THE KING OF CHANTILLY

When it comes to winning the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby), trainer Pascal Bary has no peers and Blue Canari (Fr) (Acatenango {Ger}) made it number five since 1994 as he swooped late to land yesterday's renewal at Chantilly. "It's just amazing to win it again," conditioner Pascal Bary commented. "I didn't think I had a first class chance coming into the race, but he got a beautiful ride and this makes up for our slow start to the season." Last in the early stages under Thierry Thulliez, the 33-1 outsider made smooth progress in the straight before running out of room towards the rail. Switched wide for his challenge as Prospect Park (GB) (Sadler's Wells) struck the front at the eighth pole, he quickened when in the clear to wrest the spoils from that rival in the final stride, in a time just a second off the track record set by the 1986 winner Bering (GB). Prix du Jockey-Club cont. p2

BIRDSTONE, SMARTY TO GET BREATHERS

Marylou Whitney's Birdstone (Grindstone), upset winner of Saturday's G1 Belmont S., and the gallant would-be Triple Crown winner Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) were both a little weary following their efforts in the 1 1/2-mile event and will each get a bit of a vacation before returning to action this summer. Trainer Nick Zito, whose three winners on Saturday's program returned nearly $160, admitted to being a little bit shell-shocked. "Yes, I didn't rejoice like I usually do," the conditioner admitted, referring to his unusually subdued reaction following the race. "But I did look at the heavens again and gave my natural kiss. I think that when you're involved in a sporting event like we were yesterday, which is really special, it does humble you." Zito indicated that the colt will return to his Saratoga base in the next few days and will likely be aimed at the G1 Travers S. at Saratoga Aug. 28, with a possible prep in the race named after his owner's family. "We'd probably find one race before [the Travers]," he said. "I don't know which one. Maybe the [G1] Whitney H. [Aug. 7]."

Smarty Jones Returns to Philly Park...

"He came out of the race very good. I couldn't be happier," said trainer John Servis of Smarty Jones, who returned to his home at Philadelphia Park yesterday. "He was bright-eyed this morning and acting real good. He ran hard and did a great job. We didn't get the total outcome that we wanted, but we had a really good ride. We've got more things ahead of us." On the horizon are races such as the G1 Haskell Invitational Aug.

8 and the GII Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 6, but Servis remained non-committal yesterday. "After the Belmont I planned on giving him a break," he reiterated. "I think there's going to have to be a race against older horses before going into the Breeders' Cup [Oct. 30]. I'm just not sure which one."

being promoted to fourth, in the G2 Prix Greffulhe back at that track Apr. 25, before finishing third behind Reefscape (GB) (Linamix {Fr}) in the Listed Prix de l'Avre at Longchamp last time May 19. "This was quite unexpected," commented owner

Jean-Louis Bouchard, enjoying his third success in the Classic after Ragmar (Fr) and Celtic Arms (Fr). "We all know he is no Bago or Dalakhani and he may not be a great horse, but in my opinion he is a good horse." Olivier Peslier said of the runner-up, "It's most unfortunate as I had the race won everywhere bar the line, but there were no excuses." Richard Hughes said of the fourth-placed Day Flight (GB) (Sadler's Wells), who led for most of the straight before being swallowed up in the final eighth, "He's run a great race for a horse so inexperienced. Unfortunately, the ground had dried out a lot and if it had been soft, they would not have caught him."

OMISSION: Silverskaya (Silver Hawk), winner of Saturday's G3 Prix de Royaumont at Chantilly, sold for €150,000 at the 2002 Deauville August Sale. We regret the omission.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Off to a quick start, Mejiro Meyer (Jpn) (Sakura Bakushin O {Jpn}) and Lohengrin (Jpn) (Singspiel {Ire}) competed for the early lead while Telegnosis and Tsurumaru Boy languished near the back of the 18-horse field. Lohengrin pushed past a tiring Mejiro Meyer with only a furlong left to negotiate as Tsurumaru Boy shouldered his way between horses to take command a 100 meters out. All out to win in the final strides, Tsurumaru Boy held off the fast-closing Telegnosis, with Balance of Game prevailing to collect third. American challenger Island Fashion (Petionville), who was far back in the early going, made a mild bid heading into the stretch, but failed to sustain the momentum and had to settle for 16th. Coming into this event, Tsurumaru Boy ran a respectable fourth behind Japanese champion Symboli Kris S. in the Dec. 28 G1 Arima Kinen, his final race of 2003, but couldn't improve on that form in his latest when sixth in the Apr. 4 G2 Sankei Osaka Hai in his only prior start this year.

