BELMONT 136 IS FOR THE BIRDS

It wasn't the ending that racing fans across the country had hoped for. Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) had a 3 1/2-length lead as they raced out of the turn in the 136th running of the GI Belmont S., but, just 12 strides from the wire, Birdstone (Grindstone) drove past on the outside to thwart the latest Triple Crown challenge. Winning jockey Edgar Prado, who was aboard Sarava when he upset the 2002 Belmont at 70-1, had mixed feelings about his second victory in the final jewel in the Crown. "I feel happy and sad at the same time, because we are really looking for a champion," Prado said, but added, "I have to do what I have to do--and this is what I get paid for."

MEDAGLIA D'ORO RETIRED

First or second in 15 of his 17 career starts with a bankroll of $5,754,720, Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado {Ire}--Cappucino Bay, by Bailjumper) has been retired and will stand the 2005 breeding season at Hill 'n' Dale Farm in Lexington, the Daily Racing Form reports. The five-year-old is in the process of being sold by owner Edmund Gann for an undisclosed sum and will stand as the property of Audrey Haisfeld's Never Tell Farm. As for why the decision was made to retire the dark bay instead of racing him to the end of the 2004 season, Mark Reid, the bloodstock agent who originally found Medaglia d'Oro for Gann, told DRF, "The people that bought him and the guy that owned him felt he had done plenty. After all those Grade 1s and going undefeated at Saratoga, they felt he had done enough." Added Hill 'n' Dale owner John Sikura, "He's a wonderful racehorse, has been a great racehorse for three years. He's a big magnificent individual, and to stand a horse of those credentials you have to be excited at the reception we expect to get from the breeders." Among the highlights of his career were wins in the GI Travers, GI Whitney H. and GI Donn H. He was also second in back-to-back GI Breeders' Cup Classics and in the 2002 GI Belmont S., and ended his career with a game second in the Mar. 27 G1 Dubai World Cup. A stud fee will not be set until fall.

NORTH STAR

The Weinstock Family's North Light (Ire) (Danehill) revived memories of Epsom Derby past as he galloped to a 1 1/2-length defeat of Rule of Law (Kingmambo) in yesterday's renewal. Without a success in the blue riband since Troy (GB) in 1979, the late Lord Weinstock's Ballymacoll Stud Farm, run with such enthusiasm by his son Simon before his untimely death, finally ended the drought as North Light led home an exact repeat of the placings in the G2 Dante S. at York May 12. ### The Best Plaid Plans

The third leg of the Triple Crown did not set up the way trainer John Servis had hoped. Unruffled before the start, Smarty Jones was away alertly and was on the lead as they went past the stands for the first time.

Jockey Stewart Elliott tried to make the best of the situation. "He broke very sharp," Elliott said. "I could have wrestled him back, but then I would have been fighting him." He managed to get him back to third behind Purge (Pulpit) and Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) while getting floated three wide on the far turn, but Servis was already concerned. "When they turned up the backstretch, I knew he was in trouble," he said. "He just wouldn't relax." Elliott let out a notch as they hit the halfway mark, going six furlongs in 1:11.76, but still he couldn't catch a breather. "I couldn't get the break I wanted," he said. "The plan was to have an easy eighth at some point, but it just didn't happen." Still, Smarty opened up on the field as they dashed around the far turn and, as Elliott looked down the long stretch, he thought he had his Triple Crown win. "I was pretty confident," he said. "I was still sitting, I still had horse. He never stopped running. I thought a horse was really going to have to be coming to beat me." But someone was coming. A rank outsider off his eighth-place finish in the May 1 Kentucky Derby, Birdstone had bided his time early and was still five lengths off it at the half-mile pole, but came at the Kentucky Derby and Preakness hero in the final furlong and caught him in the shadow of the wire. "I looked over my shoulder and I saw him coming pretty strong," Elliott said. "My horse was really trying, but he just couldn't hold him off." Servis was gracious in defeat. "As much as I hate to say it, this race is what makes racing great," he stated. "It looked like we were heading to the winner's circle, but you just never know what will happen."

