READY TO EXCEL?

To an extent, from now on every international raider will be measured against the exploits of Choisir (Aus), but Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum's Exceed and Excel (Aus) (Danehill) is out to forge his own reputation in today's G1 July Cup at Newmarket. Like that dual Royal Ascot scorer, he emanates from Australia and booked his ticket here with a fine success in the G1 Newmarket H. at Flemington last time Mar. 6. Ruled out of his own tilt at the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at the Royal meeting due to a virus, the four-year-old has been giving all the right signals in his homework on this town's slopes.

Exceed and Excel
aapracingandsports.com.au

"He's an exciting horse," commented rider Kerrin McEvoy. "We had that hiccup with the virus when he first got here, but I have ridden him in a few pieces of work and he's got good tactical speed. I imagine I can get him right up in the first half dozen and I'm hopeful he can quicken well and maintain that right to the line."

Pius Devotion...

Heading the list of challengers is Michael Tabor's Antonius Pius (Danzig), who bids to extend the fine recent record of his sire and connections in this race. Danzig has been responsible for six winners since 1986 and Aidan O'Brien has saddled two of the last five winners in Stravinsky and Mozart (Ire). Like those colts, Antonius Pius is stepping back in trip for the first time. In a bizarre turn of events, he was disqualified from second place behind American Post (GB) in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau at Longchamp Apr. 25 before stumbling in the closing stages and finishing fifth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) over the same course May 16. He cruised throughout the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot last out June 15 before running out of stamina when only beaten a length by Azamour (Ire) and will be able to use his natural speed more efficiently this time. Field p3

FOLLOW THE BAND

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's Bandari (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) was sent off at 12-1, but he had the last laugh when beating the favored Sulamani (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) by a half length in yesterday's G2 Princess of Wales's S. on Newmarket's July Course. Ignored by the punters due to his disappointing ninth placing in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 16, he was settled in the rear by Richard Hills and gifted the 11-8 pick first run inside the final half mile. Quickening on the inner passing the quarter pole, he reeled in Sulamani and Frankie Dettori on the uphill climb before asserting in the final 100 yards. "He is clearly a horse of great ability and although some people had doubts at the beginning of this season, a couple of great races this year have shown that he's got it when he wants to use it," commented conditioner Mark Johnston. Click for Racing Post chart. Getting Better with Age...

If Bandari's sophomore campaign failed to deliver the Classic glory his victories in the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial, G3 Gordon S. and G2 Great Voltigeur S. promised, his four-year-old season proved even more anticlimactic. Despite his second placing in this race 12 months ago, he was generally below par, mainly due to an injury which required surgery and a rest. After a tame return in the G3 John Porter S. at Newbury Apr. 17, he bounced back to take a conditions event on the Rowley Mile here May 1 and the Listed Huxley S. at Chester five days later. He outgamed the smart Ikhtyar

(Ire) by a neck on rain-softened ground in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown June 1 before his poor show on quick conditions at the Royal meeting last time. "He had earplugs in before the start today," Johnston added. "He was very, very relaxed and calm and everything went perfectly--we saw the real Bandari today and that's him at his best. He will possibly go for the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. [at Ascot July 24]." Conditioner Saeed bin Suroor said of Sulamani, "He is definitely happier when the ground is softer and it is still possible that he will run in the King George if the ground is right for him."

Captain Hurricane caused a 10-1 upset here to break his maiden in this select and competitive renewal. Connections had expected him to have lost that tag already on his debut at Yarmouth June 10 and a Salisbury conditions event last time June 24, but he could only manage second on both occasions. Keen in the early stages of this contest, he was anchored in the rear by Jimmy Fortune as Frankie Dettori threw down the gauntlet on Council Member, but quickened nicely and steadily reeled in that game rival to gain the edge in the final strides. Said conditioner Peter Chapple-Hyam, "I couldn't believe he got beat at Yarmouth and I may have left him a bit fresh at Salisbury as he pulled hard. It was a bit of a punt running him today, but I thought he was my best two-year-old a long while ago. He needs a fast pace or he pulls hard and I said to Jimmy to get there at the last minute. We're in the G2 Gimcrack S. [at York Aug. 18] and I think the owners want to go for that." Click for Racing Post chart. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Sophomores have taken this 13 times since 1980 and Sandford Robertson's Balmont bids to emulate his sire, who was one of the most impressive of those victors in recent times. He took the G2 Gimcrack S. at York last August before being promoted to first in the G1 Middle Park S. at the Rowley Mile here in October. He may have found the G1 Dewhurst S. coming too quickly after that effort when only seventh 15 days later and has to overcome a 264-day absence here. "Balmont is 90 percent fit, while he is in really good shape mentally-and ready for his first start of the year," commented trainer Jeremy Noseda yesterday. "His last two bits of work have been as much as I could have asked of him and I'm sure he'll run a bold race, although it's a huge ask to win a race like this after a nine-month layoff."

