THE NEWMARKET DRAW

She has mastered her own generation, now Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) will be asked to dominate her elders in the G1 Falmouth S. today at Newmarket. The one-mile event has been upgraded this year to further enhance the garden party that is the July meeting. Attraction encountered her favored fast ground when winning the G1 1000 Guineas over Newmarket's Rowley Mile May 2, the Irish equivalent at The Curragh May 23 and the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 18, but the forecast of rain adds a measure of concern to the mix for connections. "The ground is okay provided it stays that way, but we'd like to see it drying out to be honest," conditioner Mark Johnston told PA Sport yesterday. "We don't want any hint of soft in it." But, he added, "She's absolutely fine and everything has been spot on. The older horses may give her a test, it's something new and we'll find out [today]." Falmouth S. cont. p3

An International Supporting Cast...

The Falmouth has gone to international invaders three times since 1996. Baqah (Ire) (Bahhare), who beat the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third Miss Mambo in the G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly June 6, represents the French this time. "She's really genuine and has improved and improved and has a tremendous attitude to racing," Angus Gold, racing manager to owner Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum, told PA Sport. Tizdubai (Cee's Tizzy) started her career in the U.S., winning a maiden race and the GII Sorrento S. in Southern California. She was sixth in her European bow, the June 4 G3 Princess Elizabeth S. "Tizdubai came back in good shape from her first run of the year, which she probably needed, and she is doing well," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said.

WONDERLAND

She'd had some trouble finding the winner's circle recently, but Wonder Again (Silver Hawk) has always shown a fondness for the Belmont Park grass. She demonstrated her affinity for the course once again with a 3 3/4-length score in the GII New York H. yesterday afternoon. The bay capped a four-race winning streak at three with a victory in the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont, but was shut out for more than a year after that effort. Back on track with a rallying win over her favorite turf in the GIII Noble Damsel H. last September, the Phillips homebred ended 2003 with a fourth-place finish in the Oct. 5 GII WinStar Galaxy S. at Keeneland. She was sidelined for eight months after that race, returning to run sixth in the June 5 GII Just a Game Breeders' Cup H. Off at 7-2 to get back on track in her second start off the extended layoff, Wonder Again tracked a moderate pace over the soft surface, angled wide for the stretch drive and sprinted down the lane to win handily. added a five-length tally in the May 1 Three Chimneys Juvenile S. at Churchill Downs.

The 1-10 chalk in the June 5 GIII Kentucky Breeders' Cup S. at 5 1/2 furlongs, he held on to make it three in a row. The crowd was less confident that the colt could carry his speed six furlongs here, but, off at even-money, Lunarpal set a fast pace and fought off longshot Storm Surge to sweep the Churchill spring juveniles stakes, a feat matched only by Favorite Trick. "I couldn't be prouder of him," trainer Steve Asmussen said. Added winning jockey Shane Sellers, "Every time he steps up to the plate, he answers the call. Souvenir Gift came out running, winning a quarter-mile maiden event at Santa Anita in April, and showed that victory was no fluke when she came back to take the June 6 Cinderella S. going 5 1/2 furlongs at Hollywood. Tucked in at the rail here as Bella Banissa set the pace, the bay was caught in some traffic as they raced into the turn and had to steady briefly. My Miss Storm Cat, the crowd's 2-5 choice, chased the frontrunner into the stretch, but the two were duking it out near the middle of the track and jockey Mike Smith and Souvenir Gift had clear sailing up the inside, closing with determination to get up in the final strides. "She finished up good," Smith told TVG, adding with a smile, "Somebody should check up on her--she runs like a four-year-old, not like a two-year-old. She's so professional. [Trainer Sam Semkin] and his crew have done a great job with her. She does everything you need a horse to do." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Heading Attraction's opposition is Soviet Song, one of many talented older fillies and mares who have remained in training thanks to this series of pattern upgrades. She lived in the shadow of Russian Rhythm last term, finishing fourth behind that rival in the 1000 Guineas in May and runner-up in the G1 Coronation S. the following month, but has emerged as a major force in her own right this season. After taking the G2 Ridgewood Pearl S. at The Curragh May 22, she failed by a neck to repel the challenge of subsequent G1 Eclipse S. scorer Refuse to Bend (Ire) in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 15. Her conditioner James Fanshawe took this 12 months ago with Macadamia (Ire), and she is sure to put it up to the sophomore. That applies to Sheikh Maktoum bin Rashid al Maktoum's Favourable Terms, who made the most of the new opportunities for her sex when beating Monturani in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot June 16. But her connections are aware of the daunting task ahead of the four-year-old on these weight-for-age terms. "If Attraction is the horse we know, she will win," commented Joe Mercer, racing manager to Sheikh Maktoum. "Nine pounds is a lot of weight to give to a top filly like Attraction."

