NO HOLES IN LATICIE

The rumors were flying early last week. Was Laticie (Ire) (Inchinor {GB}) perhaps not at her best for the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes? The filly quickly quieted her doubters at Chantilly yesterday, delivering her killer turn of acceleration to best Millionaia (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) by 3/4 of a length. Switched off in the rear by Christophe Soumillon off the fast early fractions, the 7-4 pick was full of run at the quarter pole, where she was asked to quicken on the wide outside. Millionaia got the better of her private duel with Grey Lilas (Ire) (Danehill) inside the final eighth, but it was Laticie who swamped them with speed in the final 150 yards to take the French Oaks in the fastest time since 1987. "They went a good pace and I always had a lot of horse," Soumillon said. "She relaxed perfectly and silenced those rumors in great style." Prix de Diane cont. p2

ROYAL ASCOT

ROYAL ASCOT GETS UNDERWAY TOMORROW

With over £3 million in prizemoney on offer, the 22 stakes races, seven handicaps and one conditions race at Royal Ascot are amongst the most hotly contested in the European racing calendar. The five-day Royal meeting gets underway tomorrow afternoon, and the highlight of the opening-day program is the G1 St James's Palace S. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's Haafhd (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}) will bid to extend the record of his owner-breeder in the major events in the one-mile St James. Sheikh Hamdan has already enjoyed Royal success with past luminaries such as G1 Prince of Wales's S. scorer Nayef and Marju (Ire), who took this race in 1991. A win for Haafhd would be particularly poignant for connections, as his dam is none other than Al Bahathri, who was the first to carry the blue and white silks to victory at this meeting in the G1 Coronation S. in 1985. He faces stiff opposition from the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas scorer Bachelor Duke (Miswaki). Triumph for this challenger would ensure emotive scenes, as he was picked out as a yearling by Joss Collins and carries the straw silks of the Duke of Devonshire, two mighty characters of the turf who sadly passed away recently. Royal Ascot cont. p4

A Cut Above...

Lattice suggested she was well above average when defeating subsequent G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud and G1 Prix Lupin hero Voix du Nord (Fr) and G1 Prix du Jockey-Club runner-up Prospect Park (GB) in the G3 Prix de Conde at Longchamp in October. She had only to go through the motions when beating Asti (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) by a length in her sophomore debut, the G3 Prix Vanteaux at Longchamp May 2 and, with connections resisting the temptation to run in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary, she entered this Classic a fresh horse. "She is a top-class filly...I would have been very disappointed if she had lost," conditioner Jean-Marie Beguigne commented. "She didn't have a great draw here, but came in for a perfect ride and showed how well she can quicken. That was a classy field and she won like a champion. We'll decide later where she goes, but the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 12] could be her next target." She may renew rivalry with the runner-up there, according to trainer Elie Lellouche. "Millionaia is a very nice filly and I favored her to Asti, but, unfortunately, she was not experienced enough here," he said. "She will return in the Prix Vermeille." Jockey Gary Stevens had no excuses for Grey Lilas, but was not helped by the pre-race parade. "The post parade got her upset and she wasted a lot of energy before the start," he said. "However, she stayed on nicely and the winner is a very good filly."

Policy Maker showed himself capable of competing at this level when he was beaten a short neck by Polish Summer (GB) in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville last August, but was promoted to first after a lengthy stewards' enquiry. He was no match for Dalakhani (Ire) and company in his 2003 finale, running 10th in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in October, but shaped well under a penalty on his return when fifth in the G2 Prix d'Harcourt Apr. 4. Settled in fifth off this steady early gallop in his second outing of the season, he was short of room in the straight, but switched wide for his challenge and quickened to reel in Fair Mix in the shadow of the post. "He was not quite himself last time and has improved a lot since," commented conditioner Elie Lellouche. "That was a nice performance under his penalty and he is proving a very consistent performer. He will now head for the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud [July 4]." This important trial has been responsible for the last two winners of G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg, and trainer Peter Schiergen has a major player for the July 4 Classic after saddling Malinas to victory here. Off the mark in a Mulheim maiden May 1, Malinas was just 3/4 of a length shy of the smart El Tiger (Ger) when runner-up in the Listed Grosser Preis der Sparkasse Dortmund last time May 20. That form was advertised by the emphatic success of the fourth-placed Salonhonor (Ger) in Saturday's Listed Dresdner Preis der Dreijahrigigen, and Malinas added further substance with a game success in this contest. Reserved in mid-division throughout the early stages by William Mongil, he responded to his rider's urgings to wear down Omikron and long-time leader Shirocco in the final 100 yards and assert for the score. Also ran: Puppeteer (GB), Almond Mousse (Fr), Caesarion (Ire), Putra Pekan (GB), Saratan (Ire), Gruntled (GB), Art Moderne.