Another interesting member of that generation is Godolphin's Kheleyf, who impressed when winning the G3 Jersey S. over seven furlongs at Royal Ascot June 16. "The drop back to six is a concern, but he traveled so well last time and has a tremendous turn of foot, so he has a great chance," said Racing Manager Simon Crisford yesterday. Of the older brigade, Tim Easterby's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup winner Somnus and G1 Golden Jubilee S. scorer Fayr Jag need contrasting ground conditions, with the former requiring significant rain and the latter loving the lightning-fast surface over which he won that six-furlong contest last time June 19.

ATTRACTION ON A BREAK Conditioner Mark Johnston confirmed yesterday that the Duke of Roxburghe's Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) will be rested after Tuesday's 2 1/2-length defeat by Soviet Song (Ire) in the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket. The Middleham conditioner reported the English and Irish 1000 Guineas and Coronation S. winner to be "fine" yesterday, before revealing that she will "have a bit of a break now." He added, "It's a little bit unfair that Soviet Song did not get the credit she deserved, but having analyzed the race, the first half was slow and that's not typical of Attraction. Kevin [Darley] said she wasn't really striding out, but at halfway no horses were under pressure behind her and that's unusual. That has taken the pressure off now and everything else is a bonus, so she'll have more of a break than in the past and come back in August. There is nothing to consider before the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois [at Deauville Aug. 15] and as her finest hours have been at a mile we'll stay there. I'd love to have a go at a big race over seven furlongs, but there is only the G1 Prix de la Foret [at Longchamp Oct. 9] and that's usually run on soft ground." Johnston also revealed that the Duke of Roxburghe had suggested that she may stay in training at four, adding that "she's done so much already."

CORRECTION: Tuesday's TDN incorrectly reported the sire of GIII Landaluce S. third-place finisher My Miss Storm Cat. The two-year-old filly, owned by Ed Friendly and trained by Bob Baffert, is by sophomore sire Sea of Secrets (by Storm Cat), who stands at Walmac Farm.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

CHANGES AHEAD AT DEAUVILLE AUGUST The Agence Francaise has catalogued 549 lots for the Deauville August Yearling Sale, which will have a more streamlined format when it is held Aug. 22-25. The sale, which was previously conducted over five days earlier in the month of August, will now begin Sunday, Aug. 22. The catalogue has been divided into two sections, Part 1 and Part 2. Part 1 will feature 254 yearlings selling in the select Sunday and Monday sessions. An additional 295 yearlings will be offered during the Part 2 sessions Tuesday and Wednesday. "This will make it easier for the international buyers," Jocelyn de Moubray said on behalf of the sales company. "The sale will also be held on an excellent weekend of racing at Deauville." Selling will begin following a Deauville racecard which includes the G1 Prix Morny and three other Group races. Recent graduates of the August Sale include three 2004 French Classic winners: Latice (Ire)--G1 Prix de Diane; Torrestrella (Ire)--G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches; and Blue Canari (Fr)--G1 Prix du Jockey Club. Among the yearlings featured this year are a Lomitas (GB) half brother to Torrestrella, an Anabaa half brother to Blue Canari and Sadler's Wells colt out of a full sister to Coup de Folie and Machiavellian. The catalogue is available for viewing at www.deauville-sales.com.