A Surprise Ending

Certainly, very few saw Birdstone as the horse to beat in the Belmont. The colt had looked like a serious contender at two, breaking his maiden by an eye-catching 12 1/2 lengths at Saratoga. He hit the gate at the start of the GI Hopeful S. and could do no better than fourth, but bounced back to take the Oct. 4 GI Champagne S. and was put away for the year. He came back to win a Gulfstream allowance race Feb. 14, but never got untracked as the 3-5 favorite in the Mar. 20 GI Lane's End S. at Turfway Park and ended up fifth. His race in the Derby impressed few, but trainer Nick Zito had said more than once since that effort, "His race in the Derby wasn't as bad as it looked. He finished eighth, not 18th--he beat half the field." But he was more than 15 lengths behind Smarty Jones, and was overlooked by the handicappers despite the return to the scene of his Champagne score. Off at 36-1, he settled in seventh early, but moved into contention with a half mile to race and jockey Edgar Prado said, "I hadn't really asked my horse." The bay was second as they straightened for home and slowly ate into Smarty's advantage before getting in front inside the sixteenth pole. Zito, who had been second in five of 11 previous Belmont tries, finally had his win in the "Test of the Champion." Said the New York native, who has two Kentucky Derby trophies to his credit, "I think this is my biggest win, obviously, and for so many reasons. Maybe it's the magnitude of the win and everything that Smarty Jones brought to the table, and the five seconds in the Belmont. I don't know. This was an incredible day for me." He had nothing but praise for the runner-up. "He'll go down as one of the greats," Zito said. "Hopefully he has a lot of racing left in him." Birdstone will now be pointed for the Aug. 28 GI Travers S. at Saratoga.

Making Light Work of His Competition

Always prominent under man-of-the-moment Kieren Fallon, extravagant galloper North Light took command at the three-furlong marker and stretched his rivals in a stamina-packed display, and he was comfortably clear as Kerrin McEvoy flew late on Rule of Law in company with Let the Lion Roar (GB) (Sadler's Wells). "He would have been thrilled," commented Lady Weinstock in tribute to her late husband. "My son would have been even more so, as he did all the breeding years ago. It is wonderful to have had this great victory."

Always A Derby Horse

Jockey Kieren Fallon had nothing but praise for his mount. "This has always been one of my favorite horses and my Derby horse," he commented. "He was very impressive in the Dante and he has improved since then--I just hope he can keep improving." Rule of Law's jockey Kerrin McEvoy, who was riding his second runner-up in a Classic on his debut in the Derby, was also pleased with the performance of his colt. "He ran a cracking race," he said. "He struggled to go the speed early on, but came home strong and showed good courage all the way to the line. It was a good thrill and he was gallant in defeat." Conditioner John Dunlop said of Let the Lion Roar, "I'm delighted to see him produce the speed he did to come home and the visor helped him to concentrate. We'd definitely take on the winner again in the G1 Irish Derby [at The Curragh July 27] and I think the flat climbing track would suit us better."

Drumming Up Excuses

John Gosden said of Percussionist (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), "From the low draw we had to go, and finding the early pace was tough on this ground. He finished strong up the straight, but had had to use a lot of petrol early. If it had rained heavily last night he would have been right there, but the winner would still have won. We can freshen him up now and come back for the autumn and the G1 St Leger [Sept. 11]." Frankie Dettori was downhearted after joint-favorite Snow Ridge (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), who held every chance inside the final quarter, weakened out of contention. "He felt brilliant going to post and I let him warm up, but he only went for 100 yards after Tattenham Corner until the stamina started to tell," he explained.

VOIX DU NORD INJURED

Baron Thierry Zuylen de Nyevelt's Voix du Nord (Fr) (Valanour {Ire}), who would have started heavily favored, will miss today's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly after suffering what may be a career-ending injury yesterday morning. His withdrawal from the Classic means that his pacemaker Alcinos (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}) has also been scratched, leaving 15 to contest the race in his absence.

Most are still unproven at the highest level, but Khalid Abdullah, who bred the 1990 scorer Sanglamore, has a solid chance with his duo of Day Flight (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and Reefscape (GB) (Linamix {Fr}). The former was supplemented after his highly impressive 20-length success in the Listed Glasgow S. at York last time May 13, while Reefscape needs to improve on his defeat of Ange Gardien (Ire) (King's Theatre {Ire}) and Blue Canari (Fr) (Acatenango {Ger}) in the Listed Prix de l'Avre at Longchamp last time May 19.

A Fifth Win for Bary?

