STRAIGHT OUT OF "CENTRAL" CASTING

Pico Central (Brz) (Spend a Buck) has started four times since journeying to the U.S. and every race has resulted in a photo session. The five-year-old was back in front of the camera yesterday after driving to a 3/4-length score over Bowman's Band (Dixieland Band) in the GI Met Mile at Belmont Park.

"He's a special horse," jockey Alex Solis said. After stumbling at the start of the Met, the Brazilian-bred moved up to chase the pace as 2-1 chalk Strong Hope (Grand Slam) took them along through a half in :46 and six furlongs in 1:10.04. It looked as if the crowd's choice might take them gate to wire, but Pico Central closed with determination to take over inside the final furlong and held on for his second straight Grade I score. "I think this is the toughest race of the year so far," trainer Paulo Lobo said. "This is one of the most prestigious races in the United States, but I was very confident because he is a great horse." Met Mile cont. p2

GAME FACE

Diamond A Racing Corp.'s Noches de Rosa (Chi) (Stagecraft {GB}) evened her budding rivalry with Megahertz (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) by winning the GI Gamely Breeders' Cup H. at Hollywood Park yesterday afternoon. It was also a bit of consolation for jockey Mike Smith, who lost the mount aboard champion Azeri in the GI Met Mile. "Whew, that takes some of the sting out," admitted Smith. The Gamely was the fourth meeting between the two distaffers. Noches de Rosa had attempted to parlay her natural speed into victory in their latest face-off, the Apr. 17 GII Santa Barbara H., but Megahertz' late kick proved too much and she ended up second. "Her last race was dynamite; she ran her heart out," said winning trainer Richard Mandella, who earned his first Gamely trophy. "That filly just outfooted her in the last part." The dark bay, winner of the G1 Chilean Oaks in her home country, had upset her archrival the first time they met, posting a front-running score in the GII Santa Ana H. last March, but was third to Megahertz in the 2003 Santa Barbara and went to the sidelines after finishing as the runner-up in the GIII Yerba Buena Breeders' Cup H. May 24. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Gamely cont. p2

WINNING BY DESIGN

Off the board in three straight before improving to be second in the May 1 GIII Inglewood H., Designed for Luck (Rahy) got back on track with a 1 1/2-length score in the GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile at Hollywood Park yesterday afternoon. It was the first Grade I success for the seven-year-old, who crossed the finish line first as a 58-1 shot in the 2000 GI Hollywood Derby, but was disqualified and placed fifth. Trainer Vladimir Cerin, who claimed the chestnut gelding for $62,500 from his second career start, said, "He's just a brilliant horse. If I knew as much about training as he does about racing, I'd be leading trainer every year." Shoemaker cont. p3

A "Pico" Performance...

Pico Central hinted at future greatness when winning the G1 Estado de Rio de Janeiro going a mile on the grass in February of 2003, but finished off the board as the heavy favorite in his next two Brazilian starts. He made his Stateside debut in an optional claimer at Santa Anita Jan. 25 after more than eight months on the sidelines and crossed the finish line in second, but found himself in the winner's circle via a stewards' disqualification. He came back to wire the field in the Mar. 7 GII San Carlos H. and, with Solis in the saddle for the first time, made it three in a row with a 1 1/4-length tally over Strong Hope in the Apr. 10 GI Carter H. The jockey had his eye on that rival again yesterday. "I was hoping that Strong Hope would go and that I could just sit off him," he said. "My horse was really keen, but I was able to keep him back. When we got to the eighth pole and I asked him, he got down and started running." As for what's next, Paulo Lobo said, "I don't have anything planned. I'm going to return to California and he's coming back there on Wednesday. We'll see how he comes out of the race and make some decisions." Not Her Day...