NUREYEV COLT TOPS DAY 2 AT TATTS There was one six-figure lot on day two of the Tattersalls July Sale in Newmarket yesterday when Irish agent Timmy Hyde, acting on behalf of J P McManus, paid 130,000gns while outlasting agent Aiden Murphy for Pontefract maiden winner Schapiro (Nureyev). Consigned by John Gosden's Manton House Stables, the gelding will be conditioned by Jonjo O'Neill at Hyde's Jackdaws Castle stable in Gloucestershire. "I've bought him to go jumping," said Hyde. "He was a great mover and his form on the Flat was very solid. He's a scopey sort with size and strength." Locally-based breeder Les Ward of Wyck Hall Stud later paid 72,000gns for a two-year-old Benny The Dip (Silver Hawk) filly out of Dream Lady (GB), herself out of G1 2,000 Guineas winner Entrepreneur (GB) (Sadler's Wells)'s sister, Dance A Dream (GB). Dance A Dream finished second in the 1995 G1 Oaks. "We bought her as a breeding prospect and will take her back to stud then make a decision about her future. I liked the Roberto line-breeding in her pedigree and there is plenty of black type on the page," said Ward. The sale concludes today with a morning session starting at 9:30 a.m.

He has served the MHBA in various roles since 2002 and is also a director of Maryland Million Ltd., a board member of the Maryland Farm Bureau Political Action Committee and a board member of the Maryland Horse Council. Meteor Storm Bled in U.N.:

Meteor Storm (GB) (Bigstone {Ire}), seventh in last weekend's GI United Nations H. at Monmouth Park, may have had an excuse, according to trainer Wally Dollase. "He bled a little bit and the trip [to the Jersey Shore] certainly didn't help," the conditioner explained. "He left [California] at 2:30 in the morning and didn't get in there until 8:30 at night and spent all that time in the air or on a van. He was listless the morning of the race and he never took hold of the bit during the running." The winner in his penultimate start of the GI Manhattan H. on the Belmont S. undercard June 5, Meteor Storm had been penciled in for a start in the GI Arlington Million Aug. 14, but those plans may need to be reconsidered. "We're not ruling it out, but for the next few days, we'll play it by ear," Dollase said. "Luckily we have some time before the race to see how he does."

ON SONG

Elite Racing Club's Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) was reported to be "fine" after her 2 1/2-length defeat of Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) in Tuesday's G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket. Conditioner James Fanshawe will wait to decide whether the four-year-old will run in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood July 28. "She ate up last night and has been out for a walk and a pick of grass this morning," commented Fanshawe yesterday. "She was left in the [Sussex S.] on Tuesday, but I would not run her if the ground was fast there. She's had five quick races close together, but she's as tough as nails. We thought Attraction's front-running style would really suit Soviet Song. They didn't look to be going that quick early on, but they weren't too far outside the track record."

 Since breaking his maiden at Newcastle in October, Anousa had plied his trade in handicap company, winning over nine furlongs on heavy ground at Kempton May 3. He appeared to be crying out for extended distances and confirmed that impression when third in a Chester handicap last time June 26. Settled under cover in third by Kieren Fallon throughout the early stages, he made smooth progress to lead passing the quarter pole and needed only hand riding to assert for a smooth score. "I was worried about the ground as I always thought he needed cut, but he's done it well and is obviously progressing," his rider commented.

Woodcracker opened his account in a Nottingham maiden Apr. 17 before finishing a length runner-up to the smart Frank Sonata (GB) in a competitive York handicap May 11. He suffered a troubled trip when down the field in the King George V H. at Royal Ascot last time June 17, but bounced back to take this handicap, run for the first time in honor of the late bloodstock agent Joss Collins. Settled in mid-division early, he quickened to grab the lead with 250 yards remaining before holding Royal Warrant in a thrilling tussle up the rising ground. "Michael [Bell] told me to make sure I got plenty of cover, but I thought I had too much and wouldn't get out," explained jockey Darryll Holland. Trainer Michael Bell paid tribute to Joss Collins, adding, "He bought a fair number of horses for me over the years and he found a group winner for me early on in Smart Guest, who won the G3 Anglesey S. in 1994."

After his disappointing effort when last of 15 in the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot June 16, he was dropped back in trip for this confidence booster. Settled in mid-pack by Jamie Spencer early, the 1-2 pick quickened under a hand ride to pass Blue Dream (Ire) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) with 100 yards remaining and strode a length clear for a facile score.