Blue Canari represents Pascal Bary, who has won this four times since 1994, but his 2004 runner has pounds to find on the best of these. Of the other trial winners, Delfos (Ire) (Green Tune) looked progressive when winning the G3 Prix la Force at Saint-Cloud last time May 5, while Lord du Sud (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) may have been fortunate to beat Prospect Park (GB) (Sadler's Wells) in the G2 Prix Hocquart at Longchamp May 13. Delfos is trained by Carlos Laffon Parias, who told Paris-Turf this week, "Delfos was not entered originally because he had not raced at two and did not show a lot in the mornings, but he has proved a revelation on the track and we had to supplement him. Park Prospect, on the other hand, has always worked well. They are very different horses, as while Prospect Park needs to have cover to relax, Delfos is a cool customer."

Meteor Storm had established himself as one of California's top long-distance turf horses with back-to-back victories in the GII San Luis Rey H. Mar. 20 and the GII San Juan Capistrano H. Apr. 18. The bay hadn't been out since taking the latter, a 1 3/4-mile contest at Santa Anita, and was the fourth choice in his first start on the East Coast. Saving ground in the early stages, Meteor Storm was taken to the outside in the stretch and finished strongly up the center of the course to earn his first Grade I victory. "I didn't know how good he was," said winning trainer Wally Dollase. "You don't know until you meet Eastern horses." As for the five-year-old's next start, Dollase said, "We'll take him back to California and look around. We would like to be invited to the Melbourne Cup, but there are a lot of races between now and then."

Intercontinental remained undefeated in America with this third straight win, but it took a seeing-eye ride on the part of Jerry Bailey. Steadied early while racing along the hedge, she split rivals at the top of the lane and drew clear in the final sixteenth. "I just had to wait," said Bailey, who rode the filly to her first graded stakes score in the GIII Jenny Wiley at Keeneland last out. "I knew I would find enough horse if I could just find the seam." Trained by Andre Fabre in France, Intercontinental joined Bobby Frankel's stable in 2003 and started off this year with a mile allowance win on the turf at Santa Anita Mar. 28. Said Frankel, "The only knock against this filly is that she gets a little rank in her races. If she gets to settle she could maybe be the best filly in the country." A five-length winner of the six-furlong GII Genuine Risk H. at Belmont May 9, Bear Fan was made the heavy favorite to repeat here, and did so with style, equalling Confide's 1997 record time for the distance. The bay jumped out of the gate and seized the lead, set the pace along the inside, drew away when asked and was ridden out to the wire for her fourth straight stakes win. She started the run with a tally in the GII Barbara Fritchie at Laurel in February before she was shipped west to take the Mar. 17 Irish O'Brien S. at Santa Anita on the turf. Off for two months after that race, she came back to take the Genuine Risk before continuing her streak yesterday. "She's had some problems with her feet, but we've been able to train her real well over the last couple of weeks," said trainer Wesley Ward. "Her last work was just explosive and she has been jumping out of her skin since." Jockey John Velazquez added, "I didn't realize she was going that fast because it felt like she was walking. Then, when I tapped her in the stretch, she just took off." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. After a win in the May 8 Matt Winn S. at Churchill, Fire Slam was sent off the second choice to GI Florida Derby runner-up Value Plus (Unbridled's Song), last seen finishing sixth in the GI Wood Memorial. The winner of the GIII Lecomte S. at Fair Grounds in his first start this year, Fire Slam was sent up to press the pace on the inside, found room on the rail at the top of the stretch, moved through the opening to take the lead and hung on to win by a head. "I thought Value Plus might be loose on the lead, but the race developed a little differently," said trainer David Carroll. "We're thrilled with the performance." Jockey Pat Day, aboard the winner, added, "I was really in the dream spot. [Abbondanza] was trying to get out and I anticipated it at the top of the stretch. They gave me an opening down on the fence, so I jumped in there." Todd Pletcher, trainer of the beaten favorite, said, "Basically, he ran with no fire." His jockey, John Velazquez, agreed. "We should have been up on the lead, but I just couldn't get him up there," he said. "I tried, but he just wouldn't go and I couldn't get him up. He showed flat." After sitting on the sidelines for nearly a year, Speightstown is now a perfect three-for-three in 2004. The chestnut was backed just off a hot early pace, but came on again in the stretch to give jockey John Velazquez his second straight graded-stakes win on the card. Starting out the year with a win in Gulfstream's Artax H., he earned his first graded success in the GII Churchill Downs H. at a furlong farther on the Kentucky Derby undercard and added another here. "The thing that impressed me most was that he broke so sharp and was in a :21 2/5 duel and then took back and went outside," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "It's hard to make multiple moves like that in a sprint. I thought he was as impressive as could be. We were a little concerned turning back from seven furlongs, but this was arguably his best race. Everything has finally gelled with him. He's always been a talented horse, but unfortunately, nagging injuries have gotten in the way of him showing his best." Added Velazquez, "He's a nice horse. He kept going forward. The other horses tried to reach him and all I had to do was keep him running. The only other thing I had to do was steer him clear of traffic and let him run his race. He was awesome." Next up, said Pletcher, will be the GIII Smile Sprint at six furlongs July 10 at Calder. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Lovely Rafaela raised her value in outbattling another granddaughter of Seattle Slew, Western Hemisphere, for her first stakes success. The dark bay broke her maiden second time out going a mile on the Del Mar main track, but was sidelined following a fifth in the GII Oak Leaf S. Sept. 28. She returned in sprint going down the hill at Santa Anita Mar. 12 and wound up fifth, beaten 1 3/4 lengths, in her final start for Richard Mandella. Lovely Rafaela made her next start in an allowance over this surface May 19 and came up just a head short. At long odds this time, she settled into second as Western Hemisphere bowled along on the front end, then tackled that filly on the far turn. The duo battled the length of the stretch, but Lovely Rafaela had enough in the tank to gain the win. "I didn't know who won," winning jockey Victor Espinoza. "For a moment, I thought I had it, but the last 10 yards before the wire, the other filly came back. It was tough."