In many a soap opera, you will hear distraught parents demanding to know, "Where did we go wrong? They had every advantage. We gave them everything we could...and it's come to this!" Unfortunately numerous breeders also end up berating themselves with similar questions over the failure of broodmares that appear to possess every requirement for success.

Take Chapel of Dreams as an example. She gave Ted Sabarese little cause for complaint about her racing career, except perhaps that she took a little time to find her best form. Sabarese had paid $850,000 for her at the 1985 Keeneland Summer Sale, a few months before her three-parts brother Storm Cat secured his first stakes victory in the GI Young America S.

By the end of her second season, Chapel of Dreams had repaid only $66,900 towards her purchase price, but she more than made up for lost time at four. Her 13 starts yielded six wins, three at graded level, and nearly $550,000 in earnings. She notched Grade II successes in the Wilshire H. and Palomar H., and three times failed by less than a length to become a Grade I winner, notably beaten a nose in the Gamely H. At the end of the year, the Blood-Horse handicappers rated her at 118, just three pounds below the best American-trained older turf fillies.

As you might guess from her price tag as a yearling, there was no fault to be found with Chapel of Dreams' pedigree. She is a daughter of the extraordinary Northern Dancer, who twice headed the broodmare sires' table in North America. His 299 broodmare daughters have so far produced around 240 stakes winners.

Chapel of Dreams' dam is Secretariat's celebrated daughter Terlingua, who looked so sensational as she blitzed her way through her first four starts in California. When another of Secretariat's daughters was mated with Northern Dancer, the outcome was the 1984 Epsom Derby winner Secreto, so Chapel of Dreams was certainly bred along the right lines.

So why has Chapel of Dreams failed to fulfill the high hopes held of her to the extent that she was sold for $170,000, in foal to the Texas-based Valid Expectations, as an 18-year-old? She has 10 foals of racing age, yet the best that any of them has done is to finish third in a $50,000 stakes at Ellis Park.

You can hardly say that she hasn't been given every chance. Her first nine foals were by Mr. Prospector, Gulch, Woodman, Seeking The Gold, Seattle Slew, Seeking The Gold, Seeking The Gold again, Pleasant Colony and Coronado's Quest. As seven of these stallions are members of the Mr. Prospector male line, you could argue that too many eggs have been placed in one basket. You could also argue that, as Chapel of Dreams made only one appearance on the main track during her 24-race career, she should have been tried with a horse with a turf pedigree. Admittedly the American-bred Woodman raced on turf in Ireland, but Chapel of Dreams wasn't mated to another turf horse until 2000, when the inexpensive Comic Strip was given his chance at turning the tide.

Of course, one important area which could have affected Chapel of Dreams' prospects as a broodmare is her conformation. As I have never seen her, I don't know whether she had any serious faults. The chances are that any mare which races 24 times has no major flaws, but Ted Sabarese once described her as small (something which could have been said of many of Northern Dancer's successful broodmare daughters).

Often, when high-class racemares disappoint as producers, their daughters and granddaughters make amends. This appears to be happening with Chapel of Dreams. The first indication came when her eldest daughter, the winning Gulch filly Bridal Tea, produced Postponed, winner of the GII Peter Pan S. in 2000. Interestingly, Postponed was inbred 3x3 to Northern Dancer and 3x4 to Secretariat, and it is fair to give this inbreeding some of the credit for reviving Chapel of Dreams' talent.

Chapel of Dreams' second daughter, the Woodman filly Wiener Wald, earned only $200 in five races, but is the dam of On Reflection, a middle-distance Listed winner in France. Now Wiener Wald's first daughter, the non-winning Argent du Bois, has produced a daughter worthy of Chapel of Dreams and Terlingua in Ticker Tape, winner of the GI American Oaks.

Argent du Bois follows Louju as the second Silver Hawk mare this year to be represented by a Californian Grade I winner that started its career in Europe. Louju is responsible for Castledale, winner of the Santa Anita Derby, and Silver Hawk is also the broodmare sire of Percussionist, a good fourth in the Epsom Derby after running away with one of the main trials.

Had I been at Hollywood Park for the American Oaks, I rather doubt that I would have backed Ticker Tape, simply because she was untried over a mile and a quarter. Her sire, the admirable Royal Applause, ventured beyond six furlongs only once during his distinguished career and is proving a strong influence for speed. His mature stock have an average winning distance in Britain and Ireland of only 7.2 furlongs, compared to the 11.1 furlongs of Silver Hawk's progeny, so Silver Hawk appears to be the key to Ticker Tape's stamina.