Like Pascal Bary and the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club, Andreas Schutz has farmed this Classic in recent times. Having opened the scoring with Elle Danzig (Ger) in 1998, Germany's champion trainer was annexing his fifth renewal with the unbeaten Amarette here. Successful on her debut in a Dusseldorf maiden in September, she had entered the G3 Schwarzgold-Rennen as the underdog at Cologne last time May 16, but ultimately came out on top of the hot favorite Saldentigerin. Despite excuses being put forward for the runner-up, Amarette confirmed that form under an enterprising ride from Andreas Suborics in this decider. Stalking the early pace, she was committed at the top of the straight and clung grimly to her advantage, despite the late threat of La Ina and Adrie de Vries. Winning connections Gestut Schlenderhan also stand the Amarette's sire Monsun, who was registering a one-two here and was also responsible for Saldentigerin's sire Tiger Hill. Amarette is the second foal out of Avocette, a half sister to last week's Festa-Rennen winner Attilia (Ger). Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Despite a desperate spring, during which he was dogged by a virus, Bago finally made it back to the track and his return was every bit as scintillating as his previous exploits at two. Making an instant impression with conditions scores at Deauville in August and Longchamp in early September, he stamped himself as a colt of the highest order when easily beating Valixir (Ire) in the G3 Prix des Chenes back at Longchamp later that month. Soft ground failed to stop him destroying his rivals in the G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud in November, a performance which earned the honor of top rating in the 2003 International Classifications. Settled in fifth by Thierry Gillet off the furious early fractions set by Pearl of Love (Ire) (Peintre Celebre), he quickened to cut down that rival with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before rushing clear to record a time just one half of a second off the track record. "We had a lot of problems bringing him back this year, but he's back to his best now and showed there that he retains all of his ability," commented conditioner Jonathan Pease. "That was his first try at nine furlongs and he stayed well, so he might go for the G1 Grand Prix de Paris [at Longchamp June 27." Gary Stevens said of Cacique, who finished well in the winner's slipstream, "He's definitely a nice horse for the future. They went very fast and he was taken off his feet, but he finished nicely."

Baqah is improving fast and continued her upward progression with a defeat of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) third Miss Mambo here. After getting off the mark in a conditions event at Maisons-Laffitte Mar. 19, she provided the first evidence of her telling turn of acceleration with a fast-finishing second to Dolma in the Listed Prix Sigy at this track Apr. 30. She reversed the placings with that rival on five-pound better terms in the Listed Prix d'Angerville back here last time May 17 and confirmed that form at level [weights] this time. Held up towards the rear throughout the early stages by Davy Bonilla, she raced keenly while trapped wide and was asked to close on the turn into the straight. Attacking Miss Mambo inside the final eighth, she reeled in that rival with 100 yards remaining before asserting under a drive. "She has a lot of pace and I wasn't sure beforehand whether she would see out the mile," commented trainer Freddie Head. "She needs a truly-run race and got that today and stayed on well. We will think about the G1 Falmouth S. [at Newmarket July 6] and G1 Prix d'Astarte [at Deauville Aug. 1]." Roger Charlton's barn houses G1 Prix de l'Abbaye winner Patavellian (Ire) and Juddmonte Farms' smart duo of Trade Fair (GB) and Three Valleys, but he has another sprinting talent to complicate his race planning now in Avonbridge. Having taken the Listed Cathedral S. at Salisbury last June, he fared well in two visits to Deauville in August, finishing third in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and fourth in the G3 Prix de Meautry. Rounding off his sophomore season with a third placing in the G3 Ridgewood Pearl S. at The Curragh in September, he showed he had the dash for five furlongs on his return when finishing a short-head second to Frizzante (GB) in the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket last time May 1. Breaking sharply, he was sent to the front by Steve Drowne and was always in control despite the late attentions of Porlezza, seeking a third consecutive success in this contest. "He's probably not a horse who wants to be in front too long," commented Charlton. "There was no pace today, so he had no choice and in the last furlong he was looking and relaxing in front. He is very consistent and now he will go to Royal Ascot for either the G2 King's Stand S. [June 15] or G1 Golden Jubilee S. [June 19], or both." Porlezza's trainer Yves de Nicolay blamed the lack of early pace for his filly's defeat and will now aim her at the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 8.