Also Ran: Jetinto Houston, Hope Rises.

Never off the board in 2004 while winning just one of four races, a Mar. 31 allowance at Santa Anita, Coconut Girl was overlooked here in favor of a more accomplished entry, Ema Bovary, but stopped that rival's nine-race winning streak with a game effort here. Ema Bovary had held the longest current streak in the country, a skein that started Mar. 23, 2003, when she made her second U.S. start in the Soviet Problem H. at Golden Gate, and ended with her score in the Apr. 7 Vinery Madison S. at Keeneland. Coconut Girl was coming off a narrow loss when second in a Hollywood allowance test May 12 and winning trainer Paul Aguirre admitted, "I never thought we had a chance to beat her. She's a very nice filly. I guess we got a little lucky today." He added, "This filly has always had a lot of talent, but she's been her own worst enemy. With Victor riding her, she started to get good trips and started to get some confidence. He's really a big reason for her turnaround and he gave her a great trip today." Larry Ross, trainer of Ema Bovary, was philosophical. "It had to stop somewhere," he said. "I thought she'd win for fun, to be quite honest with you. It was fun, though." Lunarpal became the second juvenile graded stakes winner in as many days for trainer Steve Asmussen, but he didn't have as easy a time as Primal Storm did in Friday's GIII Flash S. The Florida-bred Lunarpal, a seven-length winner at first asking Apr. 18 at Keeneland, posted an impressive five-length tally in the Three Chimneys Juvenile S. on the Kentucky Derby undercard and was a prohibitive favorite here to remain unbeaten. The crowd's choice went up to set a pressured pace before edging clear in the stretch, but he wasn't home free as Consolidator rallied up the rail to make things interesting. Despite some problems with his saddle, Lunarpal dug in and got to the wire a neck in front. "Down the lane, my saddled slipped back all the way to his belly, so I couldn't ride him," explained winning jockey Shane Sellers. "But that horse came to me at about the 70-yard pole, and he took off again." Assistant trainer Scott Blasi thought Lunarpal might not be completely ready for a battle. "He's won a couple of races without having to do much," he said. "He got a little sick on us after the Three Chimneys and I missed a work with him. Then he came back and and trained great. It was a great race under 121 pounds." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Lunarpal Four Footed Foto

Hometown heroine Inish Glora sailed along on the front end to remain unbeaten in two starts this season.