Maybe she missed Mike Smith. Without her regular rider for the first time, Azeri (Jade Hunter) ran worse than second for the first time in her first try against the boys. She was close to the pace while racing along the rail early, but had no closing kick and faded to eighth. "I don't think she ran the race that we've seen her train for, for whatever reason," trainer D. Wayne Lukas said, but added, "I don't regret doing what we did. We took a shot daring to be great. We'll be back. We'll get her back with her own sex and go from there."

Out of sight for 10 months, Noches de Rosa returned with a fourth in a tough one-mile allowance Mar. 28, but failed to last when stretched out to 10 furlongs in the Santa Barbara H. Apr. 17. Jockey Mike Smith put her on the lead here, but was quickly joined by Quero Quero and allowed that filly to keep her head in front. Noches de Rosa came on again in the stretch and strode out for the wire as Megahertz, who had trailed the field by a dozen lengths, came flying up the fence to be second. "I was a little concerned [when Quero Quero took over], but I think Mike was just taking his time and not getting in a panic," said winning trainer Richard Mandella. "When he rallied her back up, boy, she came." The winner will point for the GII Beverly Hills H. June 27. As for the odds-on Megahertz, her woes continued without regular rider Alex Solis, who piloted Met Mile hero Pico Central (Brz). Victor Espinoza had subbed for Solis in the GII Santa Ana H. Mar. 27, when the chestnut was disqualified for interference, and was back on board yesterday. "Into the first turn, I had to touch her shoulder a couple of times because she was getting a little bit too far back," said Espinoza. "But she just wouldn't go."

Designed for Luck disappeared for 17 months after running fifth in the GII Explosive Bid H. at Fair Grounds in March of 2002. He finished second in his return, a Del Mar allowance test Aug. 17, but was moved into first when original winner Denied was denied the win by the stewards. The veteran made it two in a row in the Sept. 10 Live the Dream H. at the oceanside oval and added a third consecutive victory in the Oct. 5 GII Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile. He vied for the lead early in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile, but faded in the lane to be seventh, then went on vacation. Designed for Luck returned to finish seventh again in the Feb. 11 Thunder Road H. at Santa Anita, showed a little more life when fifth in the Mar. 6 GII Kilroe Mile and seemed back near the top of his game when beaten two lengths by Leroidesanimaux in his latest. Sent up to track Glick (Theatrical {Ire}) as he clicked off six furlongs in 1:09.17, he took control after they straightened for home and held Singletary at bay to the wire. "He finished strong, just outran them from the head of the stretch home," jockey Pat Valenzuela, who begins a 30-day suspension today, said. "This guy is some warrior, always there, always trying." Added Cerin, "He still came home in under :12, even setting those fractions."

Godolphin have a long-held fondness for the G1 Ascot Gold Cup and they will head to that prestigious prize with another major contender in Papineau, who survived a stewards' enquiry to take this contest. Trained by Andre Fabre at three, he beat the smart Affirmative Action (Ire) in the Listed Prix de l'Avre at Longchamp, but was injured when a disappointing fifth G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby). Transferred to Godolphin, he won a 12-furlong conditions race at Goodwood on his return May 19. Settled in third by Frankie Dettori off the true early tempo, he was asked to quicken on the turn into the straight as his stable companion New South Wales was committed at the head of affairs. Grabbing the lead approaching the quarter pole, he was in command when drifting across Mr Dinos in the closing stages, causing that rival to lose vital momentum as he was snatched up by Kieren Fallon, but that incident was not enough to convince the stewards that Papineau was not the worthy winner. Racing Manager Simon Crisford said, "Frankie said the horse has a lot of class and, all being well, we will head towards the [June 17] Gold Cup with him." Actrice beat Visorama by a head in the Listed Prix de Liancourt at Longchamp in September, but failed to see out the extended 11/2-miles trip when fourth in the G2 Prix de Royallieu back at that track in early October.

