taking this contest on his four-year-old debut 12 months ago and hammered the point home at the Royal meeting the following month when one of the most impressive winners of the G1 Ascot Gold Cup seen in recent times. He came back after a layoff in October to finish a disappointing sixth in the G1 Prix du Cadran at Longchamp, where the testing ground may have been against him. He faced a tough task attempting to give weight away all round when fourth on his return in the G2 Yorkshire Cup at York May 13, but should strip fitter now. Alcazar, who was runner-up to Westerner (GB) in last year's Prix Royal-Oak, was second in the Yorkshire Cup last time on the same weight terms. There will be few more emphatic successes than Risk Seeker's 18-length demolition job in the G3 Sagaro S. at Ascot last time Apr. 28. That could be attributed to the extremely heavy ground and he has to prove his effectiveness on a faster surface here. Papineau has been supplemented after an impressive conditions score at Goodwood May 19, but needs to prove his stamina over an extra half mile in this contest.

Upgraded from Group 3 status for the first time, this contest is the latest in the series of improved opportunities for distaffers in 2004. Whortleberry emerged as one of her country's leading sophomore fillies last term when winning the G3 Prix Minerve at Deauville in August. She was not disgraced when fifth in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp the following month before being beaten a nose in the G2 Prix de Royallieu at that track in October. She bounced back to win the G2 Premio Lydia Tesio at the end of the month and shaped with promise on her return, a fourth in the G3 Prix d'Hedouville at Longchamp May 6. She has to defy a penalty against a collection of smart fillies, including Pride, who beat Russian Hill, Samando, Visorama and Actrice in the G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly May 7. She meets the fifth-placed Visorama on seven pounds worse terms and may struggle to confirm the form; that rival looked a smart performer when winning the G3 Prix de Flore at this track in October.

Eddington Tunes Up at Belmont

Eddington (Unbridled), third in the GI Preakness S., had his final major prep for the final jewel in the Triple Crown yesterday, going five furlongs in :59 over the Belmont main track. The colt went in company with maiden winner With Probability. Jockey Jerry Bailey was aboard for the move. "Everything is well," trainer Mark Hennig said. "I put him in company today and wanted to see if the quicker work woke him up. I put blinkers back on him because that's what he's going to have on race day." Added Bailey, "He breezed very well. He was real sharp. I just hope he runs with that much focus on Belmont Day. He disappointed me in the Preakness because he completely lost his focus for a large portion of the race. I've said it before--he's like a big dumb kid. All the tools are there, he just hasn't put it all together."

Two on the Fence

The connections of GII Peter Pan S. winner Purge (Pulpit) and third-place finisher Master David (Grand Slam) are considering a run in the Belmont. "I'm probably going to work him Monday and make a decision after that," trainer Todd Pletcher said of Purge. "There is a chance. There's probably a better chance now than there was a week ago." Master David's trainer Bobby Frankel said Saturday, "I might enter, but that's about it. Something more than [the defection of Tapit] has to happen [for the colt to run]." The colt worked yesterday, going six furlongs in a bullet 1:13 at Belmont.

KEEPING UP WITH THE (SMARTY) JONES

Travel Plans Set for Smarty Jones

Trainer John Servis said yesterday that Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) will ship to Belmont Park Wednesday morning. He is expected to arrive at 10 a.m. "He's doing great," Servis said yesterday. "We stayed light today, just jogged him a mile with the pony. We'll probably plan on stretching that to a mile and a half tomorrow. But he's just doing great--he's back in the barn, bucking and playing."

Looking to become the 12th Triple Crown champion in history, the chestnut colt is likely to face six rivals in the "Test of the Champion."

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

New Kid on the Block

The latest name to be added the list of Belmont hopefuls is Illinois invader Caiman (Malibu Moon). Trained by Angel Medina, Caiman comes into his first try at Grade I company off a pair of Hawthorne Park allowance scores. He has been off the board in two prior graded-stakes starts. The sophomore was scheduled to van from Chicago yesterday. "He'll get to Belmont on Monday," Medina said, adding, "I know this is a super tough race because of the competition and distance, but anything can happen. The owner [Victor Achar] told me it is his dream to run a horse in the Belmont S."

