EMA BOVARY REMAINS TRUE

Ema Bovary (Chi) (Edgy Diplomat) overhauled odds-on Bear Fan (Pine Bluff) in the stretch to capture the $500,000 GII Princess Rooney H. at Calder yesterday afternoon. "This is the best field she's beaten," winning trainer Larry Ross said of the mare who had earlier captured nine straight races. "She isn't eligible for the Breeders' Cup, so I don't know [if she would go there]. You could say this was her Breeders' Cup--'Emu' does Miami. She'll get a break now after we get her back to Golden Gate. She'll have some kind of program in the fall." Cont. p2

TOTAL IMPACT IN HOLLYWOOD GOLD CUP

Total Impact (Chi) (Stuka) hadn't visited the winner's circle in over a year, but finally got the right trip and made Laura de Seroux just the second female trainer to capture the GI Hollywood Gold Cup. "He does relish the mile and a quarter," said de Seroux, who had also captured a pair of graded stakes last weekend at Arlington. "I always thought it was his best distance." The chestnut had taken the GII Mervyn Le Roy H. last May, but didn't race again until December after getting sore. He picked up checks in each of his seven starts since then, but seemed to be a bridesmaid in his most recent outings. Cont. p2

CHAMPALI STINGS CLOCK STOPPER IN SMILE

Champali (Glitterman) won a four-way battle to take the $500,000 GIII Smile Sprint H. at Calder, defeating Clock Stopper (Gilded Time) by a whisker, with Built Up (Homebuilder) and My Cousin Matt (Matty G) each a neck further back. "Our hand was pretty much forced from the one spot unless somebody went absolutely nuts," explained winning jockey Jerry Bailey. "He just refused to lose." Cont. p3

CHRISTINE'S OUTLAW WIRES POKER

A longshot at 13-1, Christine's Outlaw (Wild Again) led every step of the GIII Poker H. at Belmont yesterday, digging in gamely to deny favored Millennium Dragon (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}). The versatile colt, making just his third start on turf, stopped the clock in 1:32.46 for this one-mile contest. "We're not committed either way [turf or dirt]," said trainer George Weaver. "But his record on grass is pretty good." Cont. p6

A NEW STREAK? Purchased privately for $65,000 during her three-year-old season, EMA BOVARY (Chi) (Edgy Diplomat) had been nearly unstoppable since her arrival in the U.S. The granddaughter of Deputy Minister rattled off nine straight victories, including the GIII Las Flores H. Feb. 22 and the Vinery Madison S. Apr. 7, but lost the streak in her first start off a two-month break when she got lost in traffic in the GIII Desert Stormer H. June 5, finishing second to Coconut Girl. Allowed to settle into stride here as Lady Tak (Mutakddim) showed the way to Bear Fan (Pine Bluff), Ema Bovary came three wide, collared the favorite and moved by her late for the rousing victory. "She kind of got sucked down on the inside behind in her last race and never really got a chance to run," explained winning trainer Larry Ross. "Today, she drew the outside in the clear and just ran her race."

Margins: 1 1/4, HF, 4. Odds: 6.70, 3.40, 0.70.

Also Ran: Yessirgeneralsir, Royal Moro, Gift of the Eagle, Continental Red.

Total Impact, a Group 1 winner in his native Chile, ran second to Dynever in the GIII San Bernardino H. Apr. 3. Even the Score was third that day, but wound up taking the next two opportunities for older horses in California, annexing the May 8 GII Mervyn LeRoy H. and the June 12 GII Californian S. with Total Impact third and second, respectively. Never far from the front, Total Impact and Mike Smith saved ground and began to rally up the fence in the stretch. The chestnut wrested command in the final furlong and clung to his advantage stubbornly as Olmodavor rallied for second. "He's had a lot of little things happen to him," said Smith. "Laura's done a great job, taking her time. We've been waiting for him to run his 'A' race. We finally got out distance and he put it all together." The 3-5 favorite Even the Score will be back for the GI Pacific Classic. "The race didn't shape up for us at all," said trainer Vladimir Cerin."