Artie Schiller, part of an impressive triumvirate of three-year-old turf performers--including rival Timo and Kitten's Joy--for his sire El Prado (Ire), lulled the field to sleep through lackadaisical fractions, then sprinted home a clear-cut winner. The handsome bay, second to Timo in the grassy Pilgrim S. at Belmont last fall, never threatened when fourth to Read the Footnotes in the Nov. 29 Gil Remsen S. over Aqueduct's main track, then reaffirmed his distaste for the dirt with a fourth in the off-the-turf Dave Feldman S. at Gulfstream in mid-January. Offered a 3 1/2-month breather before returning to the sod, he looked very sharp taking a second-level allowance over a flat mile at Belmont May 1. Jockey Richard Migliore had profuse praise for the colt as 'the Mig' steered him to a 3 3/4-length victory in the Woodlawn S. on the Preakness undercard and the two reunited here under gray New York skies. The pair wound up on the front end when no one else wanted it, and with easy fractions of :26, :51 2/5, and 1:16, they promised to be hard to catch through the stretch. A few taps of the whip was all that was needed as Artie Schiller sped away from the running-on Timo, who was clearly second best. "The [July 10, 1 1/4-mile, GIII] Virginia Derby and the [Aug. 14, 1 1/4-mile, GI] Secretariat S. would be the main objectives," said winning trainer Jimmy Jerkens. Third to Elloluv in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. in 2002, Summer Wind Dancer was third in the GIII Santa Ysabel S. last January, but had been kept in predominantly restricted or state-bred company since. Second in the Cal Cup Matron H. Nov. 8 at Santa Anita, the gray filly was fifth in the Dec. 14 Cat's Cradle H. over 7 1/2 furlongs at this track and was rested following a sixth in the Sunshine Millions Filly and Mare Turf in Arcadia Jan. 24. Switched to the barn of Jeff Mullins, she was second by a head to the talented Hope Rises in the restricted Santa Lucia H. going two turns at Santa Anita Apr. 4 and was beaten a similar margin when runner-up in Hollywood's seven-furlong B. Thoughtful S. Apr. 24. Looking for her first win in over 19 months here, Summer Wind Dancer settled towards the back of the pack as favored Pesci sped through a half in :46.31 and six furlongs in 1:10.14. Victor Espinoza asked his mount to take up the running entering the far turn and she responded, shooting up the rail, angling wide for the drive and blowing past the pacesetter at midstretch en route to a well-deserved first graded-stakes success. "It looked like Pesci was the horse to beat, so I wanted to be close enough coming out of the gate," the winning rider explained. "With about a half mile to go, it looked like the leader was getting tired. I saved some ground on the turn, got to the outside and it was all over."

Servis Gracious as They Come in Defeat...

Throughout the grind that was the Triple Crown trail, trainer John Servis always maintained an even keel, answering all questions with patience, candor and dignity. The conditioner was asked yesterday if it was the distance that cost Smarty Jones the Triple Crown. "If he had settled, he would have gotten the mile and a half no problem," he explained. "If he had settled, you would have had a Triple Crown winner. I can guarantee you that. That the hard part because in my heart, I feel he was the best horse." For Servis, it's a few days of rest and relaxation following a Tuesday commitment. He will travel to Churchill Downs next Saturday, where he will be presented with the trophy for winning the Kentucky Derby. "Then it's back to the grindstone," he added, no pun intended. For a full text of the morning's press conferences, click here.

The Also-Rans...

Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.), fifth as the 6-1 second choice, returned to his bucking and balking at the gate which delayed the start of the Preakness. He was loaded smoothly after the gate crew blindfolded him and was part of the early pace before fading back to fifth. "I don't think the gate was a factor," said trainer Jason Orman, who was further disappointed later in the evening when his beloved Calgary Flames went down in double overtime. "I thought we moved too early, and then, with five-eighths to go, we got into a drive with Smarty Jones. I'm not saying we would have won, but we could have been second or third." The trainer said his runner would get a rest before a decision is made on a return to the races. Rock Hard Ten and Orman are scheduled to return to California today. Eddington (Unbridled), who forced the hand of Smarty Jones turning up the backstretch, finished an even fourth as the 14-1 fourth choice. "He's got plenty of talent and there are a lot of races ahead for him," said trainer Mark Henning. "He'll continue to grow and mature and, hopefully, he will get it together one of these days," he added. Sir Barton S. winner Royal Assault (Kris S.) made up seven lengths in the final eighth of a mile to finish a very respectable third. "That horse ran huge," said trainer Nick Zito. "I know he was beaten nine lengths, but that's a big time horse. That horse is going to get better. He's getting better all the time."