The Ontario-bred bay earned a Sovereign Award as Canada's champion turf mare in 2003, winning three of six starts, including the Victoriana S. and the Belle Geste S. Her coronation came following a victory in the GII Canadian H. Sept. 14, when she defeated the likes of Volga (Ire) and Diadella. But Inish Glora was put away after a seventh in Volga's GI E.P. Taylor S. victory Oct. 19 and didn't reappear until May 16, when she captured a local allowance test. The second choice got away with a :25 first quarter, but the pace began to quicken approaching the quarter pole. Odds-on Ocean Drive, shipping in for Todd Pletcher, came after Inish Glora in the stretch, but the pacesetter kept finding more under Todd Kabel. "We expected there would be a strong pace in this race, but nobody wanted to lead," said Kabel. "I certainly wasn't going to go any quicker than I had to. So I just bided my time before I straightened home and let her sprint home. She ran a helluva race. Mac [trainer Benson Macdonald] had her in great order today. She just bounced right over [the turf] beautifully and went on about her business. When that other horse [Ocean Drive] came to me, she just dug in and ran a terrific race today." Passing Glance gave weight away to all rivals here, but that was no anchor as he delivered an exhibition of powerful front-running under an enterprising ride from Martin Dwyer to take this competitive renewal. Grabbing a decisive advantage out of the gates, he free-wheeled down the hill to Tattenham Corner before quickening all the way to the line to maintain his advantage. He had performed the same antics 12 months ago when wiring a handicap at this venue, then came back to take the Listed Sovereign S. at Salisbury in August and finish second in the G2 Celebration Mile at Goodwood nine days later. He was much too strong for the Germans when winning the G2 Oettingen-Rennen at Baden-Baden in September, but could do no better than sixth in the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua in Milan in October. He ended the season with a disappointing 11th placing in the G1 Hong Kong Mile at Sha Tin in December, but bounced back in his 2004 debut as he led these rivals a merry dance on his favored terrain. "He's a good horse and he loves it around here," Dwyer said. "He's improving all the time and beaten a good field today--there could be a group one in him." Connections will point him at the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood July 28. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Silverskaya opened her account with a win at first asking at Toulouse Mar. 15 before following up with a conditions score at Saint-Cloud Apr. 9. She maintained her unbeaten run when winning the Listed Prix Caravelle at Toulouse last time May 3 and stepped up to take her record to an unblemished four-for-four here. Held up in rear by Iloritz Mendizabal throughout the early stages, she was asked to quicken inside the final quarter and, after two smacks with the whip, responded to join Kalatuna with 100 yards remaining. Given another two cracks to assert there, she answered the call to stretch away for a comfortable score.

Stellar Jayne had rallied from far back to take the Pocahontas S. over this surface Nov. 1, but hadn't had her picture taken in seven subsequent outings while facing the best in her division. Fifth in the GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 13, the grey was third to House of Fortune and Island Sand in the GII Fantasy S. Apr. 9, but never got involved in the GI Kentucky Oaks, finishing seventh in that Apr. 30 contest. The D. Wayne Lukas trainee showed more speed than usual this time as she tracked Ender's Sister from the start, moved up to take command at the eighth pole and pulled away for her first victory at the graded level. "We've changed her style," said Lukas. "That [making one run] wasn't working, so you do something else." The Dogwood was supposed to be run last Sunday, but had to be rescheduled when Churchill cancelled its card due to tornado warnings. Lukas felt his filly benefited from the extra time. "I really think this delay helped her," he said. "She's sharper this week than she was last week." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Chantilly stages the long-awaited return to the track of last year's unbeaten champion juvenile Bago. The colt put himself on the map with an easy defeat of Valixir (Ire) in the G3 Prix des Chenes at Longchamp last September before annihilating Top Seed (Ire) in the G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud in November. There was a strong suggestion that both performances were merely scratching at the surface of his talent, but he has had a troubled spring due to a virus and may not be firing on all cylinders here. That leaves the way open to Mister Sacha to secure his place in the top flight. He still looked green when winning the G3 Prix de Guiche at Longchamp May 13, but is ideally placed to provide Jean-Claude Rouget with his second renewal after the exploits of Millkom (GB) in 1994. Like Bago, Pearl of Love has been dogged by problems this spring, but is already proven at the top level. His half-length defeat of Spirit of Desert (Ire) in the G1 Gran Criterium at the San Siro in October, where Moscow Ballet was fifth, was made to look even better when the runner-up took the G2 Premio Parioli in Rome last month. Ershaad caught the eye with a flourish that carried him into fourth, beaten just over a length, in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 16. He strengthens this renewal, as does the fascinating Cacique. He has done everything asked of him so far in two conditions events at Saint-Cloud Apr. 14 and Longchamp May 19.