My Risk, a thoroughly game and genuine performer at this level, dug deep for Christophe Soumillon in a pulsating finish to add this contest to his burgeoning portfolio. Successful in the G3 Prix Quincey at Deauville last August, My Risk finished runner-up to Special Kaldoun (Ire) in the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein at Longchamp in October before restoring the winning thread in the G3 Prix Perth at Saint-Cloud the following month. Returning to take the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc at that track Mar. 28, he disappointed when only fifth in the G2 Prix du Muguet there last time May 1. Making up for that rare below-par effort here, he stalked the early pace in third before hooking up with Charming Groom at the top of the straight. Gaining the advantage at the quarter pole, he battled tenaciously under strong driving to hold that rival in a thrilling tussle all the way to the line. "In the Edmond Blanc he had a hard race, and I blame myself for his defeat next time as I didn't get his work right in between," commented conditioner Jean-Marie Beguigne, who went on to capture the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes later in the afternoon. "He needed freshening up, but he has come back in great form. I am toying with the idea of running him in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois [at Deauville Aug. 15]."

She had trouble fighting her way out of the crowd, but Mambo Slew burst through an opening in the waning yards and just got up to take the victory away from favored Lucifer's Stone. Mambo Slew captured her first three starts on the turf, besting Ticker Tape in the Nov. 28 GIII Miesque S. at Hollywood Park and in the Jan. 14 Blue Norther S. at Santa Anita, but had the tables turned by that rival when second in the Mar. 18 China Doll S. The dark bay filly lost all chance when blocked along the rail in the Apr. 11 Providencia S., finishing 10th, and nearly got caught in the same trap yesterday. Jockey Edgar Prado rated the 5-1 chance off the early pace, weaved his way through traffic to close ground on the far turn, had to wait for running room during the drive, but found a seam just in time to get up for the score. "When I saw a hole, I turned her loose," Prado said. Added trainer Patrick Biancone, "She has an unbelievable turn of foot." The winner could be pointing for the July 3 GI American Oaks at Hollywood Park.

EXCEED AND EXCEL OUT Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Exceed and Excel (Aus) (Danehill) will miss Saturday's G1 Golden Jubilee S., it was announced yesterday. The G1 Newmarket H. winner was finally ruled out of the six-furlong contest after picking up a virus, resulting in a blood abnormality. Conditioner Tim Martin will now aim the four-year-old at the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 8. Sheikh Mohammed's Bloodstock Advisor John Ferguson told the Racing Post, "He had a slight virus which was only detected by the odd cough and imperfect blood. We will take it easy with him until he is 100 percent, but hopefully he will be fit and well to run in the July Cup."

The race named after the meeting's founder has a distinctly Gallic feel this year, with last year's G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and GI Breeders' Cup Mile heroine Six Perfections pitched against the G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix du Moulin scorer Nebraska Tornado. Six Perfections will carry the esteemed silks of the Niarchos Family, responsible for past Royal Ascot victors such as Kingmambo and Trojan Fen (GB), who took this contest for the meeting's most successful trainer Henry Cecil in 1984. Nebraska Tornado will represent the all-conquering Juddmonte Farms operation, whose greatest Royal Ascot moment came with the success of G1 Coronation S. scorer Banks Hill (GB) in 2001.

Mighty Gulch was haltered for $25,000 after running second at Aqueduct Feb. 16 and has moved right up the ladder for his new connections. Given a two-month break after being claimed, the bay returned to be second for a $35,000 tag Apr. 16, then tried his luck vs. allowance foes at Belmont Park May 8 and won it by a head. He took another step up bidding to make it two in a row and led this field from gate to wire, drawing off late for the score.

Never far from the front, the homebred filly revved it up three wide on the final turn, was roused to the front at the eighth pole and pulled away to win by 2 1/2 lengths as the 2-1 chalk. Yingyingying (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) finished full of run to be second. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $40,960.

Eye of the Sphynx registered a fourth consecutive victory and may have earned herself a ticket to the June 27 Queen's Plate, a race won in 2001 by former Sam-Son colorbearer Dancethruthedawn. The bay filly kicked off her career with a three-length maiden score at Keeneland Apr. 22 and followed up 17 days later with a 3 1/4-length victory in the restricted Fury S. She continued her skein with a pace-pressing, neck victory in this track's GII Selene S. May 22 and was odds-on to take Canada's premier race for sophomore fillies. In front early, she was taken back to race in second for the run up the backstretch. Given her cue by Todd Kabel turning for home, she opened up at will and drew clear. The victory has the winning trainer thinking big. "The Plate is definitely a possibility," said Mark Frostad. "This filly has done an awful lot in a short period of time. We're going to really have to watch her and see how she comes out of this race. We'll think about it."

The runner-up in both the Swynford S. and the GII Grey Breeders' Cup S. at two, Organ Grinder came back after a seven-month absence and was third in a Woodbine allowance test May 1. Back in stakes company three weeks later, he was let go at 12-1 in the GIII Marine S., but was second by a length. The gray colt was favored off that effort and lived up to the role, sitting off the heels of the frontrunners for six furlongs before powering to the front and drawing away to an easy score. "It was tough to get him to relax," jockey Patrick Husbands said. "He was a little bit rank all the way through the race. At the half, when horses started to stop in front of me, he started to get ranker, but when I got a little room on the outside and let him go, he just exploded."