The last time they locked horns, Champali could only get within four lengths of a streaking Clock Stopper when third in the Perryville S. at Keeneland last October. Yesterday, it was the latter doing the chasing down the Calder stretch, but pacesetting Champali dug in gamely and held on for a narrow win in the Smile Sprint H. The bay colt took last year's Northern Dancer S. at Churchill Downs in June, the last of four stakes wins on the season, but followed that effort with the most disappointing performance of his career, a distant fourth at odds-on in the July 5 Iowa Derby. Third to Cajun Beat in the GIII Kentucky Cup Sprint prior to his Perryville effort, he closed the year with a close fourth in a Churchill turf allowance Nov. 14. He was second in his return in a tough allowance test on the Derby undercard and took a May 26 heat by 1 1/4 lengths, and came into this off a 3 1/4-length score in the GIII Aristides H. at Churchill June 19. The second choice in the wagering, Champali set strong fractions along the inside, but left the rail open as he passed midstretch and was just able to hold Clock Stopper, who closed gamely to barely miss. "I was concerned when he tried to get out a little at the top of the stretch," winning trainer Greg Foley admitted. "He's done that before, but Jerry gave him a couple of taps and he straightened right out." Foley indicated that Champali would have one more start prior to the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Oct. 30. second and placed third after drifting in during the stretch run of the Apr. 3 GI Santa Anita Derby, finished a distant second in the May 15 GI Preakness and a non-threatening fifth in the June 5 GI Belmont S. Favored at odds-on after the return to the West Coast, the ebony titan obliged his handlers by loading quietly into the starting gate, then broke well and tracked Boomzeeboom through moderate fractions. He took over as they raced out of the turn and pulled away while being kept to the task. "I'd been begging to ride this horse and he was absolutely awesome," jockey Corey Nakatani said. "It went without a hitch. He was just perfect. I just had to keep him focuses a little bit the last part." Added trainer Jason Orman, "I was a little concerned about coming out of the Belmont and coming back so soon, but he gave us every sign that he'd bounced out of that good and he proved it today. It didn't take as much out of him as people might have thought. I think he has developed quite a bit since the Belmont. He has matured a lot." It has not yet been decided where Rock Hard Ten will run next, but the Aug. 28 GI Travers S. at Saratoga in under consideration. Lightly raced Dream of Summer sprinted to a clear early advantage and never looked back, coasting to an easy victory in her initial attempt against stakes competition. Facing California-breds in her first two career starts, the gray mare took her debut at this track last June 5 before finishing a head second in a June 28 state-bred allowance test. Following a 4 1/2-length win at Del Mar Aug. 3, she was eased in an Aug. 3 turf sprint versus open company, but bounced back to close the year with a 1 3/4-length score at Santa Anita Oct. 10. In her lone trip to the post this season, the five-year-old was ridden out to a four-length optional claiming victory at this oval June 4, but was largely disregarded facing tougher in this spot. "She deserved a chance to run in this race," said winning jockey Mike Smith. "I certainly didn't think it would be that easy. She left there with running on her mind, got out there and really relaxed. She's been training for a performance like that today. I was glad to see it happen." Elloluv (Gilded Time), favored at 9-5 in her first start in over six months, chased the early pace, but tired from those efforts to finish sixth, beaten nearly six lengths.

Kitten's Joy has been nearly unbeatable since moving to the turf. The chestnut colt switched to the surface at Belmont last October and promptly broke his maiden by 4 1/2 lengths. He came back to take a Churchill allowance test in November, then took a short break before adding a win in the GIII Tropical Park Derby at Calder on New Year's Day. The Ramsey homebred had Prince Arch back in second in the Feb. 21 GIII Palm Beach S. at Gulfstream and the Apr. 30 GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. at Churchill, but had the tables turned by that rival in his latest, finishing a head runner-up in the June 12 GIII Jefferson Cup in Louisville. Looking to get back to his winning ways while stretching out to 10 furlongs, Kitten's Joy settled in sixth through the opening half, moved closer around the far turn and drove past favored Artie Schiller in the final furlong to win going away. Dazzle Me maintained her perfect record over the main track with an impressive front-running display. A 1 1/2-length maiden winner at first asking at the Fair Grounds Feb. 7, the gray filly was given a bit of a breather and returned to action with another gate-to-wire victory at Keeneland Apr. 4. She failed to negotiate a yielding Churchill turf course when only fourth at 3-1 in the five-furlong Open Mind S. May 15, but she rediscovered her winning ways in her most recent appearance, coming from just off the pace to register a three-length allowance success beneath the Twin Spires June 20. Dazzle Me sprinted to the lead and cut out fractions of :21.24 and :44.39 and drew off down the stretch to win easily. "I really wasn't surprised to see her on the lead. She's a fast filly," said winning trainer Steve Asmussen. "The turf race was my mistake. You take that race away and there isn't anything not to like about her." The winner is likely to go next in the GI Test S. at Saratoga July 31, a race won last year by the Asmussen-trained Lady Tak.

