SENEX UPSETS GRAN PREMIO DI MILANO

Senex (Ger) (Pelder {Ire}) unleashed a fine turn of acceleration to swoop from last to first under William Mongil and provide conditioner Hans Blume with his second renewal of the G1 Gran Premio Di Milano, held yesterday at Milan. After finishing seventh in the G1 Deutsches Derby on unsuitably testing ground at Hamburg in July, Senex maintained a consistent profile when finishing second to Policy Maker (Ire) in the Listed Prix de Reux at Deauville and to Big Bad Bob (Ire) in the G3 Furstenberg-Rennen at Baden-Baden in August. Returning to finish third in the Listed Etzel-Rennen at Munich Apr. 12, he filled the same spot in the G2 Gerling-Preis in Cologne May 2 before finishing fifth in the G2 Grosser Mercedes-Benz-Preis at Baden-Baden last time out May 30. Switched off in rear off these fast fractions set by Maktub (Ity) (Love the Groom), he quickened widest of all passing the three-furlong marker to overwhelm the long-time leader at the eighth pole and assert under a drive. "I was confident going into this race because he had improved since his last race and loves top of the ground," commented Blume. "He could go for the G1 Canadian International [Woodbine, Oct. 24]." A DAY OF STARS IN ARGENTINA

A total of 76 Argentinian-bred horses in six divisions has been entered for this afternoon's Carreras de las Estrellas program, the equivalent of the Breeders' Cup, at the Hipodromo Palermo. Three Group 1 winners take their spot in the day's featured event, the G1 Classic, including last year's champion Manpower (Arg) (Southern Halo), who won over a soft turf course at San Isidro. The task might prove a bit more difficult this time around, given the presence of three-year-old Guambia Bo (Arg) (Poliglote {GB}), who comes into this off a ringing eight-length victory in the G2 Classico Otono over course and distance May 22, where Manpower could do no better than third. The Forty Niner stallion Roar is responsible for seven runners on the card and his daughter Forty Doriana (Arg) looms the one to beat in the 1000-meter G1 Sprint. The champion sprinter in Argentina last year, the four-year-old has won her last four starts, capped by a three-length victory in this G1 Ciudad de Buenos Aires May 1, where she covered the about five-furlong distance in :53.72. Another daughter, Forty Greeta (Arg), is perfect in three career starts and looks to keep that record intact in the G1 Juvenile Fillies. A Group 2 winner in her second career start, she tacked on a five-length success in the G1 Gran Premio Jorge de Atucha at Palermo Apr. 24. She makes her first appearance since being purchased privately by Sheikh Rashid bin Mohammed al Maktoum. In the G1 Distaff, Dale Lunfa (Arg) (Dalhart) looks to record her second Estrellas success, having won last year's Juvenile Fillies, but will have to deal with Artemisa (Arg) (Mutakddim), second to the now U.S.-based Potra Fabulous (Arg) in last year's Distaff. Frugal Lark (Arg) (Candy Stripes) and Forty Mirage (Arg) (Roar), separated by a nose in the G1 Gran Criterium at San Isidro May 23, head a field of nine for the G1 Juvenile, which also includes two sons of Louis Quatorze. A full field of 16 is expected to face the starter for the G1 Junior Sprint, for two-year-olds over 1000 meters. Cont. p2

Vale Mantovani was a consistent performer among the best domestically-trained fillies last term, finishing runner-up in the G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) at the Capannelle last April and third in the G1 Oaks d'Italia at this track the following month. She returned to finish third in the G3 Premio Paolo Mezzanotte in Milan May 15 and filled the same spot in the G2 Premio Carlo d'Alessio in Rome last time May 30. Bettering her third in this race 12 months ago, she stalked the steady early fractions, committed with 3½ furlongs remaining and stretched to a safe advantage late as the unlucky Deva ran out of real estate. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart. Violation Prompts Nicks Firing:

Team Valor has ended its association with Ralph Nicks after the trainer was suspended and fined last week by New York stewards. Nicks and veterinarian David Bryant were suspended for 15 days and fined $5,000 last week after Bryant was observed injecting a Team Valor horse, set to race later that afternoon, in the receiving barn at Belmont Park June 9. Injections on race day other than Lasix are forbidden by NYRA regulations. "Team Valor has a zero-tolerance policy with regard to drugs," explained Team Valor President Barry Irwin. "We had no other choice than to do what we did. This was the most difficult business decision I've ever had to make, because we like Ralph and we think he is an outstanding horseman." Nicks had joined Team Valor as a private trainer on the first of the year. Team Valor has distributed its horses among trainers Todd Pletcher, Kiaran McLaughlin, Michael Matz, Rick Violette, Dale Romans, Chris Block and Mark Casse, and also plans to send horses to Niall O'Callahan, Mike Tomlinson and Ronnie Werner.

Brandala ended 2003 with an Aqueduct allowance tally in November, but had not been able to hit the board in four starts this term, including an 11th-place showing in the Mar. 14 Gill Hillsborough, a fifth in the May 1 Gill Beaugay H. and, most recently, a fourth in a Belmont allowance May 21. Well back in the early going, the bay mare moved up four wide turning for home and closed powerfully to just get up in the final strides. "She's such a nice mare," said winning trainer Tom Walsh. "The pace was a little slow, but she has such a good turn of foot that it didn't matter." Winning jockey Jose Espinoza added, "She really kicks in every time. She was galloping along very nicely in the beginning and finished up great."

Big Tease, claimed for $30,000 from a third-place effort at Aqueduct in February, was switched to the turf two back and ran fifth at the Big A May 1 before earning her first grass win for a $35,000 tag at this distance and course May 20. The dark bay filly ran a ground-saving trip just behind the early leaders. She forged to the front along the hedge turning for home and inched clear to the wire. "I kind of had the trip I wanted," said winning rider Richard Migliore. "I didn't want to be in front of the main contenders because then I would have been the hunted, not the hunter. Everything fell right and I had enough horse to take advantage of it."

Sir Cherokee Has Bone Chip Removed:

Domino Stud's Sir Cherokee (Cherokee Run), longshot winner of the 2003 GII Arkansas Derby, has undergone surgery to remove a bone chip from his left front ankle and will be on the sidelines for the next month. The bone chip, removed by Dr. Larry Bramlage last week, was discovered following Sir Cherokee's third-place finish in the June 5 Slipton Fell H. at Mountaineer Park. "He's doing fine," said trainer Mike Tomlinson. "It was really just a tiny flake, but Mr. Jones [Domino's Kenneth T. Jones, Jr.] wanted everything to be right, so we went ahead and took that tiny little chip out of there. Dr. Bramlage said to put him back in training in 30 days, so he's really not going to miss much."

Puxo Saco hadn't tasted victory since winning the Moccasin S. as a two-year-old, finishing second twice in four 2003 starts and, after returning from a seven-month absence, missing the board in two efforts this year. Her latest, a listless seventh versus Hollywood allowance foes May 12, prompted trainer Jenine Sehad to try her on the grass and the four-year-old looked sharp in victory here. Up close early, the chestnut dropped back a bit turning for home, but came flying at the end and surged past Sophisticatedbluff for the upset.

PAOLINI ON EASY LIST Germany's record-breaking money earner Paolini (Ger) (Lando {Ger}) has sustained a leg injury, which connections believe may explain his last two disappointing efforts. After sharing the spoils in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba Mar. 27, the seven-year-old finished down the field in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Sha Tin Apr. 25 and G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji last time May 16. Subsequent investigations revealed that the chestnut sustained an injury to a hind split bone. The injury will not require surgery, but it is expected to keep Paolini out of training for a month. Conditioner Andreas Wohler confirmed that his aim is to return to Chicago for the Aug. 14 GI Arlington Million, in which he had heated for third before being promoted to second in 2003.

+ KRYNICA (f, 2, Danzig--Bionic {GB}, by Zafonic) broke well and showed early speed to race prominently throughout the early stages. Leading on the turn into the stretch, the 11-2 chance was joined passing the quarter pole by Secret History (Bahri) and looked booked for second when headed soon after. Allowed to rally under hand ride, she regained the advantage with 50 yards remaining and held on over that foe late to record a cosy head score. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,434.