Testing ground counted against her when third behind Visorama in the G3 Prix de Flore at this track later that month, but she had quicker conditions when returning to win the Listed Prix de la Pepiniere at Longchamp Apr. 11. She was bogged down in the mud when only sixth behind Pride in the G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly last time May 7, but the drying weather came to her rescue in time for this contest. Held up in rear by Olivier Peslier throughout the early stages, she was delivered widest of all with her challenge inside the final quarter. Quickening to cut down old foe Visorama and Christophe Soumillon in the final 150 yards, she needed only to be kept up to her work to record a comfortable score. "Last time it was much too soft so she had excuses," explained conditioner Elie Lellouche. "On a good surface like this she has a lot of quality. I would like to drop her to a mile for the G1 Prix d'Astarte [at Deauville Aug. 1], but I will have to discuss it with her owner." Yessirgeneralsir posted a handy win over fellow Texas-bred maidens last June, but was sent to the shelf after finishing third in an open-company allowance test at Ellis Park in August. Out of action for nearly seven months, the bay returned in impressive fashion, galloping to a 10-length tally in a Fair Grounds allowance Mar. 4. He found himself taking on graded-stakes foes off that effort and was not disgraced, setting the pace before tiring to be third as a 14-1 shot in the Apr. 24 GIII Texas Mile. Looking to carry his speed a sixteenth further this time, the James Jackson colorbearer broke on top, carved out fractions of :22.85 and :45.67, was five in front after six furlongs in 1:08.54 and had built enough of an advantage to get to the wire clear of the rest. Stabled at Churchill, Academic Angel had reported home an easy winner of her last two starts at Sunland Park, but that wasn't enough to earn the respect of the Lone Star wagering public, who were more impressed by the exploits of MGSWs Katdogawn and Bedanken (Geri). But the five-year-old mare produced a sweeping run to earn her first graded stakes victory. The bay had captured the River Cities H. over the Louisiana grass in front-running fashion last August and made it two in a row in the off-the-turf Jiffy Lube S. at Sam Houston Oct. 25. She finished third at 1-2 to Due to Win Again (Pioneering) in a Fair Grounds optional claimer Jan. 30, then travelled to Sunland for a 6 3/4-length allowance tally Feb. 22 and most recently captured the Harry Henson H. at the New Mexico oval Apr. 4. Allowed to settle into stride near the back of the pack, Academic Angel began to rally three wide on the far turn and responded to Shane Sellers' urging to get up in the final strides. Silverfoot, never worse than fourth in six turf races, made his first attempt versus graded company a winning one here. The gray gelding reeled off two straight grass victories at Fair Grounds earlier this year, an allowance Feb. 9 and a $40,000 optional claimer Mar. 7. He turned in a solid fourth behind Art Variety (Brz) in his next start in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 7, then posted a $60,000 optional claiming victory over this course last time May 8. Made the second choice in this spot, he raced in midpack, edged closer on the far turn, bumped with the second-place finisher with a quarter of mile remaining, but got the best of that rival to earn the score. "It was close," trainer Dallas Stewart said. "He had a little bit of traffic problems there at the quarter pole, but he got through and [jockey Robby Albarado] did a great job." 3--Grand Heritage, 117, c, 3, Grand Slam--Minstrel's Lassie, by The Minstrel. ($80,000 yrl '02 KEESEP). O-Diane & Bertram R Firestone; B-Foxfield (KY); $11,000.

Margins: 1 1/4, 3/4, 3/4. Odds: 2.70, 2.80, 3.80.

Also Ran: Lipan, Nooligan, Shining Hawk, Master William. Scratched: Carrots Only, Forest Grove.