Purge (Pulpit), winner in his penultimate start of the GII Peter Pan S., lost his race before the field hit the track, according to trainer Todd Pletcher. "Purge had a complete meltdown in the paddock," he commented. "Even though it was a cool day, he got over-heated. Then he went to the track and the crowd really got him. He didn't run his race, so it's back to square one." Master David (Grand Slam), third in the Peter Pan, was beaten over 30 lengths into seventh and will get a surface switch in the near future. "I'll try Master David on the turf next," trainer Bobby Frankel said. "He's bred for it and it gives us more options." Out of a Sadler's Wells mare, Master David has been nominated to the GIII Virginia Derby July 10 as well as the Mid-America Triple over the Arlington turf in July and August. Those races also appear to be the goal for Caiman (Malibu Moon), eighth in the Belmont. "He looked perfect in his stall this morning," trainer Angel Medina explained. "I don't know what happened in the race. He was going fine and then he lost all chance. He's a better horse on grass." Tap Dancer (Sword Dance {Ire}) left the Belmont backstretch at 2 a.m. Sunday morning and was bedded down in his Philly Park stall. "We took our shot and I'm glad we did," said trainer Ned Allard. "Now we'll re-group and look over the right spots for him."

RECORDS FALL AT BELMONT Record crowds turned out Saturday to watch Smarty Jones sweep the Triple Crown, and although he was just a length short of collecting the Belmont S., he helped draw 120,139 patrons, up from the previous record total of 103,222 two years ago. The record crowd produced an all-time record for on-track handle at any New York Racing Association track with $14,430,856 wagered on the 13-race card, while on-track handle for the Belmont S. drew $4,331,463. Also surpassing the previous mark, handle for the Belmont S. totaled $63,671,706 and overall handle from all sources also established a new record of $114,466,087, smashing the previous record of $103,257,457 from the 2001 Breeders' Cup. "New York fans demonstrated their loyalty and passion for the sport, coming out despite a bad weather forecast, to see Smarty Jones and the Belmont S.," said Barry K Schwartz, NYRAs chairman and CEO. "New York fans are the best in the nation. The enthusiasm of this crowd was spectacular." The day also generated a new North American record for Pick 4 wagering with $1,739,609 on a pool that featured a $1-million guarantee.

BELMONT RATING SOAR According to Nielsen Media Research, NBC Sports coverage for Saturday's Belmont S., in which Birdstone defeated heavily favored Smarty Jones, generated the event's highest overnight rating in 27 years. The program scored a 13.4 overnight rating/ 27 shares, the best Belmont overnight since a 15.4/47 rating for Seattle Slew's Triple Crown sweep in 1977. Recorded through the program's 5:30 p.m. to 7:15 p.m. telecast, the rating showed a 29-percent increase over last year's 10.4/22. The race segment, from 6:15 p.m. to 7:15 p.m., generated a 15.6/31 overnight rating, an improvement of 32 percent over last year's 11.8/25. "It was America's love affair with Smarty Jones that got us the highest Belmont rating in 27 years," said Dick Ebersol, NBC Universal Sports & Olympics chairman. "I am incredibly proud of the telecast, but more importantly, the opportunity after the race to show what I think was the best display of grace and sportsmanship by both winners and losers that I have ever seen at a sports event."

NTRA Charities/New York Heroes Makes Contribution:

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association and Breeders' Cup Limited announced the contribution of $250,000 to America's Camp from NTRA Charities/New York Heroes Fund. D.G. Van Clief Jr., president of Breeders' Cup Limited and Thoroughbred owner Ernie Paragallo, who has pledged $1-million to date to the program, presented the check to former New York City Mayor Rudolph W. Guiliani and America's Camp Chairman Laurence A. Levy on Belmont S. day. Benefiting from the Heroes Fund, created by the NTRA, Breeders' Cup and NYRA to benefit children and dependents of those lost in the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, America's Camp free one-week summer camp hosted over 130 children.

