Despite a disappointing ninth-place finish in his latest start, the GI Met Mile at Belmont Park May 31, Mobil will nonetheless collect ample support for his 20th lifetime race, largely due to his impressive record of six wins and three seconds from 10 starts at the Toronto oval. In his only local start this year, Mobil scored in the seven-furlong GIII Vigil H. Owner Gus Shickendanz, trainer Mike Keogh and jockey Todd Kabel look to collect their second Dominion Day H. following a win by Firm Dancer in 1997.

FUNNY CIDE BREEZES AT BELMONT Funny Cide (Distorted Humor), who finished second last time out in the GI Massachusetts H. at Suffolk Downs June 19, breezed four furlongs in :46.75 Wednesday at Belmont Park. The move was the second fastest of 32 at the distance over the Belmont main strip. According to trainer Barclay Tagg, the gelding could to make his next start in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup July 10, however, the trainer has not ruled out a start in Saturday's GI Suburban H. at Belmont. "It's less than two weeks since he ran," Tagg told Thoroughbred Times. "He had a hard race, a hard ship and I'm not anxious to run him back. If the Suburban fell apart, I'm right here and I'd run him in it. If it doesn't fall apart and the Hollywood Gold Cup doesn't look too tough, then I'd go out there."

CORRECTION: Wednesday's TDN incorrectly reported the sale for Stellar Jayne. The filly sold for $150,000 as a weanling at the 2001 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November Sale. We regret the error.

Eyeq hinted at things to come when successful over a mile last time in the Listed Bloomers' Vase at Taby in Sweden and took her 2004 record to a perfect three-for-three with this latest victory. With the win, she gained her first pattern success. The eventual winner was reserved off the pace at the rear of a well-bunched field as Lysuna (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) led and gained forward momentum once into the straight as Nightdance Forest seized the initiative. She made her bid with 300 meters remaining and just proved strongest in a three-way drive to deny Nightdance Forest and Arlecchina.

LANE'S END TO BYPASS SARATOGA SALE

Lane's End will not consign any horses to the upcoming Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Selected Yearling Sale, which will be held in Saratoga Springs, NY Aug. 10-12. "As we do every year, we look at the group of horses we have, and we're happy with this group, but we didn't think we had a strong enough contingent for this year's [Saratoga] sale," Bill Farish, Lane's End director told Thoroughbred Times. According to Farish, the operation will sell its yearlings at Keeneland's September Yearling Sale. Lane's End will consign approximately 200 yearlings to this year's September Sale, which commences Sept. 13.

Azeri Records Sharp Work:

Azeri (Jade Hunter) breezed four panels in a blazing :45.60 Tuesday at Churchill Downs. "Awesome," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "Everything was good afterwards, too. She looked excellent." The move was the first for the 2002 Horse of the Year since she bled during a fourth-place effort in the June 19 GI Ogden Phipps at Belmont Park. "She went much quicker than we anticipated," explained Lukas. "She galloped out in 1:10. She was just doing it so easy. She got into it and she came off the turn and just kind of dropped down and took off." Lukas indicated that Azeri will make her next start in the Aug. 1 GI Go For Wand at Saratoga.

Successful in a conditions event on his seasonal bow at Saint-Cloud Feb. 27, Marshall's best effort in four subsequent races was a second-place finish in the Listed Grand Prix de Bordeaux May 29, his penultimate start. He finished seventh in the G3 La Coupe at Longchamp June 17, his most recent outing, but returned to form here with a battling finish to defeat old stager Mocham Glen a shade cozily. The eventual winner tracked the leaders in third and made good progress along the rail once into the straight. He seized the initiative just inside the eighth peg and was ridden out in the closing stages to secure the win. "He won the [G3] Prix de Guiche last year and had health problems afterwards, but is coming back to his best and won safely today," commented winning conditioner Carlos Laffon-Parias. "He definitely prefers soft ground, so it would be wise to give him a break now and wait for a fall campaign." (French report cont. p5)

SWEET WAKE SOLD

With only days to go to the G1 Deutsches Derby, Gestut Wittekindshof has sold homebred three-year-old colt Sweet Wake (Ger) (Waky Nao {GB}) to Dr. Christoph Berglar, the proprietor of the Union-Gestut, for an undisclosed sum. Berglar, who had a notable 2003 racing season highlighted by homebred filly Night Lagoon (Ger) winning the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin, has booked Frankie Dettori to ride the colt in Germany's Blue Riband at Hamburg this Sunday. The sophomore is the winner of two Listed races in his last two starts, the Neue Bult Fruhjahrspreis at Hannover May 2 and the Walther J Jacobs-Rennen at Bremen June 20, the final recognised Derby trial.