He was making his stakes debut, but the crowd at Monmouth Park made Icy Atlantic the 5-2 favorite and they called it right. Off the board in two starts as a juvenile, the three-year-old broke his maiden in his second start this season, winning on the dirt at Aqueduct on Valentine's Day. The bay made his turf debut in an allowance test at the Big A Apr. 24 and, let go at 10-1, took it by 3 3/4 lengths. Looking for his third straight in the Jersey Derby, the Appleton homebred settled in fourth off a moderate pace. He was wide into the stretch, but closed willingly to take the lead in the final furlong before edging away to a handy score. "On the far turn, against my better judgment, I decided to swing him out and go three or four wide," winning jockey Chuck Lopez said. "But it's better to be out there and running than stuck on the inside with nowhere to go. When he hit the front, he was just cruising. If someone had come at him, I'm sure he would have hit the afterburners." Master William (King of Kings {Ire}), off at 9-2, dwelt at the start and trailed throughout. 3--Gold Dollar, 112, h, 5, Seattle Slew--Miss Prospector, by Crafty Prospector. O-Julio Pazos; B-Overbrook Farm (KY); $11,000.

Margins: 5 1/4, 1, HF. Odds: 7.60, 13.00, 59.40.

Also Ran: Super Frolic, Romolo's Fritz, Whos Crying Now, Supah Blitz, Patriotic Flame, Kiss a Native, Pre-dawn Raid, Dancing Guy, Verkade.

Twilight Road, winner of the 2002 GIII Ack Ack H. and third in that race last fall, was fourth behind Strong Hope in his 2004 debut, a Mar. 10 optional claimer at Gulfstream. He missed by just a neck at Gulfstream Apr. 14, but returned to the winner's circle with a one-length victory in an overnight stakes sprinting over the Calder track Apr. 26. Looking for the first two-turn win of his career, the gelding raced in midpack before making his move at the quarter pole. He overtook pacesetter Hear No Evil in the stretch and drew away with ease. "Around the first turn and down the backside, I just sat and waited for a spot to get out," said winning jockey Phil Teator. "Fortunately, on the the far turn I angled the horse out and he grabbed the bridle and started running off the board. There wasn't much I had to do. He responded very well when I hit the button." The longshot trio of Twilight Road, Hear No Evil and Gold Dollar rewarded backers with a $10,864 trifecta. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Margins: 3/4, 3, HF. Odds: 1.30, 8.80, 1.80.

Also Ran: Reba's Gold, Calkins Road.

Youngottawanna, victor of the GIII El Camino Real Derby at three, was claimed from Jerry Hollendorfer out of a Golden Gate winning effort versus $50,000 optional claimers Feb. 28, then made instant dividends for his new connections, finishing second behind Snorter in the GIII Berkeley Breeders Cup H. Mar. 27. In for an $80,000 tag in his next start, he was claimed back by his former trainer and made easy work of the competition, winning by eight lengths over track and trip last out Apr. 22. Sent off as the favorite here, he broke on top, set :23 1/5 and :46 fractions and had enough left in the tank to hold off stablemate Gold Ruckus. "After he won for $50,000 he really got his confidence," Hollendorfer explained. "As long as a horse is sound and has potential, you have to try. Anyone who tells you they're happy after losing one that wins by eight is lying." Winning rider Russell Baze was pleased with his colt's performance. "It doesn't look like he's suffered any since getting back in Jerry's hands," Baze said. "He was holding that other horse [Reba's Gold] off by a half length and doing it pretty much on his own. He gave me a nice kick when I asked him coming into the lane. He got a little tired the last sixteenth, but that's understandable." Snorter, the crowd's second-choice, settled behind the pacesetters and was no threat to the top two while finishing third.

Also ran: Delsun (Ire), Eleazar (Ger), Siberion (Ger), Genios (Ger), Next Society (Ger).

Twelve months on from witnessing Dai Jin (GB) win the G1 Deutsches Derby, International sports manager and promoter Werner Heinz will be cheering on another major contender in that Classic after Fight Club took this trial. Fight Club looked brimful of promise when beating Lazio (Ger) in the Listed Preis der Dreijahrigten at Dusseldorf Apr. 25 and that impression was underlined when the runner-up in that event went on to fill the same spot in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen. Settled in mid-division throughout the early stages, he challenged alongside Egerton at the quarter pole before pulling clear inside the final eighth to book his ticket to the Hamburg Classic July 4. Like Dai Jin, Fight Club is a Baden-Baden Yearling Sales graduate. He becomes the first group winner for his Deutsches Derby-winning sire Lavirco, who is now based in France. He is also the second group scorer bred from Flaming Song, who realised 75,000 guineas at the Tattersalls December Sales last year. Click for the Racing Post chart.