HANSELINA (f, 4, Hansel--High Talent, by Talc) included a win in the Park Avenue S. for New York-breds amongst her three victories last year, but went to the shelf off a badly beaten 10th-place effort in her turf debut, the Aug. 15 Yaddo H. at Saratoga. She looked a threatening presence in her return to the track--a NW2X over this strip May 23--but ran out of gas late and settled for third. Sent postward at 4-1 odds here, she relaxed in fifth as favored Areek (Deputy Minister) and Holiday Lady (Deputy Commander) disputed the pace. Hanselina moved to challenge as the former packed it in and got the best of a tiring Holiday Lady to prevail by 3/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: SW, 14-4-5-2, $285,110. O/B-Peter Mariano (NY). A Bit o'Gold won the restricted Coronation Futurity as a juvenile and was looking to improve off a second to Twisted Wit (Distored Humor) in his seasonal debut, the restricted seven-panel Queenstown S., contested over a sloppy Woodbine oval May 8. Sent off the public's choice while adding ground, the gelding recovered from a slow start to move into a stalking position, then showed a good turn of foot to open a clear lead at the top of the lane on his way to victory. Second choice Twisted Wit was eased late after pressing the pace.

Win machine Winter Garden ran up against the tough Harmony Lodge in last year's renewal and could do no better than second, but got her picture taken here versus more manageable rivals. The heavily favored bay, coming off a three-length tally in the GIII Hendrie H. at Woodbine May 16, entered the far turn with a daylight lead and was confidently handled through the stretch, needing only a glimpse of the whip to account for Spanish Decree.

Forest Music figured to be an imposing presence when this one came off the turf and ran to her 3-5 odds under a resilient Stewart Elliot. The gray earned a 105 Beyer breaking her maiden at first asking last October, but was tossed to the wolves in her next and finished up the track in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. She missed the board in her next, the Nov. 23 Gill Valley Stream S., and concluded her year with a third in the Mom's Command S. at the Big A Dec. 12. She returned to her winning ways coming off the six-month freshening, capturing the May 14 Gill Miss Preakness S., and looked to keep the momentum going here. Forest Music, sent right to the front, carved out snappy fractions and was never seriously threatened as she skipped home. "They told me she was fast and just let her go out there and do her thing," said Elliot, who was winning his first race since finishing second aboard Smarty Jones in Saturday's Belmont. "I got into her a little bit turning for home, but I probably didn't have to; she had it won by then."

Last year's GI Atto Mile runner-up Soaring Free made a victorious return to his base in Canada after a pair of mixed results south of the border. The Sam-Son homebred returned from a six-month respite to win the Gill Shakertown S. in wire-to-wire fashion over Keeneland's sod Apr. 10, but finished eighth as the favorite in the Gill Maryland Breeders' Cup H. at Pimlico. Sent off the prohibitive favorite returning to the grass, he opened up by 3 1/2 lengths turning for home and came under the wire a much-the-best victor.

LONG POND (c, 3, Grand Slam--Light Up New York {SW, $140,539}, by Majestic Light), a $140,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, broke his maiden in a seven-furlong maiden claimer over this course last out May 14. Sent off as the even-money choice coupled with Chimborazo (Dehere), he sat close to the early leaders and powered his way clear to a one-length victory. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-0, $79,296.

CLANDESTINE (f, 3, Grand Slam--Miss Delta, by Chief's Crown) won at first asking sprinting at Gulfstream Mar. 28 and came back to win a Calder optional claimer Apr. 30. Stretched to two turns in the Castlebrook S. over this course, she faltered badly as the chalk and was double-digit lengths back in fifth. Faced with a sloppy track when this was taken off the turf, the 3-5 choice was well off the leaders early, made a sweeping move leaving the turn and splashed home 3 3/4 lengths the best. Clandestine was a $175,000 OBSAUG yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, $55,050.

Saltwater Runner came home a one-length winner two back in Prairie Meadows Goldfinch S. Apr. 16 before finding the company too tough and placing fifth last time out in the 7 1/2-furlong GIII La Troienne S. at Churchill Downs Apr. 29. Four for four at three-quarters of a mile, the filly went off the 2-1 second choice to gain her third stakes victory. Settled in a stalking fifth through the opening half mile, Saltwater Runner angled out five wide for the drive, closed on the game front-runner Silver Crown and edged past that foe in the final strides to record the narrow win. "I don't want to jump the gun here, but she showed me something a lot of fillies don't have--a lot of class and guts," said winning jockey Rene Douglas. "She showed me she wanted to get there. Back on the main track last time, he ran an even third in a Churchill allowance May 19. Given a 3-1 chance here, he was bumped at the start, checked and shuffled back on the turn for home, but drove past them all once clear in the stretch. Souvenir Gift registered a 1 1/2-length victory in her first outing going two panels at Santa Anita Apr. 14, but went off the longest shot on the board here to make it two in a row. Just behind the early pace, the filly poked her head in front while racing three wide on the turn and drew off late to score with authority. "She was very professional, really nice," said winning jockey Mike Smith. "[Trainer] Sam Semkin has done a great job with her. He's got her acting like a four-year-old." The filly will be pointed toward the Gill Landaluce S. July 5.