Transferred from its traditional base of Mulheim, this year's renewal has been billed as a straight match between Saldentigerin and Amarette, from the power bases of Peter Schiergen and Andreas Schutz. While the latter came out on top in their previous meeting in the G1 Schwarzgold-Rennen at Cologne last time May 16, blame for the defeat of Saldentigerin was placed squarely on Filip Minarik, who was judged to have gone off too fast in that contest. She had entered the trial as the hot favorite on the basis of her second in the G3 Premio Dormello in Milan in October and her defeat of Dalicia and Vallera in the Listed Jean Harzheim-Rennen in Cologne Apr. 24. She needs to curb her natural enthusiasm in the early stages if she is to reverse form with the unbeaten Amarette, who hails from the all-conquering Schutz barn. La Ina brings Classic form into the contest, having finished runner-up in the G2 Henkel-Rennen at Dusseldorf May 9, and promises to take a hand on her final start before departing for the States.

Third, beaten about a length in this event last year, Lohengrin traveled to France to finish runner-up to Nebraska Tornado in the G1 Prix du Moulin Sept. 7, but closed the year with a 13th in the G1 Tenno Sho Nov. 2. Winless in a pair of starts this term, the five-year-old prepped for this with a second-place finish behind My Sole Sound in the G2-JRA Yomiuri Milers' Cup Apr. 17. Telegnosis also journeyed overseas last summer, finishing a good third to eventual Breeders' Cup Mile winner Six Perfections (Fr) in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois, but was well up the track in the Moulin. Winless since the spring of 2002, the Shadai homebred returned from a six-month absence to finish second, a neck behind Win Radius, in the G2-JRA Keio Hai Spring Cup May 16. Island Fashion, winner earlier this year of the GI Santa Monica H., returns to the turf for the first time since finishing a bang-up fourth in the GI Matriarch S. over this distance Nov. 30.

Miss Mambo was beaten 3½ lengths by Torrestrella (Ire) when third in the May 16 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp. She bids to emulate Banks Hill (GB), who placed in that Classic before winning this in 2001. She had previously shown a liking for a fast surface when winning conditions events at Longchamp Apr. 11 and at this track Apr. 26, so may be vulnerable if the rain continues. Miss Me split Torrestrella and Agata (Fr) in the Listed Prix Finlande at Longchamp last time Apr. 11 and rates a threat, as does the progressive Baqah, who beat Dolma in the Listed Prix d'Angerville at this track May 17. Carlos Laffon-Parias has a particular affection for this race, which he has won with Pharatta (Ire), Ronda (GB) and Spring Star (Fr) since 1998, and saddles Bright Abundance. She performed with credit when sixth in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac in October and comes here off a confidence-boosting minor conditions win at Angers last time May 16.

Porlezza practically owns this contest and is looking to snag her third consecutive renewal of the event. One of France's finest sprinters, she proved she was more than just a five-furlong specialist when beating Etoile Montante in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest over 6½ furlongs at Deauville last August. She was beaten less than two lengths when fifth in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp in October and showed she retained her enthusiasm when winning the Listed Prix Servanne at this track last time Apr. 26. Unlike on previous occasions, she enters this race heavily penalised and could be vulnerable. Avonbridge hails from the Roger Charlton stable bulging with talented sprinters and he has shown admirable progression since winning the Listed Cathedral S. at Salisbury last June. Campaigned almost exclusively over six furlongs, he ran third in the Maurice de Gheest, fourth in the G3 Prix de Meautry at Deauville in August and third in the G3 Ridgewood Pearl S. at The Curragh in September. Dropped back to five furlongs for his return in the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket, he succumbed by only a short head to a race-fit Frizzante (GB) May 1. The Trader had The Tatling two lengths back in second in the G3 Prix de Saint-Georges at Longchamp last time May 16, but meets that old foe on four pounds worse terms here.

Board Elligible, first or second in six of her last eight starts, was coming off a seventh-place effort in the Sabin S. over this course May 12. Well back early after stumbling at the break, the black filly rallied four wide nearing the stretch and closed determinedly to win going away. "I rode this filly a couple of times," explained winning rider Javier Castellano. "She likes to come from behind with just one move. I thought I moved too early, but I had to do it. I had to follow [favored Saintly Action] because she was the best horse in the race. I followed Jerry [Bailey on Saintly Action]. He had a good trip, but he had to check around the quarter-pole and that made me win the race. As soon as he checked, my horse took off past him and we won the race."