If I were to ask readers to name the 20 most outstanding stallions of the last 50 years, I'm sure that the leading candidates would include the likes of Mr Prospector, Northern Dancer, Sadler's Wells, Nijinsky II, Nureyev, Danzig, Bold Ruler, Blushing Groom, Storm Cat, Sunday Silence, Hail To Reason, Danehill and Seattle Slew. But would any of you spare a thought for one of my own favorites, Kalamoun?

As "Kala who?" would probably be the general response to this suggestion in the U.S., I will plead Kalamoun's case as one of the largely unsung heroes of European breeding.

Bred in 1970 by the Aga Khan, Kalamoun had a pedigree true to the traditions of the Aga Khan's own family. The colt's sire, Zeddaan, had won the French 2000 Guineas and the third generation of the colt's pedigree included two major winners bred and owned by the Aga's grandfather, namely the tempestuous Nasrullah and the 1950 2000 Guineas winner Palestine. Perhaps more to the point, the third generation also included Rivaz, a highly talented full-sister to Nasrullah, which meant that Kalamoun was inbred 4x4 to Nearco and to Mumtaz Begum.

Mumtaz Begum was herself a daughter of Mumtaz Mahal, the so-called "Flying Filly" who was by The Tetrarch, whose coloring and achievements combined to earn him the nickname of "The Spotted Wonder."

The Tetrarch, who was unbeaten in seven starts, was so extraordinary that he was described by his trainer Atty Persse as a freak, with Persse adding that "there will never be another like him."

In addition to having two lines of The Tetrarch through Mumtaz Mahal in the sixth generation of his pedigree, Kalamoun had two more lines through The Tetrarch's 2000 Guineas-winning son Tetratema. Although Kalamoun wasn't quite the superstar that The Tetrarch had been back in 1913, he possessed a sizeable measure of his ancestor's talents, as he showed with decisive victories in the French 2000 Guineas, Prix Lupin and Prix Jacques le Marois in 1973.

There proved to be parallels--some very good, others much less so--between Kalamoun and The Tetrarch when Kalamoun retired to his owner's Ballymany Stud. The Tetrarch had sired only 130 foals, partly because of a lack of libido which prompted his owner to describe his attitude as "monastic in the extreme." He later became sterile, but not before siring Mumtaz Mahal, Tetratema and three winners of the St Leger.

It soon became apparent that Kalamoun's fertility was also less than ideal, although there were no problems with his libido. His death, as a result of colic and a twisted gut, in March 1979 meant that he had spent only five years at stud and these five years yielded only 123 foals. However, Kalamoun sired 21 stakes winners (17 percent) and he had an astonishing record with his 50 sons. No fewer than ten of these 50 sons (20 percent) became Group winners, with five of them--Bikala, Kalaglow, Kenmare, Persepolis and Shakapour--winning at G1 level. Some of these were to prove fairly disastrous as stallions but Kenmare twice became champion sire in France and another of Kalamoun's Group winners, Kampala, sired Tony Bin, who has made an indelible mark in Japan.

Kenmare's son Highest Honor, who has also been champion sire in France, is another with a very interesting pedigree. He is inbred 5x5x4x4 to Nasrullah, 6x6x6x5x6x5 to Nearco and 6x6x6x5x7x5 to Mumtaz Begum, with some of these lines coming through Nasrullah, his sister Rivaz and their three-parts-brother Royal Charger.

You can therefore imagine the considerable build-up of these bloodlines which was created when Shakapour's daughter Vigorine was sent to Highest Honor--a mating which created 3x3 inbreeding to Kalamoun. Incidentally, these numerous lines to Nasrullah's parents were balanced by several lines to Prince Rose, through his sons Prince Bio, Princequillo and Prince Chevalier.