ALKE SUFFERS SETBACK Top sprinter Alke (Grand Slam) has been entered for Saturday's GIII Smile Sprint H. at Calder, but trainer Todd Pletcher said yesterday that the four-year-old may be forced to miss the race. Off since running second in the Mar. 27 G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, the dark bay has developed a quarter crack. "Everything was going perfectly until this happened," Pletcher said. "We'll patch it in the next day or two and see how he is. I went ahead and entered him, but if he's not 100 percent, he won't come." Alke, first or second in nine of his 10 career starts, beat GI Breeders' Cup Sprint champ Cajun Beat in the GIII Deputy Minister H. at Gulfstream in February. He has earned $619,385.

Belong to Sea cruised through her first three career starts, including the GIII Miss Preakness S. last May, before things went south for her in three subsequent outings. She tried the turf in the Starine S. Sept. 24, but was eased and went to the sidelines. An excellent second in her Feb. 19 return at Gulfstream, the bay didn't start again until May 14 and wound up fifth, but improved last time May 30 when missing by a head over track and trip. In striking position from the start, the favorite rallied three wide on her way to solid success.

The dark bay made amends with a 3-5 victory over course and distance May 15 and was 4-5 in his first try against winners. Travelling easily, the crowd's choice ranged up under a motionless Edgar Prado at the head of the lane and bid farewell to the field, galloping home a 7 1/4-length winner. The bill that legalizes slot machines at racetracks in Pennsylvania was signed into law by Gov. Ed Rendell Monday, the Blood-Horse reports. The bill allows for as many as 61,000 slot machines at 14 locations, including seven tracks. Slots are expected to generate $3 billion, with the majority of the tax revenue to be used to reduce property taxes in the state by an average of 20 percent. The first slot parlors are expected to open in 2006.

Presidentialaffair, trying to get back to the winner's circle for the first time since taking last November's GIII Stuyvesant H. at Aqueduct, splashed home victorious in course-record time. The bay, who was given a six-month break over the winter, had filled the exacta in all three 2004 starts: a six-furlong allowance test at Philly Park in mid-May, the seven-furlong Lyman Sprint Championship H. over the same course June 5, and an 8 1/2-furlong allowance race at Monmouth June 20. Confidently ridden by jockey Stewart Elliot, he opened up by daylight entering the first turn, led by four lengths through six furlongs in 1:09 1/5 and just kept on motoring under a modest hand ride. "I never really asked him for run," said Elliott. "Turning for home I called on him a little, and by time I peeked back I saw there was no one coming. Capeside Lady, relishing the slop in this off-the-turfer, turned in a powerful performance as a New York invader. The Empire-bred's juvenile campaign included wins in the Joseph A. Gimma S. and the Maid of the Mist S., both at Belmont and both restricted to statebreds. She kicked off 2004 with a third in the Bouverie S. going seven panels at Belmont May 16, then completed the trifecta again in the six-furlong Funistrada S. against open company June 12. Shipping to the Jersey Shore in an attempt to notch her first unrestricted stakes, the bay lay just off leader through four furlongs in :46 2/5, then switched on the after-burners to leave 'em all behind.

America America proved to be the ultimate hunch bet on Independence Day, withstanding favored Topango for her second stakes victory. The chestnut filly's career has spanned four countries, but her biggest successes to date have come in the Lone Star State. After breaking her maiden first time out at Gulfstream last spring, she went overseas, placing in stakes in England and Germany. She returned to this continent in the fall and made a minor splash in Canada, posting thirds in both the GII Summer S. and the GII Natalma S. as well as finishing runner-up in the GII Mazarine Breeders' Cup S. Taken to the southern U.S., America America defeated colts in the Sam Houston Texan Juvenile S. Nov. 15 before finishing a distant 10th in the $1-million Delta Jackpot S. Dec. 5. She failed to hit the board in five of six subsequent starts, and was bred to El Prado (Ire) following a fourth in the Sunland Oaks Mar. 27. She returned to the races with a last-place effort in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 14 before improving to be second in the Oliver S. at Indiana Downs June 20. After saving ground in the early stages here, America America moved to the front at the top of the stretch and was all out to fend off Topango. So what's next for the peripatetic filly? "I don't know if she will race again," said winning trainer Frank Mourier. "I will see if she's still happy [Monday], and if so, maybe she will race again."