Film Maker posted a pair of upsets last season winning the GIII Lake George S. at Saratoga July 28 and the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. at Keeneland Oct. 11, then closed out her sophomore campaign with an eighth-place finish in the GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Nov. 15. Returning to the races five months later, she came up empty while sixth in the GIII Jenny Wiley S., but sprung to life most recently with a second-place effort in the GIII Gallorette H. behind Ocean Drive Preakness Day. Backed as the favorite by the Colonial faithful here, she saved ground while fourth, was eased out by the red-hot Edgar Prado for the stretch run and drew off to post an easy victory. Noisette led through pedestrian-like fractions of :25 4/5 and :50 3/5, but could do no better than second. Second-choice Sand Springs was rank after breaking slowly and tired badly to finish seventh.

Christine's Outlaw had flirted with graded stakes success at three, missing by a nose in the GIII Leonard Richards S. and finishing third in the GII Arkansas Derby. The dark bay returned from a four-month break with a sharp allowance win at Gulfstream Feb. 9 before finishing fifth in successive stakes on the main track: the GIII Skip Away H. Mar. 13 and GII Commonwealth Breeders' Cup H. Apr. 10. Given two months to re-group, Christine's Outlaw ran a bang-up second in his turf debut, missing by a neck in a seven-furlong test over this course on the Belmont undercard, then won going a mile and a sixteenth in a June 20 allowance. Jockey Shaun Bridgmohan allowed the four-year-old to roll along on the front end here and the pair turned for home with a full head of steam. Millennium Dragon gave chase in the stretch, but Christine's Outlaw pinned his ears and kept his head stubbornly in front all the way to the wire. "We'll probably point to something...at Saratoga, like the Fourstardave [GII, 8-28]," said winning trainer George Weaver. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Ocean Drive earned highweight of 120 pounds for the Eatontown after winning the GIII Gallorette S. at Pimlico May 15 and running second in the $250,000 GIII Nassau S. at Woodbine June 5. The well-traveled filly had competed in Florida earlier this term, finishing third in a Gulfstream allowance test in February and second in the Marshua's River S., and also notched a second-place finish behind Intercontinental (GB) in the GIII Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland. Teamed up with jockey Eibar Coa for the first time yesterday, she settled in second as 27-1 Honorable Cat coasted along through a half in :49.30 and six furlongs in 1:12.75. Ocean Drive closed to put a head in front at midstretch and quickly disposed of the pacesetter, drawing off to win handily. "The race went just as we had planned," said assistant trainer Anthony Sciametta said. "Ocean Drive has tactical speed, and Todd said to let her run away from the gate, but that if anyone else wanted the lead, to let them go. That's exactly the way it unfolded." Added Coa, "I knew I had the best horse in the race, at least that's how I rode her. I wanted to break good and see what everyone else did. She really showed a nice turn of foot today. I was waiting for someone to come to me, but she just took off."

Also ran: Pentecost (GB), Babodana (GB), Bowman's Crossing (Ire), Salselon (GB), New Seeker (GB), Dutch Gold, Suggestive (GB). Scratched: Tillerman (GB).

Shot to Fame has found a rich vein of form this term, winning a heavy-ground mile handicap at Kempton May 3 before beating Ancient World in a conditions event on a fast surface at Nottingham June 2. He lost out by only a head to Gateman in the Listed Midsummer S. at Windsor last time June 26, but reversed those placings under a perfectly judged ride from the in-form Frankie Dettori here. Stalking that rival in second throughout the early stages, Shot to Fame was pulled wide for his challenge inside the final quarter. Arriving outside of the long-time leader as they passed the eighth pole, he hit the front soon after and had enough in hand as that game rival rallied late. "Peter [Harris] told me he got into a match with Gateman last time and to delay my challenge today," the winning rider explained. "He dug deep, but the other one was coming back and I was glad the line came when it did."

Also ran: The Wise Lady (Fr), Blanche (Fr), Miss Emma (Ire), Malaica (Fr), Art Moderne, Glad To Be Fast (Ire). Scratched: Dobby Road (Fr), Together (Fr), Chineur (Fr).