Highest Honor's mating with Vigorine worked quite well, the resultant foal being Vicomtesse Mag, This filly was a little unlucky not to enjoy stakes success over a mile and a quarter, being beaten only half a length in the Prix de Liancourt and a short neck in the Prix Suave Dancer-Charles Laffitte. In view of these respectable efforts and her close inbreeding to Kalamoun, she was very well bought for only 14,000 guineas by Conti Bloodstock at Tattersalls' 1997 Sales.

Now the latent power of Vicomtesse Mag's bloodlines has helped her produce a classic winner in the shape of her Derby Italiano-winning son Groom Tesse, by Groom Dancer.

Groom Tesse is the latest example of the affinity which exists between Highest Honor and Blushing Groom (another member of the Nasrullah male line). Highest Honor's matings with mares by sons of Blushing Groom have produced the Group 1 winners Dedication (out of a Sillery mare), Marotta (out of a Rainbow Quest mare) and Reve d'Oscar (out of a Baillamont mare). He has also sired the Group 3 winner Honorifique from a Groom Dancer mare.

Groom Tesse is the latest in a lengthy line of good winners sired by the 20-year-old Groom Dancer during a career which has seen him stand in France, Japan, Australia, New Zealand and Britain, where he commands a fee of £7,000 at Cheveley Park Stud. One of his New Zealand-bred foals, Lady Annaliese, won the La Zanzara H. at Santa Anita earlier this year and another daughter, the very good French filly Maiden Tower, was beaten only a nose in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup last October.

However, Groom Tesse is only the third Group 1 winner by Groom Dancer, following Lord of Men and Le Balafre, and it could well be that his greatest value, in the long term, is going to be as a sire of broodmares. Three of his daughters have already produced G1 winners and his son Pursuit of Love has also made a bright start as a sire of broodmares, with the dual 1000 Guineas winner Attraction and the unlucky Antonius Pius leading the way.

Ikhtyar was impressive when beating his elders in the Listed Gala S. over course and distance last July before disappointing after a layoff when finishing ninth in the G3 Prix Dollar at Longchamp in October. He returned to finish third in the Listed Paradise S. at Ascot Apr. 28 and was not disgraced when sixth over an inadequate mile in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury last time May 15. Bandari has recovered his old sparkle and was impressive when winning the Listed Huxley S. at Chester last time May 6. Last year's G3 Prix Daphnis winner Lateen Sails and GI Arlington Million second Kaieteur add to a fascinating mix in a strong renewal of this contest.

Rock and Roll

Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.), second in the GI Preakness S. last time out, worked five furlongs in :59 at Belmont Park yesterday. Prepping for the 136th running of the GI Belmont S. June 5, the dark bay worked in company with Sarava, 70-1 winner of the final leg of the 2002 Triple Crown. "He was just cruising," trainer Jason Orman said. "I've never seen him work as good as he did today. As long as he comes out of it fine, it will be a perfect work." Orman sent the colt in company to avoid the problem encountered before his previous breeze, when Rock Hard Ten twice refused to break before finally working a half in :47 2/5 Tuesday. "We wanted him more comfortable and we wanted to make sure he was going to work," the conditioner said. "The main thing was we didn't want him stopping like last time." But, he added, "He's been really professional the last week. He's been as focused as I've ever seen him."

Rock Hard Ten Horsephotos

Also working Monday was Royal Assault (Kris S.), who went five-eighths in 1:00 1/5 at Belmont. Trainer Nick Zito said he'd been thinking Belmont for his charge even before he captured the May 15 Sir Barton S. at Pimlico. "He's bred to go the distance, and we've had this race in mind since last winter," Zito said.