Gulch Approval entered this race winless on the dirt since last November at Churchill, only managing a distant second against allowance company Apr. 16 at Keeneland. Dismissed by the public in his turf debut, the dark bay ran right with the pace through the first half mile, trailed by a length entering the stretch, but dug in gamely to corale the leaders and prevail in the final strides.

With the pace early, the bay colt was given a breather down the backstretch, but ranged up four wide on the turn and pulled away late to score by 4 1/2 lengths as a 21-1 outsider. Spite the Devil (Devil His Due), a 25-1 longshot, finished second, but was disqualified for interference in the stretch and placed third. Zakocity (Precocity) was moved up to second. Previously unbeaten Lifestyle (Indian Charlie) was sent off the 2-5 favorite after a 13-length demolition of a May 9 seven-furlong Belmont allowance, but, after taking the lead in upper stretch, the colt tired to fourth in the final furlong. The homebred filly returned to action with a distant fourth at Keeneland Apr. 17 and was dismissed in the wagering here at odds of 12-1. The dark bay stumbled at the start, but recovered nicely to be a forward factor early. Four wide on the final turn, she hit the front in upper stretch and went on to best Glitteration (Glitterman) by 1/2 length. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $38,100.

Cut Quartz took to staying contests like a duck to water in 2002, winning the G2 Prix Kergorlay at Deauville in August before finishing third in the G1 Prix du Cadran at Longchamp in October. He added the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier to his repertoire back at Longchamp last May before his form tailed off towards the end of his campaign. Coming here off two confidence-boosting conditions scores at Compiègne Apr. 12 and Longchamp last time May 13, he stalked Clety's even early fractions in third under Thierry Jarnet before tackling that rival passing the quarter pole. He was forced to dig deep to contain the rally of the long-time leader and Double Tonic, but had his head down at the line to win the bobber.

Screwdriver shaped with promise on his debut when second to Iceman (GB) in a Newbury maiden on her debut May 15. Showing early speed from the gates to race in second in this furious downhill dash, he took command approaching the quarter pole before being joined and briefly passed by Royal Island. But he proved tenacious from there, pulling out extra under a drive to regain the lead and assert in the final 100 yards. "I think he just got into a bit trouble down the hill, but when he hit the rising ground he's run on again," commented conditioner Richard Hannon. "He's always on the go and you have to be very careful with him as he can boil over. We bought him cheaply at the sales because people have fallen out of love with Entrepreneur, but if he'd been by any other stallion he would have cost a lot more money. This horse will stay a mile no problem, and as we've got this one out of the way we'll sit on him for now."

Tante Rose arrived on the scene with a fluent success in the G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury last April before finishing down the field when tried over a mile in the G1 1000 Guineas S. at Newmarket the following month. Among her better later efforts were a respectable eighth placing in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket and a fine third in the G3 Lennox S. at Goodwood in July. Making her seasonal bow here, she was held up in mid division throughout the early stages by Steve Drowne. She delivered her challenge to Ruby Rocket inside the final eighth and her acceleration carried her past that rival in the final 50 yards.

This race is one of Epsom's great spectacles, with a maximum field of sprinters careening down the hill, and it was Caribbean Coral who got the lucky ticket this time. Second in a Beverley handicap last time Apr. 14, he had most of the field in front at halfway where jockey Robert Winston had to be patient and wait for the race to unfold ahead. When asked for more speed, Caribbean Coral's response was instant and generous and he quickened to grab the lead in the final strides before holding the late rattle of Plateau.

Breaking well, he was positioned on the inner by Kieren Fallon and was shuffled back as a rush of contenders sprinted for a prominent position. Fallon did not panic and gradually eased him off the fence in the straight to challenge inside the final eighth. Despite rolling left with the camber inside the final 100 yards, he quickened impressively to the front soon after to comfortably beat Royal Warrant (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) by 1 3/4 lengths. "Much Too Risky is the grand dam of this horse and was the dam of White-water Affair (GB) and Little Rock (GB)," commented owner-breeder John Greetham.