The Trader showed he could compete with the best when he split Patavellian (Ire) and The Tatling (Ire) as the runner-up in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp in October. Sixth in his final start of the season, the G1 Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin in December, he came back to beat his two Prix de l'Abbaye rivals in the G3 Prix de Saint-Georges at Longchamp May 16 before finishing third in the G2 Prix du Gros-Chene at Chantilly June 6. He found the fast ground against him when 10th in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot last time June 15, but bounced back on this easier surface to record his fourth stakes success. Reined back in rear by Fergus Sweeney early, he was full of run as the long-time leader Swedish Shave was committed passing halfway. His rider dropped his whip as he quickened to reel in that rival with 150 yards remaining, but it was not required as The Trader forged clear in impressive fashion. "He hated the ground at Ascot last time," commented trainer Michael Blanshard. "I'd like to keep him at five so he may go to York for the G1 Nunthorpe S. [at York Aug. 19] and the ultimate objective is the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp [Oct. 3]."

7	Tangle (Ire)	Bob Back	C Dollase	5-1

Pesci is still looking for her first stakes victory, but the four-year-old filly just might get the job done this time. After an impressive 8 1/2-length win in an allowance over track and trip Apr. 30, the bay just failed to hold off Summer Wind Dancer in the GIII Hawthorne H. June 6, but was 10 lengths clear of the others. She drilled five-eighths in :59 3/5 last Sunday. "She started slowly and came smoking home," said trainer Wesley Ward. But Pesci will have to deal with the Grade I-winning duo of Star Parade and Victory Encounter, each of whom has not been out since the GI Vanity H. May 9. Victory Encounter had her picture taken that day, with Star Parade third.

The second half of his sophomore season begins here for The Cliff's Edge. An impressive winner of the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. in April, the handsome colt had a rough trip when fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby, losing two shoes. Foot problems kept him out of the GI Preakness S., and trainer Nick Zito opted to take his time with the Robert LaPenta colorbearer. "This is a stepping stone for Cliff," said the conditioner. "This race will get him back on a high level. I'm thinking long term with him." The enigmatic Shaniko will take another stab at stakes company. Owned by Aaron and Marie Jones, the dark bay rebounded from a ninth in the GII Louisiana Derby to take an Aqueduct allowance Apr. 10 and followed that with a second to subsequent MassCap victor Offlee Wild in a local allowance May 14. But he caught a sloppy track in the GIII Northern Dancer S. June 12 at Churchill, tiring to finish 11th, and this race represents a crossroads for the colt's career. "He's been a little bit of a frustration," acknowledged trainer Todd Pletcher. "We know the talent's there. It's a matter of putting it all together mentally. One of these days, I think he's going to do it."

Two past winners, Martillo and Sambaprinz, go head to head in this contest, but it is the former who holds strong claims of winning back-to-back renewals. After turning the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen into a procession at three, he was far from disgraced when third after a troubled trip in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot the following month.

He had this year's G3 Badener Meile winner Bear King back in third when taking this race 12 months ago, but disappointed when seventh in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville in August. Sidelined after that effort, he returned to finish fifth in the G1 Dubai Duty Free at Nad al Sheba Mar. 27 before gaining a narrow success in the G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud May 1. He has to bounce back from a below-par ninth in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot last time June 15, but he faces a far easier task here. Assiu took the G3 Dr Busch-Memorial at Krefeld Apr. 18 before finding only Brunel (Ire) a half-length too strong in the Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen last time May 16 and rates a threat.

JAPAN FOAL SALE STARTS MONDAY The Japan Racing Horse Association will conduct the Select Foal Sale July 12 and 13 at Northern Horse Park on Hokkaido, Japan. Recent graduates of the sale include this year's Japan Derby hero King Kamehameha and Sundrop (Jpn), runner-up in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket. They sold for ¥78 million and ¥50 million, respectively, at the 2001 sale. "This should convince owners and trainers that this is the place to come," said Teruya Yoshida, vice chairman of JRHA and owner of Shadai Farm, perennially among the leading consignors at this unique sale.

