BREAK OUT THE BUBBLY

It took Love And Bubbles (Loup Sauvage) 10 career starts, but she finally became a group stakes winner in yesterday's G3 Prix Chloe S. at Chantilly. Successful in the Listed Criterium du Languedoc on the last of seven juvenile starts at Toulouse last December, Love And Bubbles returned from a long break to finish second in the G3 Prix Cleopatre at Saint-Cloud on her sophomore bow May 11. Her only other start resulted in a 12th-place finish in the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes (French Oaks) at this track June 13. "We knew she was doing well after the [Prix de] Diane and that is why she was supplemented for this race," said Robert Collet's representative Jean Logeres. "The Diane was her second run after a long layoff, she was keen and probably found the trip a little too far but nine furlongs today was perfect." The eventual winner was reserved off the pace in rear as Cattiva Generosa (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) led and made inroads into the leader's advantage with a smooth passage from the quarter-mile marker. Jockey Ioritz Mendizabal eased Love And Bubbles to the front at the eighth pole and the partnership were not extended thereafter to easily deny the game Cattiva Generosa, with Cloon (Lure) running on well late to claim third. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Dual Classic winner Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) will jog today at Philadelphia Park for the first time since finishing second in the G1 Belmont S. June 5. "I can tell around the barn he's anxious to get back," trainer John Servis told Blood-Horse. The handsome chestnut is scheduled for a one-mile jog alongside a pony. Servis thinks Smarty should be fine following his time off at Philly Park. "I don't think he's lost too much, especially coming off that schedule." Out of nine starts, Smarty Jones has eight wins and one second for a total of $7,563,535.

Lion Heart Back on Work Tab:

Lion Heart (Tale of the Cat), on vacation since a tiring fourth in the May 15 GI Preakness S., worked a best of 14 bullet four furlongs in :49 over the Saratoga training track yesterday morning. It was the colt's second work since the second jewel of the Triple Crown. "He is really good right now," trainer Patrick Biancone said. Looking ahead, Biancone added that the Aug. 28 GI Travers S. was the immediate goal. "We made the spring Derby, and now we are aiming for the Summer Derby," he said. "I plan to run him in either the [GI] Haskell Invitational H. or the [GII] Jim Dandy S. before the Travers, whichever we decide is best for the horse. If I am very, very pleased with the horse, then I'd better go for the $1 million in the Haskell, but if he needs an easier race, then I'll go for the Jim Dandy" Both the Haskell and the Jim Dandy will be run Aug. 8.

Almuhathir, a half brother to expatriate MGISW Wild Rush (Wild Again), finished third in the Feb. 1 GIII Whirlaway H. at Fair Grounds, but was never in the mix in the Feb. 24 Mardi Gras H. and was given a three-month breather. Seventh in his comeback, a $100,000 optional claimer at Belmont May 29, he entered this race as the longest shot on the board. The dark bay, last of five through six furlongs, began to make up ground in upper stretch and surged past the tiring Ground Storm for the win.

3rd-BEL, $43,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 5f, :58 4/5, ft. BOLD OUTLOOK (f, 2, Chief Seattle--Don't Ring Me, by Carson City) was sent off the even-money favorite in her Apr. 6 debut over 4 1/2 furlongs at Keeneland and disputed the pace before being worn down late to finish second by 3/4 of a length. Given ample time to recover from that effort, the dark bay ducked to the outside at the break, but recovered to be with the pace after a quarter mile. Clear into the stretch, the 3-10 favorite dug in gamely and withstood a late challenge from Preacher's Tale (Tale of the Cat) to win by a head. A $40,000 KEESEP yearling and $400,000 OBSFEB juvenile, she becomes the first winner for her freshman sire (by Seattle Slew). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $35,800. O-Robert B & Beverly J Lewis. The Maryland-bred captured an allowance at Delaware by 7 1/2 lengths May 1 and was a prohibitive 1-5 chalk to keep the streak alive. Breaking alertly, the dark bay set out in front, opened up on the turn and coasted home an 8 3/4-length winner. The $34,000 FTMSEP yearling is a half to Real Tough (Oh Say), MSW, $152,579. STORM SIZZLE (g, 3, Storm Boot--Kylie Rose, by Ogygian), a $50,000 KEESEP yearling, broke his maiden in his fourth career start, wiring a field of Oaklawn foes Mar. 13. Up against the tough Bull Market in his next, he finished sixth in the slop on the Kentucky Oaks undercard Apr. 30 and was making his first start on the turf as the 2-1 second choice. The gelding was always part of the mix and drew clear once asked the question, scoring by 2 3/4 lengths on the line. Pace factor Foot Trick (Mazel Trick) and the closing Strike Commander (Smoke Glacken) finished on even terms to share the place spot. The jockey of Foot Trick lodged an objection against the winner for interference through the stretch, but stewards judged the contact incidental. Lifetime Record: 6-2-2-1, $64,665.

Justifying his 4-5 favoritism here, the bay was well off the leaders up the backstretch, but a strong late rally put him past Don Manuel (Seattle Sleet) by 1 1/2 lengths. Seattle Hooper (Seattle Slew), making his first start since finishing ninth in the 2003 GIII Risen Star S., was a non-threatening fifth. Lifetime Record: 7-4-3-0, $71,100.

Breaking alertly, the dark bay showed the way from the start while under pressure, but kept finding more to prevail by 3/4 of a length over Show Me the Town (Carson City). ### Hollywood Park Announces Laffit Pincay Jr. Award:

Hollywood Park has named an award in honor of Hall of Fame jockey Laffit Pincay Jr., which will be presented annually to a person who has served the sport with integrity, extraordinary dedication, determination and distinction. The first winner will be announced in the winner's circle prior to the 65th running of the GI Hollywood Gold Cup July 10. "I'm very humbled that Hollywood Park is remembering me in this way," Pincay, who rode nine Gold Cup winners, said. "Combining it with the Gold Cup makes it very special for me." Pincay rode his record-breaking 8,834 victory surpassing Bill Shoemaker at Hollywood Park in 1999. He retired at the age of 56 after fracturing bones in his neck in a spill at Santa Anita Park March 1, 2003. "Laffit has not only played a monumental role in shaping Hollywood Park history, he has been a tremendous role model for everybody involved in the sport," Hollywood Park president Rick Baedeker said.

Rock Hard Ten Swaps Bound:

Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.), who galloped at Hollywood Park Thursday, will make his next start in the GII Swaps Breeders' Cup S. at Hollywood July 10, according to trainer Jason Orman. "He got here yesterday afternoon from the farm [Moody Creek in Bonsall]," Orman said. "He's looking good and we're looking at the Swaps. He will probably work on Sunday, and we'll see where we're at." The sophomore was last seen finishing fifth in the GI Belmont S.

Japanese Star Dance in the Mood Ready For Oaks:

Dance in the Mood (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) made her first appearance at Hollywood Park Thursday morning, jogging in preparation for the GI American Oaks July 3. "She's doing well and is happy," said Nobutaka Tada, manager for trainer Kazuo Fujisawa. "She will probably do a good canter on Saturday and work on the turf Wednesday." Dance in the Mood won her first four starts before finishing fourth in the Japanese Oaks last out May 23.

Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-2, £7,388.