 NORTH AMERICA

MIDWAY ROAD READIES FOR BROOKLYN

Midway Road (Jade Hunter) turned in a strong four-furlong breeze Sunday at Churchill Downs as trainer Neil Howard prepares the four-year-old for the June 12 GII Brooklyn H. at Belmont Park. Accompanied by exercise rider Annie Finney, Midway Road covered the distance in :48.40, which was the second fastest move of the day over the sloppy track. Originally slated to contest the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill the same afternoon, Howard opted to send the colt northward in an effort to avoid divisional leader Southern Image, winner of the GI Santa Anita H. and GI Pimlico Special. "We're going on the premise that if Southern Image is coming here [Churchill], that horse is doing good," said Howard. "Our horse raced so hard the other day up at Pimlico [second in the Pimlico Special, May 16], although he came out of the race well, that we were concerned about subjecting him to that kind of race and stress again." Midway Road will have his final breeze at Churchill Downs Saturday before heading to New York on the following afternoon.

CHURCHILL FORCED TO CANCEL SUNDAY

Churchill Downs was forced to cancel the remainder of card because of dangerous weather conditions in the Louisville Metropolitan area Sunday. Hit by severe thunderstorms earlier in the day, Churchill officials decided to abandon the card after the fourth race because of renewed tornado warnings. "The health and safety of our patrons and the participants in our races is always our primary concern and the decision to end our racing program after four races was without question the proper call," said Churchill Downs President Steve Sexton. The GIII Dogwood Breeders' Cup S., originally slated for Sunday's card, will likely be rescheduled for next weekend.

Pretty Wild showed promise with a pair of seconds in Grade I company at two, including the Hopeful S. at Saratoga. In the money in three of four starts last term, including the GII Jerome H. at Belmont, Pretty Wild ran second three back in the Artax H. at Gulfstream Mar. 27. A 6 1/2-length winner next time in an Aqueduct allowance Apr. 24, Pretty Wild was headed late to finish second in his latest at Belmont May 7. Off to a quick start, Pretty Wild soon gave up the advantage to 4-5 choice Unforgettable Max (Northern Afleet) and tracked that foe throughout the remainder. Comfortably in front by two lengths at the wire, Unforgettable Max, who came out on rival Vinemeister early, had to forfeit the victory and Pretty Wild was moved up into the winner's spot. Vinemeister trailed home last of five.

Aud Ailing Following Mint Julip:

Trainer Tony Reinstedler had mixed emotions following Saturday's GIII Early Times Mint Julip H. at Churchill Downs after Willmott Stable representatives Sand Springs (Dynaformer) and Aud (Wild Again) finished second and seventh, respectively. "Aud scoped with a lung infection," said Reinstedler, explaining Aud's poor showing. "I'll get that squared away and take it from there. I'll let her tell me when she's ready to come back." Concerning Sand Springs, the Louisville native indicated that she will likely be pointed toward the GIII Locust Grove H. at Churchill Downs June 26.

STEVENS IN BAN CONTROVERSY Gary Stevens was yesterday suspended for 20 days by the Rome stewards after getting off Sopran Foldan (Ire) before the start of the G3 Premio Tudini. Stevens reportedly injured his back when his mount, who had pulled hard on the way to the start, ran into some bushes near the stalls. The Hall of Famer obtained a doctor's certificate ruling him out of riding for the rest of the afternoon, but was surprised to hear that the stewards had ruled to ban him in the interim. He plans to appeal against the ban, which will begin June 7, one day after the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly. "It's a scandal," he told PA Sport. "I'm never going to ride in Italy again." Among the major races Stevens is set to miss are the G1 Prix Diane Hermes (French Oaks) at Chantilly June 13 and the Royal meeting at Ascot.