"We received the biggest numbers of entries from breeders and I am proud of this year's catalogue, which is very selective and the best we have ever assembled." The late Sunday Silence, who had sired the saletopper in each of the past six years, had his final crop sell in 2003, but Yoshida feels the auction can rebound from that loss. "I was certainly worried about it when we lost Sunday Silence," he said. "However, I have seen many encouraging facts since then. For example, my farm has received the most ever owners and trainers to inspect our consignments, including new owners who got into this game recently, and they are very enthusiastic about finding the right horses to buy. Also, the economy is bouncing back, so I am optimistic. I understand that people are concerned about the top of the market, which was dominated by Sunday Silence, but I think we will see some seven-figure lots [in US$], and maybe a $2-million lot." The two-day sale will introduce youngsters from the first crops of top runners Admire Cozzene (Jpn), Jungle Pocket (Jpn), Marienbard (Ire) and Swept Overboard as well as the established Japanese stallions Brian's Time, Dance in the Dark (Jpn), Dehere, French Deputy and Fuji Kiseki (Jpn). There will also be representatives of overseas stallions, including Daylami (Ire), Fantastic Light, Forestry, Fusaichi Pegasus, Gone West, King's Best, Rahy, Seeking the Gold, Singspiel (Ire), Theatrical (Ire) and War Chant. Catalogues are available on-line at www.jrha.or.jp. The sale will be broadcast live on last spring from Cam Gambolati, campaigning him to wins in the G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint, GIII Kentucky Cup Sprint and the GIII Mr. Prospector H. The four-year-old had been turned out at co-owner Satish Sanan's Florida farm following a fourth in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen Mar. 27.

"Naturally, I'm disappointed and a little surprised I won't be getting him back, considering nobody had really heard of this horse when I got him this time last year and the success I had with him," Margolis told DRF. "I've never been given an explanation why the change was made, but that's part of the business, I guess. I consider myself fortunate to have had a horse like him. I got to win a Breeders' Cup and go to Dubai, and no matter what happens, they can never take those memories away." Cajun Beat races for the partnership of Sanan's Padua Stable and John and Joseph Iracane. Nadia Sanan indicated that the dark bay would likely have two starts before defending his title in the Breeders' Cup, but had no specific comment on the transfer. "It's a decision made by the owners," she told DRF.

Hard Buck to Ascot:

Despite his fifth-place finish in last Saturday's GI United Nations H. at Monmouth Park, Hard Buck (Brz) (Spend a Buck) boarded a flight Friday afternoon bound for England, where he will start in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. July 24. The winner earlier this year of the G1 Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. and second in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic, the five-year-old finished 4 1/2 lengths adrift of Request For Parole in the U.N. "He didn't like the track at all that day," Hanne Jorgensen, assistant to trainer Ken McPeck, told Daily Racing Form. "It was much too hard for him. Art Fan hadn't visited the winner's circle since a Belmont allowance tally last September, but that all changed thanks to a heady ride by Ryan Fogelsonger. She followed a good second-place finish in the Hilltop S. May 8 with a third-place finish in the restricted Terpsichorist S. last out May 27. Trying new tactics here, she was sent to the front, led through :25 2/5 and :50 2/5 fractions, opened a 4 1/2-length lead in the stretch and had enough left to hold the favorite safe.

Whenthe dove flies, the lone filly in the field, was unbeaten in four previous turf attempts at five furlongs and was backed as the crowd's favorite vs. 10 rivals. She was last seen wiring the Cool Air S. over course and distance after setting fractions of :20 3/5 and :43 May 23 and used similar tactics here under Pat Day. The bay broke well from the nine hole, dueled with the second-place finisher through a half in :43 3/5 and outgamed that rival to post a narrow victory. "She's a unique filly to train," winning trainer Kirk Ziadie said. "We knew she had the pedigree and the feet to be a turf horse, but she's strictly a sprinter. She had beaten all the fillies, so we tried her here. There aren't a lot of stakes opportunities for turf sprinters. We'll have to look around and see what's available."

Off the board in a pair of starts over the main track to begin his career, War Trace came to life with a half-length maiden victory when switched to the turf at Gulfstream Mar. 17. The bay stepped up to stakes level for his next, but turned in a disappointing seventh-place finish as the favorite in the Forerunner S. at Keeneland Apr. 15. A 1/2-length allowance winner at Belmont May 13, the Phillips homebred was most recently fifth of six in the GIII Hill Prince S. June 6. At the back of the pack early, War Trace kicked it in on the far turn, swung wide for the drive and was going well late.