Claimed for $50,000 out of her third career start last fall, Sweet Problem went on to win three of her next five efforts, including back-to-back optional claimers over the Woodbine main track May 1 and May 14. The bay was cutting back in distance off a third-place effort in the GII Selene S. over 8 1/2 furlongs May 23. Trying the turf for the first time, Sweet Problem stalked the pace from the inside, charged between rivals in upper stretch and drove clear to an impressive win.

A 5 1/2-length winner of the GIII Turnback The Alarm S. at Aqueduct Nov. 1, Pocus Hocus was rested following a third in the GII Top Flight H. at Aqueduct Nov. 28. In her seasonal debut, the gray was a well-beaten sixth in the GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. Apr. 30 and was the second choice to make amends in this spot. Settled just off the pace of Chrusciki, Pocus Hocus took closer order on the far turn, dug in gamely and was just up.

Gracious Humor took an off-the-turf allowance at the Fair Grounds Jan. 5, got a brief respite and resurfaced with a solid runner-up finish in an Aqueduct optional claimer Mar. 28. A respectable fourth in the GIII Maryland Breeders' Cup H. May 15, the bay got back to his winning ways here, forcing the pace outside of Something Smith before putting that rival away late.

PARAGON QUEEN (f, 2, Lord Carson--Storm Struck, by Storm Bird), a $13,000 KEENOV weanling, $37,000 OBSAUG yearling and $450,000 BESMAR juvenile, was second over a good Keeneland strip Apr. 14 and caught another wet track in her next, finishing fourth over this surface Apr. 30. The chestnut made most of the running in a May 16 maiden at Churchill and was the 9-10 chalk to finally break through. Fast away from the stalls, the Lewis colorbearer was engaged from the outside by Sudden Flame (Stravinsky), dueled with that one into the final furlong and edged clear to score by 3 3/4 lengths. Lady Dynasty, the first runner for freshman sire Richter Scale, was third, beaten a little more than six lengths. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-0, $47,980. O-Robert B & Beverly J Lewis. B-Russ Fisher (KY). Black Bart ended 2003 with an allowance win on the grass at Turf Paradise Dec. 30 and opened the new year with an optional claiming score on the same surface Jan. 12. The dark bay was second by a head in the Turf Paradise Breeders' Cup H. Feb. 7, but rebounded to take his next three, including the Apr. 24 Khaled S. over fellow Cal-breds at Hollywood. Trying the dirt and open company last time, he ran a solid third in the May 31 Ack Ack H., and was the choice with the return to turf and the state-bred ranks. Black Bart went right to the front from his inside post, lost the advantage briefly after a mile, but was back on top as they entered the stretch and edged away in the final furlong.

LEST WE FORGET (g, 4, Tale of the Cat--Kay Bee Bee {Ire}, by Deputy Minister) cruised to an eight-length victory in his first start, a six-furlong affair on the Del Mar main track last August, then promptly disappeared. Gelded since his debut, the dark bay was trying turf for the first time in his return and showed a liking for the surface, taking the lead after three furlongs and pulling away in the final furlong for a 2 1/2-length success as the 2-1 choice. Celtic Sword (Arg) (Hidden Prize) completed the exacta. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $45,000. O-Golden Eagle Farm. B-Mr & Mrs J Mabee (KY). T-J Mullins.

Moss Vale finished third behind Boogie Street (GB) in the Listed Harry Roseberry S. at Ayr in September before returning to fill fourth spot in a Newmarket handicap Apr. 13. He showed dash when taking a five-furlong handicap at Chester May 5, then trounced old rival Boogie Street by three lengths in the Listed Sandy Lane S. at Haydock May 22. That form took on a solid look when the runner-up subsequently beat his elders in the Listed Achilles S. and Moss Vale was sent off the confident 4-9 choice to follow suit here. Stalking speed-ball Repertory (GB) (Anshan {GB}) until taking command with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining, he had to work to fend off the attentions of Mac Love in the closing stages, but pulled out extra to justify his price. "We'll crack on with him now, with the G1 July Cup [July 8], G1 Nunthorpe S. [Aug. 19] and G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp [Oct. 3] his targets," trainer Barry Hills said.

DANEHILL FILLY TOPS MAGIC MILLIONS

A daughter of Danehill topped the opening session of the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale, held yesterday on the Gold Coast, eliciting a bid of A$150,000 from local outfit Heinrich Bloodstock. Lot 326, a Collingrove Stud consignee bred by the late Robert Sangster's Swettenham Stud, is out of the winning Pleasant Tap mare Crazy for You and is from the family of U.S. Grade I winner Scorpion. "She was a lovely type," said trainer Gillian Heinrich. "Although a little on the small side, she was correct and a good type. It is the last Australian-bred yearling by Danehill to be offered and she does have a top pedigree as well." The five-day sale continues Tuesday with weanlings, with the final three sessions--Wednesday through Friday--featuring broodmares. For complete results, visit