Soud made his seasonal debut a winning one notching a $100,000 optional claimer at Santa Anita Feb. 19, then ran a solid second in the Gill Golden Gate Breeders' Cup H. Mar. 14. Last seen finishing a disappointing fifth as the 8-5 pick in the Gill Arcadia H. Apr. 3, he was overlooked a bit in this one. He stalked the early leaders in third, took the lead in the stretch and dug in gamely to hold off the crowd's choice.

SELVATICA (f, 3, Forestry--Pareja {MSW & GSP, $283,770}, by Strawberry Road {Aus}) was a non-threatening second in a six-furlong maiden at Santa Anita in early April, then saw her chances compromised when she hopped at the start in her next, a seven-furlong event at Hollywood May. The dark bay still managed to get up for second in that test and was available to astute bettors here at solid 3-1 odds. The daughter of sophomore sire Forestry was away smoothly this time and tore through a half in :44 flat. Coming into the lane up by 2 1/2 lengths, she left enough in the tank to stave off Mea Domina (Dance Brightly) by a length. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $43,200. O/B-Granja Vista Del Rio (KY). FALLON REFLECTS

Kieren Fallon had time to reflect on his weekend Epsom Derby and Oaks winning exploits yesterday, revealing that he knew that Saturday's blue riband scorer North Light (Ire) (Danehill) "would win weeks ago." The Weinstock Family's colt, who beat Rule of Law by 1 ½ lengths in the Classic, looks likely to tackle the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh June 27. Fallon told PA Sport, "I rode him spells of work and I knew he would finish on his own. My Derby winner last year Kris Kin and him are two completely different types. Kris Kin would only do what he wanted to do, while North Light has a nice touch of toe." The champion jockey also revealed that the Ballinger Ridge affair, involving allegations of race fixing by the newspaper The News of the World, "hit me hard." He added, "I couldn't get my confidence back quickly, but luckily I came good at the right time and I'm fine now."

CITY TO DROP IN TRIP

Michael Tabor's Salford City (Ire) (Desert Sun {GB}) will be dropped to 10 furlongs after his fifth placing in Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby. Conditioner David Elsworth told PA Sport yesterday that the G3 Greenham S. winner may contest the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown July 3, or wait for the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York Aug. 17. "I thought he ran well, but he didn't appear to stay," the trainer said yesterday. "He's a very good horse and it was felt that if he had a chance he ought to take it. It just didn't work out unfortunately. The Eclipse is a race we'll put him in, but he's been on the go since Christmas and it might be better if we left him for the Juddmonte and a campaign in the second half of the season. But that's just an initial gut feeling, we don't have to make any decisions just yet."

She finished 13th on her seasonal debut in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. at the same track Apr. 14, before coming second on her only other start at Lingfield May 29. Starting this as the even-money pick, the full sister to Abbey Bridge, SW-US, $177,544, attempted to make all but was headed by Southern Bazaar (Southern Halo) approaching the final furlong. However, she showed gritty determination in the latter stages to assert a three-parts of a length superiority over that rival. Lifetime Record: SP-Eng, 4-1-2-0, £9,094. POST GETS BREAK

Juddmonte Farms' American Post (GB) (Bering {GB}) is set for a break after his sixth placing in Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby. Reported to be fine after his exertions yesterday, the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) winner will be rested until his late-summer targets of the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp Sept. 5 or G1 Juddmonte International S. at York Aug. 17.

INJURY SIDELINES NORD

Baron Thierry Zuylen de Nyevelt's Voix du Nord (Fr) (Valanour {Ire}) faces a lengthy spell on the sidelines after sustaining an injury ahead of yesterday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly. The G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and G1 Prix Lupin scorer sustained a fracture to his off-fore pastern after cantering on the sand in his final piece of exercise. "The x-rays revealed a fracture to the off-fore pastern," trainer David Smaga told Paris-Turf. "It seems that it is not displaced and, if that is confirmed in a few days, it will not need surgery. If it is what we think, he will need two-months box rest and he's an intelligent horse. As for an autumn campaign, it may come too quickly, but we'll have to see."