Make it 10 in a row for Pembroke Hall, who shipped in from his Fort Erie base to score his most valuable win to date. It had been nearly four years since the seven-year-old last tested something other than claiming company. Haltered for $21,000 (Canadian) out of a victory at Fort Erie last July, he had started three times since, winning his first start under new management in September, then returning with another score May 11. The bay had most recently posted a two-length victory over $25,000 claimers at the Ontario track June 1. Quickly into stride, Pembroke Hall drifted out a bit past the eighth pole, but held dourly for the win. "Give credit to the owner. He picked him out...just to run in this race," said winning trainer Donald MacRae. "He just runs in these [two-furlong] races because he's a bad bleeder and this is as far as he can go." Caller One, making his first start in 26 months, was off awkwardly, but was gaining inches late. He seven-year-old will stay in Florida with trainer Laura Posada.

+MIRACLE MAKER (c, 2, Out of Place--Jandi Lee, by Kris S.) had been training sharply for his debut, going five furlongs in :59 4/5 June 27 and putting in a bullet half in :47 1/5 out of the gate July 4. Well-backed at 3-1 in his career opener, the $35,000 OBSAUG yearling and $137,000 BESMAR juvenile didn't show a lot of early foot, but came three wide into the stretch and, despite lugging in late, got up for a 1 1/2-length victory over the speedy Cash in the Bank (Robyn Dancer). Runner-up to Patavellian (Ire) in the Stewards Cup H. at Goodwood last August and in the Listed Scarbrough S. at Doncaster the following month, Fire up the Band had lost his way this term. After a disappointing effort when down the field in the Wokingham H. at Royal Ascot last time June 19, the decision was made to drop back to this furious five in a bid to revive his fortunes. Breaking well from his favorable low berth, he manipulated the tight turns of Chester in front and had more to give as first Dragon Flyer and then Talbot Avenue challenged in the short straight.

Distinction failed to cut any ice when only fifth behind The Whistling Teal (GB) in the Listed Aston Park S. at Newbury May 15, but he shouldered a considerable burden to record a deserved first stakes success here. Settled in midpack under cover by Kieren Fallon, he made steady progress in the straight to challenge approaching the eighth pole and grabbed the lead there. Pressed by Star Member all the way to the line, he pulled out extra to assert and win a shade cosily.

Arcalis was purchased by the Northern accountancy supremo Graham Wylie to satisfy his passion for national hunt racing, but he sprang a surprise in the flat sphere when overhauling the Queen's Promotion in the final strides of this contest. Campaigned by Linda Ramsden last term, he progressed as the season wore on, picking up handicaps at Leicester, Pontefract and Newmarket. He made a successful debut for his new connections at Ayr May 21 and defied a disadvantageous high draw to take this prestigious prize. Settled in mid-division early by Robert Winston, he followed in Promotion's slipstream to shadow that rival's move at the quarter pole. Battling tenaciously in the closing stages, he got up in the final strides without the assistance of his jockey's persuader. "I lost the whip after the furlong pole," admitted Winston. "I just prayed then and gave it all and the horse responded very well."

DUBOIS (GB) (c, 3, Sadler's Wells--Dazzle {GSW & G1SP-GB, $153,159}, by Gone West) took a Goodwood maiden May 18 before disappointing when 10th in a Sandown handicap last time June 1. Taken to the front in the early stages here, he benefited from an inspired ride from Frankie Dettori, who avoided the worst of the ground by racing under the trees on the back straight before crossing over to seal the result in a matter of strides. Clear at the eighth pole, the 9-2 co-favorite kept up the gallop to beat Saffron Fox (GB) (Safawan {GB}) by three lengths and complete Dettori's four-win afternoon. Lifetime Record: 5-2-1-0, £12,414. ANATOLIAN QUEEN (f, 3, Woodman--Imia {SP-Fr}, by Riverman), third on debut at Kempton May 3 and fourth last time at Windsor June 21, started at odds of 11-2. The $75,000 KEESEP yearling raced just off the pace in third for the first half of this one. Under pressure from the quarter-mile marker, she challenged on the outside at the eighth pole and kept on in determined fashion in the latter stages to outlast Noora (Ire) (Bahhare) by a length. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, £6,823. O-Y Gelgin; B-Flaxman Holdings Ltd; T-James Eustace.

NEWBURY GET THE KING GEORGE

Officials at Ascot racecourse have announced that Newbury will stage next year's two-day King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. meeting. The Berkshire venue was confirmed as the stage for the mid-summer showpiece after missing out on hosting the Royal meeting, which will take place at York, re-routed due to Ascot's £185 million redevelopment scheme.