Purge Now Probable for Belmont

GI Peter Pan S. hero Purge (Pulpit) is likely to have his name tossed into the box for the "Test of the Champion" after working five furlongs in 1:01 3/5 with jockey John Velazquez in the irons yesterday. "We'll make a decision tomorrow," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "[Owner Jack Wolf] is leaning towards running him. The one thing I'm pretty sure of is that we are going to enter." He added, "As long as the horse is in good shape, we're not giving up a lot by running in terms of other options. The Dwyer [GI, July 11] is a great race, but he's already accomplished that level by winning the Peter Pan. There's no real upside to sitting around and waiting for the Dwyer. We feel like we could run in the Belmont and, win, lose or draw, come out of it in good shape and go on to races like the Jim Dandy or the Haskell and the Travers."

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

Duo Added to Derby

Connections of Gatwick (Ire) (Ali-Royal {Ire}) and Hazyview (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) took the plunge yesterday and supplemented their colts for Saturday's G1 Vodafone Derby at Epsom. While the former, who is owned by a syndicate managed by Henry Ponsonby, has yet to prove himself outside of smart handicap company, Hazyview booked his ticket with successes in the Listed Newmarket S. May 2 and Listed Fairway S. May 22. Their fees ballooned the total purse of the Classic, which drew 16 contenders at the five-day stage, to £1,359,000.

Khalid Abdullah has given the go-ahead for his homebred American Post (GB) (Bering {GB}) to contest the race after the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) winner impressed in his final serious workout on Friday. All the leading contenders stood their ground, including Susan Magnier's unbeaten Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), and Meath (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who was described as a "possible" by Aidan O'Brien yesterday. The Ballydoyle conditioner also has Michael Tabor's Moscow Ballet (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) entered at Epsom, but has one eye on Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly. "We will decide later in the week," he told Irish Racing online.

Godolphin will be represented by G1 2000 Guineas runner-up Snow Ridge (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and G2 Dante S. runner-up Rule Of Law (Kingmambo). Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford said, "There are some purists who tell you that Snow Ridge won't stay a mile and a half, and other purists who are adamant that he will. Only the race will tell us the answer."

PERSONAL LEGEND (f, 4, Awesome Again--Highland Legend {SP-Eng}, by Storm Bird), third in last year's GI Del Mar Oaks, brought plenty of back class to the table versus this overmatched group. The chestnut filly kicked off the season with a second-place finish in the GII El Encino S., then ran fourth in the GII Buena Vista H. Feb. 21. Most recently a disappointing third as the 1-5 chalk in a Hollywood turf allowance, she was bet down to 3-5 to make amends. STEVENS WILL MAKE ASCOT Gary Stevens looks certain to overcome a 20-day suspension handed out by the Rome stewards in controversial circumstances on Sunday and ride at the Royal meeting this month. His appeal against the ban, handed out due to his refusal to ride Sopran Foldan (Ire) in the G3 Premio Tudini, is likely to mean that the ruling body Unire's disciplinary committee will suspend the sentence. With the process likely to take several months to conclude, Stevens will be free to ride during the period of the Royal Ascot meeting and Chantilly's staging of the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes June 13. Stevens stated that Sopran Foldan had run into some bushes before the start, resulting in him injuring his back, which was later confirmed by the racecourse doctor. His version of events has been contested by the horse's trainer Bruno Grizzetti, who told Lo Sportsman that the Hall of Famer simply refused to ride. "The medical issue was something which came up afterwards," he told the publication.

AMERICAN OAKS FOR BOULEVARD OF DREAMS

Boulevard of Dreams (NZ) (Daggers Drawn), most recently third in the G1 Australian Oaks, will head to the United States to contest the July 3 GI American Oaks at Hollywood Park. Co-trainer Wayne Hillis confirmed the three-year-old filly will prep for the U.S. race in a 1600-meter event at the Avondale Jockey Club's meeting on June 12. "We felt she needed to have the run at Avondale just to bring her fitness up before flying out for the States on June 21," Hillis commented. Te Awamutu jockey Gary Grylls will ride the brown filly in the American Oaks. "It's a great opportunity for any Kiwi jockey to ride in the States and I am really looking forward to it," Grylls said.
